American National Investment Advisors, LLC is a registered investment adviser. Registration with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or any state securities authority does not imply a certain level of skill or training.

Item 2 Material Changes

Form ADV Part 2 requires registered investment advisers to amend their brochure when information becomes materially inaccurate. If there are any material changes to an adviser's disclosure brochure, the adviser is required to notify you and provide you with a description of the material changes.

Generally, American National Investment Advisors, LLC will notify clients of material changes on an annual basis. However, where we determine that an interim notification is either meaningful or required, we will notify our clients promptly. In either case, we will notify our clients in a separate document.

Item 4 Advisory Business

American National Investment Advisors, LLC ("American National") is a registered investment adviser based in Downers Grove, Illinois. Our firm is organized as a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Illinois. We have been providing investment advisory services since 2009. Our firm is 100% owned by Profitability Concepts and Consulting, LLC, which is wholly owned by Peter C. Claeys.

As used in this brochure, the words "we", "our" and "us" refer to American National, and the words "you", "your" and "client" refer to you as either a client or prospective client of our firm. Also, you may see the term Associated Person throughout this brochure. As used in this brochure, our Associated Persons are our firm's officers, employees, and all individuals providing investment advice on behalf of our firm.

We provide our clients with a wide range of investment advisory services through our investment management programs, including financial planning and consulting, discretionary and non-discretionary management of investment portfolios, wrap fee arrangements, and selection of other advisers. Our integrated suite of services may be offered to clients on an all-inclusive or individual basis. Please refer to the description of each investment advisory service listed below for information on how we tailor our advisory services based on an analysis of your financial situation, personal balance sheet complexities, and individualized needs.

Financial Planning/Consulting Services

We may provide broad-based and consultative financial planning services to our clients that may include advice on investment and other non-investment related matters. Financial planning will typically involve providing a variety of advisory services to clients regarding the management of their financial resources based upon an analysis of their individual needs. In addition to traditional financial planning services, we offer financial consultations on a variety of matters, including analysis and advice on estate planning, insurance planning, and asset allocation, among others.

Prior to engaging our firm to provide financial planning and/or consulting services, you will generally be required to enter into a separate written agreement with us that sets forth the terms and conditions of the engagement and describes the scope of the services to be provided, and the fees to be paid. Our fees for these services may consist of a fixed fee, an hourly fee, or a combination thereof. Currently, fixed fees range from $500 to $5,000 and hourly fees range from $100 to $500. While fee paying arrangements may vary from client-to-client, we generally require payment of one-half of the financial planning/consulting fee upon entering into the agreement for services. The remaining balance is due and payable upon delivery of the financial plan or completion of the agreed upon services.

The type and amount of fees charged will be negotiated on a case-by-case basis, and are based on the complexity of your financial situation and the scope of services to be provided. An estimate of the total cost will be determined at the start of the advisory relationship. In limited circumstances, the cost/time could potentially exceed the initial estimate. In such cases, we will notify you and may request that you pay an additional fee.

In providing financial planning and/or consulting services, we may recommend our services, our Associated Persons in their separate capacity as licensed insurance agents or registered representatives of a broker dealer, and/or other industry professionals with whom we have agreements to receive additional compensation (e.g. independent third party advisers). A conflict of interest exists when we make such recommendations. You retain absolute discretion over the decision to implement our financial planning recommendations. You are under no obligation to act on our financial planning recommendations. Should you choose to act on any of our recommendations, you are not obligated to implement the financial plan through any of our other investment advisory services. Moreover, you may act on our recommendations by placing securities transactions with any brokerage firm of your choice. However, if you engage our firm for additional investment advisory services, we may offset all or a portion of our fees for those services based upon the amount you paid for the financial planning and/or consulting services provided.

Financial plans are based on your financial situation at the time we present the plan to you, and on the financial information you provide to our firm. In providing the contracted services, we are not required to verify any information we receive from you or from your other professionals (e.g. attorney, accountant, etc.) and we are expressly authorized to rely on the information you provide. You must promptly notify our firm if your financial situation, goals, objectives, or needs change.

