

Form ADV Part 2A Appendix 1 – Unified Managed Account Program Wrap Fee Brochure

Item 1 – Cover Page

Level Four Advisory Services, LLC
(also doing business as Level Four Wealth Management)
5850 Granite Parkway, Suite 270
Plano, TX 75024
866-834-1040
<http://www.levelfouradvisors.com>

Date of Brochure: December 2015

This Wrap Fee Program Brochure provides information about the qualifications and business practices of Level Four Advisory Services, LLC, also doing business as Level Four Wealth Management, and details for the Unified Managed Account Program. If you have any questions about the contents of this brochure please contact us at 866-834-1040. The information in this brochure has not been approved or verified by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or by any state securities authority.

Additional information about our investment advisory business is also available on the Internet at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. You can view our information on this website by searching for “Level Four Advisory Services, LLC”. You can also search using the firm’s CRD number. The CRD number for the firm is 134086.

*Registration as an investment adviser does not imply a certain level of skill or training.

Item 2 – Material Changes

Since filing our last annual amendment to this brochure in March 2015, we have added John Vann as an investment committee member. Gainer Donnelly Wealth Advisors, LLC was removed from the brochure as a related-company investment adviser firm because that firm terminated its registration status as an investment advisor.

We will ensure that you receive a summary of any material changes to this and subsequent brochures within 120 days after our firm's fiscal year ends. Our firm's fiscal year ends on December 31, so you will receive the summary of material changes no later than April 30 each year. At that time we will also offer or provide a copy of the most current Wrap Fee Program Disclosure Brochure. We may also provide other ongoing disclosure information about material changes as necessary.

Item 3 – Table of Contents

Item 1 – Cover Page	1
Item 2 – Material Changes	2
Item 3 – Table of Contents	3
Item 4 – Services, Fees and Compensation	4
Description of The Program sponsored by Level Four Advisory Services, LLC	5
Placemark Investments, Inc. and Model Portfolio Strategists	6
Administrative Services Provided by Unaffiliated Service Providers	7
Suitability	7
Brokerage, Clearing and Custody	7
Aggregation of Client Orders	8
Trading Error Policy	8
Custody	9
Program Fees	9
Other Fees	10
Information for ERISA Covered Retirement Plans	11
Item 5 – Account Requirements and Types of Clients	12
Opening an Account	12
Termination of Services	12
Minimum Account Size	12
Types of Clients	12
Item 6 – Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation	12
Voting Client Securities	14
General Description of Primary Advisory Services	15
Participation in Wrap Fee Programs	15
Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management	16
Client Assets Managed by Level Four Advisory Services, LLC	16
Item 7 – Client Information Provided to Portfolio Managers	16
Item 8 – Client Contact with Portfolio Managers	16
Item 9 – Additional Information	16
Account Reviews and Reviewers	16
Statements and Reports	17
Disciplinary Information	17
Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations	17
LPL Financial	17
Accounting Services	19
Insurance Activities	19
Miscellaneous	20
Code of Ethics Summary	20
Affiliate and Employee Personal Securities Transactions Disclosure	21
Client Referrals and Other Compensation	21
Financial Information	22
CUSTOMER PRIVACY POLICY	22
BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLAN DISCLOSURE	24
Information Required by Part 2B of Form ADV: Brochure Supplement	26
Joseph W. Globensky, Manager and Investment Committee Member	26
Edmon “Jake” Tomes, Manager and Investment Committee Member	28

Gregg Douglas Overstake, Chief Compliance Officer and Investment Committee Member.....	30
Charles Raymond Shimer III, Investment Advisor Representative and Investment Committee Member	33
John Allen Vann, Investment Advisor Representative and Investment Committee Member	35

Item 4 – Services, Fees and Compensation

Level Four Advisory Services, LLC, also doing business as Level Four Wealth Management, (referred to as “LFAS”, the “Firm”, “us” and “we” in this document) is an investment adviser registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and has developed and sponsors the Unified Managed Account Program (referred to as the “Program”). The Program is a wrap-fee program. Only investment advisor representatives of LFAS may offer the Program. Therefore, participants in the Program must be advisory clients of LFAS. The following bullets provide basic background regarding our Firm.

- The Firm has been registered as an investment adviser since July 2005.
- The Firm is owned and controlled by Level Four Group. Level Four Group is a holding company and the 100% owner of LFAS. Level Four Group is owned and operated by Carr, Riggs & Ingram Capital, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company. Carr, Riggs & Ingram Capital, L.L.C. is 100% owned by Carr, Riggs & Ingram, L.L.C., an Alabama limited liability company. No individuals own more than 25% of Carr, Riggs & Ingram, L.L.C.
- Joseph W. Globensky, Edmon “Jake” Tomes, Gregg D. Overstake, Charles R. Shimer III and John A. Vann comprise the LFAS Investment Committee. More information about their business and education background can be found in the Information Required by Part 2B of Form ADV: Brochure Supplement section of this Disclosure Brochure.
- We provide fee-based investment advisory services through LFAS. The nature and extent of the specific services provided to clients, including you, will always depend on each client’s financial status, objectives and needs, time horizons, concerns, expectations and risk tolerance.
- LFAS Advisory Representatives and LFAS branch offices may use marketing names or other names that are held out to the public. Such names are known as “doing business as” names. The purpose of using a name other than LFAS or LPL Financial is for the Advisory Representative to create a brand that is specific to the Advisory Representative and/or branch, but separate from LFAS and LPL Financial. While LFAS allows its Advisory Representatives to use a name other than LFAS or LPL Financial, the Advisory Representative must disclose on advertising and client correspondence that securities are offered through LPL Financial and advisory services are offered through LFAS.

LFAS provides investment advisory services other than the Program described in this brochure including services through other wrap-fee programs including the Wealth Management Program and Managed Assets Program which we sponsor. A description of all fee based investment advisory services provided by LFAS is available in the LFAS Disclosure Brochure and the applicable Wrap Fee Program Brochure for each wrap-fee program utilized by LFAS. Some LFAS’ Advisory Representatives may also provide securities advice as registered representatives of LPL Financial, a broker/dealer, member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) and Securities Investors Protection Corporation (“SIPC”). In that separate capacity as registered representatives of LPL Financial, LFAS' Advisory Representatives may charge commissions on a per-transaction basis when implementing their advice on behalf of clients (see Item 9 of this brochure for more details). LFAS and LPL Financial are unaffiliated companies.

When making the determination of whether one of the advisory programs available through LFAS is appropriate for their needs, clients should bear in mind that fee based accounts, when compared with commission based accounts, often result in lower costs during periods when trading activity is heavier, such as the year an account is established. However, during periods when trading activity is lower, such arrangements may result in a higher annual cost for transactions. Thus, depending on a number of factors, the total cost for transactions under a fee account versus a commission account can vary significantly. Some such factors are account size, amount of turnover, type and quantities of securities purchased or sold, commission rates and the client's tax situation.

Client Obligations. In performing its services, LFAS shall not be required to verify any information received from the client or from the client's other professionals, and is expressly authorized to rely thereon. Moreover, each client is advised that it remains his/her/its responsibility to promptly notify LFAS if there is ever any change in his/her/its financial situation or investment objectives for the purpose of reviewing/evaluating/revising LFAS' previous recommendations and/or services.

Clients should have a conversation with their Advisory Representative and read this Schedule H carefully as it explains, in detail, the Program.

Description of The Program sponsored by Level Four Advisory Services, LLC

Through the Program, clients will receive investment supervisory services through continuous investment advice that is based upon the individual needs of the client. Various investment strategies are provided under the Program; however, a detailed investment strategy is crafted for each client tailored to their goals and objectives. Clients are given the ability to impose reasonable restrictions on their accounts including specific investment selections and sectors subject to portfolio manager approval.

We will obtain information from clients in order to determine their financial situation and investment objectives and will manage the accounts accordingly. Clients are always responsible for notifying LFAS of any changes to their financial situation or investment objectives. At least quarterly, clients are instructed to notify LFAS of any changes to their financial situation, investment objectives, or if they want to impose and/or modify any reasonable restrictions on the management of accounts managed under the Program.

At least annually, we will attempt to contact each client for the specific purpose of determining whether there have been any changes to their financial situation, investment objectives, or if they would like to impose and/or modify any reasonable restrictions on the management of their accounts. We are always reasonably available to consult with clients relative to the status of their accounts. A client's beneficial interest in a security does not represent an undivided interest in all the securities held by the custodian, but rather represents a direct and beneficial interest in the securities which comprise the accounts. A separate account is always maintained for each client with the broker-dealer/custodian and the client retains all rights of ownership to their accounts (e. g. right to withdraw securities or cash, exercise or delegate proxy voting, and receive transaction confirmations).

As program sponsor, LFAS performs the following:

- Monitoring the investment performance of Model Portfolio Strategists;

- Providing program administration and related services for the accounts;
- Entering into an investment advisory agreement with clients and sending clients a copy of this Wrap Fee Brochure and Placemark's Form ADV Disclosure Brochure at the time the client enters into an investment advisory agreement with LFAS. Model Portfolio Strategist's Form ADV Disclosure Brochure or other written information about the Model Portfolio Strategist is made available upon written request; and
- Providing client information and/or the client restriction requests to Placemark as needed.

LFAS or a related person does not act as a principal (buys securities for itself or sells securities it owns to any client) in the Program. LFAS or a related person does not affect transactions in which client securities are sold to or bought from a brokerage (commission-only) client.

Placemark Investments, Inc. and Model Portfolio Strategists

We have established an advisory relationship with Placemark Investments, Inc. ("Placemark") to serve as an Overlay Manager in our program. Through our relationship with Placemark we are able to select various model portfolio strategies developed by individual money managers and investment managers. We refer to such money managers and investment managers as Model Portfolio Strategists throughout this brochure. Model Portfolio Strategists have not been granted trading authority over client accounts and do not have access to our client accounts. Instead Model Portfolio Strategists develop model portfolio strategies and provide trade signals to us and/or Placemark. After we have selected an appropriate strategy for your account, Placemark will receive ongoing updates and recommendations from the Model Portfolio Strategist. Placemark is then responsible for making changes to Model Portfolio Strategist strategies in your account. Placemark is therefore granted discretionary authority on your account.

The investment strategies offered by LFAS are identified by your Advisory Representative or our Investment Policy Committee. Members of this Committee develop internal strategies and select Model Portfolio Strategists to fulfill designated investment strategies. We perform due diligence to determine the Model Portfolio Strategists used to implement such investment strategies.

