Designations

James J. Krebec Mr. has earned the following designation(s) and is in good standing with the granting authority:

- Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®)

Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards; 1990

The program is administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. Those with the CFP® designation have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates complete studies on over 100 topics, including stocks, bonds, taxes, insurance, retirement planning and estate planning. In addition to passing the CFP certification exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to adhere to the CFP Board's code of ethics and professional responsibility and financial planning standards. 30 hours of continuing education credits must be reported every two years to maintain the certification.

- Certified Investment Management AnalystSM (CIMA®)

Investment Management Consultants Association; 1996

The CIMA certification signifies that an individual has met initial and on-going experience, ethical, education, and examination requirements for investment management consulting, including advanced investment management theory and application. Prerequisites for the CIMA certification are three years of financial services experience and an acceptable regulatory history. To obtain the CIMA certification, candidates must pass a Qualification Examination, successfully complete a one-week classroom education program provided by a Registered Education Provider at an AACSB accredited university business school (for this Jim attended The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania), and pass a Certification Examination. CIMA designees are required to adhere to IMCA's Code of Professional Responsibility, Standards of Practice, and Rules and Guidelines for Use of the Marks. CIMA designees must report 40 hours of continuing education credits, including two ethics hours, every two years to maintain the certification. The designation is administered through Investment Management Consultants Association (IMCA).

Supervisor: James Krebec

Title: President

Phone Number: 630-371-1585

James Krebec, as the President and Compliance Officer, has the overall responsibility for monitoring CIC Investment Consultants'/Christian Investment Consultants', LLC regulatory compliance. This includes among other activities, periodic reviews of employees' activities, e.g., personal trading. It also includes procedures to monitor client recommendations and investments. All Investment Management and Investment Consulting Services clients must have completed our Investment Questionnaire and Objectives and Guidelines form. This allows us to understand our client's risk and return objectives and asset allocation target. This in turn, provides the parameters by which James Krebec manages the portfolio for Investment Management clients. (It also provides the framework for recommendations for Investment Consulting clients). He manages the portfolio for Investment Management clients so that the securities selected are consistent with the clients Investment Questionnaire and Objectives and Guidelines, taking into consideration any restrictions.

The Investment Questionnaire and Objectives and Guidelines form is updated as appropriate based on changes in the client's investment goals, risk, or return objective. Clients are required to promptly advise us of any changes in their financial condition.