You have the right to terminate the contract without penalty within five (5) business days after entering into the contract. After that, either party may terminate the agreement by providing written notice to the other party. You will incur a pro rata charge for services rendered prior to the termination of the agreement. If you have pre-paid advisory fees that we have not yet earned, you will receive a prorated refund of those fees.

Investment Advisory Services

We offer discretionary and non-discretionary investment advisory services on a fee-only wrap or non-wrap fee basis. If you engage our services on a wrap fee basis, you will pay a single fee for bundled services (i.e. investment advisory, brokerage, custody). The services included in a wrap fee agreement will depend upon your particular needs. If you engage our services on a non-wrap fee basis, you will select individual services on an unbundled basis, paying for each service separately (i.e. investment advisory, brokerage, custody).

If you participate in our discretionary portfolio management services, we require you to grant our firm discretionary authority to manage your account. Subject to a grant of discretionary authorization, we have the authority and responsibility to formulate investment strategies on your behalf. This authorization includes deciding which securities to buy and sell, when to buy and sell, in what amounts, without obtaining your prior consent or approval for each transaction. Discretionary authority is typically granted by the investment advisory agreement you sign with our firm, a power of attorney, and/or trading authorization forms. You may limit our discretionary authority (for example, limiting the types of securities that can be purchased for your account) by providing our firm with your restrictions and guidelines in writing.

In limited circumstances, we may also manage advisory accounts on a non-discretionary basis, meaning specific client consent must be granted prior to each transaction. You have an unrestricted right to decline to implement any advice provided by our firm on a non-discretionary basis.

Predicated on suitability, we may also recommend third-party money managers and other wealth advisers (collectively "sub-adviser") for account management services. The sub-adviser may be retained to manage a portion of, or your entire portfolio. In doing so, our primary objective is to align you with the appropriate sub-adviser(s) to allow you to capitalize on opportunities that will strengthen or enhance your personal wealth. Under such arrangements, we will monitor the sub-adviser's performance and we may assume discretionary authority to hire and fire a sub-adviser and reallocate your assets, where such action is deemed to be in your best interest.

You may make additions to and withdrawals from your account at any time, subject our right to terminate an account. You may withdraw account assets on notice to our firm, and subject to the usual and customary securities settlement procedures. However, we design our portfolios as long-term investments and asset withdrawals may impair the achievement of your specific investment objectives.

We use the below pricing schedules to determine the overall blended rate that is charged to your account. Once the blended rate is established it will not change later based on deposits and withdrawals or changes in account value.

Our annual fee for portfolio management services is based upon a percentage of assets under management, and varies depending upon the type of service provided (i.e. Equity and Balanced, Fixed Income, Mutual Fund Allocation). In special circumstance, and in our sole discretion, we may negotiate a lesser management fee based upon certain criteria (i.e., anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, pre-existing client relationship, account retention, pro bono activities, etc.).

Currently, our asset-based management fees for fee-only or non-wrap fee services are set forth in the following fee schedules:

Market Value of Portfolio	Equity & Balanced
----------------------------------	------------------------------

First $500,000	2.00%
Next $500,000	1.50%
Next $1,000,000	1.00%
Over $2,000,000	0.75%

Market Value of Portfolio	Fixed Income
----------------------------------	---------------------

First $500,000	1.25%
Next $500,000	1.00%
Next $1,000,000	0.85%
Over $2,000,000	0.75%

Market Value of Portfolio	Mutual Fund Allocation
----------------------------------	-------------------------------

First $500,000	1.25%
Next $500,000	1.00 %
Next $1,000,000	0.85%
Over $2,000,000	0.75 %

Our annual fee is billed and payable quarterly in advance based on the value of your account on the last day of the previous quarter. If the portfolio management agreement is executed at any time other than the first day of a calendar quarter, our fees will apply on a pro rata basis, which means that the advisory fee is payable in proportion to the number of days in the quarter for which you are a client.