Clients will work with their Advisory Representative to determine the amount of assets to be managed using one or more strategies. Placemark directs the investment and reinvestment of the assets allocated to that Model Portfolio Strategist on a discretionary basis. While LFAS does have discretion over the assets managed by Placemark using the Model Portfolio Strategist strategy, it does not direct the trading of these assets. We have discretionary authority to add, adjust allocation or terminate a particular Model Portfolio Strategist from the client's account or to replace a Model Portfolio Strategist with a LFAS directed strategy which allows us to direct the investment and reinvestment of the client's assets. Please refer to Item 6 for more details.

We also rely on Placemark for certain administrative functions including utilizing their technology platforms to research strategies, client database maintenance, quarterly performance evaluations, web site administration, access to model portfolio strategies, trading platforms, and other functions related to the administrative tasks of managing client accounts. Placemark also provides certain investment advisory functions and is thus registered as an investment advisor with the SEC. Due to this arrangement, Placemark will have access to client accounts. Clients will receive a copy of the Placemark disclosure brochure explaining the services that may be provided through Placemark. A brief outline of these services and functions are outlined below.

- Investment Strategy Maintenance Tools.

- Access to Model Portfolio Strategies (as described in the preceding section). Placemark also makes available tools to assist LFAS with research, performance analysis and due diligence screening.
- Access to a unified managed account platform which enables LFAS to construct a single portfolio using LFAS selected investments and strategies.
- Placemark's investment models, strategies and investment advice. Tax management and tax efficient investment strategies.
- Ability to access investment screens and other investment limitation factors.
- Account aggregation, reconciliation and reporting services.
- Position and performance reporting functions and features.
- Practice management services.
- Advisor services-help desk.
- Presentations and marketing support.

LFAS and Placemark are non-affiliated companies. Placemark charges the client an annual fee for each account administered by Placemark. The annual fee is paid from a portion of the overall management fee charged by LFAS.

Administrative Services Provided by Unaffiliated Service Providers

LFAS engages unaffiliated service providers to provide certain administrative services for the Program. LFAS may use service provider's technology platforms for support in administering the Program. Service providers may provide assistance with data reconciliation, investment planning, performance reporting, fee calculation and billing, research, client database maintenance, quarterly performance evaluations, payable reports, web site administration, models, trading platforms, and other functions related to the administrative tasks of managing client accounts. Due to LFAS's business arrangement with unaffiliated service providers, such service providers will have access to client accounts, but will not serve as an investment advisor to LFAS clients. The service providers may charge the client an annual fee for each account administered by the service provider. The annual fee paid to such service providers is paid from the portion of the overall management fee charged by LFAS.

Suitability

LFAS will assist clients in determining their objective(s), investment strategy, and investment suitability, prior and subsequent to opening a Program account. Clients must advise LFAS of any changes in their investment objective(s) and/or financial situation.

LFAS' services are always provided based on the individual needs of the individual client. Clients are given the ability to impose restrictions on their accounts including specific investment selections and sectors.

The determination to use a particular model or models is always based on each client's individual investment goals, objectives and mandates. More information about our models and strategies is provided at Item 6.

Brokerage, Clearing and Custody

TD Ameritrade serves as broker/dealer and qualified custodian for all accounts established through the Program. LFAS' recommendation of TD Ameritrade is based primarily on minimizing client fees and expenses, but also on past experiences, as well as offerings or services TD Ameritrade provides that LFAS or client may require or find valuable such as online access. Transactions costs charged by TD

Ameritrade may be higher than those charged by other broker/dealers in return for those products and services provided by TD Ameritrade. Expense and fee structures of various broker/dealers are periodically reviewed by LFAS to ensure Program accounts are receiving best execution. Accordingly, while LFAS will consider competitive rates, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible rates for client account transactions. Therefore, the overall services provided by TD Ameritrade are evaluated to determine best execution. TD Ameritrade has a wide range of available securities products for which LFAS performs due diligence prior to selection.

It should be noted that Program accounts may or may not be charged a separate fee for transactions executed by TD Ameritrade. It is the discretion of the Advisory Representative after consultation with the client to determine if the client's Program account will be charged for all transactions or if the transaction fees will be included in the overall management fee charged by LFAS. When clients are charged on a per transaction basis, the transaction fee will appear on the client's individual account statement from TD Ameritrade.

Placemark may elect to execute trades for fixed income securities (i.e. bonds) through bond broker/dealers in order to obtain a better price for the client and then have the bonds delivered into/from the client's TD Ameritrade brokerage account. This practice is enabled through the TD Ameritrade Trade Away service. This is the only case a broker/dealer is used without specific client consent. TD Ameritrade charges the client a service fee per order entered at an executing broker/dealer by LFAS. The Trade Away Service Fee will be charged to the client's account.

While there will not be a direct linkage between the investment advice provided by LFAS and TD Ameritrade, economic benefits may be received that would not be received if LFAS did not use these services to implement the investment advice provided. These benefits may include, but not necessarily be limited to: receipt of duplicate client confirmations and bundled duplicate statements; access to a trading desk; the ability to have investment advisory fees deducted directly from client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for client order entry and account information; receipt of compliance publications; and access to mutual funds that generally require significantly higher minimum initial investments or are generally only available to institutional investors.

Aggregation of Client Orders

In some instances, trades for more than one client's account may be aggregated ("block trades") and executed as a single trade in order to provide fair and equitable prices among managed client accounts. All clients will receive equal treatment when Placemark performs block trades for managed accounts. Securities purchased or sold using block trades will then be allocated in a fair and equitable manner to all client accounts involved in the block trade. If for any reason the entire block trade cannot be completed on the day the trade is placed, client accounts will receive an equal pro-rata portion of the securities traded. Placemark will keep records of all block trades executed and the allocations for each client account that participates in the block trade. Placemark will not receive additional compensation as a result of block trading.

Trading Error Policy

Based on industry practice and SEC guidance to broker-dealers, a trade error under this policy is defined as including:

- Inaccurate transmission or execution of any term of an order including, but not limited to: price; number of shares or other unit of trading; identification of the security; identification of the account for which securities are purchased or sold; short sales that were instead sold long or vice versa; or the execution of an order on the wrong side of a market;

- Unauthorized (because of misunderstanding or mistake) or unintended purchase, sale or allocation of securities, or the failure to follow specific client instructions; and
- Incorrect entry of data into relevant systems, including reliance on incorrect cash positions, withdrawals or securities positions reflected in an account.

Placemark has implemented procedures designed to prevent trade errors; however, trade errors in client accounts cannot always be avoided. Consistent with its fiduciary duty, it is the policy of Placemark to correct trade errors in a manner that is in the best interest of the client. In cases where the client causes the trade error, the client will be responsible for any loss resulting from the correction. Depending on the specific circumstances of the trade error, the client may not be able to receive any gains generated as a result of the error correction. In all situations where the client does not cause the trade error, the client will be made whole and any loss resulting from the trade error will be absorbed by Placemark if the error was caused by them. If the error is caused by the broker-dealer, the broker-dealer will be responsible for covering all trade error costs.

LFAS and Placemark never benefit or profit from trade errors.

Custody

Custody, as it applies to investment advisers, has been defined by regulators as having access or control over client funds and/or securities. In other words, custody is not limited to physically holding client funds and securities. If an investment adviser has the ability to access or control client funds or securities, the investment adviser is deemed to have custody and must ensure proper procedures are implemented.

LFAS is deemed to have custody of client funds and securities whenever LFAS is given the authority to have fees deducted directly from client accounts. However, this is the only form of custody LFAS will ever maintain. It should be noted that authorization to trade in client accounts is not deemed by regulators to be custody.

LFAS has established procedures to ensure all client funds and securities are held at a qualified custodian (i.e. TD Ameritrade) in a separate account for each client under that client's name. Clients or an independent representative of the client will direct, in writing, the establishment of all accounts and therefore are aware of the qualified custodian's name, address and the manner in which the funds or securities are maintained. Finally, account statements are delivered directly from the qualified custodian to each client, or the client's independent representative, at least quarterly.

Clients should carefully review those statements and are urged to compare the statements against reports received directly from LFAS. When clients have questions about their account statements, they should contact LFAS or the qualified custodian preparing the statement.

Program Fees

Management fees for the Program range between 0.30% and 2.5% of the total assets under management. Fees charged to your account(s) may be negotiable and thus may be higher or lower than fees charged to other clients based on the investment adviser representative providing the services, your financial situation and circumstances, the amount of assets under management, the strategy or models used to manage accounts, and the complexity of the services provided. The annual fee may cost more or less than purchasing such advisory and execution services separately. As disclosed in this section, LFAS receives compensation as a result of a client's participation in this service. LFAS therefore has a financial incentive to recommend this service over other programs. The amount of LFAS's compensation may be more than what we would receive if you participated in programs sponsored by other financial firms or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage, and other services.

Program fees are divided, calculated and billed quarterly in advance based on the fair market value of the client's assets under management in the Program as of the last business day of the previous billing period. Fees are prorated based on the number of days service is provided during each billing period. If asset management services are commenced in the middle of the billing period, the prorated fee for that billing period may be deducted from your account when services commence. In addition, a pro-rated monthly fee is charged in arrears for any deposits or withdrawals made to accounts during the month plus the remaining time in the quarter. For example, if you deposit or contribute money to an account after the advanced quarterly fee is assessed, the net value of the deposit or contribution minus any withdrawals will be calculated at the end of the present month plus an advance fee for the remaining month(s) left in the quarter which will be assessed within 10 days of quarter end.

The client's investment advisor representative will provide the exact percentage based fee to each client based on both the nature and total dollar asset value of that account(s). The fee will be stated in the Client Agreement or Client Fee Schedule which must be signed by both LFAS and the client.

Fees are deducted directly from a client's brokerage account. Clients must provide written authorization to have fees deducted from the account. The qualified custodian, i.e. TD Ameritrade, will send client brokerage account statements, at least quarterly, showing all disbursements for the account including the amount of the advisory fee, when deducted directly from the account. Additionally, if a client has multiple managed accounts, they may choose to aggregate the fees charged in accounts to be deducted from a specified account. When fees are paid from other accounts, management fee debits will not be noted on the client's TD Ameritrade monthly brokerage statements, rather they will be noted on the account they are deducted from.

