|---|---|----------------------------------|
| 1. Full name of applicant exactly as stated in Item 1A of Part I of Form ADV: Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC | | IRS Empl. Ident. No.: PENDING |
| Item of Form (identify) | Answer | |
| 1D | Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC (the "Registrant") is an investment adviser providing investment management services to individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations and business entities. The Registrant offers its services on a fee basis which is based upon assets under management. Alternatively, certain of the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates may offer securities brokerage services and insurance products under a commission arrangement, which may be used to offset the Registrant's fees (as discussed below). Prior to engaging the Registrant to provide any of the foregoing investment advisory services, the client will be required to enter into one or more written agreements with the Registrant setting forth the terms and conditions under which the Registrant shall render its services (collectively the "Agreement"). The Registrant's investment advisory services are currently limited to the discretionary and non-discretionary management of investment portfolios in accordance with the investment objective(s) of the client. The Registrant generally does not provide financial planning or other consulting services. To the extent specifically requested by a client, the Registrant may provide limited consultation services to its investment management clients on investment and non-investment related matters. Any such consultation services, to the extent rendered, shall be rendered exclusively on an unsolicited basis. In the event the client determines to engage the Registrant to provide investment management services, the Registrant shall do so on a fee basis. If engaged, the Registrant shall charge an annual fee based upon a percentage of the market value of the assets being managed by the Registrant. As discussed in response to Item 12B (below), the Registrant's annual fee is exclusive of, and in addition to brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses which shall be incurred by the client. However, the Registrant shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs. The Registrant's annual fee shall be prorated and charged quarterly, in advance, based upon the market value of the assets on the last day of the previous quarter. The annual fee shall vary (between 0.75% and 1.80%) depending upon the market value of the assets under management, the professional rendering the investment advice, and the type of investment management services to be rendered. The Registrant is the sponsor of the Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC Wrap Program (the "Program"), a wrap fee program. In the event the client participates in the Program, the Registrant shall provide its investment management services and arrange for brokerage transactions under a single annualized fee. For participants in the Program, the Registrant shall charge an annual fee based upon a percentage of the market value of the assets being managed by the Registrant that includes all commissions or transaction fees which otherwise would be incurred by the client. Participants in the Program may pay a higher aggregate fee than if investment management and brokerage services are purchased separately. A complete description of the Program's terms and conditions (including fees) are contained in the Program's wrap fee brochure. As discussed below, this written disclosure statement shall be provided to each client pursuant to Rule 204-3 of the Advisers Act. The Registrant, in its sole discretion, may negotiate to charge a lesser management fee based upon certain criteria (i.e., anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, pre-existing client, account retention, pro bono activities, etc.). The Registrant offers advice on each type of investment described in Part II of Form ADV (Item 3). However, the Registrant intends to primarily allocate its client's investment management assets, on a discretionary and/or a non-discretionary basis among Independent Managers (as defined below), mutual funds, individual debt and equity securities in accordance with the investment objectives of the client. As further discussed in response to Item 12B (below), the Registrant shall generally recommend that clients utilize the brokerage and clearing services of Pershing, LLC through Pershing Investment Manager Services ("Pershing") for investment management accounts. | |

The Registrant may only implement its investment management recommendations after the client has arranged for and furnished the Registrant with all information and authorization regarding accounts with appropriate financial institutions. Financial institutions shall include, but are not limited to, Pershing, any other broker-dealer recommended by the Registrant, broker-dealer directed by the client, trust companies, banks etc. (collectively referred to herein as the “Financial Institution(s)”).

Clients may incur certain charges imposed by the Financial Institution(s) and other third parties such as fees charged by Independent Managers (as defined below), custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund or exchange traded fund in the account, which shall be disclosed in the fund’s prospectus (e.g., fund management fees and other fund expenses), deferred sales charges, odd-lot differentials, transfer taxes, wire transfer and electronic fund fees, and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions. Additionally, for assets outside of any wrap fee programs, clients may incur brokerage commissions and transaction fees. Such charges, fees and commissions are exclusive of and in addition to the Registrant’s fee.

The Registrant’s Agreement and/or the separate agreement with the Financial Institution(s) may authorize the Registrant through the Financial Institution(s) to debit the client’s account for the amount of the Registrant’s fee and to directly remit that management fee to the Registrant in accordance with applicable custody rules. The Financial Institution(s) recommended by the Registrant have agreed to send a statement to the client, at least quarterly, indicating all amounts disbursed from the account including the amount of management fees paid directly to the Registrant.

