Educational Background and Business Experience

Born in 1954, Mr. David Davidson is the founder and CEO of SC. He was recruited to co-manage $300 million in assets for the Phoenix Fund, as a partner with the J.O. Patterson & Company in Atlanta, Georgia. After 3 months in Georgia, Mr. Davidson returned to San Francisco in the summer of 1992 but continued to manage assets for J.O. Patterson & Company's Shoreline Fund, L.P., a traditional long/short equity hedge fund at the time. Mr. Davidson managed the assets of the Shoreline Fund, L.P. until 1995 before deciding to return to managing his own personal assets. In 2000, Mr. Davidson partnered with Bill Fleckenstein as a short-biased portfolio manager with the Seattle, Washington-based R.T.M. Fund. In 2002, Mr. Davidson departed from the R.T.M Fund to join Mikles, Miller Management Company, also as a short-biased portfolio manager and special limited partner with the Kodiak family of funds. By the end of 2003, Mr. Davidson again focused his attention on managing his own assets and launching a short-biased hedge fund. In December 2004, Mr. Davidson launched the Shoreline Fund, L.P. with approximately $10 million in assets under management.

Mr. Davidson has a bachelor's degree in Biology from University of Southern California (1977).
