This brochure supplement (“Supplement”) has been prepared by Vining Financial Services, Inc. (“Vining”) and it provides information about the qualifications and background of the supervised person named above, hereinafter referred to as “Mr. McGoldrick.” You should review this Supplement in conjunction with Part 2A of our Form ADV, also known as our “Brochure.” You should have already received a copy of our brochure and if not or if you have questions about anything in this Supplement, please contact us at (770) 971-9141 or vfs@viningfinancial.com. Additional information about Vining or any of our supervised persons (who are registered under our firm) is also available on the SEC’s Investment Adviser Public Disclosure (“IAPD”) which can be found at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

The format/layout of this Supplement has been dictated by the SEC. The subsections appearing under each heading shall follow the mandated ordering of the items required to be addressed in this Supplement as set forth in the instructions and guidance issued by the SEC in regard to Part 2B of the Form ADV. Vining’s response to each such item shall immediately follow each numbered item. We encourage any reader of this Supplement to also refer to the SEC’s instructions and guidance related to Part 2B of the Form ADV. Throughout this Supplement, any references to “we,” “our,” “ours,” “us,” etc. are meant to refer to Vining.

The information in this Brochure has not been approved or verified by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) or by any state securities authority.

CFP – Certified Financial Planner

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 62,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor’s Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

CPA – Certified Public Accountant

CPA is the statutory title of qualified accountants in the United States who have passed the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination and have met additional state education and experience requirements for certification as a CPA. The Uniform CPA Examination is one of the "Three Es" - Education, Examination, and Experience - that are required for licensure as a CPA. Consequently, passing the Examination is not, in itself, sufficient to meet requirements for licensure. Licensure requirements vary by jurisdiction, and are described on the websites of all Boards of Accountancy. Links to Board of Accountancy websites are available at <http://www.nasba.org/nasbaweb.nsf/exam>.

The timeline to licensing includes education, examination and experience¹.

Before doing anything else, a CPA candidate must complete a program of study in accounting at a college/university. The AICPA recommends at least 150 semester hours of college coursework.

The next step is to sit for the Uniform CPA Examination. While the Exam is developed and graded by the AICPA, eligibility to sit for the CPA Exam is determined by the state board of accountancy in each of the 55 U.S. jurisdictions (includes the 50 states, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of Northern Mariana Islands, and Guam). Please visit the certification section of the AICPA's web site for more information about the CPA examination process.

Upon passing the CPA Exam, an individual will receive a CPA certificate. This is not a license to practice. There are other educational and professional work experience requirements for licensure that vary from state to state. The certification section of the AICPA web site offers more details on these requirements.

Once an individual has obtained the CPA license to practice, he/she will need to take continuing professional education courses annually to retain the license.

III. Disciplinary Information

This portion of this Supplement is designed to provide you any pertinent information related to any disciplinary matters involving Mr. McGoldrick. We are obligated to look back for a period of ten years unless more than ten years have elapsed since a particular disciplinary event but that we deem the matter significant enough that a reasonable person would find it material in evaluating Mr. McGoldrick or our firm.

This information below is also available via the SEC's Investment Adviser Public Disclosure ("IAPD") which can be found at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

IV. Other Business Activities

IV.(A). Other Investment-Related Activities

Mr. McGoldrick is engaged in the following investment-related² business activities outside the scope of his investment advisory activities on behalf of Vining. For any listed activity, we will name the other entity and we will also describe the relationship, if any, between our advisory business and each particular activity. We will also address any conflicts of interest that may arise in relation to such outside activity(s) as well as any particulars surrounding Mr. McGoldrick's receipt of any compensation in connection with such activities.

Securities brokerage and insurance activities

Other entity: Triad Advisors, Inc.

Relationship/Conflicts/Compensation: Mr. McGoldrick is licensed to sell certain securities and investment products through Triad Advisors, Inc. ("Triad"), a FINRA member broker-dealer registered with the SEC. Triad is also registered with the SEC as an investment adviser, however, all of Mr. McGoldrick's investment advisory activities are carried out under Vining. Mr. McGoldrick's activities through Triad are independent from and in addition to those of Vining. Vining and Triad are not affiliated entities. Mr. McGoldrick spends approximately 15 hours per month on this business activity.

Mr. McGoldrick also receives additional compensation in relation to the sale of securities or other investment products. Such compensation is in the form of cash. The instructions in the Form ADV require us to tell you that the receipt or potential for the receipt of this other compensation gives Mr. McGoldrick an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your specific needs. Although we are obligated to tell you this, both Mr. McGoldrick's and our objective as a firm is to place nothing before your best interests.

