Describe, on Schedule F, your code of ethics, and state that you will provide a copy of your code of ethics to any client or prospective client upon request.

- 10. Conditions for Managing Accounts. Does the applicant provide investment supervisory services, manage investment advisory accounts or hold itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services and impose a minimum dollar value of assets or other conditions for starting or maintaining an account?

Yes ☒ No ☐

(If yes, describe on Schedule F.)

- 11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

- A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

All accounts are monitored on an ongoing basis with a formal review conducted at least annually or as agreed upon with the client. The reviews focus on consistency of portfolio investments with investment objectives and risk tolerances. In addition, investment constraints are considered and tested with portfolio holdings. These constraints include but are not limited to: time horizon, liquidity needs, tax considerations and legal/regulatory constraints and any other unique circumstances. On a quarterly basis, performance is reviewed to monitor consistency with appropriate benchmarks. Thereafter, accounts are reviewed on a transaction, monthly, quarterly or annual basis, as needed. Account reviews may be triggered by potential change (beyond client's needs) including changes in general economic and market conditions, analyst reports, company news and interest rate movement. Paul Gambal is responsible for all reviews and there is no limit to the number of accounts assigned to the reviewer.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Clients will receive statements from the custodian which outline the clients' current position, security cost basis, and current market value monthly, or quarterly if there is no account activity. Clients also receive performance analysis reports from PG Capital Management, which display the time weighted rates of return realized in the client's account.

Answer

Item 1.D.

PG Capital Management ("PG Capital" or the "Adviser") specializes in the management of value-oriented equity portfolios. Adviser is focused on finding investments in undervalued equity securities for long-term capital gains and consistently applies the principals of Graham and Dodd Value Investing. PG Capital looks for companies trading below the Adviser's assessment of their intrinsic value. Companies identified to be trading below their intrinsic value are generally not mainstream securities popular in the brokerage community. They are generally companies operating in economic sectors that may be depressed, but with solid balance sheets, high levels of management ownership and hidden assets (such as depreciated real estate or tax loss carry forwards). Adviser seeks to achieve long-term investments as opposed to active trading. PG Capital does not use leverage and maintains a portion of the investment portfolio in cash or cash equivalents.

Adviser offers these services on a fee-only basis. The annual fee is based upon a percentage of the market value of the assets being managed by PG Capital and is exclusive of, and in addition to brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses which shall be incurred by the client. Adviser's annual fee shall be prorated and paid quarterly, in advance, based upon the market value of the assets on the last day of the previous quarter on a trade date basis. All valuations of the client's portfolio is determined by the custodian. Fees for the initial quarter will be adjusted pro-rata based upon the number of calendar days in the calendar quarter that the adviser agreement is in effect. All fees are negotiable subject to the discretion of management. The fee schedule is described below.

Assets Under Management	Advisory Fee
$50,000 to $4,999,999.99	1.5%
$5,000,000 to $24,999,999.99	1.25%
Over $25 million	1.0%

In addition to Adviser's fee, clients may incur certain charges imposed by third parties such as custodial fees, brokerage commissions, transaction fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund or exchange traded fund in the Account, which shall be disclosed in the fund's prospectus (e.g., fund management fees and other fund expenses), and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions. The client should review all fees charged by mutual funds, Advisor and others to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client.

PG Capital utilizes Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC and their affiliate National Financial Services LLC ("collectively, Fidelity"), members NYSE, SIPC, through Fidelity Institutional Wealth Services ("FIWS"), for products and services such as asset allocation planning software and execution, clearing and custodial services, to provide discretionary investment management of client assets. Clients, however, are free to choose other broker/dealers to effect transactions and act as custodian for advisory assets.

PG Capital's Agreement will authorize Adviser to debit the client's account for the amount of Adviser's fee. Quarterly statements provided to client by the custodian will reflect the amount disbursed from the account for management fees paid directly to PG Capital.