The annual fee covers LFAS's services and the services provided by Placemark, Model Portfolio Strategists, and other service providers. The annual fee also covers all trade execution fees charged by Qualified Custodian; the annual fee will cover all commissions, prime broker fees, and any other transaction fees relating to the execution of securities transactions within Account. Fees charged under this Agreement will not be based on the capital gains or the capital appreciation of Client's account(s).

For securities purchased directly in TD Ameritrade accounts, LFAS is not eligible to receive any compensation (e.g. commissions or ticket charges) for the sale of securities products or other investment products. All compensation, if any, is retained by TD Ameritrade.

LFAS believes that its annual fee is reasonable in relation to: (1) services provided under this Agreement and (2) the fees charged by other investment advisers offering similar services/programs. However, LFAS's annual investment advisory fee may be higher than that charged by other investment advisers offering similar services/programs.

Other Fees

Clients shall also incur certain charges imposed by third parties other than LFAS in connection with investments made through the account, including but not limited to, mutual fund sales loads, surrender charges, and IRA and qualified retirement plan fees charged by TD Ameritrade, a product sponsor or other third party. Program fees charged by LFAS are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by investment company securities that may be recommended to clients. A description of these fees and expenses are available in each investment company security's prospectus.

Information for ERISA Covered Retirement Plans

We are available to provide the services detailed above to companies that sponsor retirement plans (the "Plan"). We acknowledge that LFAS is a covered service provided under the U.S. Department of Labor Rule 408(b)(2) when providing investment advisory services to Plans covered by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA").

When working with a Plan to select one or more Model Portfolio Strategists please understand we may be acting as a "fiduciary" as such term is defined under Section 3(21)(A)(ii) of ERISA. We will act in a manner consistent with the requirements of a fiduciary under ERISA for all services for which we are considered a fiduciary under ERISA. However, we (a) have no responsibility and will not (a) exercise any authority or control respecting management or disposition of assets of the main retirement plan, or (b) have any discretionary authority or discretionary responsibility in the administration of the main retirement plan or the interpretation of Plan's retirement plan documents..

For some Plans, we may serve as ERISA 3(38) investment manager when providing management services for the portion of the plan assets for which we have been retained to be solely responsible for all investment decisions. Under this scenario, we are responsible for monitoring the investment options of the Plan in order to add or remove investment options for the Plan and actively manage all assets for the Plan. As a result, we act as an Investment Manager to the Plan, as defined by ERISA section 3(38) and will acknowledge that we are a fiduciary with respect to the management of the Plan. LFAS does not have the power to acquire or dispose of any plan assets, and is not the "Administrator" of the Plan as defined in ERISA.

We will disclose, to the extent required by ERISA Regulation Section 2550.408b-2(c), to ERISA covered Plans any change to the information that we are required to disclose under ERISA Regulation Section 2550.408b-2(c)(1)(iv) as soon as practicable, but no later than sixty (60) days from the date on which we are informed of the change (unless such disclosure is precluded due to extraordinary circumstances beyond our control, in which case the information will be disclosed as soon as practicable).

In accordance with ERISA Regulation Section 2550.408b-2(c)(vi)(A), we will disclose within thirty (30) days following receipt of a written request from the responsible plan fiduciary or Plan Administrator (unless such disclosure is precluded due to extraordinary circumstances beyond our control, in which case the information will be disclosed as soon as practicable) all information related to the Plan Agreement and any compensation or fees received in connection with the Agreement that is required for the Plan to comply with the reporting and disclosure requirements of Title 1 of ERISA and the regulations, forms and schedules issued thereunder.

If we make an unintentional error or omission in disclosing the information required under ERISA Regulation Section 2550.408b-2(c)(1)(iv) or (vi), we will disclose to you the correct information as soon as practicable, but no later than thirty (30) days from the date on which we learn of such error or omission.

Item 5 – Account Requirements and Types of Clients

Opening an Account

To become a Program participant, a program agreement (the Unified Managed Account Program Client Agreement) and Investor Profile Questionnaire between the client and LFAS must be executed. In addition, the client will be required to establish a brokerage account through TD Ameritrade.

Termination of Services

Program services may be canceled at any time, by any of the parties, for any reason upon receipt of written notice to the other party. Services will be terminated without penalty and the client shall receive a pro-rated refund based on the amount of time remaining in the final quarter. Specific termination provisions are contained in the Unified Managed Account Program Client Agreement. LFAS will cooperate fully in any requests to deliver funds and securities held in the account to another custodian. Qualified Custodian may charge an Account Transfer fee, which is detailed in the fee schedule information separately provided to Client by Qualified Custodian.

Minimum Account Size

LFAS requires a minimum account size of $50,000 to open a Program account. Exceptions to this minimum may be granted at the discretion of LFAS.

Types of Clients

LFAS generally provides investment advice to the following types of clients:

- Individuals
- Pension and profit sharing plans
- Trusts and estates
- Corporations or business entities other than those listed above

Item 6 – Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation

LFAS selects model portfolio strategies developed by unaffiliated Model Portfolio Strategists. There could be a conflict of interest in that we could use our internal personnel to develop and implement investment strategies rather than selecting Placemark and the Model Portfolio Strategists made available by Placemark. However, currently, we only use strategies developed by Model Portfolio Strategists.

LFAS is ultimately responsible for money manager due diligence along with portfolio monitoring, but Model Portfolio Strategists must also be made available by Placemark and pass their internal due diligence process.

Generally Model Portfolio Strategists are recommended to suitable clients whose investment objectives make the use of a particular Model Portfolio Strategist a suitable option for the client. We have discretion over the management of the client's assets and allocate all or a portion of the assets to be managed by the selected Model Portfolio Strategist. Placemark directs the investment and reinvestment of the assets allocated to that Model Portfolio Strategist on a discretionary basis. While LFAS does have discretion over the assets managed by Placemark, it does not direct trading on the assets that have been allocated to a strategy developed by the Model Portfolio Strategist and implemented by Placemark. We have discretionary authority to add or terminate the services of a particular Model Portfolio Strategist from the client's account. LFAS can replace a particular Model Portfolio Strategist with a different Model Portfolio Strategist.

We select Model Portfolio Strategists based on research provided by Placemark and meetings of our Investment Policy Committee. LFAS seeks to have 35-50 strategies available to clients as investment options through the Program. Sometimes there will be more available and sometimes there will be less. It is our goal to have a diversified group of managers available, representing different asset classes and investment styles and philosophies. To be included in this group of available managers, all must go through our initial due diligence checklist.

Managers are screened and selected using a number of criteria which may include:

- Manager or management team tenure and experience
- Performance relative to their peer group or benchmark
- Expenses and costs of the manager

Factors that determine the change of a portfolio manager may include:

- Performance
- Change of manager or management team
- The closing of the strategy to new investments
- Availability of portfolio on platform

We will perform an annual review of the managers we are recommending and we may add or delete managers at that time.

Depending on the client's individual needs, investment recommendations will primarily be made in no-load mutual funds, load-waived mutual funds, and Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs). Other investments may include, but are not necessarily limited to stocks, bonds, and unit investment trusts.

Risk of Loss

Clients must understand that past performance is not indicative of future results. Therefore, current and prospective clients (including you) should never assume that future performance of any specific investment or investment strategy will be profitable. Investing in securities (including stocks, mutual funds, and bonds) involves risk of loss. Further, depending on the different types of investments there may be varying degrees of risk. Clients and prospective clients should be prepared to bear investment loss including loss of original principal.

Because of the inherent risk of loss associated with investing, our Firm is unable to represent, guarantee, or even imply that our services and methods of analysis can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate you from losses due to market corrections or declines. There are certain additional risks associated when investing in securities through our investment management program. The following are some additional risks clients need to be aware of.

- ETF and Mutual Fund Risk – When LFAS invests in an ETF or mutual fund for a client, the client will bear additional expenses based on its pro rata share of the ETF's or mutual fund's operating expenses, including the potential duplication of management fees. The risk of owning an ETF or mutual fund generally reflects the risks of owning the underlying securities the ETF or mutual fund holds. Clients may also incur brokerage costs when purchasing ETFs.

- Market Risk – Either the stock market as a whole, or the value of an individual company, goes down resulting in a decrease in the value of client investments. This is also referred to as systemic risk.
- Equity (stock) market risk – Common stocks are susceptible to general stock market fluctuations and to volatile increases and decreases in value as market confidence in and perceptions of their issuers change. If you held common stock, or common stock equivalents, of any given issuer, you would generally be exposed to greater risk than if you held preferred stocks and debt obligations of the issuer.
- Company Risk. When investing in stock positions, there is always a certain level of company or industry specific risk that is inherent in each investment. This is also referred to as unsystematic risk and can be reduced through appropriate diversification. There is the risk that the company will perform poorly or have its value reduced based on factors specific to the company or its industry. For example, if a company's employees go on strike or the company receives unfavorable media attention for its actions, the value of the company may be reduced.
- Fixed Income Risk. When investing in bonds, there is the risk that issuer will default on the bond and be unable to make payments. Further, individuals who depend on set amounts of periodically paid income face the risk that inflation will erode their spending power. Fixed-income investors receive set, regular payments that face the same inflation risk.
- Options Risk. Options on securities may be subject to greater fluctuations in value than an investment in the underlying securities. Purchasing and writing put and call options are highly specialized activities and entail greater than ordinary investment risks.
- Management Risk – Your investment with our Firm varies with the success and failure of our investment strategies, research, analysis and determination of portfolio securities. If our investment strategies do not produce the expected returns, the value of the investment may decrease.

Voting Client Securities

LFAS will not vote proxies on behalf of your account. While there are some investment advisers that will vote proxies and other corporate decisions on behalf of their clients, we have determined that taking on the responsibility for voting client securities does not add enough value to the services provided to clients to justify the additional compliance and regulatory costs associated with voting client securities.

Although we do not vote proxies on your behalf, unless you specifically opt out in our client agreement, Placemark will have authority to vote all proxies on behalf of Client. Please refer to the Placemark Form ADV Part 2A disclosure brochure for a summary of the Placemark proxy voting policy.

For clients that elect to vote their own proxies, such clients will receive proxies directly from their custodian or transfer agent and such documents will not be delivered by our Firm. In some instances and at your specific request, your Advisory Representative may give recommendations or clarifications based on your Advisory Representative's understanding of the issues presented in the proxy materials. Your Advisory Representative may also conduct additional research on proxy issues if necessary; however, you will be solely responsible for all proxy voting decisions.

