Item of Form (identify)	Answer
1D	Legato Capital Management LLC (the "Registrant") is an investment adviser providing investment management and investment consulting services to pension and profit sharing plans, individuals, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations and business entities. The Registrant offers its services on a fee basis which may include fixed fees as well as fees based upon assets under management or the performance of the client's portfolio. Prior to engaging the Registrant to provide any of the foregoing investment advisory services, the client will be required to enter into one or more written agreements with the Registrant setting forth the terms and conditions under which the Registrant shall render its services (collectively the "Agreement"). The Registrant provides certain clients with investment consulting services which do not include the ongoing management of that client's assets. The Registrant will charge a fixed fee and/or asset based fee for these services. The Registrant's investment consulting fees are negotiable, but generally range from $5,000 to $500,000 on a fixed fee basis and/or from 0.02% (2 basis points) to 0.40% (40 basis points) of assets being advised upon. The fee shall be based upon a number of factors, including the level and scope of the services and the professional rendering the consulting services. If the client engages the Registrant for additional investment advisory services, the Registrant may offset all or a portion of its fees for those services based upon the amount paid for the consulting services. Prior to engaging the Registrant to provide consulting services, the client will generally be required to enter into a written agreement with the Registrant setting forth the terms and conditions of the engagement and describing the scope of the services to be provided and the portion of the fee that is due from the client prior to the Registrant commencing services. Either party may terminate the agreement by written notice to the other. In the event the client terminates the Registrant's consulting services, the balance of the Registrant's unearned fees (if any) shall be refunded to the client. If termination occurs within five business days of entering into an agreement for such services the client shall be entitled to a full refund. In performing its services, the Registrant shall not be required to verify any information received from the client or from the client's other professionals (e.g., attorney, accountant, etc.) and is expressly authorized to rely on such information. The Registrant may recommend the services of itself and/or other professionals to implement its recommendations. Clients are advised that a conflict of interest exists if the Registrant recommends its own services. The client is under no obligation to act upon any of the recommendations made by the Registrant under a consulting engagement and/or engage the services of any such recommended professional, including the Registrant itself. The client retains absolute discretion over all such implementation decisions and is free to accept or reject any of the Registrant's recommendations. Moreover, each client is advised that it remains his/her/its responsibility to promptly notify the Registrant if there is ever any change in his/her/its financial situation or investment objectives for the purpose of reviewing, evaluating, or revising the Registrant's previous recommendations and/or services. The Registrant provides investment management services on a fee basis. If engaged, the Registrant shall charge an annual fee based upon a percentage of the market value of the assets being managed by the Registrant. As discussed in response to Item 12B (below), the Registrant's annual fee is exclusive of, and in addition to brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses which shall be incurred by the client. However, the Registrant shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs. The Registrant's annual fee shall be prorated and charged quarterly, in arrears, based upon the market value of the assets on the last day of the previous quarter. The annual fee shall vary (between 1.05% and 1.30%) depending upon the type of account and market value of the assets under management, as follows:

The Registrant shall generally manage client portfolios by allocating portfolio assets among one or more of its proprietary investment strategies ("collectively referred to as investment strategy"). In so doing, the Registrant shall, directly or through the selection of Independent Manager(s), buy, sell, exchange, and/or transfer shares of mutual funds based upon the investment strategy. The Registrant's management using the investment strategy has been designed to comply with the requirements of Rule 3a-4 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. Rule 3a-4 provides similarly-managed accounts, such as the investment strategy, with a safe harbor from the definition of an investment company. In accordance with Rule 3a-4, the following features have been specifically included in the Registrant's management using the investment strategy: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Initial Interview - an initial interview is conducted with each client to determine the client's financial circumstances, goals, acceptable levels of risk, any reasonable restrictions on the management of their account, and other relevant circumstances;</li> <li>2. Individual