These fees and expenses are described in the prospectus or offering documents of each investment. These fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses and a possible distribution fee. If the investment also imposes a sales charge, then the client may pay an initial or a deferred sales charge. A client could invest in hedge funds, mutual funds, annuities and/or life insurance policies and other investments directly, without the services of CCAMG. Accordingly, the client should review both the fees charged by the hedge funds, mutual funds, insurance companies and other investments, as well as the fees charged by CCAMG to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client and to thereby evaluate the advisory services being provided.

Capital City Asset Management Group and their Investment Adviser Representatives are subject to and intend to comply with standards of fiduciary duty requiring CCAMG and the representative to act solely in the best interest of the client when making investment recommendations.

CCAMG may share a portion of the compensation with its representatives. CCAMG typically receives a percentage of the fee charged to the client by the unaffiliated RIA and or Hedge Fund for its services, which fees are typically based upon assets under management. The relationship of CCAMG IARs, and the RIA and or Hedge Fund is clearly communicated to all relevant clients in an agreement signed by the client and in a disclosure statement provided by the RIA and or Hedge Fund.

Trades placed on a full discretionary basis are reviewed by a principal of the firm's home office.