General Description of Primary Advisory Services

The following is provided as brief descriptions of LFAS' primary services. Detailed descriptions of LFAS' services other than the Program are provided in our Disclosure Brochure.

LFAS' Advisory Representative will conduct a complimentary initial meeting with the client for an information and data-gathering session. At this initial meeting, the Advisory Representative will assist the client in determining the level of financial planning services needed. If clients elect to continue with the financial planning process, the Advisory Representative will hold as many meetings or telephone conferences as necessary to gather the documents, information, goals and objectives needed to prepare the financial plan. Whether clients select a comprehensive or a modular plan, the LFAS' Advisory Representatives will meet with them to:

- Identify financial goals and objectives;
- Collect and assess all relevant data;
- Identify financial concerns and formulation of solutions; and
- Prepare a financial plan with specific recommendations for presentation to the client.

Financial Planning Services – LFAS provides advisory services in the form of financial planning services. Financial planning services do not involve the active management of client accounts, but instead focuses on a client's overall financial situation. Financial planning can be described as helping individuals determine and set their long-term financial goals, through investments, tax planning, asset allocation, risk management, retirement planning, and other areas. The role of a financial planner is to find ways to help the client understand his/her overall financial situation and help the client set financial objectives.

Asset Management Services – LFAS provides advisory services in the form of Asset Management Services through the Program and other advisory programs and platforms sponsored by LPL Financial. Asset Management Services involve providing clients with continuous and on-going supervision over client accounts. This means that LFAS will continuously monitor a client's account and make trades in client accounts when necessary.

Outside Money Managers – LFAS provides advisory services by referring clients to outside, or unaffiliated, money managers that are registered or exempt from registration as investment advisers. Third-party money managers are responsible for continuously monitoring client accounts and making trades in client accounts when necessary.

Participation in Wrap Fee Programs

Our Advisory Representatives may provide asset management services through both wrap-fee programs and traditional management programs including the Unified Managed Account Program. Under a wrap-fee program, advisory services and transaction services are provided for one fee. This is different from traditional management programs whereby our services are provided for a fee, but transaction services are billed to clients separately on a per-transaction basis. From a management perspective, there is not a fundamental difference in the way our Advisory Representatives manage wrap-fee accounts versus traditional management accounts. The only significant difference is the way in which transaction services are paid.

Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

LFAS does not charge or accept performance-based fees. Regulators have defined performance based fees as charging fees based on a share of capital gains on or capital appreciation of the assets held within a client's account.

Client Assets Managed by Level Four Advisory Services, LLC

The amount of client assets managed by LFAS totaled approximately $687,850,965 as of December 31, 2014. $608,847,965 is managed on a discretionary basis and $79,003,594 is managed on a non-discretionary basis.

Item 7 – Client Information Provided to Portfolio Managers

Advisory Representatives of LFAS are responsible for gathering information provided by clients. Advisory Representatives will interview and work with clients to gather information needed relative to their investment objectives and needs in order to provide management services through the program. Clients need to contact their Advisory Representative whenever there are changes to their financial situation that will impact or materially influence the way LFAS manages accounts. It is important for clients to reply and correspond in a timely manner with LFAS in order to provide updated financial information so that LFAS can make appropriate investment decisions.

Placemark will have access to your personal identifiable information, investment profile, objectives and other important financial information. We may have a brief discussion with Placemark about the client in terms of risk, age and why their firm was chosen. Placemark very rarely, and typically never, gets to meet the client. It is the responsibility of LFAS to assess each client's risk tolerance, time frame, investment objectives, portfolio size and prior investment experience to decide if separate accounts would be an effective solution.

Item 8 – Client Contact with Portfolio Managers

There are no restrictions placed on clients' ability to contact and consult with their LFAS Advisory Representative. It is the policy of LFAS to provide an "open channel" of communication between LFAS Advisory Representatives and their clients. Clients are encouraged to contact their Advisory Representative whenever they have questions about the management of their account.

When a Model Portfolio Strategist is selected for a client, the client does not typically communicate or interact with the Model Portfolio Strategist. Instead, LFAS through our Advisory Representatives will serve as communication conduit between the Model Portfolio Strategist and the client if needed.

Item 9 – Additional Information

Account Reviews and Reviewers

Account reviews are provided in connection with the Program. For clients participating in Program, the client's individual Advisory Representative will contact the client at least annually for the purpose of reviewing their account and to determine if there have been changes in their financial situation or investment objectives. The calendar is the main triggering factor, although more frequent reviews may also be triggered by changes in the client's circumstances, client request, or changes within the market.

The underlying investments held in Program accounts are reviewed on a more frequent basis. Portfolios are usually reviewed as frequently as monthly, but no less than quarterly, by the Manager responsible for managing the account.

Client assets managed by Placemark using strategies developed by Model Portfolio Strategists are expected to be reviewed and monitored by Placemark as well as LFAS. The frequency of reviews conducted by Placemark will vary depending on the changes made by Model Portfolio Strategists and the actual strategies utilized. LFAS's Investment Policy Committee will perform a quarterly review of the managers being actively recommended. For clients who have requested and hired a specific manager that is not on the LFAS recommended list, the client is responsible for monitoring the manager and LFAS will not perform due diligence but will be available to make their best effort to answer any questions the client has.

Statements and Reports

Clients will receive statements and transaction confirmations from TD Ameritrade on at least a quarterly basis. Clients may also receive quarterly, monthly, or on-demand performance reports showing the investment performance of their accounts from LFAS. LFAS will utilize the Placemark performance reporting functionality to provide such reports. Clients are strongly urged to compare all statements received from LFAS against their brokerage account statements received from TD Ameritrade. Discrepancies between statements received from LFAS and TD Ameritrade need to be reported to LFAS immediately.

Disciplinary Information

This item is not applicable to LFAS' brochure because there are no legal or disciplinary events listed at Item 9 of the Form ADV Part 2A instructions that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of LFAS' business or the integrity of LFAS' management.

Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

LFAS is not and does not have a related company that is a (1) broker/dealer, municipal securities dealer, government securities dealer or broker, (2) investment company or other pooled investment vehicle (including a mutual fund, closed-end investment company, unit investment trust, private investment company or "hedge fund," and offshore fund), (3) other investment adviser or financial planner, (4) futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or commodity trading advisor, (5) banking or thrift institution, (6) pension consultant, (7) real estate broker or dealer, (8) sponsor or syndicator of limited partnerships, or (9) law firm.

LFAS' only business is providing advisory services and investment advice to clients. However, many of LFAS' Advisory Representatives are engaged in professions other than giving investment advice. Those that are registered representatives of a broker-dealer or licensed insurance agents may sell securities and/or insurance products to any client, and will receive usual and customary commissions for these transactions.

LPL Financial

While not directly material to accounts opened through Program, clients should be aware that some of our Advisory Representatives are registered representatives of LPL Financial. The following is important disclosure for clients that have separate accounts through LPL Financial.

Clients wishing to implement LFAS' advice are free to select any broker they wish and are so informed. If clients wish to have LFAS' associated persons implement the advice in their capacity as registered representative, LPL Financial will be used. Most of the associated persons of LFAS are registered representatives of LPL Financial and are required to use the services of LPL Financial when acting in their capacity as registered representatives. LPL Financial has a wide range of approved securities products for which LPL Financial performs due diligence prior to selection. LPL Financial's registered representatives are required to adhere to these products when implementing securities transactions through LPL Financial. Commissions charged for these products may be higher or lower than commissions clients may be able to obtain if transactions were implemented through another broker/dealer. Because the associated persons of LFAS may also be registered representatives of LPL Financial, LPL Financial provides compliance support to LFAS' associated persons. In addition to compliance support, LPL Financial also provides the associated persons of LFAS, and therefore LFAS, with back-office operational, technology, and other administrative support.

LFAS recommends broker/dealers and custodians that LFAS feels will provide services in a manner and at a cost that will allow LFAS to meet its duty of best execution. However, LFAS may be limited in the broker/dealer or custodians that it is allowed to use due to LFAS's associated persons relationship with LPL Financial. LPL Financial may limit or restrict the broker/dealer or custodial platforms for its registered representatives that are also independently licensed due to its duty to supervise the transactions implemented by these individuals.

While there is no direct linkage between the investment advice given to clients and LFAS' recommendation of LPL Financial, economic benefits may be provided by LPL Financial to LFAS that will not be provided if the client selects another broker/dealer or account custodian. These benefits may include: negotiated costs for transaction implementation, a dedicated trade desk that services LPL Financial participants exclusively, a dedicated service group and an account services manager dedicated to LFAS' accounts, access to a real-time order matching system, electronic download of trades, balances and position information, access, for a fee, to an electronic interface with the account custodian's software, duplicate and batched client statements, confirmations and year-end reports.

Clients should understand that not all investment advisers require the use of a particular broker/dealer or custodian. Some investment advisers allow their clients to select whichever broker/dealer the client decides. By directing clients to use a particular broker/dealer, LPL Financial, LFAS may achieve the most favorable execution of client transactions and the practice requiring the use of LPL Financial may cost clients more money than if the client used a different broker/dealer or custodian.

In addition, Advisory Representatives may also sell insurance products as independently licensed insurance agents. The Advisory Representatives can earn commissions when selling securities and insurance products in these separate capacities. They may also receive 12b-1 fees from some investment companies. Some of the advice offered by the Advisory Representatives involves investments in mutual fund products. Load and no-load mutual funds may pay annual distribution charges sometimes referred to as 12b-1 fees. The Advisory Representatives may receive a portion of these 12b-1 fees from some investment companies in their separate capacities as registered representatives. Clients should be aware that these 12b-1 fees come from fund assets, and thus, indirectly from client's assets. The receipt of these fees could represent an incentive for registered representatives to recommend funds with 12b-1 fees or higher 12b-1 fees over funds with no fees or lower fees, therefore creating a potential conflict of interest.

LFAS also receives loans from LPL Financial in order to assist LFAS with transitioning some of our new LFAS Advisory Representatives' business onto the LPL Financial custodial platform. These loans may not be forgiven by LPL Financial based on the scope of business LFAS engages in with LPL Financial including the amount of assets held by LFAS clients at LPL Financial or revenue generated by LFAS for LPL Financial on their platform. The receipt of a loan from LPL Financial presents a conflict of interest in that LFAS has a financial incentive to maintain its relationship with LPL and continue recommending LPL Financial to clients by having the loan forgiven. Therefore, our recommendation of LPL Financial is not based exclusively on your interests, but is partially based on having loans forgiven by LPL Financial.

