Trades are reviewed and confirmed by the CDO Analyst/trading assistant. Trade logs are sent daily to the Warehouse Bank or Trustee Bank. All trades are settled by either the Warehouse or Trustee Bank.

The performance of the collateral underlying each CDO is reviewed by the Surveillance Group on a monthly basis. Scoring/ranking reports are produced and presented by the Vice President/Surveillance Manager to TMM's Credit Committee which meets on a monthly basis. Discussions in the Credit Meeting may require further review of individual holdings and may result in additional review meetings.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Each CDO (client) has a trustee. The trustee represents the interests of the underlying bondholders and on a monthly basis issues reports to the CDO. TMM produces surveillance/delinquency reports on each CDO that show the individual performance of the underlying collateral. The trustee, underlying bondholders and other appropriate parties to the CDO can access surveillance reports on our password protected website. These reports are updated monthly by TMM.

Once approved, an analysis is performed to determine the relative value of the issuer's collateral, based on credit enhancement, rating and spread, and to set parameters of collateral type or rating level that can be purchased for that issuer. Bond structure is stressed under various default, recovery, prepayment and economic scenarios to ensure that credit support is adequate for the risk taken. Bond collateral characteristics are reviewed for strengths and weaknesses. The effect on portfolio diversity is considered with each transaction. Loss mitigation is supported through dialogue with the seller/servicer and close performance tracking on a bond-by-bond basis, including monthly or quarterly review of delinquency/loss ratios and actual versus projected performance. Swaps are used as a hedge in order to control interest rate and timing mismatches between the assets and liabilities of the CDO.
