Adviser's Code of Ethics describes the firm's fiduciary duties and responsibilities to Clients, and sets forth Adviser's practice of supervising the personal securities transactions of supervised persons with access to information regarding Client recommendations or transactions. Adviser or any of its principals, officers, affiliates, employees and Representatives may act as investment adviser for others, may manage funds or capital for others, may have, make and maintain investments in its or their own names, or may serve as an officer, director, consultant, partner or stockholder of one or more investment partnerships or other businesses. In doing so, Adviser or such persons may give advice, take action, and refrain from taking action, any of which may differ from advice given, action taken or not, or the timing of any action, for any particular Client. Individuals associated with Adviser may buy or sell securities for their personal accounts identical to or different than those recommended to Clients. It is the expressed policy of Adviser that no person employed by Adviser shall prefer his or her own interest to that of an advisory Client or make personal investment decisions based on the investment decisions of Clients. Subject to the Code of Ethics, Adviser and its employees are permitted to trade for their own accounts side-by-side and in block transactions (see below) with the firm's Clients in the same securities, and at the same time. To supervise compliance with its Code of Ethics, Adviser requires that anyone associated with the firm who has access to information regarding Client investment recommendations or transactions must provide an initial and annual securities holdings report and quarterly transaction reports to the firm's Chief Compliance Officer. Adviser requires such access persons to also receive approval from the Chief Compliance Officer prior to investing in any IPOs or private placements (limited offerings).

TOS-BD and thinkorswim Advisors, Inc., an SEC-registered investment adviser (TOS-IA), are owned and controlled by thinkorswim Group, Inc., and the owners of thinkorswim Group, Inc. also are directors of TOS-IA. TOS-IA is one of the Program Managers. Pursuant to the UMP Agreement, the Client will direct that TOS-BD will be the introducing broker-dealer of record for all UMP accounts, and will direct that all brokerage transactions for the account will be placed with TOS-BD, as introducing broker-dealer, and Custodian, as clearing broker-dealer. Clients will not be permitted to direct transactions to any other broker-dealer or electronic communications network. In recommending the use of TOS-BD and Custodian, Adviser has evaluated their execution and related services, commission and transaction costs, experience, and professionalism, and believes its recommendation is reasonable and consistent with the overall best interests of the Client. However, in directing the use of a TOS-BD and Custodian, as brokers for the account, it should be understood that neither Adviser nor any Program Manager will negotiate commissions or obtain volume discounts among various brokers, and best prices and lowest commissions may not be obtained for transactions placed through TOS-BD and Custodian. Similarly, the Program Managers will not aggregate Client orders with orders for other clients not participating in UMP, and will not aggregate Client orders with orders for the portions of the UMP accounts managed by other Program Managers, and as a result, the accounts will not receive the benefits of block orders and a disparity in commission charges may exist between the commissions charged to Clients and the Program Managers non-UMP clients. Lower costs for comparable services may be available through other broker-dealers or custodians. 13.A	Compensation for further information with respect to conflicts of interest involving Adviser, TOS-IA, and TOS-BD. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION TOS-BDs business consists primarily of orders placed electronically. In the UMP Agreement, the Client will direct the Program Managers to place all orders with TOS-BD, as introducing broker-dealer, and Custodian, as clearing broker-dealer. TOS-BD and Custodian will receive commissions and other economic benefits as a result of effecting such transactions. The compensation received by TOS-BD could be viewed as creating an indirect economic benefit for TOS-IA due their common ownership. When transactions are effected by TOS-BD, Advisers principal officers, in their separate capacities as registered representatives of TOS-BD, will generally receive a portion of the commissions or other transaction costs received by TOS-BD with respect to such transactions. Adviser and its principal officers will endeavor to act in the best interests of the Client, but the presence of this compensation creates an economic incentive that may influence their decisions. For its brokerage and related services, Custodian may charge commissions, mark-ups, mark-downs, and other transaction-related charges, and may also charge a fee for its services as custodian. The amount of such fees and expenses will be stated in the Custodians documentation to open the account. Adviser and the Representatives (including Advisers principal officers) may receive 12b-1 Fees as a result of an accounts investment in funds which have adopted 12b-1 plans. Thus, Adviser and the Representatives may have an incentive to recommend to financial planning Clients that they invest in funds which pay 12b-1 Fees or to select Program Managers who purchase for UMP accounts funds or fund families which pay 12b-1 Fees. Adviser and the Representatives will endeavor to act in the best interests of the Client, but the presence of such compensation creates an economic incentive that may influence their decisions.

13.B	Some of the Representatives are also registered as representatives of independent broker-dealers (each a Broker-Dealer). Adviser and the Broker-Dealers are not affiliated companies. Because a Representative may provide investment advisory services on behalf of Adviser and provide brokerage services on behalf of a Broker-Dealer, it is important for Clients to understand which products and services are being provided by each company. Investment advisory services provided for UMP accounts are provided by Adviser or by the Representatives acting on behalf of Adviser, or by a Program Manager. Financial planning services provided pursuant to a financial planning Agreement are also provided by Adviser or by a Representative acting on behalf of Adviser. Clients who receive financial planning services may choose to implement their financial plans by purchasing securities or insurance products offered through a Representative who is a registered representative of a Broker-Dealer. When implementing recommendations in a financial plan, the Representative will be acting as the representative of a Broker-Dealer, and will not be acting on behalf of Adviser. The Broker-Dealers and the Representatives may be entitled to compensation based on insurance or securities transactions they effect for financial planning Clients, which will be in addition to the compensation payable under the Clients financial planning Agreement.