However, to the extent LFAS recommends you use LPL Financial for such services, it is primarily because LFAS believes that it is in your interest to do so based on the quality and pricing of the execution, benefits of an integrated platform for brokerage and advisory accounts, and other services provided by LPL Financial. To further control for this conflict of interest, you are not required to use LPL Financial and can use another LFAS approved brokerage platform.

LFAS may also share information with LPL Financial which has supervisory obligations over certain of LFAS' activities. As a result of the LPL relationship, LPL Financial will have access to certain confidential information (e.g., financial information, investment objectives, transactions and holdings) about LFAS' clients, even if client does not establish any account through LPL Financial. If you would like a copy of the LPL Financial privacy policy, please contact LFAS.

Accounting Services

Some of LFAS' Advisory Representatives may establish relationships with CPA firms not related to LFAS and may provide advisory services to clients of these accounting firms. Some of those accountants may also be licensed as registered representatives of LPL Financial. In their capacities as registered representatives, the Advisory Representatives may implement securities transactions on behalf of CPA firm clients and share the usual and customary commissions received with the licensed accountants. Clients are not obligated to use the services of the CPA firm or LFAS' Advisory Representatives.

Some of LFAS' Advisory Representatives may also be separately licensed as Certified Public Accountants or Enrolled Agents with the Internal Revenue Service. They may provide accounting or tax preparation services to clients. If appropriate, advisory clients may be referred to these individuals for accounting or tax preparation services, but they are not obligated to use these services. If clients do elect to use these services, charges for tax or accounting services provided will be separate from fees charged for advisory services.

Insurance Activities

Some of LFAS' Advisory Representatives are also independently licensed insurance agents and may be affiliated with various insurance companies. When selling insurance products in this separate capacity, they may receive normal and customary commissions. Level Four Group, LLC is the sole owner of LFAS and Level Four Insurance Services, a licensed insurance agency. Some of LFAS' Officers and Advisory Representatives own Level Four Group, LLC and sell insurance products through Level Four Insurance Services.

Carr, Riggs & Ingram, L.L.C.

Our parent company, Level Four Group, is indirectly 100% owned and controlled by Carr, Riggs, & Ingram, L.L.C. (CRI), an Alabama limited liability company and accounting firm. Although clients of LFAS in need of accounting services will typically be referred to the client's individual Advisory Representative's related accounting firm, clients may also be referred to CRI. Because CRI is the indirect owner of LFAS, we have a financial incentive to recommend CRI over other accounting firms. Moreover, CRI may refer their clients to LFAS. As indirect owner of LFAS, CRI has an economic incentive to recommend LFAS over other financial firms offering similar services to those offered by LFAS.

CRI is also the 100% indirect owner of Auditwerx, LLC, another accounting firm and CRI Transaction Advisors, LLC, a mergers and acquisitions advisory firm and registered broker/dealer. LFAS does not have material arrangements with these firms and does not typically share or refer clients with either firm.

If you are referred to an affiliated company of LFAS or referred by an affiliated company of LFAS, please understand you are under no obligation to work with LFAS or one of our affiliated companies. You can work with any accounting firm, investment advisor or other financial professional of your choosing.

Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by LFAS representatives that a client purchase a securities or insurance commission product from the firm presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any securities or insurance commission products from LFAS and/or its representatives. Clients are reminded that they may purchase securities and insurance products recommended by LFAS through other, non-affiliated broker-dealers and/or insurance agencies. LFAS' Chief Compliance Officer, Gregg Overstake, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Miscellaneous

Financial Planning and Non-Investment Consulting/Implementation Services. To the extent requested by a client, LFAS may provide consulting services regarding non-investment related matters, such as estate planning, tax planning, insurance, etc. LFAS does not serve as an attorney, accountant, or insurance agent, and no portion of LFAS's services should be construed as same. To the extent requested by a client, LFAS may recommend the services of other professionals for certain non-investment implementation purposes (i.e. attorneys, accountants, insurance, etc.), including representatives of LFAS in their separate individual capacities as representatives of LPL Financial ("LPL"), an SEC registered and FINRA member broker-dealer and as licensed insurance agents. The client is under no obligation to engage the services of any such recommended professional. The client retains absolute discretion over all such implementation decisions and is free to accept or reject any recommendation from LFAS and/or its representatives. Please Note: If the client engages any such recommended professional, and a dispute arises thereafter relative to such engagement, the client agrees to seek recourse exclusively from and against the engaged professional. Please Also Note- Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by LFAS representatives that a client purchase a securities or insurance commission product from firm representatives in their individual capacities as representatives of LPL Financial and/or as insurance agents, presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any securities or insurance commission products from LFAS representatives. Clients are reminded that they may purchase securities and insurance products recommended by LFAS through other, non-affiliated broker-dealers and/or insurance agencies. LFAS' Chief Compliance Officer, Gregg Overstake, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Code of Ethics Summary

According to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, an investment adviser is considered a fiduciary. As a fiduciary, it is an investment adviser's responsibility to provide fair and full disclosure of all material facts. In addition, an investment adviser has a duty of utmost good faith to act solely in the best interest of each of its clients. LFAS and its Advisory Representatives have a fiduciary duty to all clients. LFAS has established a Code of Ethics which all Advisory Representatives must adhere to. They must execute an annual acknowledgment agreeing that they understand and agree to comply with that Code of Ethics. The fiduciary duty of LFAS and its Advisory Representatives to clients is considered the core underlying principle for LFAS' Code of Ethics and represents the expected basis for all dealings the Advisory Representatives have with clients. LFAS has the responsibility to make sure that the interests of clients are placed ahead of it or its Advisory Representatives' own investment interests. All Advisory Representatives will conduct business in an honest, ethical and fair manner. All Advisory Representatives will comply with all federal and state securities laws at all times. Full disclosure of all material facts and potential conflicts of interest will be provided to clients prior to services being conducted. All Advisory Representatives have a responsibility to avoid circumstances that might negatively affect or appear to affect the Advisory Representatives' duty of complete loyalty to their clients. This section is only intended to provide current clients and potential clients with a description of LFAS' Code of Ethics. If current clients or potential clients wish to review LFAS' Code of Ethics in its entirety, a copy may be requested from any of LFAS' Advisory Representatives and a copy will be promptly provided.

Affiliate and Employee Personal Securities Transactions Disclosure

LFAS, our Advisory Representatives and/or our personnel may buy or sell securities in their personal accounts that we may also recommend to clients. Because this policy may create a conflict between the interests of clients and the personal investing opportunities of our personnel, we have established several procedures to control for the apparent conflict of interest.

- LFAS is and shall continue to be in compliance with The Insider Trading and Securities Fraud Enforcement Act of 1988. Personnel shall not buy or sell securities for their personal account(s) where their decision is derived, in whole or in part, from information obtained as a result of his/her employment unless the information is also available to the investing public upon reasonable inquiry.
- It is our policy that no Advisory Representative shall prefer his or her own interest to that of the advisory client.
- Our personnel may not purchase or sell any security traded over an exchange (such as a stock position) prior to transactions in the same securities are implemented for an advisory client account.
- Most investments owned by our personnel are publicly traded and widely available (such as mutual funds).

Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Client Referrals

LFAS and its Advisory Representatives may enter into arrangements with unaffiliated investment advisory firms and unaffiliated individuals ("Solicitors") who will refer clients that may be candidates for investment advisory services to LFAS. In return, LFAS will agree to compensate the Solicitor for the referral. Compensation to the Solicitor is dependent on the client entering into an advisory agreement with LFAS. Compensation to the Solicitor will be an agreed upon percentage of LFAS' investment advisory fee or a flat fee depending on the type of advisory services LFAS provides to the referred client. LFAS' referral program will be in compliance with federal or state regulations (as applicable). The solicitation/referral fee is paid pursuant to a written agreement retained by both LFAS and the Solicitor. The Solicitor will be required to provide the client with a copy of the LFAS Form ADV Part II and a Solicitor Disclosure Document at the time of solicitation. The Solicitor is not permitted to offer clients any investment advice on behalf of LFAS. Advisory fee charged to clients will not increase as a result of compensation being shared with the Solicitor.

Other Compensation

Please refer to Item 4 for a description of the economic benefits received from TD Ameritrade.

Other than the receipt of advisory fees as described in Item 4 of this brochure, LFAS receives no other compensation in connection with the management services offered through the Program.

However a Program client may select other advisory services offered by LFAS or engage an Advisory Representative to provide services on a strictly commission basis, purchase insurance products or provide accounting services. In such situations, the client will pay other fees and expenses related to this service. Further LFAS and/or our Advisory Representative will earn compensation in addition to the Program management fees.

LFAS receives economic benefits from LPL Financial in the form of loans used to assist LFAS with transitioning some of our new LFAS Advisory Representatives' business onto the LPL Financial custodial platform. The loans are forgiven if LFAS meets certain conditions in terms of maintaining a relationship with LPL Financial. Please see detailed discussion of the conditions and potential conflicts of interest in previously explained in this section.

Financial Information

This item is not applicable to this brochure. LFAS does not require or solicit prepayment of more than $1,200 in fees per client, six months or more in advance. Therefore, we are not required to include a balance sheet for our most recent fiscal year. LFAS is not subject to a financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet contractual commitments to clients. Finally, LFAS has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time.

CUSTOMER PRIVACY POLICY

LFAS is committed to safeguarding the confidential information of its clients. LFAS holds all personal information provided to it in the strictest confidence. LFAS' Advisory Representatives may also be registered representatives of LPL Financial, a registered broker-dealer that is not affiliated with LFAS. LFAS may share client information with one or more of our affiliated companies. The affiliated companies of LFAS include Level Four Group LLC and Level Four Insurance Services. LFAS may also have relationships with other non-affiliated investment advisers, including LPL Financial, insurance companies, trust companies, custodians and other financial institution entities. Except as required or permitted by law, LFAS does not share confidential information about clients with nonaffiliated third parties. In the unlikely event there were to be a change in this fundamental policy that would permit additional disclosures of confidential client information, LFAS will provide written notice to clients, and they will be given an opportunity to direct whether such disclosure is permissible.

