1. Full name of applicant exactly as stated in Item 1A of Part I of Form ADV: OJM Group		IRS Empl. Ident. No.: 31-1631718
Item of Form (identify)	Answer
1D	OJM Group (the "Registrant") is an investment adviser providing financial planning, consulting, and investment management services to individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations and business entities. The Registrant, depending upon the engagement, offers its services on a fee basis which may include hourly and/or fixed fees. Alternatively, certain of the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates may offer securities brokerage services and insurance products under a commission arrangement, which may be used to offset the Registrant's fees (as discussed below). Prior to engaging the Registrant to provide any of the foregoing investment advisory services, the client will be required to enter into one or more written agreements with the Registrant setting forth the terms and conditions under which the Registrant shall render its services (collectively the "Agreement"). FINANCIAL PLANNING AND CONSULTATION SERVICES The Registrant may provide its clients with a broad range of comprehensive financial planning and consulting services (which may include tax-related and other non-investment related matters). The Registrant will charge a fixed fee and/or hourly fee for these services. The Registrant's financial planning and consulting fees are negotiable, but generally range from $2,500 to $10,000 on a fixed fee basis for individual clients and $2,500 to $10,000 for corporate clients. Alternatively, the Registrant may charge on an hourly rate basis ranging from $100 to $350, depending upon the level and scope of the services and the professional rendering the financial planning and/or the consulting services. If the client engages the Registrant for additional investment advisory services, the Registrant may offset all or a portion of its fees for those services based upon the amount paid for the financial planning and/or consulting services. Prior to engaging the Registrant to provide financial planning and/or consulting services, the client will generally be required to enter into a written agreement with the Registrant setting forth the terms and conditions of the engagement and describing the scope of the services to be provided and the portion of the fee that is due from the client prior to the Registrant commencing services. Generally, the Registrant requires one-half of the financial planning / consulting fee (estimated hourly or fixed) payable upon entering the written agreement. The balance is generally due upon delivery of the financial plan or completion of the agreed upon services. Either party may terminate the agreement by written notice to the other. In the event the client terminates the Registrant's financial planning and/or consulting services, the balance of the Registrant's unearned fees (if any) shall be refunded to the client. If termination occurs within five business days of entering into an agreement for such services the client shall be entitled to a full refund. In performing its services, the Registrant shall not be required to verify any information received from the client or from the client's other professionals (e.g., attorney, accountant, etc.) and is expressly authorized to rely on such information. The Registrant may recommend the services of itself, its Advisory Affiliates in their individual capacities as registered representatives of a broker-dealer, and/or other professionals to implement its recommendations. Clients are advised that a conflict of interest exists if the Registrant recommends its own services. The client is under no obligation to act upon any of the recommendations made by the Registrant under a financial planning / consulting engagement and/or engage the services of any such recommended professional, including the Registrant itself. The client retains absolute discretion over all such implementation decisions and is free to accept or reject any of the Registrant's recommendations. Moreover, each client is advised that it remains his/her/its responsibility to promptly notify the Registrant if there is ever any change in his/her/its financial situation or investment objectives for the purpose of reviewing, evaluating, or revising the Registrant's previous recommendations and/or services. INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES The Registrant offers investment management services including ongoing and continuous portfolio management and review. In the delivery of initial and ongoing services, the Registrant may include a review of the overall aspects of a client's current financial situation and consider both long and short- term objectives. The Registrant can also tailor services to focus only on certain portfolio components, depending upon the client's wishes and/or the nature of the engagement. The Registrant welcomes the opportunity to provide individualized services. However, where investment management services or information are limited, clients must understand that comprehensive investment needs and or objectives may not be fully considered due to the client's option not to receive limited services, the lack of information received, and/or client disclosure.

Clients engaging the Registrant for investment management services must play an active role. The Registrant requires the client to participate in the formation of the investment plan, investment advice and recommendations. Clients may call the office to discuss their portfolio or ask questions, but the Registrant recommends that clients initiate a meeting with the Registrant no less than annually. However, clients are obligated to immediately inform the Registrant of any changes in their financial situation to provide the Registrant with the opportunity to review the portfolio to ensure it is still structured to help meet the client's stated needs and objectives.

