Additional information about Daniel Saur is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Educational Background and Business Experience

Daniel Saur

Year of birth: 1963

Formal education:

- Stephen F. Austin State University – 1985 - BAAS
- Dallas Theological Seminary – 1992 - ThM

Business background:

- D.R. Saur Financial, Inc. (10/93 to present) – Financial Advisor, Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of the Board

Exams taken:

- Uniform Securities Agent Law Examination, Series 63, November 1993 and July 2008
- General Securities Exam, Series 2, February 1994
- Registered Investment Advisor Representative since 1994
- General Lines Agent. Life, Accident, Health, HMO, July 1997
- General Securities Representative Exam, Series 7, March 2008

Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisors are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to the evaluation of D.R. Saur Financial, Inc. or the integrity of D.R. Saur Financial, Inc.'s advisors. Daniel Saur has no information applicable to this section.

Other Business Activities

In addition to his association with D.R. Saur Financial, Inc. Registered Investment Advisor, Mr. Saur is:

- a registered representative of Kalos Capital, Inc. (a registered broker/dealer)
- a licensed insurance agent

As a registered representative of a broker-dealer, Mr. Saur may receive commissions or other compensation from the sale of mutual funds or other products. (For example, Mr. Saur may receive "12b-1 fees," which are fees paid by mutual fund companies for the on-going marketing of their investment products).

Mr. Saur is also licensed with Kalos Financial, a state licensed insurance agency. Commissions may be earned by financial advisors if insurance products are purchased through insurance companies.

While many people would view the wide variety of products and services available to the client as a great advantage, others may see a conflict of interest. Since there are various ways the advisor could receive compensation, there could be a conflict of interest if the advisor was intentionally trying to create one particular type of income rather than another as his recommendation could be based on the type of income he wanted to receive rather than what is in the best interest of the client.

Clients are not required to do business with Mr. Saur in any of these capacities.

Additional Compensation

Mr. Saur may receive compensation for his activities as an insurance agent. This compensation is described under “Other Business Activities” above.

Supervision

Daniel Saur is supervised by the compliance officers of D.R. Saur Financial, Inc. D.R. Saur Financial, Inc. compliance officers can be reached at 214.559.3944.

D.R. Saur Financial, Inc. compliance officers supervise Mr. Saur by requiring that he adhere to processes and procedures as described in the firm’s Code of Ethics. Compliance officers will monitor the advice that Mr. Saur gives by performing these reviews:

- A review of relevant account opening documentation when relationships are established
- Review of custodial information on a quarterly basis to assess account activity
- Perform annual oversight so that clients have the opportunity to make Mr. Saur aware of their current financial situation, objectives, and individual investment needs
- A periodic review of client correspondence
