ADVISORY BUSINESS

Item 4

Beacon Financial Planning, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as “Beacon”) offers a fee-only service consisting of comprehensive, fundamental, long-term financial planning as well as asset management services.

A. Beacon is a corporation formed under the laws of the State of Massachusetts in 1986 and filed for investment adviser registration with the State of Massachusetts in October 1986. Beacon filed for registration with the Securities and Exchange Commission in September 2018. Walter Herlihy, CRD number 1190239, is the Principal Owner, President, Chief Compliance Officer and Advisory Representative. Walter has been in the financial services industry since 1983. Additional business information about Walter is disclosed on the Supplemental Brochure attached to this Brochure.

B. Beacon offers the following advisory services, with each service more fully described below:

- Asset Management
- Financial Planning
- Consulting Services
- Financial Education Seminars.

These services may be general in nature or focused on particular areas of interest or need depending upon each client’s unique circumstances.

Asset Management Services

An initial free, no-obligation meeting is offered to introduce Beacon’s services and fees. Once there is mutual agreement on fit and desire to work together, we will request a number of documents to help understand your overall financial situation.

Beacon will gather financial information and history from you such as your retirement and financial goals, investment objectives, investment horizon, financial needs, cash flow analysis, cost of living needs, education needs, savings tendencies, and other applicable financial information to provide the investment advisory services requested. All information gathered from you is confidential.

After evaluating the information, we customize a portfolio allocation taking into consideration your limitations or restrictions, the market and economy at the time and your financial situation, goals and objectives. Your Advisory Representative will schedule a meeting with you and present the recommended portfolio. Upon your approval, we will implement the initial portfolio allocation. Beacon will manage your account on a continuous and ongoing basis.

Although Beacon offers asset management services on both a discretionary and non-discretionary basis, our standard policy is to contact you to discuss our recommendations. Typically, the only time we will execute discretionary trades is if we are unable to reach you and we need to raise some cash in your account for a pre-established distribution. Otherwise, we intend to discuss each transaction prior to execution.

If you elect to have a nondiscretionary account, no changes will be made to the allocation of your account without prior consultation with you. Your Advisory Representative must contact you to discuss recommendations for changes within your account. Non-discretionary accounts are subject to certain risks that are not inherent in discretionary accounts. Risks may include, but not be limited to, the risk of missing market opportunities or the risk of your Advisory Representative not being able to move out of the market until you have been contacted to discuss recommendations for changes within your account.

Depending on your specific goals and objectives, we will generally hold positions in your account for a long term, even more than a year, or we may recommend actively trading some securities, holding such positions for periods of 30 days or fewer. Your portfolio may be similarly managed and contain similar holdings as compared to other clients' managed accounts.

Our Advisory Representatives primarily use open-ended mutual funds including no-load and load waived or mutual funds purchased at net asset value (NAV). However, managed accounts are not exclusively limited to mutual funds and may include stocks and bonds, certificates of deposits, government securities, exchange traded funds (ETFs), money markets, annuities, direct participation programs and REITs.

Transactions in the account, account reallocations and rebalancing may trigger a taxable event, with the exception of IRA accounts, 403(b) accounts and other qualified retirement accounts.

As further described below, Beacon has entered into a relationship to offer you brokerage and custodial services through Schwab Advisor Services™ of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab"). There is no affiliation between Beacon and Schwab.

Financial Planning/Consulting Services

Our Advisory Representative will schedule a meeting with you to gather financial information and history from you about your retirement and financial goals, investment objectives, investment horizon, financial needs, cash flow analysis, cost of living needs, education needs, savings tendencies, and other applicable financial information to provide the planning services you request. Beacon will prepare a written financial plan and present the analysis of your situation along with our recommendations for steps to be taken to assist you to work toward your financial goals.

A. The Plan is based on your financial situation at the time and on the financial information you disclosed to our Advisory Representative. You need to be aware that certain assumptions may be made with respect to interest and inflation rates as well as the use of past trends and performance of the market and economy. However, past performance is in no way an indication of future performance. Beacon cannot offer any guarantees or promises that your financial goals and objectives will be met. Further, you must continue to review the plan and update the plan based upon changes in your financial situation, goals, or objectives or changes in the economy. You must notify your Advisory Representatives promptly of any changes to your financial goals, objectives or financial situation as such changes may require your Advisory Representatives to review your plan and make amendments. Based on your specific needs or situation, you may need to seek the services of other professionals such as an insurance adviser, attorney and/or accountant.