Our Agreement and/or the separate agreement you sign with LPL Financial ("LPL") or for custodial and brokerage services may authorize our firm through LPL to debit your account for the amount of our management fee and to directly remit that management fee to our firm in accordance with applicable custody rules. LPL must agree to send a statement to you, at least quarterly, indicating all amounts disbursed from your account including the amount of management fees paid directly to our firm. You should review all statements for accuracy. We will also receive a duplicate copy of your account statements. Please refer to the Brokerage Practices section below for additional disclosures on this topic.

You have the right to terminate the agreement without penalty within five (5) business days after entering into the agreement. Thereafter, you may terminate the portfolio management agreement upon written notice to our firm. If you have pre-paid advisory fees that we have not yet earned, you will receive a prorated refund of those fees.

If you receive an invoice from our firm, we encourage you to reconcile our invoices with the statement(s) you receive from the qualified custodian. If you find any inconsistent information between our invoice and the statement(s) you receive from the qualified custodian, please call our main office number located on the cover page of this brochure.

American National Wrap Program

We provide discretionary investment management services on a wrap fee basis in accordance with our investment management wrap fee program (the "Program"). The services offered under, and the corresponding terms and conditions pertaining to, the Program are discussed in the Program brochure (the "Brochure"), a copy of which will be presented to you if you are a prospective Program participant. Under the Program, we offer participants discretionary investment management services, for a single specified annual Program fee, inclusive of trade execution, custody, reporting, and investment management fees. The current annual Program fee ranges from negotiable to 3% of the Program assets. The terms and conditions for your participation in the Program are set forth in detail in the Brochure, which is presented to all prospective Program participants in accordance with the disclosure requirements of Appendix 1 to Form ADV Part 2A. The Brochure is incorporated into this Form ADV Part 2A disclosure brochure by reference. All prospective Program participants should read this disclosure statement and the Brochure, and ask any corresponding questions that they may have, prior to participation in the Program. LPL shall serve as the custodian for Program accounts.

As indicated in the Brochure, the overall cost of participation in the Program may cost more or less than purchasing such services separately. As also indicated in the Brochure, the Program fee we charge for participation in the Program may be higher or lower than those charged by other sponsors of comparable wrap fee programs.

Types of Investments

We recommend various types of securities and we do not necessarily recommend one particular type of security over another since each client has different needs and different tolerances for risk. We may also advise you on any type of investment held in your portfolio at the inception of our advisory relationship, or on specific types of investments at your request.

You may request that we refrain from investing in particular securities or certain types of securities. You must provide these restrictions to our firm in writing.

Assets Under Management

As of February 1, 2012 we manage $54,210,370 in client assets on a discretionary basis; at this time, we do not manage any client assets on a non-discretionary basis.

Item 5 Fees and Compensation

Please refer to the "Advisory Business" section in this Brochure for information on our advisory fees, fee deduction arrangements, and refund policy according to each service we offer.

Additional Fees and Expenses

The custodian holding your funds and securities may, on occasion and solely at their discretion, charge fees to you for other services you request in addition to the compensation they receive for custodial services (such as wire transfers or bill pay fees) provided to you. Also, it is the current practice of certain custodians to charge a "flat" transaction fee to the client on trades executed at other brokers. We do not share in any portion of these additional fees.

As part of our investment advisory services to you, we may invest, or recommend that you invest, in mutual funds and exchange traded funds. The fees that you pay to our firm for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds or exchange traded funds (described in each fund's prospectus) to their shareholders. These fees will generally include a management fee and other fund expenses. You may also incur transaction charges and/or brokerage fees when purchasing or selling securities. These charges and fees are typically imposed by the broker-dealer or custodian through whom your account transactions are executed. We do not share in any portion of the brokerage fees/transaction charges imposed by the broker-dealer or custodian. To fully understand the total cost you will incur, you should review all the fees charged by mutual funds, exchange traded funds, our firm, and others. For information on our brokerage practices, please refer to the "Brokerage Practices" section of this Disclosure Brochure.

Item 6 Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

We do not accept performance-based fees or participate in side-by-side management. Side-by-side management refers to the practice of managing accounts that are charged performance-based fees while at the same time managing accounts that are not charged performance-based fees.

Performance-based fees are fees that are based on a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of a client's account. Our fees are calculated as described in the Advisory Business section above, and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains upon, or capital appreciation of, the funds in your advisory account.