The Registrant provides investment management services on a fee basis. The Registrant charges an annual fee based upon a percentage of the market value of the assets being managed by the Registrant. As discussed in response to Item 12B (below), the Registrant's annual fee is exclusive of, and in addition to brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses which shall be incurred by the client. However, the Registrant shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs. The Registrant's annual fee shall be prorated and charged quarterly, in arrears based upon the market value of the assets on the last day of the previous quarter. The annual fee shall vary depending upon the market value of the assets under management and the type of investment management services to be rendered, as follows:

PORTFOLIO VALUE	ANNUAL FEE
up to $1,000,000	1.50%
$1,000,001 - $3,000,000	1.00%
$3,000,001 - $10,000,000	0.75%
above $10,000,000	Negotiable%

WEALTH MANAGEMENT SERVICES

In addition, the Registrant may provide its clients with wealth management services which generally includes maximizing creditor protection of personal and practice assets; analyzing current titling of assets and recommendations; tax issues; investment options and financial performance; budget, cash flow and retirement issues and/or projections; creative financial planning recommendations; evaluation of insurance options; wealth protection; and other areas that may be desired. The Registrant can tailor services as desired by the client. When Wealth Planning Services only focus on certain areas of client interests, needs or is otherwise limited, clients must understand that a client's overall financial and investment needs and objectives may not be considered as a result of time and/or service restraints placed on the Registrant's services. Clients requiring assistance on issues relating to matters outside of investment advisory topics should consult their personal tax adviser, legal counsel, or other professionals for expert opinions. If requested, the Registrant can work in conjunction with the client's selected legal counsel or certified public accountant. Wealth Management Services can be hourly or project based but is most frequently provided on a retainer basis ranging from $2,500 to $10,000 depending on the scope of services provided

As further discussed in response to Item 10 (below), the Registrant does not impose an account minimum for starting or maintaining an account; however, as further discussed in response to Item 10 (below), the Registrant generally imposes a minimum annual fee for its investment management services. The Registrant, in its sole discretion, may negotiate to waive its stated account minimum or charge a lesser management fee based upon certain criteria (i.e., anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, pre-existing client, account retention, pro bono activities, etc.).

The Registrant offers advice on each type of investment described in Part II of Form ADV (Item 3). However, the Registrant intends to primarily allocate its client's investment management assets, on a discretionary and/or a non-discretionary basis among Independent Managers (as defined below), mutual funds, exchange traded funds, individual debt and equity securities and/or options as well as the securities components of variable annuities and variable life insurance contracts in accordance with the investment objectives of the client.

As further discussed in response to Item 12B (below), the Registrant shall generally recommend that clients utilize the brokerage and clearing services of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. (“Schwab”), TD AMERITRADE Institutional, a division of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. (“TD Ameritrade”) and Credit Suisse Group. (“Credit Suisse”) for investment management accounts.

The Registrant may only implement its investment management recommendations after the client has arranged for and furnished the Registrant with all information and authorization regarding accounts with appropriate financial institutions. Financial institutions shall include, but are not limited to, Schwab, TD Ameritrade, Credit Suisse, any other broker-dealer recommended by the Registrant, broker-dealer directed by the client, trust companies, banks etc. (collectively referred to herein as the “Financial Institution(s)”).

Clients may incur certain charges imposed by the Financial Institution(s) and other third parties such as fees charged by Independent Managers (as defined below), custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund or exchange traded fund in the account, which shall be disclosed in the fund’s prospectus (e.g., fund management fees and other fund expenses), deferred sales charges, odd-lot differentials, transfer taxes, wire transfer and electronic fund fees, and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions. Additionally, for assets outside of any wrap fee programs, clients may incur brokerage commissions and transaction fees. Such charges, fees and commissions are exclusive of and in addition to the Registrant’s fee.

The Registrant’s Agreement and/or the separate agreement with the Financial Institution(s) may authorize the Registrant through the Financial Institution(s) to debit the client’s account for the amount of the Registrant’s fee and to directly remit that management fee to the Registrant in accordance with applicable custody rules. The Financial Institution(s) recommended by the Registrant have agreed to send a statement to the client, at least quarterly, indicating all amounts disbursed from the account including the amount of management fees paid directly to the Registrant.

For certain clients, the Registrant may manage client portfolios by allocating portfolio assets among various mutual funds / securities on a discretionary basis using one or more of its proprietary investment strategies (collectively referred to as “investment strategy”). In so doing, the Registrant shall buy, sell, exchange and/or transfer shares of mutual funds / securities based upon the investment strategy.

