Material Changes

Form ADV

On July 28, 2010 the United States Securities and Exchange Commission published “Amendments to Form ADV” which amends the disclosure document that we provide to clients. This brochure dated March 31, 2017 is a new document prepared according to the SEC’s new requirements and rules. As such, this document is materially different in structure, but not in content, and requires certain new information that our previous brochure did not require.

In the past we have offered or delivered information about our qualifications and business practices to clients on at least an annual basis. Pursuant to new SEC Rules, we will ensure that you receive a summary of any material changes to this and subsequent brochures within 120 days of the close of our business’ fiscal year. We may further provide other ongoing disclosure information about material changes as necessary.

Currently, our brochure may be requested by contacting Jaime Ellis, Office Manager, at 817-410-8200 or jaime@ClintzmanFP.com.

Advisory Business

Firm Description

Clintsman Financial Planning was formed as a Sole Proprietorship in 2002, then reorganized as Jojenco Holdings, LLC (d/b/a Clintsman Financial Planning) in 2006, and has been registered with the Office of the State Securities Board of the State of Texas as a Registered Investment Adviser firm since 2002 and with the Securities and Exchange Commission since 2014. Bryan Clintsman is principal of the firm and 90% owner. Randall Crimmings is a 10% owner.

We provide Fee-Only financial planning and investment advice services to individuals of various wealth levels. These services may be general in nature or focused on a particular area of interest or need, depending on the individual's unique circumstances.

An estimated 65% of our activities involve providing investment advice, which may include advice on asset allocation and investment selection, and an estimated 35% of our activities involve providing overall financial planning advice, which may include advice on income and expense planning, tax planning, insurance planning, estate planning, retirement planning and education planning.

The process begins with an initial meeting, called a Get Acquainted Meeting, which is free of charge and is considered an exploratory interview to determine the extent to which financial planning and investment management services may be beneficial to the client.

After the Get Acquainted Meeting any client wishing to engage us must do so through Phase I which results in the creation and delivery of a written financial plan. Phase I involves gathering information about the client's personal financial situation and then communicating with the client to clarify the client's personal financial information and determine the client's specific needs, objectives, goals and tolerance for risk. Then, a written financial plan covering a variety of financial planning topics is created which includes a proper asset allocation based on the client's personal financial situation. This financial plan is delivered to the client in an in-person meeting if possible. This concludes Phase I of our services and the client may terminate our services at that time.

The client may then re-engage us for Phase II services (Asset Management Program) which include us monitoring the portfolio for necessary ongoing adjustments, and up to two annual review meetings with clients at advisor discretion. There may be a small number of older, grandfathered clients who monitor their own portfolios and return to us on an annual basis under our Fixed Fee program.

Clintsman Financial Planning is strictly a fee-only financial planning and investment management firm. The firm does not receive commissions for purchasing or selling annuities, insurance, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, limited partnerships, or other commissioned products. The firm is not affiliated with entities that sell financial products or securities. No commissions in any form are accepted. No finder's fees are accepted. Investment advice is provided and executed on behalf of the client based on our ongoing knowledge of the client's goals, objectives, and risk tolerance.

Clintsman Financial Planning does not act as a custodian of client assets. The client always maintains asset control. Clintsman Financial Planning may use discretion to place trades for clients under a limited power of attorney.

An evaluation of each client's initial situation is provided to the client, in the form of a written financial plan or asset allocation schedule. Periodic reviews are also communicated to provide reminders of the specific courses of action that need to be taken. More frequent reviews may occur but are not necessarily communicated to the client unless immediate changes are recommended.

Other professionals (e.g., lawyers, accountants, insurance agents, etc.) are engaged directly by the client on an as-needed basis. Conflicts of interest will be disclosed to the client in the unlikely event they should occur.

Types of Agreements

The following agreements define the typical client relationships.

Financial Planning Agreement

A financial plan is designed to help the client with all aspects of financial planning, and represents Phase I of the financial planning process. Fees for the initial financial plan are listed in the Fees and Compensation section below.

