ADVISORY BUSINESS

The General Partner, the registered investment advisory firm, is a Delaware limited partnership. The General Partner and its affiliated investment advisers, West Rim Capital Advisors, L.P. ("West Rim Advisors") and West Rim Capital Advisors, LLC (the "Ultimate GP," and together with the General Partner and West Rim Advisors, the "Managers"), were formed to provide "investment supervisory services" to their clients, which consist of private investment-related funds, including Sorenson Capital Partners II, L.P., West Rim Capital Partners II, L.P., West Rim Capital Partners II-A, L.P. and West Rim Capital Partners II-B, L.P. (collectively, the "Fund," and together with any future private investment fund, "Private Investment Funds"). The General Partner of the Fund has the authority to make all investment decisions for the Fund. The General Partner, which is managed by the Ultimate GP, has delegated to West Rim Advisors the day-to-day investment advisory services of the Fund.

The Fund and any other Private Investment Funds that may be formed by the General Partner (or its affiliates) at a later date or that may otherwise become clients of the General Partner are expected to invest through negotiated transactions in operating entities. The Managers' investment advisory services to the Fund consist of identifying and evaluating investment opportunities, negotiating investments, managing and monitoring investments and achieving dispositions for such investments. From time to time, the managing directors or other personnel of the Managers or their affiliates may serve on a portfolio company's board of directors or otherwise act to influence management of companies held by the Fund.

The Managers' advisory services for Private Investment Funds are detailed in the applicable private placement memoranda and limited partnership agreements and are further described below under "Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss." Investors in Private Investment Funds participate in the overall investment program for the applicable fund, but may be excused from a particular investment due to legal, regulatory or other applicable constraints.

As of December 31, 2010, the General Partner managed $164,932,084 in client assets on a discretionary basis. The General Partner is principally controlled by Fraser Bullock and the Ultimate GP, which is managed by Ron Mika, Fraser Bullock, Tim Layton, Matt Lehman, Luke Sorenson and Curtis Toone (collectively, the "Principals").

FEES AND COMPENSATION

With respect to the Fund, the General Partner receives an annual management fee and a carried interest. The annual management fee ("Management Fee") is a maximum of 2.5% of aggregate investor capital commitments ("Commitments") payable quarterly in advance (subject to potential reductions due to waivers and offsets under certain circumstances) and commences from the Fund's initial closing (whether or not an investor was admitted at an initial or subsequent closing). Beginning the earlier of (i) six years after the initial closing date, or (ii) following certain events (as more fully described in the Fund's partnership agreement (the "Partnership Agreement"); such period hereinafter referred to as the "Commitment Period")), the Management Fee shall be reduced to 2.5% (or 1.75% if a successor fund has commenced operations) of all investor capital contributions for investment less distributions of such capital and any complete write-offs of portfolio investments. The Management Fee generally will be payable until all portfolio investments are distributed or until the General Partner's relationship with the Fund is terminated for other reasons (as described in the Partnership Agreement). The Fund's organizational documents permit the Management Fee to be waived and for the General Partner to receive a credit against capital contributions otherwise owed. In addition, the General Partner will receive a carried interest or performance fee from investors in the Fund equal to 25% of all realized profits (as more fully described in the Partnership Agreement). The carried interest distributed to the General Partner is subject to a potential giveback at the end of life of the Fund if the General Partner has received excess cumulative distributions. The Management Fee is paid by the General Partner to the General Partner for day-to-day investment advisory services for the Fund.

Managers and/or affiliates may provide various management and financial analysis services to companies in the Fund's portfolio and may receive compensation ("Supplemental Fees") from these companies in connection with such services. This compensation may, in many cases, offset a portion of the Management Fees paid by the Fund and, in certain cases such as directors' fees, may be offset against Management Fees up to one hundred percent of the amount received and as further described in the Fund's Partnership Agreement. However, in other cases (e.g., provision of certain corporate services to a portfolio company), these fees would be in addition to Management Fees, subject to limitations in the Partnership Agreement.

The General Partner and/or its affiliates may exempt certain persons from payment of all or a portion of Management Fees and/or carried interest, including personnel or owners of the General Partner or its affiliates, persons with family or other relationships with the General Partner or its affiliates, service providers for the General Partner or its affiliates, or other unaffiliated parties. Any such exemption from fees and/or carried interest may be a direct exemption or rebated by the General Partner and/or its affiliates. It is expected that certain personnel of Huntsman Gay Global Capital ("HGGC") will be permitted to invest in the Fund or co-invest alongside the Fund without the payment of Management Fees or carried interest (please see below for more information on HGGC).