Item 7 Types of Clients

We currently offer investment advisory services to individuals including high net worth individuals, trusts and estates. We also offer advisory services to pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations, and other business entities. In general, we do not require a minimum dollar amount to open and maintain an advisory account; however, we have the right to terminate your account if it falls below a minimum size which, in our sole opinion, is too small to effectively manage.

Certain independent third party managers may impose account minimums and/or varying billing practices from those required by our firm. In such instances, we may alter our corresponding account requirements and/or billing practices to accommodate those of the third party managers.

Item 8 Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

We may use one or more of the following methods of analysis or investment strategies when providing investment advice to you:

- Charting Analysis - involves the gathering and processing of price and volume information for a particular security. This price and volume information is analyzed using mathematical equations. The resulting data is then applied to graphing charts, which is used to predict future price movements based on price patterns and trends.

- Fundamental Analysis - involves analyzing individual companies and their industry groups, such as a company's financial statements, details regarding the company's product line, the experience and expertise of the company's management, and the outlook for the company's industry. The resulting data is used to measure the true value of the company's stock compared to the current market value.
- Technical Analysis - involves studying past price patterns and trends in the financial markets to predict the direction of both the overall market and specific stocks.
- Cyclical Analysis - a type of technical analysis that involves evaluating recurring price patterns and trends.
- Modern Portfolio Theory (MPT) is a theory of investment which attempts to maximize portfolio expected return for a given amount of portfolio risk, or equivalently minimize risk for a given level of expected return, by carefully diversifying the proportions of various assets.
- Long Term Purchases - securities purchased with the expectation that the value of those securities will grow over a relatively long period of time, generally greater than one year.
- Short Term Purchases - securities purchased with the expectation that they will be sold within a relatively short period of time, generally less than one year, to take advantage of the securities' short-term price fluctuations.
- Short Sales - securities transaction in which an investor sells securities he or she borrowed in anticipation of a price decline. The investor is then required to return an equal number of shares at some point in the future. A short seller will profit if the stock goes down in price.
- Margin Transactions - a securities transaction in which an investor borrows money to purchase a security, in which case the security serves as collateral on the loan.
- Option Writing - a securities transaction that involves selling an option. An option is the right, but not the obligation, to buy or sell a particular security at a specified price before the expiration date of the option. When an investor sells an option, he or she must deliver to the buyer a specified number of shares if the buyer exercises the option. The seller pays the buyer a premium (the market price of the option at a particular time) in exchange for writing the option.

Our investment strategies and advice may vary depending upon each client's specific financial situation. As such, we determine investments and allocations based upon your predefined objectives, risk tolerance, time horizon, financial horizon, financial information, liquidity needs, and other various suitability factors. Your restrictions and guidelines may affect the composition of your portfolio.

In general, we manage wrap fee accounts on a discretionary basis based on a long-term investment strategy. We also manage non-wrap fee accounts on either a discretionary or a non-discretionary basis, and may employ a short-term investment strategy in managing this type of account. A long-term investment strategy will typically involve investing in securities that are anticipated to grow in value over a relatively long period of time. On the other hand, a short-term investment strategy will typically involve purchasing and selling securities within a relatively short period of time based on these securities' short-term price fluctuations. If you participate in our wrap fee program, we will provide you with a separate Wrap Fee Program Brochure explaining the program and costs associated with the program.

Fundamental Analysis - The risk of fundamental analysis is that information obtained may be incorrect and the analysis may not provide an accurate estimate of earnings, which may be the basis for a stock's value. If securities prices adjust rapidly to new information, utilizing fundamental analysis may not result in favorable performance.

Our strategies and investments may have unique and significant tax implications. However, unless we specifically agree otherwise, and in writing, tax efficiency is not our primary consideration in the management of your assets. Regardless of your account size or any other factors, we strongly recommend that you continuously consult with a tax professional prior to and throughout the investing of your assets.

