Long Term Care Professional (LTCP) designation in 2004. The LTCP is the premier designation in the long-term care field and an exciting option for professionals like you who know what it takes to succeed—understanding consumers’ needs and meeting those needs with the best long-term care coverage. When you complete the program, you’ll be well versed in the methods of financing long-term care needs, long-term care insurance products, and issues surrounding claims and administration. Long-Term Care, Part I (Needs and Options), Long-Term Care, Part II (Financing), Long-Term Care, Part III, (The Product), Long-Term Care, Part IV (Insurance, Administration, and Claims) or Long-Term Care Professional (LTCP) – Combined Course. The LTCP designation is co-sponsored by America’s Health Insurance Plans (AHIP), the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU), and the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA).

Life Underwriting Training Council Fellow (LUTCF) Designation in 2007.

The content integrates four practice specialties, life insurance and annuities, health and employee benefits, multiline, and financial advising and investments providing both an overview of each but also addressing their interdependencies—critical for agents and advisors to understand when advising clients. Topics cover the real life issues of today, from multigenerational homes, to single parent households and same sex marriages.

The curriculum consists of three, nine-week courses, consisting of eight weeks of instruction followed by a week of study and review for the exam, making it feasible for students to complete the LUTCF® program in one year or less. Part One: Introduction to Practice Management and Life Insurance includes developing a business plan, ethics, financial planning and risk management, introduction to life insurance products, and life insurance prospecting and selling skills. Part Two: Insurance and Investment Products focuses on life insurance and annuities, mutual funds, disability income, long-term care, health and group insurance, and property and casualty insurance. Part Three: Risk Management Applications addresses retirement and estate planning, special family situations, and presenting basic plans to individuals and business owners.

Additional Compensation

CAPITAL CITY PARTNERS ASSET MANAGEMENT GROUP, LLC

A CAPITAL CITY PARTNERS COMPANY

CCAMG has relationships with various unaffiliated RIAs and Hedge Funds to offer their services to CCAMGs' clients. As a result of these relationships, CCAMG receives compensation in exchange for introducing its clients to such unaffiliated RIAs and Hedge Funds. CCAMG may share a portion of the compensation with its representatives. CCAMG typically receives a percentage of the fee charged to the client by the unaffiliated RIA and or Hedge Fund for its services, which fees are typically based upon assets under management. The relationship of CCAMG IARs, and the RIA and or Hedge Fund is clearly communicated to all relevant clients in an agreement signed by the client and in a disclosure statement provided by the RIA and or Hedge Fund.

Supervision

CCAMG supervises its representatives' advisory services from the home office located at 1335 Dublin Road, Suite 122-D, Columbus, Ohio 43215. CCAMG monitors the advice provided to clients from its representatives by reviewing client account opening documents, client servicing account documents, client accounts and client account transactions on a periodic basis. Principals of the firm review client accounts to whom it and its IARs provide investment advice on a periodic basis. Such reviews include monitoring whether the IAR is complying with applicable laws and regulations, and whether the IAR is reviewing client account forms for appropriate disclosure of the client's financial means and goals when executing transactions for the client. CCAMG also reviews the trading in clients' accounts to ensure that the investment recommendations are suitable. Trades placed on a full discretionary basis are reviewed by a principal of the firm's home office.

A client account may be reviewed more than on a periodic basis. The review of an account may be triggered by trading activity, objectives set forth by the client, security transactions placed over certain dollar amount thresholds, or irregular trading activity.

The following persons supervise the firms' representatives' advisory activities from the home office located at 1335 Dublin Road, Suite 122-D, Columbus, Ohio 43215