AN IMPORTANT NOTICE CONCERNING CUSTOMER PRIVACY

Customer Information Collected LFAS collects and develops personal information about clients and some of that information is non-public personal information (Customer Information). The essential purpose for collecting Customer Information is to provide and service the appropriate financial products and services clients obtain from the Firm. The categories of Customer Information collected by LFAS depend upon the scope of the engagement with LFAS and are generally described below. As an investment adviser, LFAS collects and develops Customer Information about clients in order to provide investment advisory services. Customer Information collected includes:

- Information received from clients on financial inventories and questionnaires through consultation with LFAS' Advisory Representatives. This Customer Information may include personal and household information such as income, spending habits, investment objectives, financial goals, statements of account, and other records concerning clients' financial condition and assets, together with information concerning employee benefits and retirement plan interests, wills, trusts, mortgages and tax returns.
- Information developed as part of financial plans, analyses or investment advisory services.
- Information concerning investment advisory account transactions, such as wrap account transactions.
- Information about clients' financial products and services transactions with LFAS.

Data Security LFAS and its affiliated companies restrict access to Customer Information to those Advisory Representatives and employees who need the information to perform their job responsibilities within the Firm. LFAS maintains agreements, as well as physical, electronic and procedural securities measures that comply with federal regulations to safeguard Customer Information about clients.

Use and Disclosure of Customer Information to Provide Customer Service for Client Accounts To administer, manage and service customer accounts, process transactions and provide related services for client accounts, it is necessary for LFAS to provide access to Customer Information within the Firm and its affiliated companies and to non-affiliated companies such as LPL Financial, other investment advisers, other broker-dealers, trust companies, custodians and insurance companies. LFAS may also provide Customer Information outside of the Firm as permitted by law, such as to government entities, consumer reporting agencies or other third parties in response to subpoenas.

LFAS may also share information with LPL Financial which has supervisory obligations over certain of LFAS's activities. As a result of the LPL Financial relationship, LPL Financial will have access to certain confidential information (e.g., financial information, investment objectives, transactions and holdings) about LFAS's clients, even if client does not establish any account through LPL Financial. If you would like a copy of the LPL Financial privacy policy, please contact LFAS.

Former Clients If clients close an account with the Firm, LFAS will continue to operate in accordance with the principles stated in the Notice.

Requirements of Federal Law In November of 1999, Congress enacted the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA). The GLBA requires certain financial institutions, including broker-dealers and investment advisers, to protect the privacy of Customer Information. To the extent a financial institution discloses Customer Information to non-affiliated third parties, other than as permitted or required by law, customers must be given the opportunity and means to opt out (or prevent) such disclosure. Please note that other than what is described below in When Advisory Representatives Leave LFAS, LFAS does not disclose Customer Information to non-affiliated third parties except as permitted or required by law (e.g., disclosures to facilitate service of client accounts or to respond to subpoenas).

When Advisory Representatives Leave LFAS

LFAS understands that the relationship clients have with their Advisory Representative is important. If a client's Advisory Representative ends his or her affiliation with LFAS and he or she chooses to move to a different investment adviser, or if an Advisory Representative's relationship with LFAS is terminated, the LFAS Advisory Representative may be allowed to take with him or her copies of all client and account documentation (including but not limited to: account applications; customer statements; and other pertinent forms related to the advisory services provided to the client by LFAS), so the Advisory Representative is able to continue the relationship with his or her client and continue providing advisory service through his or her new advisory firm. LFAS will also retain copies of its client and account documentation.

Clients do not need to take action if it is their choice to allow their LFAS Advisory Representative to keep copies of their confidential information should he or she leave LFAS.

If you do not want your Advisory Representative to keep copies of your confidential information should he or she decide to end the relationship with LFAS in the future, you have the right to opt out. If LFAS provides services to a joint account, LFAS will treat the opt-out request by a joint account owner as applying to all owners on the account(s) managed or serviced by LFAS. If you choose to opt out now; at any time in the future; or wish to withdraw your opt out request, contact us at 866-834-1040. If it is your choice to opt out there will be a 30-day period before your opt out will take effect.

If you have questions about your personal information we have on file, your request should be directed to:

Level Four Advisory Services
Attn: Gregg Overstake
5850 Granite Parkway,
Suite 270
Plano, TX 75024

Please include all investment advisory account numbers you maintain with LFAS with your correspondence.

BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLAN DISCLOSURE

LFAS has developed a comprehensive business continuity plan that covers LFAS' operations. The plan is designed to ensure that LFAS is prepared to continue providing service to clients in the event a significant disruption of any kind occurs to LFAS' business operations. The plan addresses business disruptions of varying severity and scope. It provides for testing at least annually and in response to any material changes affecting LFAS' business. Although it is impossible to anticipate every scenario, the plan is reasonably designed to enable LFAS to resume doing business upon the occurrence of those events that are most likely to affect LFAS.

What follows is a description of how LFAS will respond to the following four types of disruptions: (1) A firm-only disruption, (2) a disruption that affects a single building, (3) a disruption that affects the entire city or business district, and (4) a disruption that affects the entire North Texas region. LFAS has also included information about how long it expects to take to recover from these disruptions.

Firm-Only Disruptions

To respond to a disruption that affects only LFAS, such as a computer virus, LFAS has on-site full-time employees who are fingerprinted associated persons or registered representatives of LPL Financial, to successfully guide LFAS through disruptions that may affect operations, the use of crisis communications systems and procedures that address life, health, and safety issues; damage assessment; damage mitigation; personnel mobilization and mission-critical systems. If this type of disruption takes place, LFAS intends to restore all critical services within one day after the disruption occurs. However, in light of the various types of disruptions of this nature that could take place, it may take longer to resume operations in one or more services during any particular disruption.

Disruptions that Affect a Single Building

In the event of a disruption that affects LFAS' office, such as a fire in the building, the plan calls for a response involving multiple locations. LFAS will resume critical services by moving key personnel to an alternate location, to the extent necessary. Certain key personnel may also work remotely by connecting to the LPL Financial network from a remote location. In addition to relocating key personnel to back-up facilities, LFAS will, if necessary, transfer responsibility for certain operations and support services to an offsite location. LFAS intends to resume operations in all critical service areas within one day after a disruption of this nature occurs. It may, however, take as long as two or three days to continue doing business in one or more critical service areas depending on the availability of data.

Disruptions that Affect the Entire City or Business District

If a disruption significant enough to affect the entire city or business district, such as an Act of God or a terrorist attack that cuts off access to LFAS' office, under the plan, LFAS will resume critical services at a back-up location. As above, certain key employees will work remotely and certain operations and support services would be handled at alternate locations. LFAS intends to resume operations in all of its critical service areas within one day after a disruption of this nature occurs. It may, however, take up to three or four days to recover depending on the availability of data and on the availability of key employees.

Disruptions that Affect the Entire North Texas Region

In the event of a disruption that affects the entire North Texas Region, such as a regional power outage, LFAS will resume critical service areas from back-up locations. Although LFAS intends to resume operations within one day after the disruption occurs, one or more critical service areas may not be able to resume operations until the disruption is over.

In all of the situations described above, LFAS expects to continue doing business and expects to resume operations within the specified time frames. However, in the event that a business disruption results in a significant loss of life at LFAS' office or otherwise results in key employees being unavailable or unable to report to their designated location, the recovery times described above may be significantly increased. Furthermore, although LFAS expects to continue operating regardless of the type of disruption, it is impossible to anticipate every scenario. It is, therefore, possible that a significant business disruption could occur and as a result, LFAS may be unable to continue doing business. In those situations, the plan provides procedures to help ensure that the customers have prompt access to their funds and securities.

LFAS will continue to devote substantial resources to the enhancement of its business continuity plan and procedures.

Information Required by Part 2B of Form ADV: Brochure Supplement

Joseph W. Globensky, Manager and Investment Committee Member

Item 1 – Cover Page

This brochure supplement provides information about Joseph Globensky that supplements the information previously provided in this brochure. Please contact our main office at 866-834-1040 if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement. Additional information about Joseph Globensky is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 – Educational Background and Business Experience

Born: 1968

Education Background:

- Michigan State University, BA Finance, 1990
- Texas A&M University, MS Finance, 1993

Business Background & Other Business Activity:

- Level Four Advisory Services, LLC, Chief Investment Officer and Investment Advisor Representative, 01/2005 to Present;
- LPL Financial Corporation, Registered Representative, 11/2012 to Present;
- Level Four Insurance Services, Insurance Agent, 10/2002 to Present;
- Level Four Group, LLC, Chief Financial Officer, 10/2002 to 12/2014;
- LF Properties, Ltd, Limited Partner, 07/2004 to Present;
- Level Four Tax & Advisors, LLC, Vice President, 08/2010 to 09/2014;
- Lincoln Financial Securities, Registered Representative, 11/2007 to 11/2012; and
- Securities America, Inc., Registered Representative, 10/2002 to 11/2007.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Joseph Globensky has no legal or disciplinary events to report.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Activity 1 – Registered Representative

Although LFAS does not sell products or services other than investment advice, Joseph Globensky is separately licensed as a registered representative with LPL Financial, a registered securities broker/dealer, member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investors Protection Corporation (SIPC). When acting in his/her separate capacity as a registered representative of LPL Financial, Joseph Globensky may sell, for commissions, general securities products such as stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, and variable annuity and variable life products to advisory clients. As such, Joseph Globensky may suggest that advisory clients implement investment advice by purchasing securities products through a commission-based LPL Financial account in addition to a LFAS advisory account.

The receipt of commissions creates an incentive for Joseph Globensky to recommend those products for which he/she will receive a commission. Consequently, the objectivity of the advice rendered to clients could be biased. Joseph Globensky controls for this potential conflict of interest by discussing with clients the benefits and negatives of establishing a fee-based account through LFAS versus establishing a commission-based account through LPL Financial. LFAS does not require its Advisory Representatives to encourage clients to implement investment advice through LPL Financial. Joseph Globensky does not earn commissions in fee-based accounts. Joseph Globensky may receive 12b-1 fees from certain mutual fund companies as outlined in the fund's prospectus. 12b-1 fees come from fund assets, therefore, indirectly from client assets. The receipt of such fees could represent an incentive for Joseph Globensky to recommend funds with 12b-1 fees over funds that have no fees or lower fees. Joseph Globensky will receive 12b-1 fees only in commission-based brokerage accounts.

Clients are never obligated or required to establish accounts through LFAS or LPL Financial. However, if a client does not choose to accept Joseph Globensky's advice or decides not to establish an account through LPL Financial, Joseph Globensky may not be able to provide management and advisory services to the client. Clients should understand that, due to certain regulatory constraints, Joseph Globensky, in his/her capacity as a LPL Financial registered representative must place all purchases and sales of securities products in commission-based brokerage accounts through LPL Financial or its other approved institutions.