The Registrant’s management using the investment strategy has been designed to comply with the requirements of Rule 3a-4 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. Rule 3a-4 provides similarly managed accounts, such as the investment strategy, with a safe harbor from the definition of an investment company. In accordance with Rule 3a-4, the following features have been specifically included in the Registrant’s management using the investment strategy:

1. Initial Interview – an initial interview is conducted with each client to determine the client’s financial circumstances, goals, acceptable levels of risk, any reasonable restrictions on the management of their account, and other relevant circumstances;
2. Individual Treatment – the client’s account is managed on the basis of the client’s financial circumstances and investment objectives;
3. Consultation – an Advisory Affiliate of the Registrant knowledgeable about the client’s account shall be reasonably available to consult with the client relative to the status and management of their account;
4. Notice of Transactions – the client shall receive notice of all transactions in their account as if they had maintained a similar account outside of the investment strategy;
5. Quarterly Statement – the client shall be provided with a quarterly statement containing a description of all activity in the their account;
6. Ability to Impose Restrictions – the client shall have the ability to impose reasonable restrictions on the management of their account, including the ability to instruct the Registrant not to purchase certain securities or types of securities;
7. No Pooling – the client’s beneficial interest in a security does not represent an undivided interest in all the securities held by the custodian, but rather represents a direct and beneficial interest in the securities which comprise the client’s account;
8. Separate Account – a separate account is maintained for the client with the custodian; and
9. Ownership - each client retains indicia of ownership of the account (e.g. right to withdraw securities or cash, exercise or delegate proxy voting, and receive transaction confirmations).

In addition to the foregoing, clients may, in writing, place reasonable limitations upon the Registrant’s discretionary authority. The investment strategy may involve an above-average portfolio turnover that could negatively impact upon the net after-tax gain experienced by an individual client. Securities in the investment strategy are usually exchanged and/or transferred without regard to a client's individual tax ramifications. Certain investment opportunities that become available to the Registrant's clients may be limited. For example, various mutual funds or insurance companies may limit the ability of the Registrant to buy, sell, exchange or transfer securities consistent with its investment strategy. As further discussed in response to Item 12B (below), in order to meet its fiduciary duties to all of its clients, the Registrant will endeavor to allocate investment opportunities among its clients on a fair and equitable basis. Participation in the Registrant's investment strategy carries additional risk to clients in that a mutual fund or insurance company may unilaterally restrict and/or prohibit the Registrant's trading activities thus prohibiting it from managing the assets consistent with the investment strategy.

The Registrant may also recommend that certain clients authorize the active discretionary management of a portion of their assets by and/or among certain independent investment manager(s) either directly or through a wrap fee program ("Independent Manager(s)"), based upon the stated investment objectives of the client. The terms and conditions under which the client shall engage the Independent Manager(s) shall be set forth in separate written agreements between (1) the client and the Registrant and (2) the Registrant or client and the designated Independent Manager(s) and/or wrap fee program sponsor. The Registrant shall continue to render advisory services to the client relative to the ongoing monitoring and review of account performance, for which the Registrant shall receive an annual advisory fee which is based upon a percentage of the market value of the assets being managed by the designated Independent Manager(s). Factors that the Registrant shall consider in recommending Independent Manager(s) include the client's stated investment objective(s), management style, performance, reputation, financial strength, reporting, pricing, and research. The investment management fees charged by the designated Independent Manager(s), together with the fees charged by the wrap fee program sponsor and corresponding designated broker-dealer/custodian of the client's assets, may be exclusive of, and in addition to, the Registrant's investment advisory fee set forth above. As discussed above, the client may incur additional fees than those charged by the Registrant, the designated Independent Manager(s), wrap fee program sponsor (if applicable), and corresponding broker-dealer and custodian.

In addition to the Registrant's written disclosure statement, the client shall also receive the written disclosure statement of the designated Independent Manager(s) and wrap fee program sponsor (if applicable). Certain Independent Manager(s) may impose more restrictive account requirements and varying billing practices than the Registrant. In such instances, the Registrant may alter its corresponding account requirements and/or billing practices to accommodate those of the Independent Manager(s) or wrap fee program sponsor.