The Registrant may also recommend that certain clients authorize the active discretionary management of a portion of their assets by and/or among certain independent investment manager(s) either directly or through a wrap fee program (“Independent Manager(s)”), based upon the stated investment objectives of the client. The terms and conditions under which the client shall engage the Independent Manager(s) shall be set forth in separate written agreements between (1) the client and the Registrant and (2) the client and the designated Independent Manager(s) and/or wrap fee program sponsor. The Registrant shall continue to render advisory services to the client relative to the ongoing monitoring and review of account performance, for which the Registrant shall receive an annual advisory fee which is based upon a percentage of the market value of the assets being managed by the designated Independent Manager(s). Factors that the Registrant shall consider in recommending Independent Manager(s) include the client’s stated investment objective(s), management style, performance, reputation, financial strength, reporting, pricing, and research. The investment management fees charged by the designated Independent Manager(s), together with the fees charged by the wrap fee program sponsor and corresponding designated broker-dealer/custodian of the client’s assets, may be exclusive of, and in addition to, the Registrant’s investment advisory fee set forth above. As discussed above, the client may incur additional fees than those charged by the Registrant, the designated Independent Manager(s), wrap fee program sponsor (if applicable), and corresponding broker-dealer and custodian.

In addition to the Registrant’s written disclosure statement, the client shall also receive the written disclosure statement of the designated Independent Manager(s) and wrap fee program sponsor (if applicable). Certain Independent Manager(s) may impose more restrictive account requirements and varying billing practices than the Registrant. In such instances, the Registrant may alter its corresponding account requirements and/or billing practices to accommodate those of the Independent Manager(s) or wrap fee program sponsor.

If the Registrant refers a client to certain Independent Manager(s) where the Registrant’s compensation is included in the advisory fee charged by such Independent Manager(s) and the client engages those Independent Manager(s), the Registrant shall be compensated for its services by receipt of a fee to be paid directly by the Independent Manager(s) to the Registrant in accordance with the requirements of Rule 206(4)-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and any corresponding state securities laws, rules, regulations, or requirements. Any such fee shall be paid solely from the Independent Manager(s) investment management fee or the program fee of the wrap fee program (as appropriate), and shall not result in any additional charge to the client.

The Registrant also may render non-discretionary investment management services to clients relative to: (1) variable life/annuity products that they may own, and/or (2) their individual employer-sponsored retirement plans. In so doing, the Registrant either directs or recommends the allocation of client assets among the various mutual fund subdivisions that comprise the variable life/annuity product or the retirement plan. The client assets shall be maintained at either the specific insurance company that issued the variable life/annuity product which is owned by the client, or at the custodian

| | designated by the sponsor of the client's retirement plan. The client may make additions to and withdrawals from the account at any time, subject to the Registrant's right to terminate an account. If assets are deposited into or withdrawn from an account after the inception of a quarter, the fee payable with respect to such assets will not be adjusted or prorated based on the number of days remaining in the quarter. Clients may withdraw account assets on notice to the Registrant, subject to the usual and customary securities settlement procedures. The Registrant designs its portfolios as long-term investments and assets withdrawals may impair the achievement of a client's investment objectives. For the initial quarter of investment management services, the first quarter's fees shall be calculated on a pro rata basis. The Agreement between the Registrant and the client will continue in effect until terminated by either party pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. The Registrant's annual fee shall be prorated through the date of termination and any remaining balance shall be charged or refunded to the client, as appropriate, in a timely manner. Additions may be in cash or securities provided that the Registrant reserves the right to liquidate any transferred securities, or decline to accept particular securities into a client's account. The Registrant may consult with its clients about the options and ramifications of transferring securities. However, clients are advised that when transferred securities are liquidated, they are subject to transaction fees, fees assessed at the mutual fund level (i.e. contingent deferred sales charge) and/or tax ramifications. The Registrant's clients are advised to promptly notify the Registrant if there are ever any changes in their financial situation or investment objectives or if they wish to impose any reasonable restrictions upon the Registrant's management services. Neither the Registrant nor the client may assign the Agreement without the consent of the other party. Transactions that do not result in a change of actual control or management of the Registrant shall not be considered an assignment. A copy of the Registrant's privacy policy notice and a written disclosure statement that meets the requirements of Rule 204-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended ("Advisers Act"), shall be provided to each client prior to or contemporaneously with the execution of the Agreement. Any client who has not received a copy of the Registrant's written disclosure statement at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to executing the Agreement shall have five (5) business days subsequent to executing the agreement to terminate the Registrant's services without penalty. Registrant does not vote proxies on behalf of its clients. |
| 3L | The Registrant may also provide advice about exchange traded funds (ETFs) and any type of investment held in a client's portfolio at the beginning of the advisory relationship. |
| 3L and 4C(7) | As further discussed in the response to Item 1D (above), the Registrant may recommend that clients authorize the active discretionary management of a portion of their assets by and/or among certain Independent Manager(s) , based upon the stated investment objectives of the client. The Registrant shall continue to render services to the client relative to the discretionary and/or non-discretionary selection or recommendation of Independent Manager(s) as well as the monitoring and review of account performance and client investment objectives. |
| 4A(5) and 4B(8) | As further discussed in the response to Item 1D (above), the Registrant may recommend that clients authorize the active discretionary management of a portion of their assets by and/or among certain Independent Manager(s) , based upon the stated investment objectives of the client. When recommending or selecting an Independent Manager for a client, the Registrant shall review information about the Independent Manager(s) such as its disclosure statement and/or material supplied by the Independent Manager(s) or independent third parties for a description of the Independent Manager's investment strategies, past performance and risk results to the extent available. |
| 5 | All individuals that render investment advisory services on behalf of the Registrant must have earned a college degree and/or have substantive investment-related experience. In addition, all such individuals shall have attained all required investment-related licenses and/or designations. |

