3. was found to have been involved in a violation of an investment-related statute or regulation; or
4. was the subject of any order, judgment, or decree permanently or temporarily enjoining, or otherwise limiting, the supervised person from engaging in any investment-related activity, or from violating any investment-related statute, rule, or order.

N/A

B. An administrative proceeding before the SEC, any other federal regulatory agency, any state regulatory agency, or any foreign financial regulatory authority in which the supervised person

1. was found to have caused an investment-related business to lose its authorization to do business; or
 2. was found to have been involved in a violation of an investment-related statute or regulation and was the subject of an order by the agency or authority
- (a) denying, suspending, or revoking the authorization of the supervised person to act in an investment-related business;

- (b) barring or suspending the supervised person's association with an investment-related business;
- (c) otherwise significantly limiting the supervised person's investment-related activities; or
- (d) imposing a civil money penalty of more than $2,500 on the supervised person.

N/A

C. A self-regulatory organization (SRO) proceeding in which the supervised person

- 1. was found to have caused an investment-related business to lose its authorization to do business; or
- 2. was found to have been involved in a violation of the SRO's rules and was: (i) barred or suspended from membership or from association with other members, or was expelled from membership; (ii) otherwise significantly limited from investment-related activities; or (iii) fined more than $2,500.

Other Business Activities

Form ADV Part 2B, Item 4

While PWMS is not associated with any other financial industry activities or affiliations, members or employees of PWMS may be licensed and/or appointed independently with insurance companies or insurance brokers as an outside business activity under a separate business or employment. Currently, John Stevenson is independently licensed in Life, Accident, and Health, Long Term Care, and Medicare Supplement insurances. In the course of providing comprehensive financial planning, John may identify gaps in a client's insurance coverage and recommend that the client consider various types of insurance coverage as part of the client's personal risk management and contingency planning. If the client wants additional insurance coverage but does not have a personal insurance agent, John will make himself available to help the client as an independent insurance agent. In doing so, John will encourage the client to make personal risk evaluations and cost-benefit analyses with regard to potential insurance companies, insurance products, and insurance providers within the marketplace before committing to an insurance purchase. John provides written disclosures to the client that stress the importance of such comparisons by the client as a consumer in addition to explaining his representation and compensation as an agent of specific insurance companies. These disclosures emphasize that (1) PWMS clients are under no obligation to work with any specific insurance provider, including John (2) working with John separately for insurance purposes does not impact and is in no way required to maintain a financial planning, wealth management, pension consulting, or wrap program relationship with PWMS (3) there are no conflicts of interest with regard to PWMS and its advisory services as PWMS does not receive compensation of any kind based on a client purchasing insurance, and (4) as an independent agent, John may separately receive a commission or other compensation from insurance companies or their distributors as part of any outside insurance business that is transacted.

Additional Compensation

Form ADV Part 2B, Item 5

John Stevenson does not receive any economic benefits for providing investment advice or other advisory services from anyone who is not a client.

Supervision

Form ADV Part 2B, Item 6

PWMS is currently a two advisor firm. The advisory activities of each advisor are discussed with and monitored by the other advisor. Therefore, an inherent system of supervision and checks and balances exist for all advisory activities within the firm. The contact information for the supervisor is:
