All accounts are reviewed by the assigned Investment Adviser Representative on an ongoing basis. The reviews focus on consistency of portfolio investments with investment objectives and risk tolerances. In addition, investment constraints are considered and tested with portfolio holdings. These constraints include but are not limited to: time horizon, liquidity needs, tax considerations and legal/regulatory constraints and any other unique circumstances. On a quarterly basis, performance is reviewed by Advisor to monitor consistency with appropriate benchmarks. Additionally, accounts are reviewed, as needed, to account for changes in general economic and market conditions, analyst reports, company news and interest rate movement. There is no limit to the number of accounts assigned to the reviewer.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Clients will be provided with account statements by their custodian reflecting their holdings and the transactions occurring in the client's account at least on a quarterly basis. Clients will be provided with confirmations for each securities transaction executed in the client's account.

Clients may access portfolio information via their custodian's website. SEPARATE REPORTS?