Mr. McGoldrick, in his capacity as a registered representative of Triad, may recommend Triad's brokerage services to clients who have or are utilizing Vining's investment advisory services. Vining's clients are free to implement advisory recommendations through any firm. There is no obligation to effect transactions through Triad or Mr. McGoldrick, however, if you choose to do so, commissions may be earned by Mr. McGoldrick which may be higher or lower than those you might pay at another broker-dealer. Vining does not warrant or represent that commissions for transactions implemented through Triad will be lower than commission available if you use another brokerage firm. Vining believes, however, that the overall level of services and support provided to clients by Triad outweighs the potentially lower transaction cost available under other brokerage arrangements.

² "Investment-related" means "activities that pertain to securities, commodities, banking, insurance, or real estate (including, but not limited to, acting as or being associated with an investment adviser, broker-dealer, municipal securities dealer, government securities broker or dealer, issuer, investment company, futures sponsor, bank, or savings association)."

Vining may make conflicting or differing recommendations with respect to the same securities products to different advisory clients. All such recommendations are based on each individual client's financial circumstances, needs, risk tolerances, objectives, etc.

How we Address the Conflict(s): First and foremost, we address the conflicts described in the preceding section by disclosing them to you in this Brochure Supplement as well as in Vining's separate Brochure. As a matter of general policy, we aggressively discourage activities that put your interests anywhere but first. Additionally, we have instituted a comprehensive supervisory process, detailed in our Written Supervisory Procedures ("WSPs") that was designed to address, among other things, conflicts of interest such as this one. In addition, we have designated a Chief Compliance Officer, as set forth on Schedule A of our Form ADV, to be the party responsible for the overall application and oversight of our supervisory process and our WSPs. Our Chief Compliance Officer has the authority to delegate certain supervisory responsibilities to other supervised persons within our firm in order to ensure that our overall system of supervision is being adequately carried out and in a timely manner.

The potential conflicts of interest described in the preceding section are commonplace in the investment industry and we believe that they are not only appropriate but that they are proper in light of the added examination, licensing, registration, and other regulatory oversight that also takes place in the brokerage portions of the investment industry. Mr. McGoldrick has satisfied various regulatory examination and registration requirements that allow not only for the offering of brokerage products as well as the receipt of the normal and customary compensation that any similarly registered, licensed, and qualified person could receive in the form of sales compensation for those same products.

Bear in mind that even if Mr. McGoldrick was not registered to sell securities products, the majority of your investments or transactions involving such products would still result in you paying some sort of commission for those products. In Mr. McGoldrick's case, his active registration allows him to be able to receive those commissions as opposed to the executing broker-dealer keeping them for themselves.

The added compensation received by Mr. McGoldrick in connection with any brokerage activities is deemed routine and customary compensation for such activities and is not believed to be inappropriate.

IV.(B). Other Activities

Mr. McGoldrick is engaged in the following, additional activities outside the scope of his investment advisory activities on behalf of Vining and these other activities represent a substantial (i.e. ten percent or more) portion of Mr. McGoldrick's income and/or professional activities.

- 1) Business Activity. W. Robert McGoldrick, CPA, CFP, PC

Nature of Activity: Mr. McGoldrick is a CPA, CFP and PC and provides public accounting services. Mr. McGoldrick maintains his CPA license in the state of Georgia. Mr. McGoldrick spends approximately 150 hours per month on this business activity.

V. Additional Compensation

The purpose of this Item is to describe any additional compensation (outside that which has been described above in Section IV.(A).) that Mr. McGoldrick may receive in addition to his normal compensation for the investment advisory services he/she performs under our firm. As applicable, such other forms of compensation are denoted in the following grid. Please note that regular bonuses paid by us as part of Mr. McGoldrick's normal and customary compensation are not considered "additional compensation" for the purpose of this Item.

	Type of Compensation
<input type="checkbox"/>	Sales awards or other prizes
<input type="checkbox"/>	Bonus based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales/transactions
<input type="checkbox"/>	Bonus based, at least in part, on client referrals

<input type="checkbox"/>	Bonus based, at least in part, on the # or type of new accounts opened
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	None

VI. Supervision

As part of our overall compliance and supervisory process, we monitor the advisory activities of all of our supervised persons. As part of the supervisory process over the advisory activities of Mr. McGoldrick, Mr. McGoldrick's Designated Supervisor (identified below), shall carry out the following general supervisory steps.

- Periodic review of customer account activity
- Periodic review of electronic and other correspondence
- Observation during client meetings and/or phone calls
- On-site inspection of Mr. McGoldrick's office location (if other than the our main office)

In order to ensure that we are effectively and consistently carrying out our supervisory process over Mr. McGoldrick's advisory activities, we maintain a set of Written Supervisory Procedures ("WSP") that, among other things, address matters such as supervision of the activities of our supervised persons like Mr. McGoldrick. Our WSP manual is the guiding force behind all of our supervisory functions and is subject to the regular inspection by any regulatory bodies having jurisdiction over our investment advisory activities.

Mr. McGoldrick's Designated Supervisor:

Karen Vining
President/CCO
(770) 971-9141