The financial plan may include, but is not limited to: a review of investment accounts including reviewing asset allocation and providing repositioning recommendations; strategic tax planning; a review of retirement accounts and plans including recommendations; a review of insurance policies and recommendations for changes, if necessary; one or more retirement scenarios; estate planning review and recommendations; and education planning with funding recommendations.

Detailed investment advice and specific recommendations are provided as part of a financial plan. Implementation of the recommendations is at the discretion of the client.

The fee for a financial plan is predicated upon the facts known at the start of the engagement. The fees are package-priced fixed fees, but have been created based on the underlying number of hours our experience has shown to create a financial plan for various sizes and complexities of financial conditions. Unique situations, such as special projects or second opinions may be bid on a flat hourly basis, based on hourly rates provided below.

Since financial planning is a discovery process, situations occur wherein the client is unaware of certain financial exposures or predicaments. In the event that the client's situation is substantially different than disclosed at the initial meeting, a revised fee will be provided for mutual agreement. The client must approve the change of scope in advance of the additional work being performed when a fee increase is necessary.

After delivery of a financial plan, future review meetings may be provided based on our Phase II AMP program described below. While normally included in our Phase II AMP program services, some follow-on implementation work, such as account setup and asset transfer services, may be billed separately at the firm's discretion at standard hourly rates.

Asset Management Program (AMP) Agreement

The scope of work and fee for a Phase II AMP Agreement is provided to the client in writing prior to the start of the relationship. An AMP Agreement includes services related to investments such as: assistance with the initial migration or consolidation of existing investment accounts; analysis; implementation; periodic rebalancing of investments; recommendation of adjustments to investment holdings or asset allocation; performance reporting; up to two annual review meetings with one of our advisors; periodic phone calls or email questions, as well as the execution of any trades recommended or required during the year. Continuation of advice regarding other financial planning topics are also customary.

The annual AMP Agreement fee is based on a percentage of the contracted assets according to the schedule listed in Fees and Compensation below. In addition, if any services which fall outside of the scope of investment category are requested by an AMP client during the time they are engaged under the AMP Agreement, these additional services may be billed at our standard hourly rates listed under the Fees and Compensation section below.

Examples of services outside the scope of investment services include but are not limited to: cost basis research; income tax strategies including but not limited to such things as stock option exercise; education funding analysis; retirement plan calculations or distribution planning; estate planning or insurance analysis, or cash flow and budgeting projects.

Although the Phase II AMP Agreement is an ongoing agreement and constant adjustments are required, the duration of the engagement is bilaterally discretionary. The client or the investment manager may terminate an Agreement with 30 days written notice to the other party. At termination, fees will be billed on a pro rata basis for the portion of the quarter completed, including the 30 day period following receipt of written termination notice. The portfolio value at the completion of the prior full billing quarter is used as the basis for the fee computation.

Retirement Plan Advisory Services (RPAS) Agreement

RPAS agreements are exclusive to employers with employee retirement plans such as a 401(k) plan. The scope of work and fee for an RPAS Agreement is provided to the client in writing prior to the start of the relationship. An RPAS Agreement includes services related to investment advisory services of a retirement plan such as: analysis of the risk tolerance and financial acumen of the plan sponsor and participant employees; assistance with the initial selection of investment options; quarterly analysis of investment options; recommendation of adjustments to investment holdings and pre-mixed mutual fund asset allocation; annual review meetings with the plan sponsor and participant employees; as well as receiving phone call or email questions from plan sponsor and/or participant employees.

The annual RPAS Agreement fee is based on a percentage of the investable assets according to the schedule listed in Fees and Compensation below. In addition, if any services which fall outside of the scope of investment category are requested by an RPAS client during the time they are engaged under the RPAS Agreement, these additional services are simply billed at our standard hourly rates listed under the Fees and Compensation section below. Examples of services outside the scope of investment services include, but are not limited to: participant employee transaction research; additional participant employee education sessions, or revisions or analysis of retirement plan legal or tax forms.

