Item of Form (identify)	Answer
Part II, Page 2, Item 1. D.	Advisory Services Rockbridge Asset Management, LLC ("Adviser"), is a Registered Investment Adviser in the state of Alabama. The Adviser offers financial planning and investment advisory services to its Clients ("Clients"). Such services are offered through its Investment Advisory Representatives ("Advisory Representatives"). Financial Planning Services The Adviser, through its Advisory Representatives, will typically provide a variety of financial planning services, principally advisory in nature, regarding the management of their financial resources, based upon an analysis of client's needs. Generally, such financial planning services will involve preparing a financial program for a client based on the client's financial circumstances and objectives. This information normally would cover present and anticipated assets and liabilities including insurance, savings, investments and anticipated retirement or other employee benefits. The program developed for the clients will usually include general recommendations for a course of action or specific actions to be taken by the clients. For example, recommendations may be made that the clients obtain insurance or revise existing coverage, establish an individual retirement account, increase or decrease funds held in savings accounts or invest funds in securities. The Advisory Representatives may develop tax or estate plans for clients or refer clients to an accountant or attorney. The Advisory Representatives may also create a cash flow analysis or work with and advise the clients as to the rearrangement of cash flow in order to fund certain long term objectives such as buying a house, planning for college, retirement, etc. . . For Financial Planning services, the Adviser will charge the client a fee as agreed upon at the time of service. The fee may be charged on an hourly or fixed fee basis. The typical hourly fee is between $100 and $250 per hour, and the typical fixed fee ranges from between $1,000 and $5,000 depending on the complexity of the financial plan requested. Financial planning fees are due and payable after services are rendered but no later than 30 days after receipt of the analysis by the Client. The fees charged by Rockbridge are solely for the preparation of the Client's comprehensive financial plan, specific financial plan, portfolio management, or financial consultation and do not include any commissions that might be generated upon implementation of any securities or insurance recommendation. Investment Supervision Services The Adviser will provide investment supervision services, in which it will provide advice to the client, based upon a client's profile. Such profile will be created through personal discussions in which goals and objectives based on a client's particular circumstances are established. Each account will be grouped into a model portfolio as determined using a questionnaire, provided the client does not elect to establish any special restrictions on the account. Model portfolios are managed utilizing Modern Portfolio Theory and are generally comprised of open ended mutual funds, generally index funds, or exchange traded funds though other investments may be utilized. Model portfolios are monitored at least weekly and are rebalanced at least annually. The Adviser will provide such advisory services on a

	discretionary and non-discretionary basis. Account management will be guided by the stated objectives of the clients as expressed on the client questionnaire. Clients will retain individual ownership of all securities. Clients who own mutual funds within the managed Account cannot claim ownership of the underlying investments of those mutual funds. The Adviser does not vote, or give any advice about how to vote, proxies for securities held in the Investment Account. Information About Fees All fees paid to the Adviser for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. Such fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses and a possible distribution fee. If the fund also imposes sales charges, a client may pay an additional or deferred sales charge. A client could invest in a mutual fund directly, without the services of the Adviser. In that case, the client would not receive the services provided by the Adviser, which are designed, among other things, to assist the clients in determining which mutual fund or funds are most appropriate to the client's financial condition and objectives. Accordingly, the client should review both the fees charged by the funds and the fees charged by the Adviser to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client and to thereby evaluate the advisory services being provided. Should a client purchase the mutual fund directly, without the services of the Adviser, he or she would not pay advisory fees to the Adviser. Upon receiving Client's written authorization, fees will be automatically deducted from the account. Clients are provided a quarterly statement reflecting the deduction of the advisory fee. In certain circumstances, advisory fees and account minimums may be negotiable based upon prior relationships as well as related account holdings. The fees charged are calculated as described above and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds of an advisory client. All Advisory fees are charged, in advance, at the start of each calendar quarter, based upon the account value of the assets in the portfolio as of the last business day of the prior quarter. The initial fee will be payable when the account is established, prorated for the first partial quarter, if applicable. Thereafter, the fee will be payable on the first day of each calendar quarter based on the asset value of the account as of the last business day of the prior quarter. Additional deposits to the account are subject to the same fee procedures. 	