1. Full name of applicant exactly as stated in item 1A of Part I of Form ADV: Statim Holdings, Inc.	IRS Empl. Ident. No.:
Item of Form (identify)	Answer
Item 1.D	Statim Holdings, Inc. (the "Applicant") is an investment management firm providing investment advice to (1) individual client accounts ("Individual Accounts") and (2) Arjun, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the "Fund"), which invests its assets in securities. Individual Accounts Services Provided. The Applicant provides investment supervisory services to separate account clients on a discretionary basis. The services are provided within guidelines formulated with each client, based on each client's defined investment objectives. The Applicant generally interviews clients for an understanding of such client's risk tolerance, financial goals, and time horizon. Based on that understanding, Applicant will present recommendations to such client for modifying any or all areas reviewed. Recommendations will generally reflect both tax implications and potential liability exposure. The Applicant's clients are advised to promptly notify the Applicant if there are ever any changes in their financial situation or investment objectives, or if they wish to impose any reasonable restriction upon Applicant's management services. Manner in which Services are Provided. As a general matter, the Applicant will provide investment supervisory services by executing trades through the client's on-line brokerage account. Typically, the client will establish an account with a broker allowing Applicant discretionary authority to trade on that account. The client will at all times have access to the account and account balances. Basic Fee Schedule. Applicant receives advisory fees from clients based on a percentage of the assets under management. Generally fees are calculated and payable monthly but exceptions are made depending upon the preferences of each client. The advisory fee ("Advisory Fee") is paid monthly, in arrears, in an amount equal to 1/12 of 1.5% (1.5% on an annualized basis) of the account asset values on the last business day of the previous month (or period, as applicable). Advisory fees are prepaid by some the Applicant's clients for up to six months of services in advance. Fees are subject to negotiation at Applicant's discretion. Applicant receives no remuneration from any of the products or investments recommended to clients. Payment of Fees. The Applicant will bill the client the appropriate Advisory Fees by invoice sent via e-mail to the client. The client will settle the invoice (i) by personal check or (ii) through brokerage and direct account debit. Applicant shall not have custody of assets for clients that have individual accounts. Right to Terminate. The client will have the right to terminate the relationship "at will" with no holding period requirements or minimums. The client is not entitled to any refund of fees paid in advance of services performed for any reason whatsoever, unless waived by the Applicant. Upon termination of any account, any earned, unpaid fees will be due and payable on a pro-rated basis.

Item 2.G	The Applicant provides investment advisory services to the Fund based on the investment objectives of the Fund. The Applicant does not provide tailored investment advice to the Limited Partners in the Fund.
Item 5	Generally, the Applicant requires employees to hold a college or an advanced degree and/or have relevant working experience in the securities industry.

Generally, the Fund seeks to obtain capital appreciation principally by investing its assets in domestic securities, exchange traded funds (ETFs), and closed end funds (CEFs), according to a proprietary model. Other Fund Characteristics – Distributions; Withdrawals of the Fund The Fund intends to make no distributions. Generally, a Limited Partner may not make a withdrawal from its Capital Account for a period of twelve (12) months measured from the date of the initial contribution. Thereafter, Limited Partners will be generally permitted to make withdrawals from their Capital Accounts as of the last business day of any calendar quarter, provided that the Partnership receives at least 60 days prior written notice of such withdrawal. The General Partner has reserved the right, in its sole discretion and without notice, to require any Limited Partner to withdraw entirely from the Partnership, for any reason or no reason. Redemption proceeds in an amount equal to not less than 90% of the estimated redemption proceeds shall, under normal circumstances, be paid as soon as reasonably practicable following the date as of which the redemption is effective. The remaining amount (the "Retained Amount") will be paid after the completion of the annual audit, or if there is no audit, other such accounting of the Partnership’s books for the Fiscal Year in which such Partner’s request for withdrawal is effective. Redemption of interests which have been outstanding for less than 12 months will be subject to a 2% reduction in the redemption amount (the “Holdback”). However, any purchase or sale of a security by the Applicant and related persons will be subject to the Applicant's fiduciary duty to the Individual Account clients and the Fund. The Applicant and its employees have a fiduciary duty to place the interests of clients ahead of their own interests. Records of all security transactions by the applicant and related persons will be maintained at the Applicant's office and will be available for inspection by Limited Partners.

The Applicant does advise potential limited partners to purchase interests in the Fund. As the Applicant will act as the general partner to the Fund, the Applicant will have a financial interest in such transaction.