Although the RPAS Agreement is an ongoing agreement and constant adjustments are required, the duration of the engagement is bilaterally discretionary. The client or the investment manager may terminate an Agreement by 30 days written notice to the other party. At termination, fees will be billed on a pro rata basis for the portion of the quarter completed, including the 30 day period following receipt of written termination notice. The portfolio value at the completion of the prior full billing quarter is used as the basis for the fee computation.

Termination of Agreement

A Client may terminate any of the aforementioned agreements at any time by notifying Clintsman Financial Planning in writing with 30 days notice and paying the rate for the time spent on the investment advisory engagement prior to notification of termination, plus an additional 30 days of time for services related to terminating the firm's association with the client such as de-linking client investment accounts. If the client made an advance payment, Clintsman Financial Planning will refund any unearned portion of the advance payment using these same parameters.

Clintsman Financial Planning may terminate any of the aforementioned agreements at any time by notifying the client in writing with 30 days notice. If the client made an advance payment, Clintsman Financial Planning will refund any unearned portion of the advance payment, less an additional 30 days of time for services related to terminating the firm's association with the client such as de-linking client investment accounts.

Fees and Compensation

Description

Clintsman Financial Planning bases all its fees on a Fee-Only basis. The three methods of Fee-Only billing include a) Hourly, b) Package Fixed Fee, and c) Percentage of Assets Under Management. All fees are negotiable.

Our normal financial planning services are packaged into common group levels and are not available on an hourly basis. However, in special cases advisor may be requested to perform services outside the scope of the normal service packages. In those cases, at the advisor's discretion and with advance notice to you, the advisor's fees for those projects will be billed separately to you. Hourly engagement fees are based on the personnel doing the work, billed in six minute increments. Current Hourly rates per hour of our advisors include:

Bryan Clintsman	$350 per hour
Senior Financial Advisor	$300 per hour
Financial Advisor	$250 per hour
Financial Planning Specialist	$200 per hour
Client Services Administrator	$150 per hour

Financial planning service prices for Phase I (creation of the financial plan) are based on the following schedule, which is a result of many factors including the number of financial planning topics a client needs reviewed, the number of financial accounts needing reviewed, the complexity of the work involved, and the estimated number of hours to create the financial plan:

Planning Level	Fee
1	$2,500
2	$3,500
3	$5,000
4	$7,500

Phase II – Asset Management Program (the implementation and ongoing review of a client's portfolio and financial plan) is based on the following annual schedule:

- 0.90% on the first $1,000,000;
- 0.70% on the next $2,000,000 (from 1,000,001 to 3,000,000);
- 0.60% on the next $2,000,000 (from 3,000,001 to 5,000,000);
- 0.50% on the next $5,000,000 (from 5,000,001 to 10,000,000); and
- 0.40% on the assets above $10,000,000.

The minimum annual fee is $3,000 and is negotiable.

Package Fixed Fee prices for Phase II (ongoing review of the portfolio and financial plan) are no longer offered as a standard service, but instead only offered at the advisor's invitation instead of our AMP program for special circumstances such as the client's inability to change custodians of client assets to Schwab Institutional, grandfathered clients, etc. These fees are:

	Fee Per
Assets	Review Mtg
0 - 200K	$1,000
200 - 450k	$1,500
450 - 550k	$2,000
550 - 750k	$2,500
750k - 1M	$3,500
1.0 - 1.7M	$5,000
1.7 - 2.2M	$6,500
2.2 - 3.0M	$8,000
3.0M - up	$10,000

Percentage of Assets Under Management fees (for RPAS Agreement) are based on the following annual schedule:

- 1.00% on the first $1,000,000;
- 0.90% on the next $2,000,000 (from 1,000,001 to 3,000,000);

0.75% on the next $2,000,000 (from 3,000,001 to 5,000,000);
0.60% on the next $5,000,000 (from 5,000,001 to 10,000,000);
0.50% on the next $15,000,000 (from 10,000,001 to 25,000,000);
and negotiable on the assets above $25,000,000.