Treatment - the client's account is managed on the basis of the client's financial circumstances and investment objectives;</li> <li>3. Consultation - an Advisory Affiliate of the Registrant knowledgeable about the client's account shall be reasonably available to consult with the client relative to the status and management of their account;</li> <li>4. Notice of Transactions - the client shall receive notice of all transactions in their account as if they had maintained a similar account outside of the program;</li> <li>5. Quarterly Statement - the client shall be provided with a quarterly statement containing a summary of all activity in the their account;</li> <li>6. Ability to Impose Restrictions - the client shall have the ability to impose reasonable restrictions on the management of their account, including the ability to instruct the Registrant not to purchase certain securities or types of securities;</li> <li>7. No Pooling - the client's beneficial interest in a security does not represent an undivided interest in all the securities held by the custodian, but rather represents a direct and beneficial interest in the securities which comprise the client's account;</li> <li>8. Separate Account - a separate account is maintained for the client with the custodian; and</li> <li>9. Ownership - each client retains indicia of ownership of the account (e.g. right to withdraw securities or cash, exercise or delegate proxy voting, and receive transaction confirmations).</li> </ol> In addition to the foregoing, clients may, in writing, place reasonable limitations upon the Registrant's discretionary authority. The Registrant offers advice on each type of investment described in Part II of Form ADV (Item 3). However, the Registrant intends to primarily allocate client assets, on a discretionary and/or nondiscretionary basis, among independent investment managers for the active discretionary management of those assets, based upon the stated investment objectives of the client ("Independent Manager(s)").

The terms and conditions under which the Registrant shall engage the Independent Manager(s) shall be set forth in separate written agreements between the Registrant and the designated Independent Manager(s). The Registrant shall continue to render advisory services to the client relative to the ongoing monitoring and review of account performance, for which the Registrant shall receive an annual advisory fee which is based upon a percentage of the market value of the assets being managed by the designated Independent Manager(s). Factors that the Registrant shall consider in recommending and/or selecting Independent Manager(s) include the client's stated investment objective(s), management style, performance, reputation, financial strength, reporting, pricing, and research. The investment management fees charged by the Independent Manager(s) shall be included in the Registrant's investment advisory fee set forth above. However, clients may incur brokerage commissions and transaction fees. As discussed above, the client may incur fees in addition to those charged by the Registrant, the Independent Manager(s), and corresponding broker-dealer and custodian. In addition to the Registrant's written disclosure statement, the client shall also receive the written disclosure statement of the designated Independent Manager(s). Certain Independent Manager(s) may impose more restrictive account requirements and varying billing practices than the Registrant. In such instances, the Registrant may alter its corresponding account requirements and/or billing practices to accommodate those of the Independent Manager(s). The client may make additions to and withdrawals from the account at any time, subject to the Registrant's right to terminate an account. Clients may withdraw account assets on notice to the Registrant, subject to the usual and customary securities settlement procedures. Certain Independent Manager(s) or particular investments may have holding periods or notice requirements for withdrawal. Clients should understand that the Registrant designs its portfolios as long-term investments and assets withdrawals may impair the achievement of a client's investment objectives. For the initial quarter of investment management services, the first quarter's fees shall be calculated on a pro rata basis. The Agreement between the Registrant and the client will continue in effect until terminated by either party pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. The Registrant's annual fee shall be prorated through the date of termination and any remaining balance shall be charged or refunded to the client, as appropriate, in a timely manner. Additions may be in cash or securities provided that the Registrant reserves the right to liquidate any transferred securities, or decline to accept particular securities into a client's account. The Registrant may consult with its clients about the options and ramifications of transferring securities. However, clients are advised that when transferred securities are liquidated, they are subject to transaction fees, fees assessed at the mutual fund level (i.e. contingent deferred sales charge) and/or tax ramifications. The Registrant's clients are advised to promptly notify the Registrant if there are ever any changes in their financial situation or investment objectives or if they wish to impose any reasonable restrictions upon the Registrant's management services.