Activity 2 – Insurance Agent

Joseph Globensky is independently licensed to sell insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies. When acting in this capacity, Joseph Globensky will receive commissions for selling insurance and annuity products.

Joseph Globensky may also receive other incentive awards for the recommendation/sale of annuities and other insurance products. The receipt of compensation and other incentive benefits may affect the judgment of Joseph Globensky when recommending products to its clients. While Joseph Globensky endeavors at all times to put the interest of his/her clients first as a part of Joseph Globensky's overall fiduciary duty to clients, clients should be aware that the receipt of commissions and additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect Joseph Globensky's decision making process when making recommendations.

Clients are never obligated or required to purchase insurance products from or through Joseph Globensky and may choose any independent insurance agent and insurance company to purchase insurance products. Regardless of the insurance agent selected, the insurance agent or agency will receive normal commissions from the sale.

Level Four Group, LLC is the sole owner of LFAS and Level Four Insurance Services, LLC, a licensed insurance agency. Joseph Globensky may sell insurance products through Level Four Insurance Services.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Certain product sponsors may provide Joseph Globensky with other economic benefits as a result of Joseph Globensky's recommendation or sale of the product sponsors' investments. The economic benefits received by Joseph Globensky from product sponsors can include but are not limited to, financial assistance or the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Joseph Globensky in providing various services to clients.

In addition, LPL Financial has a similar program. If Joseph Globensky meets certain production levels, Joseph Globensky can receive incentive trips, discounts on technology, marketing support and other services from LPL Financial.

Although LFAS and Joseph Globensky endeavor at all times to put the interest of their clients ahead of their own interests or those of the Firm's officers, directors, or representatives ("affiliated persons"), these arrangements could affect the judgment of Joseph Globensky when recommending investment products. These situations present a conflict of interest that may affect the judgment of affiliated persons including Joseph Globensky.

Item 6 - Supervision

Gregg Overstake, LFAS Chief Compliance Officer, is ultimately responsible for supervising the investment advice and services provided by LFAS Advisory Representatives, including Joseph Globensky. Investment portfolios and programs offered by LFAS are reviewed and monitored on an on-going basis. LFAS has developed reports and internal controls to identify transactions that may be out of the ordinary or inconsistent with a client's investment objectives. Mr. Overstake's phone number is (866) 834-1040.

Edmon "Jake" Tomes, Manager and Investment Committee Member

Item 1 – Cover Page

This brochure supplement provides information about Jake Tomes that supplements the information previously provided in this brochure. Please contact our main office at 866-834-1040 if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement. Additional information about Jake Tomes is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 – Educational Background and Business Experience

Born 1974

Education Background:

- Ambassador University: Bachelor of Science in Psychology, 1997

Business Background:

- Level Four Advisory Services, LLC, Investment Advisor Representative, 01/2005 to Present;
- LPL Financial Corporation, Registered Representative, 11/2012 to Present;
- Level Four Insurance Services, Insurance Agent, 03/2002 to Present;
- Level Four Group, LLC, President/CEO, 05/2000 to Present;
- LF Properties, Ltd, Limited Partner, 07/2004 to Present;
- Level Four Tax & Advisors, LLC, Vice President, 08/2010 to 09/2014;
- Lincoln Financial Securities, Registered Representative, 11/2007 to 11/2012; and
- Securities America, Inc, Registered Representative, 10/2002 to 11/2007

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Jake Tomes has no legal or disciplinary events to report.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Activity 1 – Registered Representative

Although LFAS does not sell products or services other than investment advice, Jake Tomes is separately licensed as a registered representative with LPL Financial, a registered securities broker/dealer, member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investors Protection Corporation (SIPC). When acting in his/her separate capacity as a registered representative of LPL Financial, Jake Tomes may sell, for commissions, general securities products such as stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, and variable annuity and variable life products to advisory clients. As such, Jake Tomes may suggest that advisory clients implement investment advice by purchasing securities products through a commission-based LPL Financial account in addition to a LFAS advisory account.

The receipt of commissions creates an incentive for Jake Tomes to recommend those products for which he/she will receive a commission. Consequently, the objectivity of the advice rendered to clients could be biased. Jake Tomes controls for this potential conflict of interest by discussing with clients the benefits and negatives of establishing a fee-based account through LFAS versus establishing a commission-based account through LPL Financial. LFAS does not require its Advisory Representatives to encourage clients to implement investment advice through LPL Financial. Jake Tomes does not earn commissions in fee-based accounts.

Jake Tomes may receive 12b-1 fees from certain mutual fund companies as outlined in the fund's prospectus. 12b-1 fees come from fund assets, therefore, indirectly from client assets. The receipt of such fees could represent an incentive for Jake Tomes to recommend funds with 12b-1 fees over funds that have no fees or lower fees. Jake Tomes will receive 12b-1 fees only in commission-based brokerage accounts.

Clients are never obligated or required to establish accounts through LFAS or LPL Financial. However, if a client does not choose to accept Jake Tomes' advice or decides not to establish an account through LPL Financial, Jake Tomes may not be able to provide management and advisory services to the client. Clients should understand that, due to certain regulatory constraints, Jake Tomes, in his/her capacity as a LPL Financial registered representative must place all purchases and sales of securities products in commission-based brokerage accounts through LPL Financial or its other approved institutions.

Activity 2 – Insurance Agent

Jake Tomes is independently licensed to sell insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies. When acting in this capacity, Jake Tomes will receive commissions for selling insurance and annuity products.

Jake Tomes may also receive other incentive awards for the recommendation/sale of annuities and other insurance products. The receipt of compensation and other incentive benefits may affect the judgment of Jake Tomes when recommending products to its clients. While Jake Tomes endeavors at all times to put the interest of his/her clients first as a part of Jake Tomes' overall fiduciary duty to clients, clients should be aware that the receipt of commissions and additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect Jake Tomes' decision making process when making recommendations.

Clients are never obligated or required to purchase insurance products from or through Jake Tomes and may choose any independent insurance agent and insurance company to purchase insurance products. Regardless of the insurance agent selected, the insurance agent or agency will receive normal commissions from the sale.

Level Four Group, LLC is the sole owner of LFAS and Level Four Insurance Services, LLC, a licensed insurance agency. Jake Tomes may sell insurance products through Level Four Insurance Services.

Activity 3 – President/CEO

Jake Tomes is the President/CEO at Level Four Group, LLC. Level Four Group, LLC is a business consulting firm and the sole owner of LFAS and Level Four Insurance Services, LLC.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Certain product sponsors may provide Jake Tomes with other economic benefits as a result of Jake Tomes' recommendation or sale of the product sponsors' investments. The economic benefits received by Jake Tomes from product sponsors can include but are not limited to, financial assistance or the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Jake Tomes in providing various services to clients.

In addition, LPL Financial has a similar program. If Jake Tomes meets certain production levels, Jake Tomes can receive incentive trips, discounts on technology, marketing support and other services from LPL Financial.

Although LFAS and Jake Tomes endeavor at all times to put the interest of their clients ahead of their own interests or those of the Firm's officers, directors, or representatives ("affiliated persons"), these arrangements could affect the judgment of Jake Tomes when recommending investment products. These situations present a conflict of interest that may affect the judgment of affiliated persons including Jake Tomes.

Item 6 – Supervision

Gregg Overstake, LFAS Chief Compliance Officer, is ultimately responsible for supervising the investment advice and services provided by LFAS Advisory Representatives, including Jake Tomes. Investment portfolios and programs offered by LFAS are reviewed and monitored on an on-going basis. LFAS has developed reports and internal controls to identify transactions that may be out of the ordinary or inconsistent with a client's investment objectives. Mr. Overstake's phone number is (866) 834-1040.

Gregg Douglas Overstake, Chief Compliance Officer and Investment Committee Member

Item 1 – Cover Page

This brochure supplement provides information about Gregg Overstake that supplements the information previously provided in this brochure. Please contact our main office at 866-834-1040 if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement. Additional information about Gregg Overtake is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 – Educational Background and Business Experience

Born – 1959

Education Background:

- University of Oklahoma, Bachelor of Business Administration – Finance, 1989.

Business Background:

- Level Four Advisory Services, LLC, Chief Compliance Officer and Investment Advisor Representative, 2/2009 to Present;
- Level Four Insurance Services, Insurance Agent, 2/2009 to Present; LPL Financial, Registered Representative, 11/2012 to Present;
- Level Four Wealth Management, Compliance Manager, 11/2014 to Present; Lincoln Financial Securities Corp, Registered Representative, 2/2009 to 11/2012.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Gregg Douglas Overstake has no legal or disciplinary events to report.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Activity 1 – Registered Representative of LPL Financial

Although LFAS does not sell products or services other than investment advice, Gregg Douglas Overstake is separately licensed as a registered representative with LPL Financial, a registered securities broker/dealer, member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investors Protection Corporation (SIPC). When acting in his separate capacity as a registered representative of LPL Financial, Gregg Douglas Overstake may sell, for commissions, general securities products such as stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, and variable annuity and variable life products to advisory clients. As such, Gregg Douglas Overstake may suggest that advisory clients implement investment advice by purchasing securities products through a commission-based LPL Financial account in addition to a LFAS advisory account.

The receipt of commissions creates an incentive for Gregg Douglas Overstake to recommend those products for which he will receive a commission. Consequently, the objectivity of the advice rendered to clients could be biased. Gregg Douglas Overstake controls for this potential conflict of interest by discussing with clients the benefits and negatives of establishing a fee-based account through LFAS versus establishing a commission-based account through LPL Financial. LFAS does not require its advisor representatives to encourage clients to implement investment advice through LPL Financial.

Gregg Douglas Overstake may receive 12b-1 fees from certain mutual fund companies as outlined in the fund's prospectus. 12b-1 fees come from fund assets, therefore, indirectly from client assets.

The receipt of such fees could represent an incentive for Gregg Douglas Overstake to recommend funds with 12b-1 fees over funds that have no fees or lower fees. Typically, Gregg Douglas Overstake will receive 12b-1 fees only in commission-based brokerage accounts.

