Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 11

The firm has adopted The CFA Asset Manager Code of Professional Conduct, which is a written Code of Ethics which outlines the professional behavior which is required of all associated persons. The firm also has both a Firm Compliance Manual and a GIPS Compliance Manual. Mr. Barrett shall monitor the personal securities transactions of any and all access persons and arrange to have a third party review his personal transactions. A copy of the firm's Compliance Manual and GIPS Manual are available to all clients and prospective clients upon request.

Firm or individuals associated with Firm may buy or sell securities identical to those recommended to customers for their personal account.

It is the expressed policy of Firm that no person employed by Firm may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction(s) being implemented for an advisory account, and therefore, preventing such employees from benefiting from transactions placed on behalf of advisory accounts.

Firm or any related person(s) may have an interest or position in a certain security(ies) which may also be recommended to a client.

As these situations may represent a conflict of interest, Firm has established the following restrictions in order to ensure its fiduciary responsibilities:

- 1) A director, officer or employee of Firm shall not buy or sell securities for their personal portfolio(s) where their decision is substantially derived, in whole or in part, by reason of his or her employment unless the information is also available to the investing public on reasonable inquiry. No associated person of Firm shall prefer his or her own interest to that of the advisory client;
- 2) Firm maintains a list of all securities holdings for itself, and anyone associated with this advisory practice. These holdings are reviewed on a regular basis by David Montero-Rosen.
- 3) Firm requires that all individuals must act in accordance with all applicable federal and state regulations governing registered investment advisory practices;
- 4) Any individual not in observance of the above may be subject to termination.

It is further noted that Firm is in and shall continue to be in total compliance with The Insider Trading and securities Fraud Enforcement Act of 1988. Specifically, Firm has adopted a firm wide policy statement outlining insider trading compliance by Firm and its associated persons and other employees. This statement has been distributed to all associated persons and other employees of Firm and has been signed and dated by each such person. A copy of such firm wide policy is left with such person and the original is maintained in a master file. Further, Firm has adopted a written supervisory procedures statement highlighting the steps which shall be taken to implement the firm wide policy. These materials are also distributed to all associated persons and other employees of Firm, are signed, dated, and filed with the insider trading compliance materials. There are provisions adopted for: (1) restricting access to files, (2) providing continuing education, (3) restricting and/or monitoring trading on those securities of which Firm's employees may have non-public information, (4) requiring all of the Firm's employees to conduct their trading through a specified broker or reporting all transactions promptly to Firm, and (5) monitoring the securities trading of the firm and its employees and associated persons.