Moreover, as a result of revised IRS regulations, custodians and broker-dealers will begin reporting the cost basis of equities acquired in client accounts on or after January 1, 2011. Custodians will default to the FIFO accounting method for calculating the cost basis of your investments. You are responsible for contacting your tax advisor to determine if this accounting method is the right choice for you. If your tax advisor believes another accounting method is more advantageous, please provide written notice to our firm immediately and we will alert your account custodian of your individually selected accounting method. Please note that decisions about cost basis accounting methods will need to be made before trades settle, as the cost basis method cannot be changed after settlement.

Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves risk of loss that you should be prepared to bear. We do not represent or guarantee that our services or methods of analysis can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate clients from losses due to market corrections or declines. Although we have been successful in the past in reducing risk in our clients' accounts prior to down markets, investing in securities markets entails the risk of loss. Accordingly, you should invest with a long-term time frame and understand that we cannot offer any guarantees or promises that your financial goals and objectives will be met. Past performance is in no way an indication of future performance.

Recommendation of Particular Types of Securities

As disclosed under the "Advisory Business" section in this Brochure, we recommend various types of securities and we do not necessarily recommend one particular type of security over another since each client has different needs and different tolerances for risk. Even within the same type of investment, risks can vary widely. However, in very general terms, the higher the anticipated return of an investment, the higher the risk of loss associated with it.

Item 9 Disciplinary Information

American National Investment Advisors, LLC, has been registered and providing investment advisory services since 2009. Neither our firm nor any of our associated persons has any reportable disciplinary information.

Item 10 Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Compensation for the Sale of Securities or Other Investment Products

Persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm are registered representatives LPL Financial Corporation ("LPL"), a securities broker-dealer, and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation. In their capacity as registered representatives, these persons will receive commission-based compensation in connection with the purchase and sale of securities, including 12b-1 fees for the sale of investment company products. Compensation earned by these persons in their capacities as a registered representative is separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm who are registered representatives have an incentive to effect securities transactions for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. However, you are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase securities products through any person affiliated with our firm.

We may recommend that you purchase variable annuities to be included in your investment portfolio(s). Persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm may earn commissions on the sale of the variable annuities in his or her capacity as a registered representative of LPL. If these persons earn commission on the sale of variable annuities recommended to you, we will not include the annuity accounts in the total value used for our advisory billing/fee computation. Annuities will be purchased for your account only after you receive a prospectus disclosing the terms of the annuity. You are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase variable annuities through any person affiliated with our firm.

Persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm are licensed as independent insurance agents. These persons will earn commission-based compensation for selling insurance products, including insurance products they sell to you. Insurance commissions earned by these persons are separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm who are insurance agents have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. However, you are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase insurance products through any person affiliated with our firm.

Recommendation of Other Advisers

We may recommend that you use a third party adviser ("TPA") based on your needs and suitability. We may receive compensation from the TPA for recommending that you use their services. These compensation arrangements present a conflict of interest because we have a financial incentive to recommend the services of the third party adviser. You are not obligated, contractually or otherwise, to use the services of any TPA we recommend.

In other circumstances, we may enter into arrangements with you where you pay us directly for recommendation of the TPA. Under these arrangements, the TPA will either charge a separate fee for their services or the TPA will share in a portion of the fee you pay to our firm.

Item 11 Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Description of Our Code of Ethics

We have adopted a Code of Ethics that sets the standard of conduct expected to comply with applicable securities laws. Our goal is to protect your interests at all times and to demonstrate our commitment to our fiduciary duties of honesty, good faith, and fair dealing with you. We adhere strictly to these guidelines. Additionally, we maintain and enforce written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse or dissemination of material, non-public information about you or your account holdings by persons associated with our firm. Clients or perspective clients may contact us at 630-701-9080 to request a copy of our Code of Ethics.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

Neither our firm nor any of our Associated Persons has any material financial interest in client transactions beyond the provision of investment advisory services as disclosed in this Brochure.

