Disciplinary Information

Brian Bouillet has no disciplinary history with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or state regulatory authorities.

Other Business Activities

Mr. Bouillet is a registered representative of Securities America, Inc. In this separate capacity, he may sell securities products to clients and may receive commissions. This is a potential conflict of interest since any commissions earned could be in addition to advisory fees earned in his capacity as an investment advisor representative. As a registered representative, Mr. Bouillet could receive 12(b)-1 fees (annual marketing or distribution fees) paid by mutual funds. Receiving 12(b)-1 fees represents an incentive for him to recommend funds with 12(b)-1 fees or with higher 12(b)-1 fees than funds with no fees or lower fees. This is a potential conflict of interest.

Clients are free to select any broker/dealer they wish to implement securities transactions and could receive comparable services from other sources at lower cost. However, if clients select Mr. Bouillet to implement securities transactions, he is required to use Securities America, Inc. because of his affiliation as a registered representative. As a Securities America, Inc. registered representative, he is restricted to only offering those products and services that have been reviewed and approved for offering to the public by Securities America, Inc. and for which the broker/dealer has obtained a selling agreement. Mr. Bouillet only recommends mutual funds and other investment products to clients if they are suitable for the client and appropriate to fulfill client's objectives.

Brian Bouillet is also independently licensed as an insurance agent. As an insurance agent, he may sell insurance products to clients and receive commissions when doing so. This is a potential conflict of interest, since commissions earned could be in addition to advisory fees earned in his capacity as an investment advisor representative. Clients are never obligated or required to purchase insurance products from or through KCPAG Insurance Services LLC or Mr. Bouillet and may select any independent insurance agent and insurance company to purchase insurance products. Regardless of the insurance agent selected, the insurance agent or agency will receive normal commissions from the sale.

Mr. Bouillet spends the majority of his work week on advisory, securities, and insurance matters and a few hours per month on his other affiliations. These activities are conducted during normal securities trading hours.

Brian Bouillet is also President of Shaker Prairie Shop, Inc., a small, family-owned manufacturing business. Mr. Bouillet provides oversight and administrative duties in his capacity. These activities are conducted outside normal securities trading hours.

Additional Compensation

Certain product sponsors may provide Brian Bouillet with other economic benefits as a result of his recommending or selling the product sponsors' investments. The economic benefits he receives from product sponsors can include, but are not limited to, financial assistance or the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses and tools to assist him in providing various services to clients.

KCPAG Financial Advisors LLC and Brian Bouillet endeavor at all times to put the interest of clients ahead of their own interests or those of the advisor's officers, directors, or representatives. However, these arrangements could affect Mr. Bouillet's judgment when recommending investment products and present a conflict of interest that may affect his judgment.