It is expected that any future Private Investment Funds will have a similar fee structure.

The Fund and other Private Investment Funds invest on a long-term basis. Accordingly, investment advisory and other fees are paid during the term of the Fund and investors generally are not permitted to withdraw or redeem interests in the Fund.

Principals or other employees of the General Partner may receive a portion of the performance fees or carried interest received by the General Partner or its affiliates.

In addition to the Management Fee and carried interest payable to the Managers, the Fund bears certain expenses. As set forth in the Partnership Agreement, the Fund bears all expenses of the Fund that are not reimbursed by portfolio companies, including: legal, auditing, consulting, financing, accounting and custodian fees and expenses; expenses associated with the Fund's financial statements, tax returns and Schedule K-1s; out of pocket expenses incurred in connection with transactions not consummated; expenses of the advisory board (the "Advisory Board") composed of representatives of the Fund's investors (collectively, the "Limited Partners”) and annual meetings of the Limited Partners; insurance; other expenses associated with the acquisition, holding and disposition of its investments, including extraordinary expenses (such as litigation, if any); and any taxes, fees or other governmental charges levied against the Fund. Brokerage fees may be incurred in accordance with the practices set forth in “Brokerage Practices.”

PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT

As described under “Fees and Compensation,” the General Partner receives a carried interest allocation on certain realized profits in the Fund. The Managers also manage accounts that are not charged a performance-based fee. This practice could present a conflict of interest because the Managers have an incentive to favor accounts for which we receive a performance-based fee. The Managers attempt to resolve such conflicts of interest in light of their obligations to investors in their Private Investment Funds and the obligations owed by the Managers to investors in investment vehicles managed by them, and attempts to allocate investment opportunities among the Fund, other Private Investment Funds and such investment vehicles in a fair and equitable manner.

TYPES OF CLIENTS

The Managers provide investment advice to Private Investment Funds, including the Fund. Private Investment Funds may include investment partnerships or other investment entities formed under domestic or foreign laws and operated as exempt investment pools under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Investment Company Act”). The investors participating in Private Investment Funds may include individuals, banks or thrift institutions, other investment entities, pension and profit-sharing plans, trusts, estates or charitable organizations or other corporations or business entities and may include, directly or indirectly, principals or other employees of the Managers and their affiliates.

The Fund generally has a minimum investment amount of $5 million for third-party investors, and the Fund interests are offered and sold solely to accredited investors who are also qualified clients. Such minimum investment amount may be waived by the General Partner.

METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

General

The General Partner has selected its affiliate West Rim Advisors to provide day-to-day investment advisory services to the Fund, under the supervision of the General Partner. The Managers share common owners and personnel. Accordingly, the Managers’ investment methodology is described below.

There can be no assurance that the Managers will achieve the investment objectives of the Fund and a loss of investment may be possible.

Investment and Operating Strategy

The Managers seek to provide attractive returns to investors by (i) using their extensive networks to proactively source attractive businesses, (ii) performing in depth due diligence with conservative screening criteria and by selecting, structuring and appropriately pricing investments, and (iii) actively managing the Fund's investments in conjunction with portfolio company management.

Superior deal flow. The Managers have access to established networks of company executives, other buyout funds, venture capitalists, consultants, attorneys, academics, accountants, investment bankers, business brokers and analysts to serve as sources of deal flow. The Managers believe that these established networks together with new relationships they plan to aggressively continue to develop will generate a number of high quality investment opportunities.

Conservative Screening Criteria. Leveraging their prior experience, the Managers will drive an in-depth due diligence process for identified investment opportunities encompassing the industry, competitive position, cost structures, customers, management and financial performance. As they've done historically, the Managers will underwrite the investments using conservative financial forecasts with high confidence of attractive base case returns and a reasonable opportunity of an upside return case.

Favorable Capital Structures. The Managers intend to continue to use conservative amounts of leverage on the balance sheet of investments in order to support the growth within portfolio companies and to avoid excessive financial stress. In addition, where available, they expect to seek "seller-provided" financing (debt and earn-outs) in order to further optimize returns while keeping potential balance sheet pressure to a minimum. Finally, the Managers generally will invite owners and managers of businesses to roll over into the equity of the acquiring entity in a substantial way which serves to keep them motivated and aligns incentives with the Fund.

Value Creation Focus. Utilizing their operational backgrounds, the Managers will be actively involved with Fund portfolio companies, providing on going strategic direction and operational support, and working with management to add value.

To accomplish the foregoing, the Managers intend to retain a larger professional staff than they believe is typical for private equity funds of a comparable size.