A conflict exists between the interests of the Beacon and your interests. You are under no obligation to act upon Beacon's recommendation, and if you elect to act on any of the recommendations, you are under no obligation to effect the transaction through Beacon's Advisory Representatives.

If you do choose to implement the plan with our Advisory Representative, they will receive other compensation, such as ongoing management fees, in addition to the advisory fee you paid for the planning services.

Financial Education Seminars

Our Advisory Representatives may conduct financial education seminars on topics such as estate planning, investment strategies, and retirement needs. We may partner with attorneys and other professionals to offer these seminars. Seminar participants may subsequently choose to participate in a complimentary initial consultation with us. The consultation will consist of a general review of your financial situation, issues, and concerns. We will also explain the services we offer.

C. We tailor the advisory services we offer to your individual needs. You may impose restrictions and/or limitations on the investing in certain securities or types of securities. We will ask you to complete a client information fact sheet and investment risk questionnaire to assist us with obtaining information about your financial situation and history. Additionally, one or more of our Advisory Representatives will meet with you and conduct an interview and data gathering session to continue the due diligence process. The information gathered by Beacon will assist the firm in providing you with the requested services and customize the services to your financial situation. Depending on the services you have requested, we will gather various financial information and history from you including, but not limited to:

- Retirement and financial goals
- Investment objectives
- Investment horizon
- Existing portfolio statements, including retirement account information
- Financial needs
- Tax bracket information
- Cash flow analysis
- Cost of living needs
- Savings tendencies
- Other applicable financial information required by our Advisory Representative in order to provide the investment advisory services you have requested.

D. Beacon does not participate in any wrap fee programs.

E. As of, June 30, 2018, we have approximately $143.6 million of discretionary client assets under our asset management services. We do not have any non-discretionary accounts at this time.

General Information

The investment recommendations and advice offered by Beacon and your Advisory Representative are not legal advice or accounting advice. You should coordinate and discuss the impact of financial advice with your attorney and/or accountant. Our primary goal is to help our clients identify and pursue their financial goals, thereby enhancing the overall quality of their lives.

IRA Rollover Considerations

As part of our consulting and advisory services, we may provide you with recommendations and advice concerning your employer retirement plan or other qualified retirement account. We may recommend that you withdraw the assets from your employer's retirement plan or other qualified retirement account and roll the assets over to an individual retirement account ("IRA") which we will manage. If you elect to roll the assets to an IRA under our management, we will charge you an asset-based fee as described in Item 5. This practice presents a conflict of interest because our investment advisory representatives have an incentive to recommend a rollover to you for the purpose of generating fee based compensation rather than solely based on your needs. You are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to complete the rollover. Furthermore, if you do complete the rollover, you are under no obligation to have your IRA assets managed by us.

Employers may permit former employees to keep their retirement assets in their company plan. Also, current employees can sometimes move assets out of their company plan before they retire or change jobs. In determining whether to complete the rollover to an IRA, and to the extent the following options are available, you should consider the costs and benefits of each.

An employee will typically have four options:

1. Leave the funds in your employer's (former employer's) plan.
2. Roll over the funds to a new employer's retirement plan.
3. Cash out and take a taxable distribution from the plan.
4. Roll the funds into an IRA rollover account.

Each of these options has advantages and disadvantages. Before making a change, we encourage you to speak with your financial advisor, CPA and/or tax attorney.

Before rolling over your retirement funds to an IRA for us to manage, carefully consider the following. NOTE: This list is not exhaustive.

