Item of Form (identify)	Answer
	PART II Item 1. D) RiversEdge Convertible Portfolio Advisors LLC was incorporated in Delaware in 2007 to provide investment advisory services for convertible security portfolios. RiversEdge currently only does business as a subadvisor of Conning Asset Management for insurance company related convertible security accounts. RiversEdge works with Conning personnel to understand the client's investment objectives and constraints. This is formalized in a policy statement that addresses issues such as issuer position limits and quality restrictions. RiversEdge and Conning personnel work together to maximize returns within those guidelines by identifying convertibles with the most favorable valuation characteristics and then using them to construct a portfolio to most effectively meet the client's objectives. RiversEdge currently receives subadvisory fees from Conning Asset Management that are generally 40% of what Conning receives but may vary depending on the type of fee arrangement that Conning has with the client. Subadvisory fees are payable quarterly, in arrears, usually based on the market value of the account at the end of the quarter or their average market value during the quarter. PART II Item 4. A&B) RiversEdge utilizes a fundamental option-based valuation process in managing convertibles that is used for both relative value judgement and portfolio risk control. This process relies on fundamental judgements about rating quality, fixed income trading spreads, and equity volatility and return characteristics. PART II Item 5. Persons hired to provide investment advice are expected to be qualified to render such advice through education, professional training, and business experience.