Type of Investments

The Fund invests in operating or financial entities, including other investment entities that invest in operating companies such as partnerships or limited liability companies. Equity-related securities may include preferred stock, warrants, convertible debt or preferred stock, partnership or similar interests in operating entities, options and other derivative type securities. While not its principal focus, the Fund may from time to time invest in cash instruments or short-term debt instruments, including mutual funds which invest in such instruments, pending investment, reinvestment or distribution to its investors. The Fund will hold a substantial portion of its assets in restricted securities, but generally will seek registration rights or other liquidity features in connection with investments to enable it to exit the investment at an appropriate point under the individual circumstances of each investment. The Fund may use leverage in connection with its investments.

Risks of Investment

The Fund and its investors bear the risk of loss that the Managers' investment strategy entails. The risks involved with the Managers' investment strategy and an investment in the Fund include, but are not limited to:

- 1) Business Risks. The Fund's investment portfolio will consist primarily of securities issued by privately held companies, and operating results in a specified period will be difficult to predict. Such investments involve a high degree of business and financial risk that can result in substantial losses.
- 2) Future and Past Performance. The performance of the Principals' prior investments is not indicative of the Fund's future results. While the General Partner intends for the Fund to make investments that have estimated returns commensurate with the risks undertaken, there can be no assurances that the targeted internal rate of return will be achieved. On any given investment, loss of principal is possible.
- 3) Investment in Junior Securities. The securities in which the Fund will invest may be among the most junior in a portfolio company's capital structure and, thus, subject to the greatest risk of loss. Generally, there will be no collateral to protect an investment once made.
- 4) Concentration of Investments. The Fund will participate in a limited number of investments and may seek to make several investments in one industry or one industry segment. As a result, the Fund's investment portfolio could become highly concentrated, and the performance of a few holdings may substantially affect its aggregate return. Furthermore, to the extent that the capital raised is less than the targeted amount, the Fund may invest in fewer portfolio companies and thus be less diversified.
- 5) Lack of Sufficient Investment Opportunities. It is possible that the Fund will never be fully invested if enough sufficiently attractive investments are not identified. The business of identifying and structuring private equity transactions is highly competitive and involves a high degree of uncertainty. However, Limited Partners will be required to pay annual management fees during the Commitment Period based on the entire amount of their Commitments.
- 6) Illiquidity; Lack of Current Distributions. An investment in the Fund should be viewed as illiquid. It is uncertain as to when profits, if any, will be realized. Losses on unsuccessful investments may be realized before gains on successful investments are realized. The return of capital and the realization of gains, if any, generally will occur only upon the partial or complete disposition of an investment. While an investment may be sold at any time, it is not generally expected that this will occur for a number of years after the initial investment. Before such time, there may be no current return on the investment. Furthermore, the expenses of operating the Fund (including the annual management fee payable to the General Partner) may exceed its income, thereby requiring that the difference be paid from the Fund's capital.
- 7) Leveraged Investments. The Fund may make use of leverage by incurring or having a portfolio company incur debt to finance a portion of its investment in a given portfolio company. Leverage generally magnifies both the Fund's opportunities for gain and its risk of loss from a particular investment. The cost and availability of leverage is highly dependent on the state of the broader credit market, which state is difficult to accurately forecast. During times when credit markets are tight it may be difficult to obtain or maintain the desired degree of leverage. The use of leverage will also result in interest expense and other costs to the Fund that may not be covered by distributions made to the Fund or appreciation of its investments. Leverage often imposes restrictive financial and operating covenants on a company, in addition to the burden of debt service, and may impair its ability to finance future operations and capital needs. The leveraged capital structure of portfolio companies will increase the exposure of the Fund's investments to any deterioration in a company's condition or industry, competitive pressures, an adverse economic environment or rising interest rates and could accelerate and magnify declines in the value of the Fund's investments in the leveraged portfolio companies in a down market. In the event any portfolio company cannot generate adequate cash flow to meet debt service, the Fund may suffer a partial or total loss of capital invested in the portfolio company, which could adversely affect the returns of the Fund. Furthermore, should the credit markets be tight at the time the Fund determines that it is desirable to sell all or part of a portfolio company, the Fund may not achieve an exit multiple or enterprise valuation consistent with its forecasts. Moreover, the companies in which the Fund will invest generally will not be rated by a credit rating agency. See also Section IX- Legal and Tax Matters - Tax Exempt Investors.