If the Registrant refers a client to certain Independent Manager(s) where the Registrant's compensation is included in the advisory fee charged by such Independent Manager(s) and the client engages those Independent Manager(s), the Registrant shall be compensated for its services by receipt of a fee to be paid directly by the Independent Manager(s) to the Registrant in accordance with the requirements of Rule 206(4)-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and any corresponding state securities laws, rules, regulations, or requirements. Any such fee shall be paid solely from the Independent Manager(s) investment management fee or the program fee of the wrap fee program (as appropriate), and shall not result in any additional charge to the client.

The Registrant also may render non-discretionary investment management services to clients relative to: variable life/annuity products that they may own, their individual employer-sponsored retirement plans, and/or 529 plans or other products that may not be held by the client's primary custodian. In so doing, the Registrant either directs or recommends the allocation of client assets among the various investment options that are available with the product. The client assets shall be maintained at the specific insurance company or custodian designated by the product.

The client may make additions to and withdrawals from the account at any time, subject to the Registrant's right to terminate an account. Clients may withdraw account assets on notice to the Registrant, subject to the usual and customary securities settlement procedures. However, the Registrant designs its portfolios as long-term investments and the withdrawal of assets may impair the achievement of a client's investment objectives.

The Registrant's investment management fee is generally inclusive of any investment-related consulting services. For non-investment management clients and investment management clients that

In these limited circumstances, an additional hourly or fixed fee shall be agreed upon prior to rendering the consulting services. For the initial period of investment management services, the first period's fees shall be calculated on a pro rata basis. The Agreement between the Registrant and the client will continue in effect until terminated by either party pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. The Registrant's annual fee shall be prorated through the date of termination and any remaining balance shall be charged or refunded to the client, as appropriate, in a timely manner. Additions may be in cash or securities provided that the Registrant reserves the right to liquidate any transferred securities, or decline to accept particular securities into a client's account. The Registrant may consult with its clients about the options and ramifications of transferring securities. However, clients are advised that when transferred securities are liquidated, they are subject to transaction fees, fees assessed at the mutual fund level (i.e. contingent deferred sales charge) and/or tax ramifications. The Registrant's clients are advised to promptly notify the Registrant if there are ever any changes in their financial situation or investment objectives or if they wish to impose any reasonable restrictions upon the Registrant's management services. Neither the Registrant nor the client may assign the Agreement without the consent of the other party. Transactions that do not result in a change of actual control or management of the Registrant shall not be considered an assignment. A copy of the Registrant's privacy policy notice and a written disclosure statement that meets the requirements of Rule 204-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended ("Advisers Act"), shall be provided to each client prior to or contemporaneously with the execution of the Agreement. Any client who has not received a copy of the Registrant's written disclosure statement at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to executing the Agreement shall have five (5) business days subsequent to executing the agreement to terminate the Registrant's services without penalty. The Registrant does not vote proxies on behalf of its clients.
3L	The Registrant may also provide advice about exchange traded funds (ETFs) and any type of investment held in a client's portfolio at the beginning of the advisory relationship.
3L, 4A(5), 4B(8), and 4C(7)	As further discussed in the response to Item 1D (above), the Registrant may recommend that clients authorize the active discretionary management of a portion of their assets by and/or among certain Independent Manager(s), based upon the stated investment objectives of the client. The Registrant shall continue to render services to the client relative to the discretionary selection of Independent Manager(s) as well as the monitoring and review of account performance and client investment objectives. When recommending an Independent Manager for a client, the Registrant shall review information about the Independent Manager(s) such as its disclosure statement and/or material supplied by the Independent Manager(s) or independent third parties for a description of the Independent Manager's investment strategies, past performance and risk results to the extent available. In addition to the methods of analysis, sources of information and investment strategies listed in Item 4 by the Registrant, the Independent Manager(s) may utilize other methods, sources and strategies, all of which will be described on such Independent Manager(s) Form ADV.
5	All individuals that render investment advisory services on behalf of the Registrant must have earned a college degree and/or have substantive investment-related experience. In addition, all such individuals shall have attained all required investment-related licenses and/or designations.