1. Determine whether the investment options in your employer's retirement plan address your needs or whether other types of investments are needed.
 - a. Employer retirement plans generally have a more limited investment menu than IRAs.
 - b. Employer retirement plans may have unique investment options not available to the public such as employer securities or previously closed funds.
2. Your current plan may have lower fees than our fees.
 - a. If you are interested in investing only in mutual funds, you should understand the cost structure of the share classes available in your employer's retirement plan and how the costs of those share classes compare with those available in an IRA.
 - b. You should understand the various products and services available through an IRA provider and their potential costs.
 - c. It is likely you will not be charged a management fee and will not receive ongoing asset management services unless you elect to have such services. If your plan offers management services, there may be a fee associated with the service that is more or less than our asset management fee.
3. Our strategy may have higher risk than the option(s) provided to you in your plan.
4. Your current plan may offer financial advice, guidance, management, and/or portfolio options

- at no additional cost.
5. If you keep your assets titled in a 401k or retirement account and you are still working, you could potentially delay your required minimum distribution beyond age 70.5 (70 ½).
 6. Your 401k may offer more liability protection than a rollover IRA; each state may vary. Generally, federal law protects assets in qualified plans from creditors. Since 2005, IRA assets have been generally protected from creditors in bankruptcies; however, there can be exceptions. Consult an attorney if you are concerned about protecting your retirement plan assets from creditors.
 7. You may be able to take out a loan on your 401k, but not from an IRA.
 8. IRA assets can be accessed any time; however, prior to age 59 ½, distributions are subject to ordinary income tax and may also be subject to a 10% early distribution penalty unless they qualify for an exception such as disability, higher education expenses, or a home purchase.
 9. If you own company stock in your plan, you may be able to liquidate those shares at a lower capital gains tax rate.
 10. Your plan may allow you to hire us as the manager and keep the assets titled in the plan name.

It is important that you understand your options, their features and differences and decide whether a rollover is best for you. If you have questions, contact us at our main number listed on the cover page of this brochure.

FEES AND COMPENSATION

Item 5

A. Our fees are negotiable and are not based on a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds in your account. The Fee Schedule is as follows:

Account Size	Maximum Annual Fee
Up to $500,000	1.00%
$500,001 to $1,000,000	0.80%
$1,000,001 to $5,000,000	0.60%
$5,000,001 to $10,000,000	0.50%
$10,000,001 and above	0.40%

Fee calculation example for a $3.8 million dollar account:

➤ Quarterly Fee is $5,700: $$3,800,000 \times 0.60\% = $22,800$ divided by 4.

Beacon may change the above fee schedule with your authorization on 30-days prior written notice to you.

We sometimes make exceptions to our general fee schedule under certain circumstances (e.g., responsibilities involved; accounts or groups of accounts which are expected to have significant capital additions in the future; anticipated future earning capacity; related accounts; account composition; pre-existing client; account retention; pro bono activities, etc.). In such cases, lower or higher fees or different payment arrangements can be negotiated with each client separately and will be described in the client's advisory agreement.

You may make additions to the account or withdrawals from the account. No fee adjustments will be made for additional deposits, partial withdrawals or for Account appreciation or depreciation.

Lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources.

B. If the account is established or closed during the middle of a month, you will pay a pro-rated portion of the advisory fee based upon the number of days the account was under Beacon's management. You may either elect to have us bill you each quarter for your Asset Management fees or you may authorize us to instruct the custodian to deduct the Asset Management fee directly from your account. You will need to grant Beacon the authorization to instruct the custodian to debit your fee. If the fees are deducted directly from an account, Beacon will send you a quarterly fee notice showing the amount of the fee to be deducted. In addition, Schwab will provide you with a quarterly statement that lists the total fees deducted from the account as well as all transactions that were conducted in the account that quarter.

C. In addition to the advisory fees above, you will pay transaction fees for securities transactions executed in your account in accordance with the custodian's transaction fee schedule. You may also pay fees for custodial services, account maintenance fees, and other fees associated with maintaining the account. These fees are not charged by Beacon and are charged by the product sponsor or account custodian. Beacon does not share in any portion of these fees. Additionally, you may pay your proportionate share of the fund's management and administrative fees and sales charges as well as the mutual fund adviser's fee of any mutual fund they purchase. These advisory fees are not shared with Beacon and are compensation to the fund manager. You should read the mutual fund prospectus for complete information.

D. The Asset Management fee is billed in arrears quarterly. Fees will be based on the value of the account on the last business day of the calendar quarter of each year. If your account does not contain sufficient funds to pay the advisory fees, we have the limited authority to sell or redeem securities in sufficient amounts to pay advisory fees. Except for ERISA and IRA accounts, you may reimburse your account for advisory fees paid to Beacon.