Personal Trading Practices

Our firm or persons associated with our firm may buy or sell the same securities that we recommend to you or securities in which you are already invested. A conflict of interest exists in such cases because we have the ability to trade ahead of you and potentially receive more favorable prices than you will receive. To mitigate this conflict of interest, where we trade on the same trading day, and outside of a block trade (as described more fully below), it is our policy that we will only execute transactions for personal accounts in the same direction as, and after the trade is complete in, your customer account. These requirements are not applicable to: (i) direct obligations of the Government of the United States; (ii) money market instruments, bankers' acceptances, bank certificates of deposit, commercial paper, repurchase agreements and other high quality short-term debt instruments, including repurchase agreements; (iii) shares issued by mutual funds or money market funds; and (iv) shares issued by unit investment trusts that are invested exclusively in one or more mutual funds.

Item 12 Brokerage Practices

We recommend the brokerage and custodial services of LPL, a securities broker-dealer and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation. We believe that LPL provides quality execution services for you at competitive prices. Price is not the sole factor we consider in evaluating best execution. We also consider the quality of the brokerage services provided by LPL, including the value of research provided, the firm's reputation, execution capabilities, commission rates, and responsiveness to our clients and our firm. In recognition of the value of research services and additional brokerage products and services LPL provides, you may pay higher commissions and/or trading costs than those that may be available elsewhere.

When making investment decisions for client accounts, we determine the broker-dealer to be used in each specific transaction with the objective of negotiating the best execution available under the circumstances. Brokers will be selected to effect transactions based on factors such as 1) commission rates, 2) their respective financial strength, 3) execution, 4) research, and 5) accounting "back office" capabilities. These transactions are qualitatively "the best" but may or may not be the absolutely lowest commission available.

Best execution is not measured solely by reference to commission rates. Paying a broker a higher commission rate than another broker might charge is permissible if the difference in cost is reasonably justified by the quality of the brokerage services offered. We do not obligate ourselves to seek the lowest commission charges in all cases except to the extent that it contributes to the overall goal of obtaining the best results for your account. We must, however, determine in good faith that the commission paid is reasonable in relation to the value of brokerage and research services provided by the executing broker in the context of the individual trade and/or our overall responsibility to all of the portfolios receiving management services.

Persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm are registered representatives and investment adviser representatives with LPL, a registered broker-dealer and registered investment adviser.

Under the rules and regulations of FINRA, LPL is obligated to maintain records and perform other functions regarding certain aspects of the investment advisory activities of its registered representatives in relation to certain advisory accounts for which its registered representatives provide investment advice. These obligations require LPL to coordinate with, and have the cooperation of, the account custodian. In order to fulfill its obligation, LPL has established a list of custodian and brokerage firms with which it has arranged to obtain the required cooperation. Therefore, the firms on the list may be utilized for custody of client accounts, which are directly advised by either registered representatives of LPL who are investment advisers or other investment advisory entities that are affiliated with registered representatives of LPL.

In certain circumstances, LPL will collect, as paying agent for our firm, the investment advisory fee remitted to us by the account custodian. LPL will retain a portion of this fee as a charge to the investment adviser (not the client) for the functions LPL is required to carry out by FINRA. This fee will not increase execution or brokerage charges to you nor will it increase the fee you have agreed to pay to us pursuant to the client agreement. A portion of the fee retained by LPL may be re-allowed to other registered representatives that assist LPL with the functions described above.

Transition Support/Conflict of Interest

Although not a material consideration when determining whether to recommend that you utilize the services of LPL, in the past, LPL provided our firm with Transition Support to assist us with practice transition expenses. Because we received this economic benefit, we may be perceived to have a conflict of interest in recommending that you use LPL as custodian. You will not pay more for investment transactions effected and/or assets maintained at LPL as a result of any Transition Support or other benefits LPL may provide, or may have provided our firm in the past. Contact Peter C. Claeys, Principal of our firm, if you have any questions on our relationship with LPL.

- Some of the products, services and other benefits provided by LPL, including monetary loans, benefit us and may not benefit our client accounts. The recommendation that you place assets in LPL's custody may be based in part on benefits LPL provides us and not solely on the nature, cost or quality of custody and execution services provided by LPL.
- We place trades for our clients' accounts subject to our duty to seek best execution and our other fiduciary duties. We may use broker-dealers other than LPL to execute trades for your accounts, but this practice may result in additional costs to clients so we are more likely to place trades through LPL rather than other broker-dealers. LPL's execution quality may be different than other broker-dealers.

