B. Description of Advisory Services

INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICES

LHA manages investment portfolios for individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, and business entities. LHA works with the Client to determine the Client’s investment objectives, tax situation and risk tolerance. LHA will create an overall allocation by investing the portfolio among various asset classes.

LHA primarily manages all portfolios on a discretionary basis. LHA primarily recommends portfolios consisting of no-load, institutional class mutual funds in addition to individual fixed income securities. LHA primarily acts as a fee-only investment advisor for clients. For certain profit sharing plans or other accounts held by the client LHA will manage the accounts on a non-discretionary basis.

FINANCIAL PLANNING AND CONSULTING SERVICES

LHA provide its clients with a broad range of comprehensive financial planning and consulting services (including non-investment related matters), which may address, among other issues, estate and retirement planning, taxes, insurance, college planning, long term care issues and/or investment recommendations.

SUB-ADVISORY/CUSTODIAL ARRANGEMENTS

LHA primarily recommends that investment management accounts be maintained at Schwab Institutional (“Schwab”). In addition to the above, LHA, at times may recommend the managed account programs sponsored by Schwab. They are the Managed Account Select and Managed Account Access programs.

C. Availability of Customized Services for Individual Clients

LHA shall provide investment advisory services specific to the needs of each client. Prior to providing investment advisory services LHA will ascertain each client’s investment objective(s). The client may, at any time, impose reasonable restrictions, in writing, on LHA’s services.

D. Wrap Fee Programs

We do not participate in a wrap fee program.

E. Assets Under Management

As of November 27, 2013, LHA had $98,655,033 in assets under management on a discretionary basis and $5,569,654 in assets under management on a non-discretionary basis for a total of $104,224,687.

ITEM 5 FEES AND COMPENSATION

A. Advisory Services and Fees

FINANCIAL PLANNING AND CONSULTING SERVICES

LHA provides its clients with a broad range of comprehensive financial planning and consulting services (including non-investment related matters), which may address, among other issues, estate and retirement planning, taxes, insurance, college planning, long term care issues and/or investment recommendations. LHA will charge a fee (fixed and/or hourly) for these services. LHA's financial planning fees are negotiable, but generally range from $500 to $2,500.00 on a fixed fee basis and from $150.00 to $300.00 on an hourly rate basis, depending upon the level and scope of the services required and the professional rendering the service(s). LHA may, in its sole discretion, choose to charge a lesser management fee under certain limited conditions (i.e., types of services required, related accounts, dollar amounts under management).

INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICES

LHA primarily provides discretionary investment advisory services on a fee-only basis. LHA's annual investment advisory fee is based upon a percentage (%) of the market value of the assets placed under LHA's management as follows:

Market Value of Portfolio	% of Assets
Up to $1,000,000	1.00%
$1,000,000 - $2,000,000	0.75%
$2,000,000 - $5,000,000	0.65%
More than $5,000,000	0.50%

LHA generally requires an account minimum of $500,000.00 for investment management services. LHA's annual investment management fee shall be pro-rated and paid quarterly, in arrears, based upon the market value of the assets on the last business day of the previous quarter. However, LHA, in its sole discretion, may require a lesser account minimum or charge a lesser investment management fee based upon certain criteria. Some older clients may have an investment advisory fee of 1.25% on the first $250,000.

LHA's annual investment management fee shall include investment advisory services, and, to the extent specifically requested by the client, financial planning and consulting. In the event that the client requires extraordinary financial planning (to be determined in the sole discretion of LHA), LHA may determine to charge for such additional services, the dollar amount of which shall be set forth in a separate written notice to the client.

For the Schwab Managed Account Select and Access Program, please refer to the program's prospectus listing all fees dependent on the strategy(ies) chosen.

B. Payment of Fees

LHA's advisory fees are deducted from their custodial account. Both LHA's Investment Advisory Agreement and the custodial/ clearing agreement may authorize the custodian to debit the account for the amount of LHA's investment advisory fee and to directly remit that management fee to LHA in compliance with regulatory procedures. LHA shall deduct fees quarterly in arrears, based upon the market value of the assets on the last business day of the previous quarter.

C. Additional Expenses and Fees

The fees charged by Schwab or any other designated broker-dealer/custodian, are exclusive of, and in addition to, LHA's investment management fee. In addition to LHA's investment management fee, the client shall also incur charges imposed at the mutual fund level (e.g., management fees and other fund expenses).

FINANCIAL PLANNING AND CONSULTING SERVICES

Prior to engaging LHA to provide financial planning and consulting services, the client will generally be required to enter into a written agreement with LHA setting forth the terms and conditions of the engagement and describing the scope of the services to be provided and the portion of the fee that is due from the client prior to LHA commencing services. Generally, LHA requires one-half of the financial planning/consulting fee (estimated hourly or fixed) payable upon entering the written agreement. The balance is generally due upon delivery of the financial plan or completion of the agreed upon services. Either party may terminate the agreement by written notice to the other. In the event the client terminates LHA's financial planning and consulting services, the balance of LHA's unearned fees (if any) shall be refunded to the client. If termination occurs within five business days of entering into an agreement for such services the client shall be entitled to a full refund.