Clients are never obligated or required to establish accounts through LFAS or LPL Financial. However, if a client does not choose to accept Gregg Douglas Overstake's advice or decides not to establish an account through LPL Financial, Gregg Douglas Overstake may not be able to provide management and advisory services to the client. Clients should understand that, due to certain regulatory constraints,

Gregg Douglas Overstake, in his capacity as a LPL Financial registered representative must place all purchases and sales of securities products in commission-based brokerage accounts through LPL Financial or its other approved institutions.

Activity 2 – Insurance Agent

Gregg Douglas Overstake is independently licensed to sell insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies. When acting in this capacity, Gregg Douglas Overstake will receive commissions for selling insurance and annuity products.

Gregg Douglas Overstake may also receive other incentive awards for the recommendation/sale of annuities and other insurance products. The receipt of compensation and other incentive benefits may affect the judgment of Gregg Douglas Overstake when recommending products to his clients.

While Gregg Douglas Overstake endeavors at all times to put the interest of his clients first as a part of Level Four Advisory Services' overall fiduciary duty to clients, clients should be aware that the receipt of commissions and additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect Gregg Douglas Overstake's decision making process when making recommendations.

Clients are never obligated or required to purchase insurance products from or through Gregg Douglas Overstake and may choose any independent insurance agent and insurance company to purchase insurance products. Regardless of the insurance agent selected, the insurance agent or agency will receive normal commissions from the sale.

Level Four Group, LLC is the sole owner of LFAS and Level Four Insurance Services, a licensed insurance agency. Gregg Douglas Overstake may sell insurance products through Level Four Insurance Services.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

In addition to the description of additional compensation provided in Item 4, Gregg Douglas Overstake can receive additional benefits as described below.

Certain product sponsors may provide Gregg Douglas Overstake with other economic benefits as a result of Gregg Douglas Overstake's recommendation or sale of the product sponsors' investments.

The economic benefits received by Gregg Douglas Overstake from product sponsors can include but are not limited to, financial assistance or the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Gregg Douglas Overstake in providing various services to clients.

In addition, LPL Financial has a similar program. If Gregg Douglas Overstake meets certain production levels, Gregg Douglas Overstake can receive incentive trips, discounts on technology, marketing support and other services from LPL Financial.

Although LFAS and Gregg Douglas Overstake endeavor at all times to put the interest of their clients ahead of their own interests or those of the firm's officers, directors, or representatives ("affiliated persons"), these arrangements could affect the judgment of Gregg Douglas Overstake when recommending investment products. These situations present a conflict of interest that may affect the judgment of affiliated persons including Gregg Douglas Overstake.

Item 6 – Supervision

Gregg Overstake, LFAS Chief Compliance Officer, is ultimately responsible for supervising the investment advice and services provided by LFAS advisor representatives. Investment portfolios and programs offered by LFAS are reviewed and monitored on an on-going basis. LFAS has developed reports and internal controls to identify transactions that may be out of the ordinary or inconsistent with a client's investment objectives.

Mr. Overstake's phone number is (866) 834-1040.

Charles Raymond Shimer III, Investment Advisor Representative and Investment Committee Member

Item 1 – Cover Page

This brochure supplement provides information about Charles Raymond Shimer III that supplements the information previously provided in this brochure. Please contact our main office at 866-834-1040 if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement. Additional information about Charles Raymond Shimer III is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 – Educational Background and Business Experience

Born – 1963

Education Background:

- University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Bachelor of Arts in Economics, 1985
- Pitt Community College, Associate of Arts in Computer Science, Network Administration, 2001.

Business Background:

- Level Four Advisory Services, LLC, Investment Advisor Representative, 1/2015 to Present;
- Level Four Insurance Services, Insurance Agent, 1/2015 to Present; LPL Financial, Registered Representative, 1/2015 to Present;
- AXA Advisors, Registered Representative, 6/2005 to 1/2015; PPC Financial Group, Practice Manager, 10/2002 to 01/2015.

Professional Designations:

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA)

The CFA designation is issued by the CFA Institute and is granted to individuals who meet one of the following prerequisites: possess an undergraduate degree and four years of professional experience investment decision making or four years qualified work experience (full time, but not necessarily investment related). The candidate is required to follow a self-study program involving 250 hours of study for each of the following three disciplines: Level One: Ethics and Professional Standards; Level Two: Investment Tools & Asset Classes; and Level Three: Portfolio Management & Wealth Planning. Once the designation is issued, no further Continuing Education is required. Note: Investors may contact the issuing organization to determine whether their advisor is currently authorized to use the designation and whether they've been disciplined.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Charles Raymond Shimer III has no legal or disciplinary events to report.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Activity 1 – Registered Representative of LPL Financial

Although LFAS does not sell products or services other than investment advice, Charles Raymond Shimer III is separately licensed as a registered representative with LPL Financial, a registered securities broker/dealer, member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investors Protection Corporation (SIPC). When acting in his separate capacity as a registered representative of LPL Financial, Charles Raymond Shimer III may sell, for commissions, general securities products such as stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, and variable annuity and variable life products to advisory clients. As such, Charles Raymond Shimer III may suggest that advisory clients implement investment advice by purchasing securities products through a commission-based LPL Financial account in addition to a LFAS advisory account.

The receipt of commissions creates an incentive for Charles Raymond Shimer III to recommend those products for which he will receive a commission. Consequently, the objectivity of the advice rendered to clients could be biased. Charles Raymond Shimer III controls for this potential conflict of interest by discussing with clients the benefits and negatives of establishing a fee-based account through LFAS versus establishing a commission-based account through LPL Financial. LFAS does not require its advisor representatives to encourage clients to implement investment advice through LPL Financial.

Charles Raymond Shimer III may receive 12b-1 fees from certain mutual fund companies as outlined in the fund's prospectus. 12b-1 fees come from fund assets, therefore, indirectly from client assets.

The receipt of such fees could represent an incentive for Charles Raymond Shimer III to recommend funds with 12b-1 fees over funds that have no fees or lower fees. Typically, Charles Raymond Shimer III will receive 12b-1 fees only in commission-based brokerage accounts.

Clients are never obligated or required to establish accounts through LFAS or LPL Financial. However, if a client does not choose to accept Charles Raymond Shimer III's advice or decides not to establish an account through LPL Financial, Charles Raymond Shimer III may not be able to provide management and advisory services to the client. Clients should understand that, due to certain regulatory constraints, Charles Raymond Shimer III, in his capacity as a LPL Financial registered representative must place all purchases and sales of securities products in commission-based brokerage accounts through LPL Financial or its other approved institutions.

Activity 2 – Insurance Agent

Charles Raymond Shimer III is independently licensed to sell insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies. When acting in this capacity, Charles Raymond Shimer III will receive commissions for selling insurance and annuity products.

Charles Raymond Shimer III may also receive other incentive awards for the recommendation/sale of annuities and other insurance products. The receipt of compensation and other incentive benefits may affect the judgment of Charles Raymond Shimer III when recommending products to his clients.

While Charles Raymond Shimer III endeavors at all times to put the interest of his clients first as a part of Level Four Advisory Services' overall fiduciary duty to clients, clients should be aware that the receipt of commissions and additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect Charles Raymond Shimer III's decision making process when making recommendations.

Clients are never obligated or required to purchase insurance products from or through Charles Raymond Shimer III and may choose any independent insurance agent and insurance company to purchase insurance products. Regardless of the insurance agent selected, the insurance agent or agency will receive normal commissions from the sale.

Level Four Group, LLC is the sole owner of LFAS and Level Four Insurance Services, a licensed insurance agency. Charles Raymond Shimer III may sell insurance products through Level Four Insurance Services.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

In addition to the description of additional compensation provided in Item 4, Charles Raymond Shimer III can receive additional benefits as described below.

Certain product sponsors may provide Charles Raymond Shimer III with other economic benefits as a result of Charles Raymond Shimer III's recommendation or sale of the product sponsors' investments.

The economic benefits received by Charles Raymond Shimer III from product sponsors can include but are not limited to, financial assistance or the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Charles Raymond Shimer III in providing various services to clients.

In addition, LPL Financial has a similar program. If Charles Raymond Shimer III meets certain production levels, Charles Raymond Shimer III can receive incentive trips, discounts on technology, marketing support and other services from LPL Financial.

Although LFAS and Charles Raymond Shimer III endeavor at all times to put the interest of their clients ahead of their own interests or those of the firm's officers, directors, or representatives ("affiliated persons"), these arrangements could affect the judgment of Charles Raymond Shimer III when recommending investment products. These situations present a conflict of interest that may affect the judgment of affiliated persons including Charles Raymond Shimer III.

Item 6 – Supervision

Gregg Overstake, LFAS Chief Compliance Officer, is ultimately responsible for supervising the investment advice and services provided by LFAS advisor representatives, including Charles Raymond Shimer III. Investment portfolios and programs offered by LFAS are reviewed and monitored on an on-going basis. LFAS has developed reports and internal controls to identify transactions that may be out of the ordinary or inconsistent with a client's investment objectives.

Mr. Overstake's phone number is (866) 834-1040.

John Allen Vann, Investment Advisor Representative and Investment Committee Member

Item 1 – Cover Page

This brochure supplement provides information about John Allen Vann that supplements the information previously provided in this brochure. Please contact our main office at 866-834-1040 if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement. Additional information about John Allen Vann is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 – Educational Background and Business Experience

Born – 1947

Education Background:

- University of Colorado, Bachelor of Science, 1970

Business Background:

- Level Four Advisory Services, LLC, Investment Advisor Representative, 11/2015 to Present;
- Level Four Advisory Services, a division of Carr, Riggs & Ingram Capital, LLC, Chief Investment Officer, 11/2015 to present;
- Rushmore Investment Advisors/Banyan Partners, CIO/Advisor Board, 6/1996 to 10/2015

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

John Allen Vann has no legal or disciplinary events to report.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

There are no additional securities related outside business activities.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Other than his receipt of fees from advisory services, John Allen Vann receives no other compensation in connection with services provided through LFAS.

Item 6 – Supervision

Gregg Overstake, LFAS Chief Compliance Officer, is ultimately responsible for supervising the investment advice and services provided by LFAS advisor representatives, including John Allen Vann. Investment portfolios and programs offered by LFAS are reviewed and monitored on an on-going basis. LFAS has developed reports and internal controls to identify transactions that may be out of the ordinary or inconsistent with a client's investment objectives.

Mr. Overstake's phone number is (866) 834-1040.

ANY QUESTIONS: LFAS' Chief Compliance Officer, Gregg Overstake, remains available to address any questions regarding this Part 2A.

4835-3007-3112, v. 17