Item 7 State-Registered Investment Advisors

- A. While the Registrant's Managing Member, Michael Bradley, was engaged as a registered representative of Berthel, Fisher & Company Financial Services, Inc., the Arizona Corporation Commission, Securities Division, alleged certain violations of state statutes in connection with the sale of interests in the Apex Hedge Fund (Apex). Apex was an unaffiliated hedge fund that Mr. Bradley had recommended to a number of clients, including several of Mr. Bradley's family members. Apex, though appearing to be a successful and legitimate hedge fund, defrauded its investors. Apex collapsed and its investors sought restitution. Mr. Bradley was named in an action for Restitution and Revocation action brought by the Arizona Corporation Commission, Securities Division.

Although Mr. Bradley maintains that he recommended and sold interests in Apex properly, and that he, himself, was a victim of Apex's fraud; the Arizona Corporation Commission, required Mr. Bradley to pay administrative penalties to the State of Arizona and restitution to investors in Apex. Furthermore, Mr. Bradley's license in Arizona was terminated.

B. Mr. Bradley has never been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