At all times clients have the option to purchase investment products recommended by LHA through unaffiliated brokers or agents.

Less than 10% of LHA's revenue from advisory clients results from commissions and other compensation for the sale of investment products you recommend to your clients, including asset-based distribution fees from the sale of mutual funds.

LHA does not charge its advisory clients commissions and/or markups.

ITEM 6
PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT

Neither LHA nor any supervised person of LHA accepts performance-based fees.

ITEM 7
TYPES OF CLIENTS

LHA's clients shall generally include individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, and business entities. LHA requires an annual minimum account size of $500,000 for investment advisory services.

ITEM 8

METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

A. Methods of Analysis and Investment Strategies

Security analysis methods involve the following fundamental analysis:

Modern Portfolio Theory – LHA's investment approach is firmly rooted in the belief that markets are “efficient” and that investor’s returns are determined primarily by asset allocation decisions, rather than market timing or security selection. LHA recommends diversified portfolios, principally through the use of passively managed mutual funds.

B. Risk of Loss

LHA’s methods of analysis and investment strategies do not present any significant or unusual risks.

Our investment programs have certain risks that are borne by the client. Our investment approach constantly keeps the risk of loss in mind. Clients face the following investment risks:

- Interest-rate Risk: Fluctuations in interest rates may cause investment prices to fluctuate. For example, when interest rates rise, yields on existing bonds become less attractive, causing their market values to decline.
- Market Risk: The price of a security, bond, or mutual fund may drop in reaction to tangible and intangible events and conditions. This type of risk is caused by external factors independent of a security’s particular underlying circumstances. For example, political, economic and social conditions may trigger market events.
- Inflation Risk: When inflation is present, a dollar today will not buy as much as a dollar next year, because purchasing power is eroding at the rate of inflation.
- Currency Risk: Overseas investments are subject to fluctuations in the value of the dollar against the currency of the investment’s originating country. This is also referred to as exchange rate risk.
- Reinvestment Risk: This is the risk that future proceeds from investments may have to be reinvested at a potentially lower rate of return (i.e. interest rate). This primarily relates to fixed income securities during periods of declining interest rates.
- Business Risk: These risks are associated with a particular industry or a particular company within an industry. For example, oil-drilling companies depend on finding oil and then refining it, a lengthy and complex process, before they can generate a profit. They carry a higher risk of profitability than an electric company, which generates its income from a steady stream of customers who buy electricity no matter what the economic environment is like.
- Liquidity Risk: Liquidity is the ability to readily convert an investment into cash.

Generally, assets are more liquid if many traders are interested in a standardized product. For example, Treasury Bills are highly liquid, while real estate properties are not.

- Financial Risk: Excessive borrowing to finance a business' operations increases the risk of profitability, because the company must meet the terms of its obligations in good times and bad. During periods of financial stress, the inability to meet loan obligations may result in bankruptcy and/or a declining market value.

C. Recommendation of a Particular Type of Security

Currently, LHA primarily allocates client investment assets among various mutual funds and/or fixed income securities, on a discretionary basis in accordance with the client's designated investment objective(s).

ITEM 9
DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Neither LHA, nor any of its management persons have been the subject of any disciplinary actions.

ITEM 10
OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

A. Broker-Dealer Registration

LHA, nor its principals are registered with a broker/dealer.

B. Futures Commission Merchant, Commodity Pool Operator, or Commodity Trading Advisor Registration

Neither LHA, nor its representatives, are registered or have an application pending to register, as a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, a commodity trading advisor, or a representative of the foregoing.

C. Material Relationships and Conflicts of Interests with Industry Participants

LICENSED INSURANCE AGENCY/AGENT

LHA has arrangements that are material to its advisory or its clients with a related person who is an insurance agent. In this regard, LHA's principal, Larry Heller is a licensed insurance agent, and in such capacity, may introduce clients to insurance agencies to obtain certain insurance-related products. Accordingly, LHA does not exercise any discretionary authority with respect to a client's decision to obtain such insurance-related products, but may receive fees in connection therewith.

D. Material Conflicts of Interest Relating to Other Investment Advisers

The recommendation by LHA's principal that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend insurance products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from LHA or its principal. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by LHA through other, non-affiliated insurance agents.

LHA does not receive, directly or indirectly, compensation from investment advisors that it recommends or selects for its clients.

ITEM 11
CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS
AND PERSONAL TRADING

A. Code of Ethics

LHA maintains an investment policy relative to personal securities transactions. This investment policy is part of LHA's overall Code of Ethics, which serves to establish a standard of business conduct for all of LHA's members that is based upon fundamental principles of openness, integrity, honesty and trust, a copy of which is available upon request.

