*CDFA certificate holders are governed by the Institute for Divorce Financial Analysts (IDFA™) which is dedicated to the certification, education and promotion of the use of financial professionals in the divorce arena. The Institute provides comprehensive training using a variety of knowledge and skill-building techniques. Candidates learn how to help their clients with determinative financial issues related to divorce and receive the Certified Divorce Financial Analyst (CDFA) designation after successfully completing the course and qualifying examinations. Upon course completion, candidates must pass three 2-hour multiple choice examinations and a fourth comprehensive case study examination demonstrating proficiency with the Institute's proprietary software. To retain the CDFA designation, you must also obtain 15 divorce-related hours of continuing education every two years.