However, in certain circumstances the Registrant may vote proxies on behalf of its clients. When the Registrant accepts such responsibility, it will only cast proxy votes in a manner consistent with the best interest of its clients. Absent special circumstances, which are fully described in the Registrant's Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures, all proxies will be voted consistent with guidelines established and described in the Registrant's Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures, as they may be amended from time-to-time. At any time, clients may contact the Registrant to request information about how Registrant voted proxies for that client's securities or to get a copy of the Registrant's Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures. A brief summary of the Registrant's Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures is as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· The Registrant has formed a Proxy Voting Committee that will be responsible for monitoring corporate actions, making voting decisions in the best interest of clients, and ensuring that proxies are submitted in a timely manner.</li> <li>· The Proxy Voting Committee will generally vote proxies according to the Registrant's then current Proxy Voting Guidelines. The Proxy Voting Guidelines include many specific examples of voting decisions for the types of proposals that are most frequently presented, including: composition of the board of directors; approval of independent auditors; management and director compensation; anti-takeover mechanisms and related issues; changes to capital structure; corporate and social policy issues; and issues involving mutual funds.</li> <li>· Although the Proxy Voting Guidelines are to be followed as a general policy, certain issues will be considered on a case-by-case basis based on the relevant facts and circumstances. Since corporate governance issues are diverse and continually evolving, the Registrant shall devote an appropriate amount of time and resources to monitor these changes.</li> <li>· In situations where there may be a conflict of interest in the voting of proxies due to business or personal relationships that the Registrant maintains with persons having an interest in the outcome of certain votes, the Registrant will take appropriate steps to ensure that its proxy voting decisions are made in the best interest of its clients and are not the product of such conflict.</li> </ul>

3K(3)	The Registrant may recommend that clients that are "accredited investors" as defined under Rule 501 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, invest in private placement securities, which may include debt, equity, and/or pooled investment vehicles when consistent with the client's investment objectives. When the Registrant recommends that the client invest in private placement securities, the Registrant shall receive no additional compensation but shall continue to receive applicable investment advisory fees on the client's assets under management.
3L	The Registrant may also provide advice about and any type of investment held in a client's portfolio at the beginning of the advisory relationship.
3L and 4C(7)	As further discussed in the response to Item 1D (above), the Registrant generally allocates client assets among Independent Manager(s) for the active discretionary management of those assets based upon the stated investment objectives of the client. The Registrant shall continue to render services to the client relative to the discretionary and/or non-discretionary selection or recommendation of Independent Manager(s) as well as the monitoring and review of account performance and client investment objectives.
4A(5) and 4B(8)	As further discussed in the response to Item 1D (above), the Registrant generally allocates client assets among Independent Manager(s) for the active discretionary management of those assets based upon the stated investment objectives of the client. When recommending or selecting an Independent Manager for a client, the Registrant shall review information about the Independent Manager(s) such as its disclosure statement and/or material supplied by the Independent Manager(s) or independent third parties for a description of the Independent Manager's investment strategies, past performance and risk results to the extent available.
5	All individuals that render investment advisory services on behalf of the Registrant must have earned a college degree and/or have substantive investment-related experience. In addition, all such individuals shall have attained all required investment-related licenses and/or designations.