LHA and its principals, partners, officers, employees, affiliates and other related parties (each a "LHA Related Party") are permitted to invest in their personal trading accounts subject to certain restrictions. LHA Related Parties may transact in mutual funds, ETFs, stocks, bonds and securities that are not traded publicly including, but not limited to, privately held companies, hedge funds, venture capital funds and commodity pools.

LHA requires certain personal securities transactions, specifically those related to equity and mutual funds, to be subject to an enhanced pre-clearance process by various LHA personnel, including the Chief Compliance Officer. This enhanced preclearance process of the personal trading activities of LHA Related Parties includes an assessment of whether such transactions pose any actual or potential conflicts of interest with respect to transactions executed by LHA.

LHA's Code also requires LHA Related Parties to: 1) pre-clear certain personal securities transactions, 2) report personal securities transactions on at least a quarterly basis, and 3) provide LHA with a detailed summary of certain holdings (both initially upon commencement of employment and annually thereafter) in which the LHA Related Party has a direct or indirect beneficial interest.

In accordance with Section 204A of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, LHA also maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of material non-public information by LHA or any person associated with LHA.

A copy of LHA's Code of Ethics shall be provided to any client or prospective client upon request.

B. Recommending, Buying, or Selling Securities in which We or a Related Person Have a Material Financial Interest, Invest, or Buy or Sell at the Same Time; Conflict of Interests

Neither LHA nor any related person of LHA recommends, buys, or sells for client accounts, securities in which LHA or any related person of LHA has a material financial interest.

LHA and/or representatives of LHA may buy or sell securities that are also recommended to clients.

ITEM 12 BROKERAGE PRACTICES

A. Selection of Broker-Dealers and Reasonableness of Compensation

LHA has sole discretion on brokers used and commissions paid. It is LHA's intention that the rate of commission paid will not exceed .05 cents per share for U.S. securities. When selecting brokers and negotiating commission rates, we are guided by the principal objective of seeking to obtain best execution for our clients including, but not limited to, the financial stability and reputation of the broker, and the quality of investment research, investment strategies and special execution capabilities.

LHA does not receive soft dollars from broker-dealers.

LHA does not receive referrals from broker-dealers.

B. Aggregating Orders for Various Client Accounts

When executing a trade in various accounts we aggregate the trade by purchasing the security during the day and averaging the price paid. Each client pays the average price.

C. Trade Errors

Trade and other clerical errors resulting in gains will be for the benefit of the client and will not be retained by LHA. LHA is under no obligation, however, to reimburse the client for trade and other clerical errors made by LHA, its agents and affiliates, as such errors are considered by LHA to be a cost of doing business.

While LHA is under no obligation to reimburse the client for trade and other clerical errors made by LHA, its agents and affiliates, any correction of a trade or other clerical error will only be made to the extent required so that the client does not incur a loss related to such error.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, LHA will be obligated to reimburse the client for any trade or other clerical error resulting from LHA's willful misconduct, gross negligence or material breach under the exculpation of liability and indemnification provisions of the Investment Management Agreements maintained with the client. LHA, subject to its fiduciary obligations, will determine whether or not any trade or other clerical error is required to be reimbursed in accordance with such liability and exculpation provisions. LHA, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to reimburse the client for any trade or other clerical error. LHA's reimbursement of the client for any particular error will not constitute a waiver of any policy to cause the client to bear the losses from other trade or other clerical errors.

ITEM 13

REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

A. Periodic Review of Client Accounts

For those clients to whom LHA provides investment supervisory services, account reviews are conducted on an ongoing basis by LHA's principal. All clients (in person or via telephone) are encouraged to review financial planning issues (to the extent applicable), investment objectives and account performance with LHA at a minimum on an annual basis.

B. Additional Review of Client Accounts

C. Contents and Frequency of Account Reports to Clients

For those clients to whom LHA provides financial planning and/or consulting services will receive reports from LHA summarizing its analysis and conclusions as requested by the client or otherwise agreed to in writing by LHA.

ITEM 14

B. Compensation to Non-Supervised Persons for Client Referrals

Any such referral fee shall be paid solely from LHA's investment management fee, and shall not result in any additional charge to the client. If the client is introduced to LHA by an unaffiliated solicitor, the solicitor, at the time of the solicitation, shall disclose the nature of his/her/its solicitor relationship, and shall provide each prospective client with a copy of LHA's written Brochure with a copy of the written disclosure statement from the solicitor to the client disclosing the terms of the solicitation arrangement between LHA and the solicitor, including the compensation to be received by the solicitor from LHA.

LHA may also provide a written periodic report summarizing account activity and performance.

Please Note: To the extent that LHA provides clients with periodic account statements or reports, the client is urged to compare any statement or report provided by LHA with the account statements received from the account custodian.

Please Also Note: The account custodian does not verify the accuracy of LHA's advisory fee calculation.

ITEM 16