- 8) Limited Transferability of Fund Interests. There will be no public market for partnership interests in the Fund, and none is expected to develop. There are substantial restrictions upon the transferability of partnership interests in the Fund under the Partnership Agreement and applicable securities laws. In general, withdrawals of partnership interests in the Fund are not permitted. In addition, partnership interests in the Fund are not redeemable.
- 9) Restricted Nature of Investment Positions. Generally, there will be no readily available market for a substantial number of the Fund's investments, and hence, most of the Fund's investments will be difficult to value. Certain investments may be distributed in kind to the Partners.
- 10) Reliance on the General Partner and Portfolio Company Management. Control over the operation of the Fund will be vested entirely with the General Partner, and the Fund's future profitability will depend largely upon the business and investment acumen of the Principals. The loss of service of one or more of the Principals could have an adverse effect on the Fund's ability to realize its investment objectives. Limited Partners generally have no right or power to take part in the management of the Fund, and as a result, the investment performance of the Fund will depend entirely on the actions of the General Partner. Although the General Partner will monitor the performance of each Fund investment, it will primarily be the responsibility of each portfolio company's management team to operate the portfolio company on a day-to-day basis. Although the Fund generally intends to invest in companies with strong management, there can be no assurance that the existing management of such companies will continue to operate a company successfully.
- 11) Projections. Projected operating results of a company in which the Fund invests normally will be based primarily on financial projections prepared by each company's management. In all cases, projections are only estimates of future results that are based upon information received from the company and assumptions made at the time the projections are developed. There can be no assurance that the results set forth in the projections will be attained, and actual results may be significantly different from the projections. Also, general economic factors, which are not predictable, can have a material effect on the reliability of projections.
- 12) Conflicting Investor Interests. Limited Partners may have conflicting investment, tax, and other interests with respect to their investments in the Fund, including conflicts relating to the structuring of investment acquisitions and dispositions. Conflicts may arise in connection with decisions made by the General Partner regarding an investment that may be more beneficial to one Limited Partner than another, especially with respect to tax matters. In structuring, acquiring and disposing of investments, the General Partner will consider the investment and tax objectives of the Fund and its Partners as a whole, not the investment, tax, or other objectives of any Limited Partner individually.
- 13) Need for Follow-On Investments. Following its initial investment in a given portfolio company, the Fund may decide to provide additional funds to such portfolio company or may have the opportunity to increase its investment in a successful portfolio company. There is no assurance that the Fund will make follow-on investments or that the Fund will have sufficient funds to make all or any of such investments. Any decision by the Fund not to make follow-on investments or its inability to make such investments may have a substantial negative effect on a portfolio company in need of such an investment or may result in a lost opportunity for the Fund to increase its participation in a successful operation.
- 14) Non-U.S. Investments. The Fund may invest in portfolio companies that are organized or have substantial sales or operations outside of the United States, its territories, and possessions. Such investments may be subject to certain additional risk due to, among other things, potentially unsettled points of applicable governing law, the risks associated with fluctuating currency exchange rates, capital repatriation regulations (as such regulations may be given effect during the term of the Fund), the application of complex U.S. and foreign tax rules to cross-border investments, possible imposition of foreign taxes on the Fund and/or the partners with respect to the Fund's income, and possible foreign tax return filing requirements for the Fund and/or the partners. Additional risks include: (a) risks of economic dislocations in the host country; (b) less publicly available information; (c) less well-developed regulatory institutions; and (d) greater difficulty of enforcing legal rights in a non-U.S. jurisdiction. Moreover, non-U.S. companies may not be subject to uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards, practices and requirements comparable to those that apply to U.S. companies.