9E	The Registrant and persons associated with the Registrant ("Associated Persons") are not permitted to buy or sell securities [other than shares of mutual funds] that it also recommends to clients consistent with the Registrant's policies and procedures. The Registrant has adopted a code of ethics that sets forth the standards of conduct expected of its associated persons and requires compliance with applicable securities laws ("Code of Ethics"). In accordance with Section 204A of the Advisers Act, its Code of Ethics contains written policies reasonably designed to prevent the unlawful use of material non-public information by the Registrant or any of its associated persons. The Code of Ethics also requires that certain of the Registrant's personnel (called "Access Persons") report their personal securities holdings and transactions and obtain pre-approval of certain investments such as initial public offerings and limited offerings. Clients may contact the Registrant to request a copy of its Code of Ethics. Unless specifically permitted in the Registrant's Code of Ethics, none of the Registrant's Access Persons may effect for themselves or for their immediate family (i.e., spouse, minor children, and adults living in the same household as the Access Person) any transactions in a security which is being actively purchased or sold, or is being considered for purchase or sale, on behalf of any of the Registrant's clients. When the Registrant is purchasing or considering for purchase any security on behalf of a client, no Access Person may effect a transaction in that security prior to the completion of the purchase or until a decision has been made not to purchase such security. Similarly, when the Registrant is selling or considering the sale of any security on behalf of a client, no Access Person may effect a transaction in that security prior to the completion of the sale or until a decision has been made not to sell such security. These requirements are not applicable to: (i) direct obligations of the Government of the United States; (ii) money market instruments, bankers' acceptances, bank certificates of deposit, commercial paper, repurchase agreements and other high quality short-term debt instruments, including repurchase agreements; (iii) shares issued by mutual funds or money market funds; and (iv) shares issued by unit investment trusts that are invested exclusively in one or more mutual funds.
10	As a condition for starting and maintaining a relationship, the Registrant shall generally impose a minimum portfolio size of $5,000,000. The Registrant, in its sole discretion, may accept clients with smaller portfolios based upon certain criteria including anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, pre-existing client, account retention, anticipated future earning capacity and pro bono activities. The Registrant shall only accept clients with less than the minimum portfolio size if, in the sole opinion of the Registrant, the smaller portfolio size will not cause a substantial increase of investment risk beyond the client's identified risk tolerance. The Registrant may aggregate the portfolios of family members to meet the minimum portfolio size. Additionally, certain Independent Manager(s) may impose more restrictive account requirements and varying billing practices than the Registrant. In such instances, the Registrant may alter its corresponding account requirements and/or billing practices to accommodate those of the Independent Manager(s).

11A	The Registrant monitors portfolios as part of an ongoing process while regular account reviews are conducted on at least a quarterly basis. For those clients to whom the Registrant provides consulting services, reviews are conducted on an "as needed" basis. Such reviews are conducted by the Registrant's Chief Investment Officer or the Director of Research. All investment advisory clients are encouraged to discuss their needs, goals, and objectives with the Registrant and to keep the Registrant informed of any changes thereto. The Registrant shall contact ongoing investment advisory clients at least annually to review its previous services and/or recommendations and to discuss the impact resulting from any changes in the client's financial situation and/or investment objectives.
11B	Unless otherwise agreed upon, clients are provided with transaction confirmation notices and regular summary account statements directly from the broker-dealer or custodian for the client accounts. Clients will also receive, from the Registrant, a report that shall include such relevant account and/or market-related information such as an inventory of account holdings and account performance on a quarterly basis. Those clients to whom the Registrant provides consulting services will receive reports from the Registrant summarizing its analysis and conclusions as requested by the client or otherwise agreed to in writing by the Registrant.
12A, 12B and 13A	Please see the previous responses set forth on this Schedule F to Item 1D. The brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees charged by any designated broker-dealer are exclusive of and in addition to the Registrant's fee. Factors which the Independent Manager(s) considers in recommending any broker-dealer, to clients include their respective financial strength, reputation, execution, pricing, research, and service. The commissions and/or transaction fees charged by a recommended broker-dealer may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. In general, the Independent Manager(s) will be responsible for recommending or selecting the broker-dealer's utilized by the clients. The commissions paid by the Registrant's clients shall comply with the Independent Manager(s)' duty to obtain "best execution" under the Registrant's supervision. However, a client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where the Independent Manager(s) determines, in good faith, that the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer's services, including among others, the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Consistent with the foregoing, while the Independent Manager(s) will seek competitive rates, they may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client transactions.