The client may make additions to and withdrawals from the account at any time, subject to Adviser's right to terminate an account that falls below its minimum portfolio size. Clients may withdraw account assets on notice to PG Capital, subject to the usual and customary securities settlement procedures. If

If there will be further delay due to the liquidity of the stock relative to the volume of shares being liquidated, Adviser will notify client at the time of the request for funds. The Agreement between the Adviser and the client will continue in effect until terminated by either party pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. PG Capital's annual fee shall be prorated through the date of termination and any remaining balance shall be charged or refunded to the client, as appropriate, in a timely manner. Where the advisory client did not receive PG Capital's ADV Part II at least 48 hours prior to signing the client agreement, clients may terminate the engagement within five days without penalty. Clients are advised to promptly notify PG Capital if there are ever any changes in their financial situation or investment objectives or if they wish to impose any reasonable restrictions upon the Adviser's management services. Proxy Voting Policy In general, PG Capital does not take any action or render any advice with respect to voting of proxies solicited by or with respect to the issuers of securities in which client assets may be invested. In addition, PG Capital does not take any action or render any advice with respect to any securities held in any accounts that are named in or subject to class action lawsuits. PG Capital does, however, forward to clients any information received by PG Capital regarding class action legal matters involving any security held in client accounts.
Item 5	EDUCATION AND BUSINESS STANDARDS All representatives of PG Capital must demonstrate a thorough knowledge of both economic and financial principles as well as the application of such principles. Item 9.E	PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS PG Capital does not buy nor sell for itself securities that it also recommends to clients. Paul Gambal and any other persons associated with the Adviser ("Associated Persons") are permitted to buy or sell securities that are recommended to clients. The personal securities transactions by Associated Persons may raise potential conflicts of interest when such persons trade in a security that is 1) owned by a client or 2) considered for purchase or sale for a client. PG Capital has adopted policies and procedures that are intended to ensure that Advisory Representatives affect transactions for clients in a manner that is consistent with the fiduciary duty owed to clients and in accordance with applicable law. Associated Persons who wish to purchase or sell securities of the types purchased or sold for clients may do so only in a manner consistent with PG Capital policies.

	CODE OF ETHICS PG Capital has adopted a Code of Ethics (the "Code") to address securities-related conduct. The Code focuses primarily on fiduciary duty, personal securities transactions, insider trading, gifts, and conflicts of interest. The Code includes PG Capital's policies and procedures developed to protect client's interests in relation to the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The duty at all times to place the interests of clients first; • The requirement that all personal securities transactions be conducted in such a manner as to be consistent with the Code of Ethics and to avoid conflicts of interest or abuse of an employee's position of trust and responsibility; • The principle that investment adviser personnel should not take inappropriate advantage of their positions; • The fiduciary principle that information concerning the identity of security holdings and financial circumstances of clients is confidential; and • The principle that independence in the investment decision-making process is paramount. PG Capital provides a copy of the Code to any client or prospective client upon request.
Item 10	CONDITIONS FOR MANAGING ACCOUNTS As a condition for starting and maintaining a relationship, PG Capital shall generally impose a minimum portfolio size of $500,000. Adviser in its sole discretion may accept clients with smaller portfolios based upon certain criteria including anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, account composition, related accounts, and pre-existing clients. If the amount to be allocated for each account is not indicated prior to placement of the trade, the Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) must review and approve no later than the morning following allocation of the trade. Changes in allocation prior to final allocation may be made for good cause provided that all client accounts receive fair and equitable treatment. Any changes to the allocation will be documented on the allocation worksheet.. As a fiduciary and money manager, the Adviser has an obligation to obtain best execution of client's transactions under the circumstances of the particular transaction. PG Capital will consider the full range and quality of broker's services in placing brokerage including, among other things, the value of research provided as well as execution capability, commission rate, financial responsibility and responsiveness to us as the money manager. The determining factor is not the lowest possible commission cost but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution for the managed account. PG Capital may recommend that clients establish brokerage accounts with Fidelity to maintain custody of clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. PG Capital is independently owned and operated and not affiliated with Fidelity or FIWS. Fidelity provides PG Capital with access to institutional trading and custody services. PG Capital isn't required to commit to any specific amount of business (assets in custody or trading). FIWS's and Fidelity's services include brokerage, custody, research and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment. Fidelity does not charge separately for custody, but may be compensated by account holders through other transaction-related fees for securities trades executed through Fidelity or that settle into client accounts. FIWS and Fidelity also make available to PG Capital other products and services that benefit PG Capital but may not benefit client accounts. Some of these other products and services assist PG Capital in managing and administering client accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to client account data (such as trade confirmations and account statements); facilitate trade execution (and allocation of aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts); provide research, pricing information and other market data; facilitate payment of PG Capital's fees from its clients' accounts; and assist with back-office functions, record keeping and client reporting. Many of these services may be used to service all or a substantial number of PG Capital's accounts, including accounts not maintained at through FIWS or at Fidelity. FIWS also makes available to PG Capital other services intended to help PG Capital manage and further develop its business enterprise. These services may include consulting, publications and conferences on practice management, information technology, business succession, regulatory compliance and marketing. In addition, FIWS may make available, arrange and/or pay for these types of services rendered to PG Capital by independent third parties. FIWS may discount or waive fees it would otherwise charge for some of these services or pay all or a part of the fees of a third-party providing these services to PG Capital. Because PG Capital's compensation may vary depending on the broker-dealer selected, PG Capital may have a conflict of interest in assisting the client in such selection. While as a fiduciary, PG Capital endeavors to act in its clients' best interests, PG Capital's recommendation that clients maintain their assets in accounts through FIWS or at Fidelity may be based in part on the benefit to PG Capital of the availability of some of the foregoing products and services and not solely on the nature, cost or quality of custody and brokerage services provided by these broker-dealers.