- 15) Significant Default Penalties. The Partnership Agreement provides for significant penalties and other adverse consequences in the event a Limited Partner defaults on its Commitment or other payment obligations. In addition to losing its right to potential distributions from the Fund, a defaulting Limited Partner may be forced to transfer its interest in the Fund for an amount that is less than the fair market value of such interest and that may be paid over a period of up to ten years, without interest.
- 16) Dilution. Limited partners admitted to the Fund at subsequent closings will participate in then-existing investments of the Fund, thereby diluting the interest of existing Limited Partners in such investments. Although any such new Limited Partner will be required to contribute its pro rata share of previously made capital contributions, there can be no assurance that this contribution will reflect the fair value of the Fund's existing investments at the time of such contributions.
- 17) General Partner's Carried Interest. The fact that the General Partner's carried interest is based on a percentage of net profits, may create an incentive for the General Partner to cause the Fund to make riskier or more-speculative investments than would otherwise be the case.
- 18) Public Company Holdings. The Fund's investment portfolio may contain securities issued by publicly held companies. Such investments may subject the Fund to risks that differ in type or degree from those involved with investments in privately held companies. Such risks include, without limitation, greater volatility in the valuation of such companies, increased obligations to disclose information regarding such companies, limitations on the ability of the Fund to dispose of such securities at certain times, increased likelihood of shareholder litigation against such companies' board members, including the Principals, and increased costs associated with each of the aforementioned risks.
- 19) Director Liability. The Fund will often obtain the right to appoint a representative to the board of directors of the companies in which it invests. Serving on the board of directors of a portfolio company exposes the Fund's representatives, and ultimately the Fund, to potential liability. Not all portfolio companies may obtain insurance with respect to such liability, and the insurance that portfolio companies do obtain may be insufficient to adequately protect officers and directors from such liability.
- 20) Delayed Schedule K-1s. The Fund may not be able to provide final Schedule K-1s to Limited Partners for any given fiscal year until after April 15 of the following year. The General Partner will endeavor to provide Limited Partners with final Schedule K-1s or with estimates of the taxable income or loss allocated to their investment in the Fund on or before such date, but final Schedule K-1s may not be available until the Fund has received tax-reporting information from its portfolio companies necessary to prepare final Schedule K-1s. Limited Partners may be required to obtain extensions of the filing dates for their federal, state, and local income tax returns. Each prospective investor should consult with its own adviser as to the advisability and tax consequences of an investment in the Fund.
- 21) Uncertain Economic and Political Environment. The current global economic and political climate is one of uncertainty. Prior acts of terrorism in the United States, the threat of additional terrorist strikes and the fear of a prolonged global conflict have exacerbated volatility in the financial markets and can cause consumer, corporate, and financial confidence to weaken, increasing the risk of a "self-reinforcing" economic downturn. A climate of uncertainty may reduce the availability of potential investment opportunities and increases the difficulty of modeling market conditions, reducing the accuracy of the financial projections. Furthermore, such uncertainty may have an adverse effect upon the portfolio companies in which the Fund makes investments.

Conflicts of Interest

The Principals currently manage and are permitted in the future to manage other investment funds and investments similar to those in which the Fund will be investing, and may direct certain relevant investment opportunities to those investment funds and investments. The Principals and the General Partner's investment staff will continue to manage and monitor such investment funds and investments. The significant investment of the Principals in the Fund, as well as the Principals' interest in the carried interest, operate to align, to some extent, the interest of the Principals with the interest of the Partners, although the Principals have economic interests in such other investment funds and investments as well and receive management fees and/or carried interests relating to such interests. Such other investment funds and investments that the Principals may control or otherwise be involved with may compete with the Fund or companies acquired by the Fund. Following the Commitment Period, the Principals may and likely will focus their investment activities on other opportunities and areas unrelated to the Fund's investments.

From time to time, the Principals will be presented with investment opportunities that would be suitable not only for the Fund, but also for other Private Investment Funds and other investment vehicles operated by advisory affiliates of the Managers. In determining which investment vehicles should participate in such investment opportunities, the Managers and their affiliates are subject to conflicts of interest among the investors in such investment vehicles. The Managers attempt to resolve such conflicts of interest in light of their obligations to investors in their Private Investment Funds and the obligations owed by the Manager's advisory affiliates to investors in investment vehicles managed by them, and attempts to allocate investment opportunities among the Fund, other Private Investment Funds and such investment vehicles in a fair and equitable manner. Where necessary, the Managers consult with and receive consent to conflicts from an advisory committee consisting of Limited Partners of the Fund and such other investment vehicles.

Because the General Partner's carried interest is based on a percentage of net realized profits, it may create an incentive for the General Partner to cause the Fund to make riskier or more speculative investments than would otherwise be the case. Since the General Partner is permitted to retain certain Supplemental Fees (as described under "Fees and Compensation") in connection with Fund investments, it could have a conflict of interest in connection with approving transactions.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

The General Partner and its management persons have not been subject to any material legal or disciplinary events required to be discussed in this Brochure.

OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

The following affiliated investment advisers also provide investment advice to the Fund:

West Rim Capital Advisors, LLC ("Ultimate GP")

The Ultimate GP is the general partner of the General Partner and West Rim Advisors. Some of the members of the Ultimate GP are also limited partners and/or members of the General Partner, West Rim Advisors and the other entities making up the Firm. Some of the Principals, officers, employees and/or consultants of the Ultimate GP serve the General Partner, West Rim Advisors and the other entities making up the Firm in similar capacities.

West Rim Capital Advisors, L.P. (“West Rim Advisors”)

West Rim Advisors is the management company that primarily provides the day-to-day investment advisory services to the Fund and other Private Investment Funds. Some of the Principals, officers, employees and/or consultants of West Rim Advisors serve the General Partner, the Ultimate GP and other entities making up the Firm in similar capacities. West Rim Advisors is registered with the SEC under the Advisers Act.