The minimum annual fee is $5,000 and is negotiable.

Clintsman Financial Planning does not charge any performance based fees. We do not sell any financial products nor do we receive any commissions. We are paid solely by client fees on a Fixed Fee or assets under management basis. Because we do not have the pressure or incentive to sell or recommend financial products, we have almost no conflicts of interest. Our sole fiduciary responsibility is to the client.

Fee Billing

Phase I Financial Planning Fees: We require a deposit for engagements in the amount of the lesser of $500 or half of the total estimated fee. The balance of fees due is payable immediately upon presentation of the advice to the client (the day of the plan presentation at the conclusion of Phase I). Fees will not be pre-collected for services to be performed more than six months in advance and in excess of $500. For each engagement, proposed services and estimated fees are detailed in the written service agreement. Either party may terminate an engagement upon written notice within five days of signing the service agreement, at which time no fees are due. If the client terminates the engagement after this date, the client is responsible for any fees already incurred.

Assets Under Management fees are billed quarterly, in advance, meaning that we invoice the client near the beginning of the three-month billing period has begun based on the previous quarter's ending portfolio balance. Payment in full is expected upon invoice presentation. Fees are usually deducted from a designated client account using an automated process to facilitate billing. The client must consent in advance to direct debiting of their investment account. Should the client terminate involvement in the AMP or RPAS program during a calendar quarter, the client is only responsible for the pro-rata amount of that quarter's fees represented as the first day of the calendar quarter through the day of termination notice plus 30 days. However, client must give 30 days written notice of intent to terminate.

Other Fees

Custodians may charge transaction fees on purchases or sales of certain mutual funds and exchange-traded funds. These transaction charges are usually small and incidental to the purchase or sale of a security. While we attempt to minimize transaction charges whenever possible, the selection of the best security for that client is more important than the nominal fee that the custodian charges to buy or sell the security.

Clients are free to use any custodian of their choice to purchase any of the mutual funds, ETF's, or other investments we recommend. Any fees, commissions and other expenses charged by the custodian are completely separate from our fees. Clients are encouraged to obtain a complete schedule of these fees from the service provider prior to entering into any engagement with a custodian. Clintsman Financial Planning does not receive commissions or third-party payments from any custodian, mutual fund, or other investment company.

Types of Clients

Description

Clintsman Financial Planning provides its services primarily to individuals, trusts, or estates. Under our RPAS program we also provide our services to employers and employees of retirement plans. .

Account Minimums

Clients engaged in our Phase I Financial Planning program do not have minimums related to income, assets, net worth, length of engagement or other conditions for engaging our services.

Clients engaged in our AMP Agreement for ongoing financial planning services will be assessed a $3,000 minimum annual fee. Clients with assets below the minimum account size (calculated based on our normal fee table) may pay a higher effective percentage rate on their annual fees than the fees paid by clients with greater assets under management.

Clients engaged in our RPAS Agreement services will be assessed a $5,000 minimum annual fee. Clients with assets below the minimum account size (calculated based on our normal fee table) may pay a higher effective percentage rate on their annual fees than the fees paid by clients with greater assets under management.

Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Methods of Analysis

If Clintsman Financial Planning is engaged to provide investment advice, first, we gather information about the client's personal financial situation and then gather information and communicate with the client to clarify the client's personal financial information and determine the client's specific needs, objectives, goals and tolerance for risk. We primarily employ a fundamental, long-term, buy-and-hold philosophy in regards to investment advice. We favor a passive approach to investing, when appropriate for the client.

