	Meetings with Clients occur at least annually, but not more than quarterly, unless a more frequent schedule is agreed upon between Sycamore and a Client. Clients have a comprehensive annual review (the "Review"), the timing of which is determined by mutual agreement of the parties. The Review includes revisiting the investment policy statement in order to confirm or revise stated goals, assess performance over the prior year as measured by existing goals, and adjust asset allocation targets as necessitated by changes in a Client's financial situation. In addition, financial planning services, such as retirement planning, education savings planning, estate planning and analysis of beneficiary designations and insurance planning (life, health, long-term care, disability, etc.) are conducted during the Review. Thus, these planning services involve a review of all client assets, not just those managed by Sycamore. Where Client's needs (or situation) call for services beyond Sycamore's expertise, Sycamore will refer the Client to a qualified legal, tax or other appropriate professional. Client will be responsible for any additional fees incurred for utilization of such professionals. Fees For Investment Management Services. The initial fee, and fee offsets, are applicable from the day services begin through the end of the first calendar-quarter in which the account is opened more than 30 days. Thereafter, fees are based upon the value of the account on the last business day of each quarter. No fee rate is applied to nonmanaged assets held in a Client's account for reporting purposes only. The asset-based fees set out above are offset by, and only by, the percentage rate of 12(b)-1 compensation applicable to the Client's mutual fund holdings. Offsets do not carry over from one quarter to the next. For purposes of valuing assets, related accounts may, at the discretion of Sycamore, be combined and the net fee due from each account apportioned on a pro-rata basis among the accounts so combined. The fee for any period which is less than a full quarter, and the 12(b)-1 offsets for that period, are prorated and any unearned prepaid fee is returned. No adjustment or refund will be made with respect to partial withdrawals by a Client during any fee period. Hourly fees for Review work beyond 20 hours for Enhanced Consulting Clients are established in advance of exceeding that time limit. The fees shown above are for Investment Consulting Services only. Fees do not cover any transaction or other service costs. To the extent that transaction orders are placed through Buttonwood Partners, Inc., the representative placing the order will share in the transaction commission. Sycamore's contract may be terminated by the Client or Sycamore with 30 days advance notice to the other. Important Considerations. Clients should carefully consider the following information and contact their Sycamore representative if they have any questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. In addition to Sycamore's fees, each mutual fund in which a Client's assets may be invested also pays its own advisory fees and other expenses (including 12(b)-1 fees) which already have been deducted from the fund's reported performance and, depending on the fund, a Client may be able to invest directly in the shares issued by a mutual fund with or without incurring any sales or advisory service fees. In addition, there are tax effects pertaining to fund share redemptions or other securities sales made by Sycamore on behalf of Clients. Redemptions are taxable events which may accelerate the recognition of capital gains, and frequent redemptions may result in short-term, rather than long-term capital gains. 2. A portion of the fee for services may involve the purchase of mutual fund share classes which result in increased annual expense ratios (i.e., expenses charged by the mutual funds as internal expenses) which result in the representative receiving higher continuing asset-based 12(b)-1 fees than those available in other mutual fund share classes. 3. Because of the higher internal expenses inherent in such fund class ownership, Clients owning such classes long-term, may pay higher total fees (Sycamore fees plus internal expenses, including 12(b)-1 fees) than would be incurred if the services of other investment advisers providing similar services were engaged. 4. The amount recommended and invested in such classes for Clients receiving services will vary from Client to Client based on the investment needs of the Client. Other fees may also vary. Thus, Clients receiving similar services will pay different total fees. 5. Because counselors at Sycamore will receive continuing asset-based 12(b)-1 fees if Clients maintain such fund class positions, this revenue flow is an influence to Sycamore's counselors

Item 7.C.	Other Business Activities. Although the consultants at Sycamore are available to provide Consulting and Investment Management services as needed, they are also securities representatives of Buttonwood Partners, Inc., a broker-dealer. Approximately 50% of each consultant's time is spent on consulting and investment management matters for Sycamore, while the balance of their time is spent servicing customer accounts and processing securities transactions at Buttonwood Partners, Inc.
Item 8.C.(1)	Business Affiliations. As described above, consultants at Sycamore are licensed as securities representatives for Buttonwood Partners, Inc., a firm Sycamore recommends be used for all securities transactions. Sycamore and/or its employees may buy or sell securities it also recommends to Clients subject to the requirements of its Code of Ethics summarized below. Sycamore has adopted a Code of Ethics that governs all employees of Sycamore ("Persons"). The Code requires all Persons to report all personal securities transactions to Sycamore. Moreover, Persons are required, on an annual basis, to disclose all personal securities holdings. With respect to the personal securities transactions of Persons, the Code of Ethics prohibits Persons from 1) purchasing or selling securities on any day that an account managed by Sycamore has a pending "buy" or "sell" order in the same securities, until that order is executed or withdrawn; 2) purchasing or selling securities at a time when that Person intends, or knows of another's intention, to purchase or sell those securities on behalf of an account managed by Sycamore. Certain types of securities are exempt from these prohibitions, including (1) shares of open end investment companies, (2) direct obligations of the U.S. government, and (3) other securities as may from time to time be designated in writing in the Code of Ethics on the grounds that the risk of abuse is minimal or non-existent. A complete copy of the Code is available upon request.

However, Sycamore usually recommends the securities transaction execution services of Buttonwood Partners, Inc. Clients should be aware that directing transactions to a single broker-dealer, including Buttonwood Partners, Inc., may not allow accounts to obtain the benefit of research available from other broker-dealers in return for business directed to them. In addition, there could be no assurance that the practice of using one broker-dealer will result in "best execution" of each securities transaction. Benefits From Non-Clients. When recommending broker-dealers and custodians, Sycamore will most often select those that provide administrative support services to it. These services include computer access to customer positions, quotes, reports to Clients, specialized software, securities research and other benefits. Although Sycamore believes that use of these services enhances its advisory services to Clients, receipt of such services also creates a conflict of interest for Sycamore and its consultants since recommending any other broker-dealer or custodian may result in higher reporting, billing and other overhead costs to Buttonwood.
