Item 12(B)	Suggestion of Brokers to Clients Adviser may execute or recommend that clients execute their securities transactions through various firms including, but not limited to broker-dealers such as Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC ("FBS"). FBS may charge commissions (ticket charges) for executing FOR's transactions. FOR does not receive any part of these separate charges which are assessed directly to clients. FBS does not have a role with respect to FOR's investment advisory accounts, however they may serve as the broker-dealer in cases where clients wish to execute recommendation as part of the implementation of a financial plan. It is important to note that FBS does not maintain supervisory relationships with respect to FOR or its representatives nor are they in any way affiliated with it. FOR is independently owned and operated. Adviser may execute or recommend that clients execute their securities transactions through various firms including, but not limited to broker-dealers such as Fidelity Institutional Wealth Services ("FIWS") through Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC, Member FINRA/SIPC. These firms may charge commissions (ticket charges) for executing Adviser's transactions. With respect to investment advisory accounts, Adviser does not receive any part of these separate charges and most transaction costs are absorbed by Adviser as described earlier. Adviser may recommend/require that clients establish investment advisory accounts with FIWS to maintain custody of clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. FIWS may provide Adviser with access to their institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available retail investors. FIWS services include brokerage custody, research and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment.
Item 12(B) (Continued)	For Adviser's Clients' accounts maintained in their custody, FIWS does not charge separately for custody but is compensated by account holders through commissions or other transaction-related fees or securities trades that are executed through the firm. FIWS may also make available to Adviser other products and services that could benefit Adviser. These types of services will help Adviser in managing and administering client accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to client account data (i.e. trade confirmations and account statements); facilitate trade executions; provide research, pricing information, and other market data; facilitate in the payment of Adviser's fees from its clients' accounts; and assist with back-office functions, record-keeping, and client reporting. Many of these services may be used to service all or a substantial number of Adviser's accounts. In all managed account cases, the custodian sends quarterly statements to Adviser's clients

	showing all disbursements for the custodian account including the amount of the advisory fees. Clients provide written authorization permitting Adviser to be paid directly for their accounts held by the custodian or trustee. Additional Compensation Applicant may receive research and execution related services from the parties mentioned in Item 12(B) of Schedule F to assist Applicant in managing its accounts. These services and products would include financial publications, pricing information and other products or services. Such research and execution related services are offered to all investment advisers who utilize these firms. However, the commissions charged by these parties may be higher than those charged by a broker who does not provide the aforementioned research and execution related services. Third Party Money Managers and Additional Compensation Adviser may refer clients to third party money managers and receive a portion of the advisory fee charged to the client by money managers within their programs. The amount of the Adviser's portion of the fee will be disclosed to clients at the time of the referral. The fee that Adviser may receive for referring clients to other money managers will not exceed 1.00 %. A conflict of interest may exist for Adviser to recommend the services of a third party manager or asset allocator who has agreed to share a portion of its management fee with Adviser as opposed to other managers who have not agreed to pay compensation to Adviser. Compensation paid to Adviser from various third party managers may vary; therefore, there may be a conflict of interest in recommending a manager who shares a larger portion of its advisory fees over another manager. Fees for such programs may be higher or lower than if client directly obtained the services of the third party manager or asset allocator or if client obtained advisory service separately. Use of Unaffiliated Solicitors FOR may pay referral fees (non-commission) to independent solicitors (non-registered representatives) for the referral of their Clients to the Advisor in accordance with Maryland Rules or Rule 206 (4)-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Such referral fee represents a share of FOR's asset-based investment Advisory fee. This arrangement will not result in higher costs to the Client. In this regard, FOR maintains Solicitors Agreements in compliance with Maryland Rules or Rule 206 (4)-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. All Clients referred by Solicitors to FOR will be given full written disclosure describing the terms and fee arrangements between FOR and its Solicitor(s).