Next, we recommend a proper asset allocation based on the client's personal financial situation. We make asset allocation and investment policy decisions using our best judgment to help the client achieve their overall financial objectives and goals while minimizing risk exposure. We believe that the appropriate allocation of assets across diverse investment categories (i.e. stock vs. bond, foreign vs. domestic, large cap. vs. small cap., high quality vs. high yield, etc.) is the primary determinant of portfolio returns and is critical to the long-term success of a client's financial objectives and goals. Then, we recommend specific investments, primarily low-cost, no-load, index investments, to fill out the recommended asset allocation. Finally, we recommend that the portfolio be maintained by rebalancing about annually and/or making adjustments as needed.

While we believe our investment strategy is designed to potentially produce the highest possible return for a given level of risk, it cannot guarantee that an investment objective or goal will be achieved. Some investment decisions made by us may result in loss, which may include the original principal amount invested. The client must be able to bear the various risks involved in investing, which may include market risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk, currency risk or political risk, among others. Low-cost, no-load, index investments have the potential to be affected by tracking error risk, which is defined as a deviation from the stated benchmark index.

Disciplinary Information

Legal and Disciplinary

Neither the firm nor its employees have been involved in legal or disciplinary events related to past or present investment clients.

Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Financial Industry Activities

Clintsman Financial Planning is focused exclusively on providing financial planning advice. One advisor only (Bryan Clintsman) also maintains a part-time consulting relationship with Ernst & Young (also a Fee-Only financial planning firm) whereby they may request that he teach financial planning educational workshops for Ernst & Young client companies. When doing so, Bryan Clintsman is acting solely as a representative of Ernst & Young, and not a representative of Clintsman Financial Planning.

As a service to clients, Clintsman Financial Planning may provide referrals to other professionals such as CPA, attorneys, etc. However, we do not have agreements with nor do we receive any referral fees from any other professionals.

Affiliations

Our advisors are members of National Association of Personal Financial Advisors (NAPFA) and the Financial Planning Association (FPA). Generally, participation in these entities requires membership fees to be paid, adherence to ethical guidelines, and meeting experiential and educational requirements.

Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Code of Ethics

Clintsman Financial Planning has adopted a code of ethics that sets forth the basic policies of ethical conduct for all associated persons of the firm. We accept the obligation not only to comply with the mandates and requirements of all applicable laws and regulation, but also to take responsibility to act in an ethical and professionally responsible manner in all professional services and activities. We will be happy to provide a copy of our code of ethics to any client or prospective client, upon request.

At times, personnel and related parties may hold positions in investments that are also recommended to the client. We may make recommendations or take actions with respect to investments that may differ in the nature or timing from recommendations made to, or actions taken for, other clients or personnel. However, at no time will the personnel or any related party receive preferential treatment over the client.

Clintsman Financial Planning adheres to the Certified Financial Planner Standards of Professional Conduct, which may be found at: <http://www.cfp.net/about-cfp-board/ethics-enforcement/standards-of-professional-conduct> and the National Association of Personal Financial Advisors Fiduciary Oath, which can be found at www.napfa.org/about/fiduciaryoath.asp.

Brokerage Practices

Selecting Brokerage Firms

Clintsman Financial Planning is not affiliated with any bank, custodian or brokerage firm. Through our Phase II engagement we will offer the beneficial relationship of Schwab Institutional brokerage services to clients. If the client requires use of another custodian we may not be able to provide our services under Phase II.

Clients of Clintsman Financial Planning are able to establish investment accounts with Schwab Institutional if they choose to do so. In doing so, they qualify for preferred relationship status vs. Schwab Retail accounts, including access to institutional class shares of mutual funds, a dedicated customer service team, and the possibility of waived or reduced transaction and/or commission fees on some mutual funds or securities. Clients are free to accept or decline the availability of this Schwab Institutional relationship.