Fund I Managers

The below described affiliated advisers provide advice to Sorenson Capital Partners, L.P. and its related funds (“Fund I”), the first Private Investment Fund managed by the Firm. West Rim Capital I, LLC (“West Rim”), West Rim Capital SCP Management, L.P. (“WRCM”) and Sorenson Partners, LLC (“Sorenson,” and collectively with West Rim and WRCM the “Fund I Managers”) collectively manage Fund I. Sorenson is the General Partner of Fund I and has delegated the day-to-day investment advisory services with respect to Fund I to WRCM. West Rim is the managing member of Sorenson and the general partner of WRCM. The Fund I Managers are registered with the SEC under the Advisers Act. Some (and not all) of the principals, owners, officers, employees, and/or consultants of the Fund I Managers serve the General Partner, West Rim Advisors and the Ultimate GP in similar capacities as they serve the Fund I Managers. As is typical in private equity fund structures, each time a new Private Investment Fund is formed new management entities are formed to manage and advise such fund. Certain principals, owners, officers and/or employees of the Fund I Managers are no longer with the Managers and have joined HGGC as more fully described in the Fund’s Private Placement Memorandum.

Huntsman Gay Global Capital (“HGGC”)

HGGC is a private equity fund sponsor focused on middle market leveraged buyouts and strategic investments in mid-cap companies. Pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement, Ron Mika is permitted to dedicate up to 50% of his time to HGGC matters. However, Ron Mika currently serves in a limited advisory role at HGGC and only commits a nominal portion of his time to HGGC matters and is not involved in the day to day management of HGGC. Other than Ron Mika’s limited advisory role, HGGC operates separately and independently from the Firm. Certain principals, owners, officers and/or employees of HGGC may be permitted to invest in the Fund or alongside the Fund without the payment of management fees or carried interest. Similarly, Ron Mika and certain other principals, owners, officers and/or employees of the Firm may be permitted to invest in any private fund sponsored by HGGC without the payment of management fees or carried interest. HGGC is based in Utah, Florida and California and is registered as an investment adviser with the SEC.

CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

A Code of Ethics and Securities Trading Policy and Procedures (the “Code”) sets forth standards of conduct that are expected of the Managers’ employees and addresses conflicts that arise from personal trading by employees. The Code requires certain of the Managers’ employees to report their personal securities transactions and prohibits certain of the Managers’ employees from directly or indirectly acquiring beneficial ownership of securities in an initial public offering or a private offering without first obtaining approval from the Managers’ Chief Compliance Officer. A copy of the Code will be provided to any investor or prospective investor upon request to Donna B. Tillery at (801) 407-8407. Personal securities transactions by employees who manage client accounts are required to be conducted in a manner that assures that the interests of the clients take precedence.

The Managers and their affiliated persons may come into possession from time to time of material nonpublic or other confidential information about public companies which, if disclosed, might affect an investor’s decision to buy, sell or hold a security. Under applicable law, the Managers and their affiliated persons would be prohibited from improperly disclosing or using such information for their personal benefit or for the benefit of any person, regardless of whether such person is a client of the Managers. Accordingly, should the Managers or any of their affiliated persons come into possession of material nonpublic or other confidential information with respect to any public company, the Managers would be prohibited from communicating such information to clients, and the Managers will have no responsibility or liability for failing to disclose such information to clients as a result of following their policies and procedures designed to comply with applicable law. Similar restrictions may be applicable as a result of the Managers’ personnel serving as directors of public companies and may restrict trading on behalf of clients, including the Fund.

Principals and employees of the Managers and their affiliates may directly or indirectly own an interest in Private Investment Funds including the Fund.

From time to time, investors in Private Investment Funds, affiliates of the Managers, and/or other persons may co-invest side-by-side with Private Investment Funds in portfolio companies. The General Partner and its Partners have agreed to commit approximately $15 million to invest in or alongside the Fund. Of this amount at least one percent of the aggregate commitments to the Fund will be invested through the General Partner. Where possible and appropriate, the General Partner may, but will be under no obligation to, provide co-investment opportunities to one or more limited partners of the Fund before making such opportunities available to others.

Pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement, the Fund is permitted, but not required, to share co-investment opportunities with HGGC and to invest in co-investment opportunities originated by HGGC. Any allocations between the funds would be made on what the Managers and HGGC believe to be a fair and equitable basis.