Termination Provisions

You may terminate investment advisory services obtained from Beacon, without penalty, upon verbal or written notice within five (5) business days after entering into the advisory agreement with Beacon. You will, however, be responsible for any fees and charges incurred from third parties as a result of maintaining the account, such as transaction fees for any securities transactions executed and account maintenance or custodial fees. Thereafter, you may terminate investment advisory services with verbal or written notice to Beacon. If you terminate investment advisory services during a quarter, you will be charged a pro-rata portion of the advisory fee for the quarter up to the date of termination.

Financial Planning/Consulting Services

Fees for financial planning/consulting services are strictly for planning/consulting services. Therefore, you may pay fees and/or commissions for additional services obtained such as asset management or products purchased such as securities or insurance from other professionals.

Planning fees are negotiated at the discretion of your Advisory Representative and are based on an hourly rate of up to $300/hour. Generally, Beacon will invoice you as services are rendered.

Termination Provisions

You may terminate planning services obtained from Beacon, without penalty, with verbal or written notice within five (5) business days after entering into the advisory agreement with Beacon.

Thereafter, you may terminate planning services with verbal or written notice to Beacon. You will be responsible for any time spent by Beacon in providing you advisory services or analyzing your situation.

Financial Education Seminars

We may impose a fee of $250 per hour for educational workshops. Generally, the employer, civic or non-profit group sponsoring the workshop will pay any fees charged by us.

If you utilize our financial planning services, you will not be charged for additional financial planning services once you engage Beacon for asset management services. If you utilize our asset management services and wish to obtain financial planning services, you may be charged for an initial hour of service. Ongoing charges for financial planning services will be waived.

PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT Item 6

Beacon does not charge performance-based fees and therefore does not engage in side-by-side management.

TYPES OF CLIENTS Item 7

Beacon's services are geared toward both high-net-worth individuals and non-high-net-worth individuals, trusts and estates, pension and profit sharing plans, corporations and charitable organizations.

Beacon does not require a minimum account size to obtain our asset management services. However, you should be aware that performance may suffer due to difficulties with diversifying smaller accounts and due to risk controls potentially being compromised. Performance of smaller accounts may vary from the performance of accounts with more dollars invested because fluctuations in the market may affect smaller accounts more.

METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS Item 8

A. Beacon conducts economic analysis and attempts to analyze and determine economic trends. Additionally, Beacon uses Modern Portfolio Theory and asset allocation. Modern Portfolio Theory is a theory of investing which attempts to maximize a portfolio's expected return based on a given amount of portfolio risk by carefully choosing the appropriate amount of various assets.

B. You need to understand that investing in securities involves risk of loss, including the potential loss of the principal money you are investing. Therefore, your participation in the asset management program offered by Beacon requires you to be prepared to bear the risk of loss as well as the fluctuating performance of your accounts. Market values of investments will always fluctuate based on market conditions.

We do not represent, warrant, or imply that the services or methods of analysis we use can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate you from losses due to major market corrections or crashes. Past performance is no indication of future performance. No guarantees can be offered that your goals or objectives will be achieved. Further, no promises or assumptions can be made that the advisory services offered by Beacon or our Advisory Representatives will provide a better return than other investment strategies.

C. As stated above in Item 5, Beacon primarily uses mutual funds in client portfolios. The risks with mutual funds include the costs and expenses within the fund that can impact performance, change of managers and/or the fund straying from its stated investment objective. Open-ended mutual funds do not typically have a liquidity issue and the price does not fluctuate throughout the trading day. Mutual fund fees are described in the fund's prospectus, which the custodian mails directly to the client following any purchase of a mutual fund that is new to the client's account. In addition, a prospectus is available online at each mutual fund company's website. At the client's request at any time Beacon will direct the client to the appropriate Web page to access the prospectus.

For Massachusetts Residents:

CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

Item 11

Code of Ethics

A. Beacon has a fiduciary duty to you to act in your best interest and always place your interests first and foremost. Beacon takes seriously its compliance and regulatory obligations and requires all staff to comply with such rules and regulations as well as our policies and procedures. Further, we strive to handle your non-public information in such a way to protect information from falling into the hands of anyone who has no business reason to know such information. We provide you with our Privacy Policy which details our procedures for handling your personal information. Beacon maintains a code of ethics for its Advisory Representatives, supervised persons and office staff. The Code of Ethics contains provisions for standards of business conduct in order to comply with federal securities laws, personal securities reporting requirements, pre-approval procedures for certain transactions, code violations reporting requirements, and safeguarding of material non-public information about your transactions. Further, our Code of Ethics establishes our firm's expectation for business conduct. A copy of our Code of Ethics will be provided to you upon request.