| 7A and 7B | The Registrant is a duly licensed insurance agency. Additionally, certain of the Registrant’s Advisory Affiliates, in their individual capacities, are licensed insurance agents with various insurance companies, and in such capacity, may recommend, on a fully-disclosed basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that the Registrant or its Advisory Affiliates recommend the purchase of insurance products where the Registrant or its Advisory Affiliates receive insurance commissions or other additional compensation. |
| 7B, 7C, 8A, 9B, and 13A | The Registrant is an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of the FINRA and SIPC. In addition, the Principals and certain Advisory Affiliates of the Registrant are also registered representatives of the Registrant, and in such capacity, may effect securities brokerage transactions on a commission basis including transactions for the Registrant’s investment advisory clients. Those Advisory Affiliates may receive additional compensation in the form of 12b-1 fees on mutual funds held in a client’s account. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that the Registrant recommends the purchase of securities where the Registrant’s Advisory Affiliates receive commissions or other additional compensation. |
| 9E | The Registrant and persons associated with the Registrant (“Associated Persons”) are permitted to buy or sell securities that it also recommends to clients consistent with the Registrant’s policies and procedures. The Registrant has adopted a code of ethics that sets forth the standards of conduct expected of its associated persons and requires compliance with applicable securities laws (“Code of Ethics”). In accordance with Section 204A of the Advisers Act, its Code of Ethics contains written policies reasonably designed to prevent the unlawful use of material non-public information by the Registrant or any of its associated persons. The Code of Ethics also requires that certain of the Registrant’s personnel (called “Access Persons”) report their personal securities holdings and transactions and obtain pre-approval of certain investments such as initial public offerings and limited offerings. Clients may contact the Registrant to request a copy of its Code of Ethics. Unless specifically permitted in the Registrant’s Code of Ethics, none of the Registrant’s Access Persons may effect for themselves or for their immediate family (i.e., spouse, minor children, and adults living in the same household as the Access Person) any transactions in a security which is being actively purchased or sold, or is being considered for purchase or sale, on behalf of any of the Registrant’s clients. When the Registrant is purchasing or considering for purchase any security on behalf of a client, no Access Person may effect a transaction in that security prior to the completion of the purchase or until a decision has been made not to purchase such security. Similarly, when the Registrant is selling or considering the sale of any security on behalf of a client, no Access Person may effect a transaction in that security prior to the completion of the sale or until a decision has been made not to sell such |