Item of Form (identify)	Answer
	Notwithstanding such economic benefit, PG Capital strives to serve the best interest of its clients. PG Capital does not warrant or represent that commissions for transactions implemented through Fidelity are lower than commission available if clients use another brokerage firm. PG Capital believes, however, that the overall level of services and support provided to clients by PG Capital outweighs the potentially lower transactions cost available under other brokerage arrangements. The brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees charged by Fidelity or any other designated broker-dealer are exclusive of, and in addition to, Adviser's fee. Factors which the Adviser considers in recommending Fidelity or any other broker-dealer to clients include their respective financial strength, reputation, execution, pricing, research, and service. PG Capital does not warrant or represent that commissions for transactions implemented through Fidelity will be lower than commissions available if clients use another brokerage firm. PG Capital believes, however, that the overall level of services and support provided by Fidelity outweighs the potentially lower transactions cost that may be available under other brokerage arrangements. Client may direct PG Capital, in writing, to utilize a particular broker or dealer to execute some or all transactions for client's account. In such circumstances, client is responsible for negotiating the terms and arrangements for the account with that broker or dealer. PG Capital will not seek better execution services or prices from other broker-dealers. As a result, PG Capital may not obtain best execution on behalf of Client, who may pay materially disparate commissions, greater spreads or other transaction costs, or receive less favorable net prices on transactions for the Account than would otherwise be the case.
13a	PG Capital participates in the institutional program of Fidelity through FIWS. While there is no direct link between the investment advice given and participation in the program, economic benefits are received. These benefits include: receipt of duplicate client confirmations and bundled duplicate statements; access to a trading desk serving advisory participants exclusively, access to block trading which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions and then allocate the appropriate shares to client accounts; ability to have investment advisory fees deducted directly from client accounts access to an electronic communication network for client order entry and account information; receipt of compliance publications; and access to mutual funds which generally require significantly higher minimum initial investments or are generally available only to institutional investors. The benefits received though participation in the program does not necessarily depend upon the proportion of transactions directed to Fidelity. Clients do not pay higher commissions as a result of these products and services furnished by broker-dealers to PG Capital. PG Capital earns no commissions from these transactions in broker-dealer accounts. Nor does Adviser earn 12b-1 fees in connection with the purchase and holding of mutual fund shares. Transaction charges or other charges for services to clients by Fidelity may be more or less than other broker-dealers charge for comparable services. Clients are not required to use a specific broker-dealer to retain the services of PG Capital.