Clintsman Financial Planning does not receive direct fees or commissions from any of these arrangements – as a Fee Only advisor our fees are paid directly by the client. Therefore, we do not receive any additional compensation when the client engages a recommended brokerage firm or other service provider. However, Schwab Institutional does provide Clintsman Financial Planning with various support services at no cost which might otherwise have a cost if it not for the amount of client assets our clients custody at Schwab Institutional. These support services may include things like industry research reports, continuing education events, and technology/business consulting. Schwab Institutional may discount or waive its fees for some of these services or pay all or a part of a third party's fees when it benefits our clients or client's accounts.

We do not require or engage in directed brokerage involving our accounts. We recognize our obligation in seeking "best execution" for our clients, however, it is our belief that the determinative factor is not always the lowest possible cost, but whether the selected service provider's transactions represent the best qualitative execution while also taking into consideration the full range of services provided. Therefore, we will seek services involving competitive rates, but that may not correlate to the lowest possible rate for every transaction. We periodically review our policies regarding recommending service providers, in light of our duty to seek "best execution."

Review of Accounts

Periodic Reviews

Phase I (creation of the financial plan) does not include any ongoing periodic reviews of that plan. Phase I is intended to be a one-time engagement that provides a current state analysis and recommendations. Phase II clients fall into two categories:

Grandfathered Fixed Fee clients: Periodic financial check-ups and portfolio reviews are recommended, and reminders may be sent to clients, but it is the responsibility of the client to return for these reviews. However, annual reviews, at a minimum, are required to maintain status in this Fixed Fee program.

AMP clients: Up to two financial check-ups and portfolio reviews are offered per year based on advisor discretion. On an ongoing basis portfolios are reviewed against client objectives and adjustments may be made.

AMP clients, and some Fixed Fee clients, have provided Clintsman Financial Planning with the discretion to make investment trades on an as-needed basis throughout the year. These portfolio adjustments will only be made when, at the discretion of Clintsman Financial Planning, these changes are necessary due to changes in the investment markets, changes in the investments themselves, or changes in the goals and objectives of the client. Clients are able to set automatic alerts to themselves within their custodial investment accounts to notify themselves of these portfolio changes. Portfolio adjustments may also be made after the fact with clients by their advisor at their ongoing review meetings.

Clintsman Financial Planning uses two types of portfolios for client accounts: Strategic and Tactical. Strategic portfolios are generally designed for portfolios less than $500,000, use primarily index or passive funds, and absent major market fluctuations are designed to have both the allocation and fund selections reviewed once per year. Tactical portfolios are generally designed for portfolios greater than $500,000, use a combination of passive and active funds, and both the allocation and fund selections are reviewed at least monthly. Both Strategic and Tactical portfolios have 6 different model portfolios and each client is assigned to the portfolio which most closely matches their target return, risk level, and investment objectives. These factors are re-verified at least once per year based upon such things as the client's time horizon until financial goals, income tax bracket, cashflow, and other items found on the Client Suitability Sheet updated at least annually.

Reviewers may include Bryan Clintsman, Dan Mauck, Amanda Sessler, Randall Crimmings, or Kyle Imhof, all of whom are CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ practitioners.

Regular Reports

Grandfathered Fixed Fee clients: Financial summary reports are provided when Clintsman Financial Planning is engaged to provide original or updated financial advice. Clients are encouraged to return periodically for a portfolio review. Therefore, the frequency of financial summary reports depends on the frequency of which clients choose to return for a review.

AMP Clients: Financial plans are still created based upon a client request for a review meeting up to two times per year, but investment performance reports are currently provided to client quarterly. These performance reports include information about portfolio value, rate of return for the period, and asset allocation.

Both types of clients will also receive account statements directly from mutual fund companies and/or brokerage companies in which they hold investments. These statements are typically provided on a monthly basis, or in accordance with their company policies, if different.

Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Incoming Referrals

Clintsman Financial Planning does not receive, nor does it pay, any fees for client referrals.