It is the expressed policy of the Adviser that its Advisory Representatives may not purchase or sell any individual stock or bond prior to a transaction(s) being implemented for an advisory account, and therefore, preventing such Advisory Representatives from benefiting from transactions placed on behalf of advisory accounts. As these situations represent a conflict of interest, the Adviser has established the following restrictions in order to ensure its fiduciary responsibilities: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) A Director, Officer or Advisory Representatives shall not buy or sell securities for their personal portfolio(s) where their decision is substantially derived, in whole or in part, by reason of his or her affiliation with the Adviser or GunnAllen, unless the information is also available to the investing public on reasonable inquiry. No person shall prefer his or her own interest to that of the advisory clients. (1) (2)2) All clients are fully informed that certain individuals may receive separate compensation when effecting transactions during the implementation process.3) The Adviser emphasizes the unrestricted right of the clients to decline to implement any advice rendered, except in situations where a Third Party Advisory Service is granted discretionary authority in the client's account.4) The Adviser requires that all individuals must act in accordance with all applicable Federal and State regulations governing registered investment advisory practices.5) Any individual not in observance of the above may be subject to termination. Additional Disclosures: <ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) This investment policy has been established recognizing that some securities being considered for purchase and sale on behalf of the Adviser's clients trade in sufficiently broad markets as to permit transactions by clients to be completed without an appreciable impact on the markets of the securities. Under certain circumstances, exceptions may be made to the policies stated above. Records of these trades, including the reasons for the exceptions, will be maintained with the Adviser's records in the manner set forth above.(2) Open-end mutual funds and/or the investment sub-accounts which may comprise a variable insurance product are purchased or redeemed at a fixed net asset value price per share specific to the date of purchase or redemption. As such, transactions in mutual funds and/or variable insurance products by Advisory Representatives are not likely to have an impact on the prices of the fund shares in which clients invest, and are therefore not prohibited by the Adviser's investment policies and procedures.
Part II, Page 5, Item 10.	Conditions for Managing Accounts The Adviser has set forth requirements for a minimum account investment of $100,000. This amount is negotiable at the discretion of the Adviser. The Adviser may only manage accounts at certain broker/dealers and thus the Client will have to open an Account at one of those broker/dealers in order for the Account to be managed.
Part II, Page 6, Items 12 A. and B.	Investment or Brokerage Discretion The Adviser does not have the authority to determine, without obtaining specific client's discretionary authority, securities to be bought or sold; the broker or dealer to be used; or the commission rates paid.

	However, as aforementioned, the Adviser's Advisory Representatives are also registered Representatives of GunnAllen. In order to meet its FINRA supervisory obligations, GunnAllen requires that investment advisory activities be conducted through GunnAllen's clearing relationship with Pershing or through Fidelity. As a result, the Adviser does not have the discretion to choose the broker/dealer or the commission rates to be paid. However, the Adviser reasonably believes that Pershing and Fidelity's blend of execution services, commission and transaction costs as well as professionalism will allow the Adviser to seek best execution and competitive prices. However, clients should be aware that best execution and lower commissions may not necessarily be achieved if recommended transactions are placed through the Adviser's Advisory Representatives, in their separate capacities as Registered Representative of GunnAllen.
Part II, Page 6, Item 13 B.	Additional Compensation The Adviser may enter into solicitor relationships with individuals ("Solicitors") who in turn offer our services to members of the public. Through these arrangements, we pay a cash referral fee to the Solicitor based upon a percentage of our advisory fee. The referral fee is paid pursuant to a written agreement and this information is disclosed to Clients prior to or at the time of entering into an investment advisory agreement.