Additionally, certain of the Registrant’s Advisory Affiliates, in their individual capacities, are licensed insurance agents with various insurance companies, and in such capacity, may recommend, on a fully-disclosed basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. 7B, 9B and 13A	In the event the client desires, the client can engage certain persons associated with the Registrant (but not the Registrant) to render securities brokerage services under a commission arrangement. Under this arrangement, the client may implement securities transactions through certain of the Registrant’s Advisory Affiliates (as defined below), in their respective individual capacities as registered representatives of LifeMark Securities, Princor Financial Services Corporation or Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments (each an Independent Broker Dealer and collectively “IBDS”), each an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of the FINRA. Brokerage commissions may be charged by IBDS to effect these securities transactions and thereafter, a portion of these commissions may be paid by IBDS to such Advisory Affiliates. Prior to effecting any transactions, the client will be required to enter into a new account agreement with IBDS. The brokerage commissions charged by IBDS may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. In addition, certain of the Registrant’s Advisory Affiliates (as applicable), may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 fees for mutual fund purchases from the mutual fund company during the period that the client maintains the mutual fund investment. While the Registrant does not sell such securities products to its investment advisory clients, the Registrant does permit its Advisory Affiliates, in their individual capacities as registered representatives of IBDS, to sell securities products to its investment advisory clients. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that the Registrant recommends the purchase of securities where the Registrant’s Advisory Affiliates receive commissions or other additional compensation as a result of the Registrant’s recommendations.

	For accounts covered by ERISA (and such others that the Registrant, in its sole discretion deems appropriate), the Registrant may modify the foregoing commission arrangement to allow for its investment advisory services to be rendered on a fee-offset basis. In this scenario, the Registrant may offset its fees by an amount equal to the aggregate commissions and 12b-1 fees earned by the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates in their individual capacities as registered representatives of IBDS. The Registrant's Advisory Affiliates currently devote up to fifty percent (50%) of their time to commission securities brokerage business.

The Registrant anticipates that its principal executive officers will spend up to twenty-five percent (25%) of their time to this business.

In accordance with Section 204A of the Advisers Act, its Code of Ethics contains written policies reasonably designed to prevent the unlawful use of material non-public information by the Registrant or any of its associated persons. The Code of Ethics also requires that certain of the Registrant's personnel (called "Access Persons") report their personal securities holdings and transactions and obtain pre-approval of certain investments such as initial public offerings and limited offerings. Clients may contact the Registrant to request a copy of its Code of Ethics. Unless specifically permitted in the Registrant's Code of Ethics, none of the Registrant's Access Persons may effect for themselves or for their immediate family (i.e., spouse, minor children, and adults living in the same household as the Access Person) any transactions in a security which is being actively purchased or sold, or is being considered for purchase or sale, on behalf of any of the Registrant's clients. When the Registrant is purchasing or considering for purchase any security on behalf of a client, no Access Person may effect a transaction in that security prior to the completion of the purchase or until a decision has been made not to purchase such security. Similarly, when the Registrant is selling or considering the sale of any security on behalf of a client, no Access Person may effect a transaction in that security prior to the completion of the sale or until a decision has been made not to sell such security. For those clients to whom the Registrant provides financial planning and/or consulting services, reviews are conducted on an “as needed” basis. Such reviews are conducted by one of the Registrant’s investment adviser representatives. All investment advisory clients are encouraged to discuss their needs, goals, and objectives with the Registrant and to keep the Registrant informed of any changes thereto. The Registrant shall contact ongoing investment advisory clients at least annually to review its previous services and/or recommendations and to discuss the impact resulting from any changes in the client’s financial situation and/or investment objectives.

12A, 12B and 13A	Please see the previous responses set forth on this Schedule F to Item 1D. Except as provided for in any applicable wrap fee program, the brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees charged by Schwab, TD Ameritrade, Credit Suisse or any other designated broker-dealer are exclusive of and in addition to the Registrant’s fee. Factors which the Registrant considers in recommending Schwab, TD Ameritrade, Credit Suisse or any other broker-dealer, to clients include their respective financial strength, reputation, execution, pricing, research, and service. The commissions and/or transaction fees charged by Schwab, TD Ameritrade, Credit Suisse may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. The commissions paid by the Registrant’s clients shall comply with the Registrant’s duty to obtain “best execution.” However, a client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where the Registrant determines, in good faith, that the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer’s services, including among others, the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Consistent with the foregoing, while the Registrant will seek competitive rates, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client transactions. If the client requests the Registrant to arrange for the execution of securities brokerage transactions for the client’s account, the Registrant shall direct such transactions through broker-dealers that the Registrant reasonably believes will provide best execution. The Registrant shall periodically and systematically review its policies and procedures regarding recommending broker-dealers to its client in light of its duty to obtain best execution. The client may direct the Registrant in writing to use a particular broker-dealer to execute some or all transactions for the client. In that case, the client will negotiate terms and arrangements for the account with that broker-dealer, and the Registrant will not seek better execution services or prices from other broker-dealers or be able to “batch” client transactions for execution through other broker-dealers with orders for other accounts managed by the Registrant (as described below). As a result, the client may pay higher commissions or other transaction costs or greater spreads, or receive less favorable net prices, on transactions for the account than would otherwise be the case. Subject to its duty of best execution, the Registrant may decline a client's request to direct brokerage if, in the Registrant's sole discretion, such directed brokerage arrangements would result in additional operational difficulties or violate restrictions imposed by other broker-dealers (as further discussed below).

