Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal and disciplinary events would be material to your evaluation of the representative. On March 10, 2010, in response to a FINRA investigation George Register, as CEO of Register Financial Associates, Inc., was fined $15,000 and suspended as a Principal for 30 days. FINRA's allegations related to a marketing piece that FINRA argued should have been classified as research instead, thereby resulting in FINRA's determination that violations of security industry rules relating to research reports may have occurred.

Those violations included failing to file attestations or filing attestations that were inaccurate; failing to adequately discharge supervisory responsibilities, failing to implement written supervisory procedures or systems designed to achieve compliance with NASD Rule 2711, failing to monitor trading by Register Financial's research analysts, failing to impose procedures addressing whether research analysts could trade or own securities when those securities were profiled as stock picks; and failing to supervise research analysts.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

George Register serves as CEO of the Firm. Additionally, he is CEO and owner of Register Financial Associates, Inc., member FINRA/SIPC, a registered broker/dealer. Mr. Register is a Registered Representative of Register Financial Associates, Inc., a registered broker-dealer, and is compensated through commissions based on the sale of securities and other investment products and trails received from the sale of mutual funds.

This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that he has a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees or other payments. However, he is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in his client's best interest.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Mr. Register does not receive compensation for advisory services other than fees paid by the client.

Item 6 - Supervision

Quarterly, Mr. Register completes a review worksheet or checklist for all client accounts. The reviews include an examination of the client's investment objectives, portfolio allocation, suitability, any concentrated positions, number of trades, and performance of the client's account versus an appropriate index. Business Experience

Firm	Position	Dates
Register Financial Advisors, LLC	Investment Advisor	2007-Present
Register Financial Associates, Inc.	Registered Representative	2000-Present

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

In 2009 and in his role as a research analyst, Mr. Weitz participated in writing a newsletter that he believed, at the time, to be an advertising piece. Included in the newsletter was a "stock pick" section that contained an opinion on an individual stock. Since it was not deemed to be research, the newsletter did not include all the disclosures that are required for a research report. FINRA did deem it to be research and found Mr. Weitz and Register Financial in violation of Rule 501(A) of Regulation AC and NASD Rules 2110, 2210 and 2711. Without admitting or denying the violations, and on the advice of an attorney, Mr. Weitz signed an acceptance, waiver and consent with FINRA. As a result, Mr. Weitz was fined $10,000 and suspended from association with any FINRA member in any capacity for 30 days.

These violations were completely unintentional and resulted in no monetary gain for Mr. Weitz or the firm. There was never any intention to deceive. Mr. Weitz holds himself to the highest ethical standards and would not take any action that could harm a client or the investing public.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Mr. Weitz is a Registered Representative of Register Financial Associates, Inc., a registered broker-dealer, and is compensated through commissions based on the sale of securities and other investment products and trails received from the sale of mutual funds. Approximately 10% of his income is derived from these non-advisory activities.
