Item 3 Disciplinary Information

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Mr. Daniel, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.¹

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

- A. If Mr. Daniel is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Mr. Daniel is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant (“FCM”), commodity pool operator (“CPO”), commodity trading advisor (“CTA”), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If a relationship between the advisory business and Mr. Daniel's other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, the SEC requires us to describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

Mr. Daniel is also Investment Advisor Representatives, ("IAR"), with DWR Wealth Management. In such a capacity, they may offer advisory accounts through Fidelity Investments. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that the IAR recommends that a client open an account in which compensation is received as an IAR with Fidelity Investments.

2. If Mr. Daniel receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service ("trail") fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation Mr. Daniel receives. We must explain that this practice gives Mr. Daniel an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

Mr. Daniel is a registered representative with Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments, Inc. ("PKS"), a registered broker-dealer and Member FINRA/SIPC. In order to comply with FINRA Conduct Rule 3040, PKS, as an unaffiliated broker-dealer, may periodically review the investment advisory transactions of our firm. This information will be viewed by PKS' compliance department personnel for supervisory purposes only. No information viewed will be utilized for purposes of solicitation or shared with any affiliation outside the scope of regulatory compliance.

Mr. Daniel is licensed to sell life and health insurance. He may receive the normal commissions for securities or insurance sales in his separate role(s) as a registered representative or insurance agent/broker.

Our firm may offer certain qualified clients trading services which gives us the ability to execute trades through PKS of client assets custodied at Schwab.

Certain affiliated persons for our firm (Investment Advisor Representatives or IARs) may, in our capacity as Registered Representatives of PKS, receive commissions or other compensation for these transactions.

A conflict of interest may exist when, as a PKS Registered Representative, an IAR receives commissions or additional compensation when the RIA recommends these transactions to clients.

- B. If Mr. Daniel is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Mr. Daniel's income or involve a substantial amount of Mr.

Daniel's time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Mr. Daniel's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Mr. Daniel for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Mr. Daniel's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

Item 6 Supervision

We are required to explain how we supervise Mr. Daniel, including how we monitor the advice Mr. Daniel provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Mr. Daniel's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Mr. Daniel is the Chief Compliance Officer and as such has no internal supervision placed over him. He is however bound by our firm's Code of Ethics.