The Managers and their affiliates, principals and employees may carry on investment activities for their own account and for family members, friends or others who do not invest in the Fund, and may give advice and recommend securities to vehicles which may differ from advice given to, or securities recommended or bought for, the Fund, even though their investment objectives may be the same or similar. The operative documents and investment programs of certain vehicles sponsored by the Managers and their affiliates (the “Reference Funds”) may restrict, limit or prohibit, in whole or subject to certain procedural requirements, investments of certain other vehicles in issuers held by such Reference Funds or may give priority with respect to investments to such Reference Funds. Some of these restrictions could be waived by investors (or their representatives) in such Reference Funds.

From time to time, the General Partner may borrow funds on behalf of the Fund or the Private Investment Funds. Interest in connection with such borrowing is borne by the Fund (or the relevant Private Investment Fund, as applicable) as a Fund expense, consistent with the Partnership Agreement (or other governing document) and the expense policy described under “Fees and Compensation.” In borrowing on behalf of the Fund or a Private Investment Fund, the General Partner is subject to conflicts of interest between repaying its obligations and retaining such borrowed amounts for the benefit of the Fund or Private Investment Fund, as applicable. The General Partner will effect such borrowings in a manner it believes to be fair and equitable to the Fund or Private Investment Fund, as applicable, and consistent with the General Partner’s obligations to the Fund and the Partnership Agreement (or other governing document).

BROKERAGE PRACTICES

The Managers focus on securities transactions of private companies and generally purchases and sells such companies through privately-negotiated transactions in which the services of a broker-dealer may be retained. However, the Managers may also distribute securities to investors in the Fund or sell such securities, including through using a broker-dealer, if a public trading market exists. Although the Managers do not intend to regularly engage in public securities transactions, to the extent it does so, it follows the brokerage practices described below.

If the Managers sell publicly traded securities for the Fund, they are responsible for directing orders to broker-dealers to effect securities transactions for accounts managed by the Managers. The Managers select brokers on the basis of best price and execution capability. In selecting a broker to execute client transactions, the Managers may consider a variety of factors, including: (i) prompt execution of orders, (ii) the reliability, integrity, financial condition and execution capability of the firm being considered for effecting transactions in light of the size and difficulty of executing the order, (iii) the price and (iv) the capabilities of firms to supply research services.

The Managers have no duty or obligation to seek in advance competitive bidding for the most favorable commission rate applicable to any particular client transaction or to select any broker on the basis of its purported or “posted” commission rate, but will endeavor to be aware of the current level of the charges of eligible brokers and to minimize the expenses incurred for effecting client transaction to the extent consistent with the interests and policies of the accounts. Although the Managers generally seek competitive commission rates, they will not necessarily pay the lowest commission or commission equivalent. Transactions may involve specialized services on the part of the broker involved and thereby entail higher commissions or their equivalents than would be the case with other transactions requiring more routine services.

Consistent with obtaining best execution, brokerage commissions on client transactions may be directed to brokers in recognition of research furnished by them. Such research services include economic research, market strategy research, industry research, company research, fixed income data services, and portfolio performance analysis. As a general matter, research provided by these brokers may be used to service all of the Managers' clients. However, each and every research service may not be used for the benefit of each and every account managed by the Managers, and brokerage commissions paid by one account may apply towards payment for research services that might not be used in the service of that account. Research services may be shared between the Managers and their affiliates.

There is no agreement or formula for the allocation of brokerage business on the basis of research services. The Managers may, in their discretion, cause the client accounts to pay such brokers a commission for effecting portfolio transactions in excess of the amount of commission another broker adequately qualified to effect such transactions would have charges for effecting such transactions. This may be done where the Managers have determined in good faith that such commission is reasonable in relation to the value of brokerage and research services received. In reaching such a determination, the Managers would not be required to place or attempt to place a specified dollar value on the brokerage or research services provided by such broker.

The Managers will periodically determine which brokers have provided research that has been helpful in the management of client accounts. To the extent consistent with the Managers' goal to obtain best execution for their clients, the Managers seek to place a portion of the trades that they direct with the brokers who are identified through this process. The Managers are able to furnish a continuous investment program to their clients by using information provided by broker-dealers as well as other research. The Managers consider access to such information to be an important element of investment decision making.

Orders for purchase or sale of securities placed first will be executed first, and within a reasonable amount of time of order receipt. To the extent that orders for client accounts are completed independently, the Managers may also purchase or sell the same securities or instruments for a number of accounts simultaneously. From time to time, the Managers may, but are not obligated to, purchase or sell securities for several client accounts at approximately the same time. Such orders may be combined or "batched" to facilitate obtaining best execution and/or to reduce brokerage commissions or other costs. Batched transactions are executed in a manner intended to ensure that no participating client of the Managers are favored over any other client. When an aggregated order is filled in its entirety, each participating client account generally will receive the average price obtained on all such purchases or sales made during such trading day.