B. Neither Beacon nor its associated persons recommends to clients or buys or sells for client accounts any securities in which we have a material financial interest.

C. Beacon and its associated persons may buy or sell securities identical to those securities recommended to you. Therefore, Beacon and/or its associated persons may have an interest or position in certain securities that are also recommended and bought or sold to you. They will not put their interests before your interest. Neither Beacon nor any associated person may trade ahead of you or trade in such a way to obtain a better price for themselves than for you or other clients.

D. Beacon is required to maintain a list of all securities holdings for its associated persons and develop procedures to supervise the trading activities of associated persons who have knowledge of your transactions and their related family accounts at least quarterly. Further, associated persons are prohibited from trading on non-public information or sharing such information.

You have the right to decline any investment recommendation. Beacon and its associated persons are required to conduct their securities and investment advisory business in accordance with all applicable Federal and State securities regulations.

BROKERAGE PRACTICES

Item 12

A. Schwab provides Beacon with access to its institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to Schwab retail investors. These services generally are available to independent investment advisers on an unsolicited basis, at no charge so long as a total of at least $10 million of Beacon's clients' assets are maintained in accounts at Schwab. There is no other contingency upon Beacon committing to Schwab any specific amount of business (assets in custody or trading). Schwab's services include brokerage, custody, research and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment.

Schwab generally does not charge separately for custody of Beacon's client accounts, but it is compensated by account holders through commissions or other transaction-related fees for securities trades that are executed through Schwab or that settle into Schwab accounts.

Schwab makes available to Beacon other products and services that benefit Beacon but may not benefit you. Some of these other products and services assist Beacon in managing and administering your accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to your account data, such as trade confirmation and account statements; facilitate trade execution and allocation of aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts; provide research, pricing information and other marked data; facilitate payment of our fees from your accounts; and assist us with back-office functions, recordkeeping and client reporting. Many of these services generally may be used to service all or a substantial number of our client accounts. Schwab also makes available other services that are intended to help us manage and further develop our business enterprise. These services may include consulting, publications and conferences on practice management, information technology, business succession, regulatory compliance and marketing. In addition, Schwab may make available, arrange and/or pay for these types of services by independent third parties. Schwab may discount or waive fees it would otherwise charge for some of these services or pay all or a part of the fees of a third party providing these services to Beacon. Schwab provides Beacon with a discount on PortfolioCenter® service, a software solution provided by Schwab Performance Technologies®.

As a fiduciary, Beacon endeavors to act in your best interests; our recommendation that you maintain your assets in accounts at Schwab may be based in part on the benefit to Beacon of the availability of some of the foregoing products and services and not solely on the nature, cost or quality of custody and brokerage services provided by Schwab, which may create a conflict of interest. We believe, however, that our selection of Schwab as custodian and broker is in the best interests of our clients. Our selection is primarily supported by the scope, quality, and price of Schwab's services.

From time-to-time Beacon may make an error in submitting a trade order on your behalf. When this occurs, we will place a correcting trade with Schwab. If an investment gain results from the correcting trade, the gain will remain in your account unless the same error involved other client account(s) that should have received the gain, it is not permissible for you to retain the gain, or we confer with you and you decide to forego the gain (e.g., due to tax reasons). If the gain does not remain in your account, Schwab will donate the amount of any gain $100 and over to charity. If a loss occurs greater than $100, Beacon will pay for the loss. Schwab will maintain the loss or gain (if such gain is not retained in your account) if it is under $100 to minimize and offset its administrative time and expense. Generally, if related trade errors result in both gains and losses in your account, they may be netted.

B. Due to the individual management of client accounts, we do not aggregate the purchase or sale of securities for various client accounts.