These requirements are not applicable to: (i) direct obligations of the Government of the United States; (ii) money market instruments, bankers' acceptances, bank certificates of deposit, commercial paper, repurchase agreements and other high quality short-term debt instruments, including repurchase agreements; (iii) shares issued by mutual funds or money market funds; and (iv) shares issued by unit investment trusts that are invested exclusively in one or more mutual funds. |
| 10 | The Registrant does not impose a minimum portfolio size or minimum annual fee. Certain Independent Manager(s) may, however, impose more restrictive account requirements and varying billing practices than the Registrant. In such instances, the Registrant may alter its corresponding account requirements and/or billing practices to accommodate those of the Independent Manager(s) or wrap fee program sponsor. |
| 11A | For those clients to whom the Registrant provides investment management services, the Registrant monitors those portfolios as part of an ongoing process while regular account reviews are conducted on at least a quarterly basis. Such reviews are conducted by one of the Registrant's investment adviser representatives, but primarily by John D. Michel or the advisor assigned to that client relationship. All investment advisory clients are encouraged to discuss their needs, goals, and objectives with the Registrant and to keep the Registrant informed of any changes thereto. The Registrant shall contact ongoing investment advisory clients at least annually to review its previous services and/or recommendations and to discuss the impact resulting from any changes in the client's financial situation and/or investment objectives. |
| 11B | Unless otherwise agreed upon, clients are provided with transaction confirmation notices and regular summary account statements directly from the broker-dealer or custodian for the client accounts. Those clients to whom the Registrant provides investment advisory services will also receive a report from the Registrant that may include such relevant account and/or market-related information such as an inventory of account holdings and account performance from time to time. |
| 12A and 12B | Please see the previous responses set forth on this Schedule F to Items 1D, 8C(1), and 9B. Except as provided for in any applicable wrap fee program, the brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees charged by Pershing or any other designated broker-dealer are exclusive of and in addition to the Registrant's fee. Factors which the Registrant considers in recommending Pershing or any other broker-dealer, to clients include their respective financial strength, reputation, execution, pricing, research, and service. Pershing enables the Registrant to obtain many mutual funds without transaction charges and other securities at nominal transaction charges. The commissions and/or transaction fees charged by Pershing may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. The commissions paid by the Registrant's clients shall comply with the Registrant's duty to obtain "best execution." However, a client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where the Registrant determines, in good faith, that the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer's services, including among others, the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Consistent with the foregoing, while the Registrant will seek competitive rates, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client transactions. If the client requests the Registrant to arrange for the execution of securities brokerage transactions for the client's account, the Registrant shall direct such transactions through broker-dealers that the Registrant reasonably believes will provide best execution. The Registrant shall periodically and systematically review its policies and procedures regarding recommending broker-dealers to its client in light of its duty to obtain best execution. The client may direct the Registrant in writing to use a particular broker-dealer to execute some or all transactions for the client. In that case, the client will negotiate terms and arrangements for the account with that broker-dealer, and the Registrant will not seek better execution services or prices from other broker-dealers or be able to "batch" client transactions for execution through other broker-dealers with orders for other accounts managed by the Registrant (as described below). As a result, the client may pay higher commissions or other transaction costs or greater spreads, or receive less favorable net prices, on transactions for the account than would otherwise be the case. Subject to its duty of best execution, the Registrant may decline a client's request to direct brokerage if, in the |

| | Registrant's sole discretion, such directed brokerage arrangements would result in additional operational difficulties. Transactions for each client generally will be effected independently, unless the Registrant decides to purchase or sell the same securities for several clients at approximately the same time. The Registrant may (but is not obligated to) combine or "batch" such orders to obtain best execution, to negotiate more favorable commission rates, or to allocate equitably among the Registrant's clients differences in prices and commissions or other transaction costs that might have been obtained had such orders been placed independently. Under this procedure, transactions will generally be averaged as to price and allocated among the Registrant's clients pro rata to the purchase and sale orders placed for each client on any given day. To the extent that the Registrant determines to aggregate client orders for the purchase or sale of securities, including securities in which the Registrant's Advisory Affiliate(s) may invest, the Registrant shall generally do so in accordance with applicable rules promulgated under the Advisers Act and no-action guidance provided by the staff of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Registrant shall not receive any additional compensation or remuneration as a result of the aggregation. In the event that the Registrant determines that a prorated allocation is not appropriate under the particular circumstances, the allocation will be made based upon other relevant factors, which may include: (i) when only a small percentage of the order is executed, shares may be allocated to the account with the smallest order or the smallest position or to an account that is out of line with respect to security or sector weightings relative to other portfolios, with similar mandates; (ii) allocations may be given to one account when one account has limitations in its investment guidelines which prohibit it from purchasing other securities which are expected to produce similar investment results and can be purchased by other accounts; (iii) if an account reaches an investment guideline limit and cannot participate in an allocation, shares may be reallocated to other accounts (this may be due to unforeseen changes in an account's assets after an order is placed); (iv) with respect to sale allocations, allocations may be given to accounts low in cash; (v) in cases when a pro rata allocation of a potential execution would result in a de minimis allocation in one or more accounts, the Registrant may exclude the account(s) from the allocation; the transactions may be executed on a pro rata basis among the remaining accounts; or (vi) in cases where a small proportion of an order is executed in all accounts, shares may be allocated to one or more accounts on a random basis. |