CODE OF ETHICS

The Applicant has adopted a Code of Ethics (the "Code") to address securities-related conduct. The Code focuses primarily on fiduciary duty, personal securities transactions, insider trading, gifts, and conflicts of interest. The Code includes the Applicant's policies and procedures developed to protect client's interests in relation to the following topics:

- The duty at all times to place the interests of clients first;
- The requirement that all personal securities transactions be conducted in such a manner as to be consistent with the code of ethics and to avoid any actual or potential conflict of interest or any abuse of an employee's position of trust and responsibility;
- The principle that investment adviser personnel should not take inappropriate advantage of their positions;
- The fiduciary principle that information concerning the identity of security holdings and financial circumstances of clients is confidential; and
- The principle that independence in the investment decision-making process is paramount.

The Applicant provides a copy of the Code to any client or prospective client upon request.

Item 10

Individual Accounts

For advisory services to individual accounts, the Applicant does not impose a minimum dollar value of assets or any other conditions for starting or maintaining an account.

The Fund

For advisory services to the Fund, the Applicant generally requires limited partners in the Fund to commit $225,000 as a minimum initial investment. The minimum initial investment is negotiable.

Item 11.A

Individual Accounts

In general the Applicant will generally provide clients with quarterly reviews of their account(s). Reasonable additional reviews are also included at the request of client. The Applicant reviews the client's investment program to analyze rates of return, allocation of assets and to verify that the client's portfolio is consistent with such client's investment objective. Such review is conducted by Joseph A. Meyer, Jr., the President of the Applicant.

The Fund

The Applicant reviews the Fund's investment program, including current holdings, on a continual basis. The Applicant reviews the Fund's investment program to analyze rates of return, allocation of assets and to verify that the Fund's portfolio is consistent with its investment objective. Such review is conducted by Joseph A. Meyer, Jr., the President of the Applicant.

Item 11.B

Individual Accounts

The Applicant will provide to all clients a monthly report (or other such period so agreed upon) which details the performance of their investments. In addition, each client account receives a trade confirmation on each purchase and sale as transactions occur. Additionally, clients receive custodial statements which provide current positions, security cost basis, and current market value monthly.

The Fund

The Applicant provides every Limited Partner in the Fund with quarterly unaudited reports reviewing the Fund's investment activities, beginning balances, and monthly performance. Audited financial statements are provided to Limited Partners annually, within 90 days following the conclusion of the Fund's annual audit.

Items 12.A. (1) and (2)

Individual Accounts

The client's consent is not required for the Applicant to buy or sell for the client the type or amount of securities.

The Fund

The Applicant is not limited in its authority to purchase securities for the Fund. The Applicant has full discretion and authority to make all investment decisions with respect to the types of securities to be bought or sold or the amount of securities to be bought or sold for the Fund.

Items 12.A. (3) and (4)

Individual Accounts

With regard to Individual Accounts, the Applicant does not have the authority to determine, without obtaining specific client consent, the (i) broker or dealer to be used or (ii) commission rates paid.

The Fund

The Applicant will always have discretion as to the placement of brokerage and this determination will be based upon four factors: (1) where the best price is likely to be obtained; (2) a brokerage firm's research and investment ideas that directly impact the Fund's portfolio; (3) a firm's ability to properly execute any orders (based on the size of the trade and its complexity to execute); and (4) the operational aspects of brokerage firms' back office (will the Fund receive payment of securities on a timely basis) and custodian or other administrative services. Because of these considerations the Applicant may pay a brokerage commission in excess of that which another broker might have charged for having effected the same transaction in recognition of the value of brokerage or research services provided by the broker.

Item 12.B

Individual Accounts

The Applicant will recommend certain brokers to clients based on the unique financial situation of each client. In general, certain brokers offer better services to certain clients based on the client's financial situation and the amount of assets under management. The Applicant may receive access to certain electronic trading platforms for such client accounts at certain brokerage firms. These trading platforms allow the Applicant to efficiently organize and manage the client's account and are maintained for the sole benefit of the client. Generally with these arrangements the client's will not have to pay higher commissions than those obtainable from other brokers with regard to similar services. The electronic trading platforms will be used to service only those client accounts which are housed with such brokerage firms. The Applicant will recommend a broker to the client during the initial consultations and after the Applicant thoroughly understands the client's needs and financial situation.

The Fund

See answer to Item 12.A.(3) and (4) above.

Item 13.A and 13.B

Individual Accounts

No commission or referral fees will be paid to a broker-dealer for the referral of an Individual Account client.

The Fund

Selling commissions and/or referral fees may be paid in connection with any referral of a potential investor who becomes a limited partner in the Fund . In such instance, the Applicant may reallocate a portion of its Management Fee to third parties who have made such introductions, or the Applicant may use its own resources to compensate third parties for such introductions. The Applicant may also place trades and related services with broker-dealers that introduce limited partners to its Fund client(s) in which the Applicant serves as the general partner, subject to applicable laws.