REVIEW of ACCOUNTS

Item 13

A. While the underlying securities within Asset Management Services accounts are continuously monitored, individual client accounts are typically reviewed semi-annually. We will attempt to contact you at least annually or as agreed by you and your Advisory Representative. Accounts will be reviewed semi-annually unless otherwise requested by the client. You may request more frequent reviews and may set thresholds for triggering events that would cause a review to take place. You are advised that you must notify your Advisory Representative promptly of any changes to your financial goals, objectives or financial situation as such changes may require your Advisory Representative to review the portfolio allocation and make recommendations for changes. Financial plans will be reviewed periodically as needed, as the result of qualifying events or at the request of a client. Reviews are conducted by Walter K. Herlihy, President of Beacon, and Advisory Representatives Linda Gadkowski, Michaela Herlihy, and Robin Urciuoli.

B. Your Advisory Representative will monitor for changes or shifts in the economy, changes to the management and structure of a mutual fund or company in which your assets are invested, and market shifts and corrections.

C. You will be provided statements at least quarterly direct from Schwab, the account custodian. Additionally, you will receive confirmations of all transactions occurring direct from Schwab. Beacon may provide you an annual or more frequent performance report, depending on the services you request. You should compare our reports with statements received direct from Schwab. Should there be any discrepancy Schwab's report will prevail.

Beacon recommends you have at least an annual review and update to any financial plans. However, the time and frequency of the reviews is solely your decision. Other than the initial plan or analysis, there will be no other reports issued.

CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

Item 14

A. Product vendors recommended by Beacon's Advisory Representatives may provide monetary and non-monetary assistance with client events, provide educational tools and resources. We do not select products as a result of any monetary or non-monetary assistance. The selection of product that is most appropriate for the client is first and foremost. Beacon's due diligence of a product does not take into consideration any assistance it may receive. Although the receipt of products or services is a benefit for you and us, it also presents a conflict of interest.

Beacon attempts to mitigate the conflict of interest by notifying you of the conflict. We inform you that you are free to consult other financial professionals. We are bound by our Code of Ethics to act in an ethical manner.

Please refer to Brokerage Practices (Item 12) for further information.

B. Beacon does not directly or indirectly compensate any person or entity that is not a supervised person of our firm for referrals. However, Beacon receives ongoing compensation for referring a client to another investment advisory firm. Beacon entered into a solicitor's agreement with the other Adviser whereby Beacon receives a percentage of the advisory fee paid by the referred client. The referral fee will continue until the client terminates advisory services with the other Adviser.

CUSTODY

Item 15

Beacon does not have physical custody of any client funds or securities. However, under government regulations, we are deemed to have constructive custody of your assets if you authorize us to instruct Schwab to deduct our advisory fees directly from your account. Your custodian, Schwab, maintains the actual custody of your assets. You will receive account statements directly from Schwab at least quarterly. They will be sent to the email or postal mailing address you provided to them. You should carefully review those statements promptly when you receive them. As noted under Item 13C above, you should compare the portfolio allocation reports we provide you with your Schwab statement.

As part of our customer service, clients may request us to set up Standing Letters of Authorization (SLOAs) to move money from their account with us to a different account. If we have certain 1st party wire SLOAs and/or any 3rd Party SLOAs, we are deemed to have custody. As such, we comply with the safe harbor provisions so that we are not subject to the annual surprise examination under the Custody Rule (Investment Advisers Act Rule 206(4)-4).

INVESTMENT DISCRETION

Item 16

You may grant Beacon authorization to manage your account on a discretionary basis. You will grant such authority to Beacon by execution of the advisory agreement. You may terminate the discretionary authorization at any time by giving us written notice.

Additionally, you are advised that:

1. You may set parameters with respect to when account should be rebalanced and set trading restrictions or limitations;
2. Your written consent is required to establish any mutual fund, variable annuity, or brokerage account;
3. With the exception of deduction of Beacon's advisory fees from the account, if you have authorized automatic deductions, we will not have the ability to withdraw your funds or securities from the account.

VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

Item 17

Beacon does not vote your securities. Unless you suppress proxies, securities proxies will be sent directly to you by the account custodian or transfer agent. You may contact your Advisory Representative about questions you may have and opinions on how to vote the proxies. However, the decision to vote and how you vote the proxies is solely up to you.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Item 18

- A. Beacon will not require you to prepay more than $1,200 and six or more months in advance of receiving the advisory service; therefore, a balance sheet is not required to be attached.

To maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a 2-year period or 120 hours over a 3-year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct that requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services.