Custody

SEC "Custody"

Clintsman Financial Planning does not take custody of client cash, bank accounts or securities. The client's cash, bank accounts and securities will be maintained by unaffiliated, qualified custodians, such as banks, brokerage firms, mutual fund companies and transfer agents. The client will receive account statements directly from their service provider. These statements are typically provided on a monthly or quarterly basis or as account transactions occur.

Firm personnel will not act as trustee for, or have full power of attorney over, a client account, unless as a co-trustee of an immediate or incapacitated family member.

Investment Discretion

Discretionary Authority for Trading

Clintsman Financial Planning provides discretionary investment management services for most clients. Clintsman Financial Planning makes the ongoing decision whether or not to proceed with any investment changes. However, since Clintsman Financial Planning does not take custody of any client assets, clients always maintain the ability to make their own trades and changes to their portfolio at any time.

Limited Power of Attorney (LPOA)

A limited power of attorney is a limited trading authorization for this purpose. The client signs a limited power of attorney so that we may execute the trades that we recommend in the respective accounts.

Voting Client Securities

Proxy Votes

Clintsman Financial Planning does not vote client securities. The client will maintain responsibility for directing the manner in which proxies are voted, as well as all other elections relative to mergers, acquisitions, tender offers or other events pertaining to the client's investments. The client will receive their proxies and other solicitations directly from the custodian or transfer agent for their investments.

Financial Information

Financial Condition

A balance sheet is not required to be provided because Clintsman Financial Planning does not serve as a custodian for client funds or securities, and does not require prepayment of fees of more than $600 per client, nor six months or more in advance.

Business Continuity Plan

General

Clintsman Financial Planning has a Business Continuity Plan in place that provides detailed steps to mitigate and recover from the loss of office space, communications, services, or key people.

Information Security Program

Privacy Notice

Clintsman Financial Planning is committed to maintaining the confidentiality, integrity, and security of the personal information that is entrusted to us.

We do not provide clients' personal information to mailing list vendors or solicitors. We require strict confidentiality in our agreements with unaffiliated third parties that require access to clients' personal information, including financial service companies, consultants, and auditors. Federal and state securities regulators may review our Company records and clients' personal records as permitted by law.

All non-public, personal information exchanged between client and advisor shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties, except as expressly authorized by client, or as required by law. In addition, advisor maintains standards of confidentiality and privacy which are consistent with the Certified Financial Planning Board Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility. Finally, Clintsman Financial Planning maintains its own written Privacy Policy and we will notify clients if our Privacy Policy changes. We are required by law to deliver this Privacy Policy to clients annually, in writing.

Brochure Supplement (Part 2B of Form ADV)

Education and Business Standards

Clintsman Financial Planning requires that advisors in its employ have a bachelor's degree and further coursework demonstrating knowledge of financial planning and tax planning. Examples of acceptable coursework include: an MBA, a CFP®, a CFA, a ChFC, JD, CTFA, EA or CPA. Additionally, advisors must have work experience that demonstrates their aptitude for financial planning and investment management.

Professional Certifications

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®): CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professionals are licensed by the CFP Board to use the CFP® mark. CFP® certification requirements:

Disciplinary Information: Neither Clintsman Financial Planning nor Bryan Clintsman has been the subject of a reportable legal or disciplinary event.

Other Business Activities: Bryan Clintsman is a part time consultant for Ernst & Young, providing financial education workshops to employee groups. These activities do not present material conflicts of interest for the financial planning and investment advice services that are provided by Bryan as Principal of Clintsman Financial Planning.

Additional Compensation: Neither Clintsman Financial Planning nor Bryan Clintsman receives additional economic benefit (i.e. sales awards or other prizes) for providing advisory services to clients.

Supervision: Bryan Clintsman serves in multiple capacities for Clintsman Financial Planning: Principal, Financial Planner, and Registered Investment Advisor (RIA). We recognize that the lack of segregation of duties may potentially create conflicts of interest. However, we employ policies and procedures to ensure timely and accurate recordkeeping and supervision, including outsourcing certain functions to qualified entities to assist in these efforts when necessary.