Transactions for each client generally will be effected independently, unless the Registrant decides to purchase or sell the same securities for several clients at approximately the same time. The Registrant may (but is not obligated to) combine or "batch" such orders to obtain best execution, to negotiate more favorable commission rates, or to allocate equitably among the Registrant's clients differences in prices and commissions or other transaction costs that might have been obtained had such orders been placed independently. Under this procedure, transactions will generally be averaged as to price and allocated among the Registrant's clients pro rata to the purchase and sale orders placed for each client on any given day. To the extent that the Registrant determines to aggregate client orders for the purchase or sale of securities, including securities in which the Registrant's Advisory Affiliate(s) may invest, the Registrant shall generally do so in accordance with applicable rules promulgated under the Advisers Act and no-action guidance provided by the staff of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Registrant shall not receive any additional compensation or remuneration as a result of the aggregation. In the event that the Registrant determines that a prorated allocation is not appropriate under the particular circumstances, the allocation will be made based upon other relevant factors, which may include: (i) when only a small percentage of the order is executed, shares may be allocated to the account with the smallest order or the smallest position or to an account that is out of line with respect to security or sector weightings relative to other portfolios, with similar mandates; (ii) allocations may be given to one account when one account has limitations in its investment guidelines which prohibit it from purchasing other securities which are expected to produce similar investment results and can be purchased by other accounts; (iii) if an account reaches an investment guideline limit and cannot participate in an allocation, shares may be reallocated to other accounts (this may be due to unforeseen changes in an account's assets after an order is placed); (iv) with respect to sale allocations, allocations may be given to accounts low in cash; (v) in cases when a pro rata allocation of a potential execution would result in a de minimis allocation in one or more accounts, the Registrant may exclude the account(s) from the allocation; the transactions may be executed on a pro rata basis among the remaining accounts; or (vi) in cases where a small proportion of an order is executed in all accounts, shares may be allocated to one or more accounts on a random basis.

Consistent with obtaining best execution, brokerage transactions may be directed to certain broker-dealers in return for investment research products and/or services which assist the Registrant in its investment decision-making process. Such research generally will be used to service all of the Registrant's clients, but brokerage commissions paid by one client may be used to pay for research that is not used in managing that client's portfolio. The receipt of investment research products and/or services as well as the allocation of the benefit of such investment research products and/or services poses a conflict of interest.

As discussed above, certain Advisory Affiliates in their respective individual capacities, are registered representatives of IBDS. These Advisory Affiliates are subject to FINRA Rule 3040 which restricts registered representatives from conducting securities transactions away from their broker-dealer unless IBDS provides written consent. Therefore, clients are advised that certain Advisory Affiliates may be restricted to conducting securities transactions through IBDS unless they first secure written consent from IBDS to execute securities transactions through a different broker-dealer. Absent such written consent or separation from IBDS, these Advisory Affiliates are prohibited from executing securities transactions through any broker-dealer other than IBDS under IBDS's internal supervisory policies. Registrant is cognizant of its duty to obtain best execution and has implemented policies and procedures reasonably designed in such pursuit.

The Registrant may receive from Schwab, TD Ameritrade, Credit Suisse, without cost to the Registrant, computer software and related systems support, which allow the Registrant to better monitor client accounts maintained at Schwab, TD Ameritrade, Credit Suisse. The Registrant may receive the software and related support without cost because the Registrant renders investment management services to clients that maintain assets at Schwab, TD Ameritrade, Credit Suisse. The software and related systems support may benefit the Registrant, but not its clients directly. In fulfilling its duties to its clients, the Registrant endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the Registrant's receipt of economic benefits from a broker-dealer creates a conflict of interest since these benefits may influence the Registrant's choice of