When an aggregate order is partially filled, the securities purchased or sold will normally be allocated on a pro rata basis to each client account participating in such buy or sell order in accordance with the amount of securities originally requested for such account.

Each client account generally will receive the average price obtained on all such purchases or sales made during such trading day. Exceptions to pro rata allocations are permissible provided they are fair and equitable to clients over time.

REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

The investments made by the Private Investment Funds are generally private, illiquid and long-term in nature. Accordingly, the review process is not directed toward a short-term decision to dispose of securities. However, the Managers closely monitor companies in which the Private Investment Funds invest, and the Chief Compliance Officer periodically checks to confirm that each Private Investment Fund is maintained in accordance with its stated objectives.

The Fund will provide to its Limited Partners (i) annual GAAP audited and quarterly unaudited financial statements, (ii) annual tax information necessary for each Limited Partner's tax return and (iii) periodic reports providing a narrative summary of the status of each portfolio company investment.

CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

The Managers and/or their affiliates may provide various management and financial analysis services to companies in the Fund's portfolio and may receive compensation from these companies in connection with such services. This compensation may, in many cases, offset a portion of the Management Fees paid by the Fund and, in certain cases such as directors' fees, may be offset against Management Fees up to one hundred percent of the amount received and as further described in the Fund's Partnership Agreement. However, in other cases (e.g., provision of certain corporate services to a portfolio company), these fees would be in addition to Management Fees, subject to limitations in the Partnership Agreement. See "Fees and Compensation."

From time to time, the Managers may enter into solicitation arrangements pursuant to which the Managers compensate persons, including third-party solicitors or Principals and employees of the Managers, for client referrals that result in the provision of investment advisory services by the Managers. In some cases, with respect to investors that are referred by a solicitor, the Fund may pay a placement or solicitation fee to a third party, however, such fee will be offset dollar for dollar against the Fund's Management Fee and therefore, the fee will effectively be borne by the Managers.

CUSTODY

As required by the Advisers Act, the Managers have established an account with a qualified custodian to hold funds and securities on behalf of the Fund in custody as follows: Silicon Valley Bank, 3003 Tasman Dr., Santa Clara, CA 95054.

INVESTMENT DISCRETION

The Managers have discretionary authority to manage investments on behalf of the Fund. As a general policy, the Managers do not allow clients to place limitations on this authority. Pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement, however, the Managers may enter into "side letter” arrangements with certain Limited Partners whereby the terms applicable to such Limited Partner’s investment in the Fund may be altered or varied, including, in some cases, the right to opt-out of certain investments for legal, tax, regulatory or other similar reasons. The Managers assume this discretionary authority pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement and powers of attorney executed by the Limited Partners of the Fund.

VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

In accordance with SEC requirements, the Managers have adopted Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures (“Policy”) to address how any Manager will vote proxies, as applicable, for the Fund’s portfolio investments. The Policy seeks to ensure that the applicable Manager votes proxies (or similar instruments) in the best interest of the Fund, including when there may be material conflicts of interest in voting proxies. The Managers generally believe their interests are aligned with the Fund’s investors through the Managers’ principals beneficial ownership interests in the Fund. In the event, however, there is or may be a conflict of interest between the applicable Manager and the Fund in voting proxies, the Manager may address the conflict using several alternatives, including by seeking the approval or concurrence of the Advisory Board on the proposed proxy vote or through other alternatives set forth in the Policy. The Managers do not consider service on portfolio company boards by Manager personnel or the Managers’ receipt of management or other fees from portfolio companies to create a material conflict of interest in voting proxies with respect to such companies. In addition, the Policy sets forth certain specific proxy voting guidelines the Managers follow when voting proxies on behalf of the Fund. If you would like a copy of the Managers’ complete Policy or information regarding how the Managers voted proxies for particular portfolio companies, please contact Donna B. Tillery at (801) 407-8407 and it will be provided to you at no charge.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Managers do not require prepayment of management fees more than six months in advance or have any other events requiring disclosure under this item of the Brochure.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION ABOUT CERTAIN PRINCIPALS OF THE MANAGERS

The following Principals determine general investment advice to be given to clients and supervise the Managers’ other investment professionals and employees. These individuals may hold other positions with affiliates of the registered investment advisory firm and in certain cases, non-affiliates. Accordingly, certain Principals will not devote all business time solely to the registered investment advisory firm. References to the “Firm,” in addition to including the Managers shall also include, as applicable, SCP Fund I’s general partner, its managing member and SCP Fund I’s management company.
