Part II, 13 A	ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION Advisor may recommend that clients establish brokerage accounts with the Schwab Institutional division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab Institutional"), a registered broker-dealer, to maintain custody of clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. Advisor and Schwab Institutional are separate, unaffiliated entities. Schwab Institutional provides Advisor with access to its institutional trading and operations services typically not available to Schwab's retail customers. These services generally are available to independent investment advisory firms at no charge to them so long as a total of at least $10 million of the advisor's clients' account assets are maintained at Schwab Institutional. Schwab Institutional's services include brokerage, custody, research, access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment. Schwab Institutional also makes available to Advisor other products and services that benefit Advisor. Some of these other products and services assist Advisor in managing and administering clients' accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to client account data (such as balances, positions and transactions, as well as trade confirmations and account statements), facilitate trade execution (and allocation of aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts), provide research, pricing information and other market data, facilitate payment of Advisor's fees from its clients' accounts, and assist with back-office support, record keeping and client reporting. Many of these services generally may be used to service all or a substantial number of Advisor's accounts, including accounts not maintained at Schwab Institutional. Schwab Institutional may also provide Advisor with other services intended to help Advisor manage and further develop its business enterprise. These services may include consulting, publications and presentations on practice management, information technology, business succession, regulatory compliance, and marketing. Schwab Institutional also provides various products, services and other benefits to Advisor at no cost or a reduced cost based upon Advisor's commitment that Advisor's clients will place or maintain a specified dollar amount of assets in accounts with Schwab Institutional within a specified period of time. Advisor may be influenced by this commitment in recommending or requiring that clients' establish brokerage accounts at Schwab Institutional. The products and services or other benefits provided by Schwab Institutional include payments offsetting the fees otherwise payable by Advisor for: (1) software that, among other things, may provide portfolio accounting, performance reporting, and relationship management.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Some of the products, services and other benefits provided by Schwab Institutional benefit Advisor and may not benefit Advisor's clients' accounts. Advisor's recommendation that a client place assets in Schwab's custody may be based in part on benefits Schwab provides to Advisor, and not solely on the nature, cost or quality of custody and execution services provided by Schwab.

Advisor places trades for its clients' accounts subject to its duty to seek best execution and its other fiduciary duties. Advisor may use broker-dealers other than Schwab to execute trades for client accounts maintained at Schwab, but this practice may result in additional costs to clients so that Advisor is more likely to place trades through Schwab rather than other broker-dealers. Schwab's execution quality may be different than other broker-dealers.

For Advisor's clients' accounts maintained in custody at Schwab, Schwab generally does not charge separately for custody but is compensated by the account holders through commissions or other fees related to transactions and/or assets held in the client accounts.