Brokerage for Client Referrals

We do not receive client referrals from broker-dealers in exchange for cash or other compensation, such as brokerage services or research.

Directed Brokerage

Persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm who are registered representatives of LPL will recommend LPL to you for brokerage services. These individuals are subject to applicable rules that restrict them from conducting securities transactions away from LPL unless LPL provides the representative with written authorization to do so. Therefore, these individuals are generally limited to conducting securities transactions through LPL. It may be the case that LPL charges higher transactions costs and/or custodial fees than another broker charges for the same types of services. If transactions are executed through LPL, these individuals (in their separate capacities as registered representatives of LPL) may earn commission-based compensation as result of placing the recommended securities transactions through LPL. This practice presents a conflict of interest because these registered representatives have an incentive to effect securities transactions for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. You may utilize the broker-dealer of your choice and have no obligation to purchase or sell securities through such broker as, we recommend. However, if you do not use LPL, we may not be able to accept your account. Please see the "Fees and Compensation" section in this brochure for more information on the compensation received by registered representatives who are affiliated with our firm.

Block Trades

Transactions for each client generally will be effected independently, unless we decide to purchase or sell the same securities for several clients at approximately the same time. We may, but are not obligated to, combine multiple orders for shares of the same securities purchased for advisory accounts we manage (this practice is commonly referred to as "block trading"). We will then distribute a portion of the shares to participating accounts in a fair and equitable manner. The distribution of the shares purchased is typically proportionate to the size of the account, but it is not based on account performance or the amount or structure of management fees.

Subject to our discretion regarding factual and market conditions, when we combine orders, each participating account pays an average price per share for all transactions and pays a proportionate share of all transaction costs on any given day. Accounts owned by our firm or persons associated with our firm may participate in block trading with your accounts; however, they will not be given preferential treatment.

Item 13 Review of Accounts

For those clients to whom we provide investment management services, we will monitor those portfolios as part of an ongoing process while regular account reviews are conducted at the client's request or as deemed appropriate by our firm. For those clients to whom our firm provides financial planning and/or consulting services, reviews are conducted on an "as needed" basis. Currently, account reviews are conducted by Peter C. Claeys, Principal of our firm (individuals conducting reviews may change as others join or leave American National). Additional reviews may be conducted at your request, or based on various circumstances, including, but not limited to, contributions and withdrawals, year-end tax planning, market moving events, security specific events, and/or, changes in your risk/return objectives.

You are encouraged to discuss your needs, goals, and objectives with our firm and to keep us informed of any changes in this information. We will contact ongoing investment advisory clients at least annually to review our previous services and/or recommendations and to discuss the impact resulting from any changes in your financial situation and/or investment objectives.

You will receive transaction confirmation notices and regular summary account statements, at least quarterly, directly from the broker-dealer or custodian for your account(s).

Item 14 Client Referrals and Other Compensation

We directly compensate non-employee (outside) consultants, individuals, and/or entities (Solicitors) for client referrals. In order to receive a cash referral fee from our firm, Solicitors must comply with the requirements of the jurisdictions in which they operate. If you were referred to our firm by a Solicitor, you should have received a copy of this Disclosure Brochure along with the Solicitor's disclosure statement at the time of the referral. If you become a client, the Solicitor that referred you to our firm will receive either a percentage of the advisory fee you pay our firm for as long as you are a client with our firm, or until such time as our agreement with the Solicitor expires or a one-time, flat referral fee upon your signing an advisory agreement with our firm. You will not pay additional fees because of this referral arrangement. Referral fees paid to a licensed Solicitor may or may not be contingent upon your entering into an advisory agreement with our firm. Referral fees paid to a non-licensed or non-registered individual are not contingent upon your entering into an advisory agreement with our firm. Therefore, a Solicitor may have a financial incentive to recommend our firm to you for advisory services. This creates a conflict of interest; however, you are not obligated to retain our firm for advisory services. Comparable services and/or lower fees may be available through other firms.

Solicitors that refer business to more than one investment adviser may have a financial incentive to recommend advisers with more favorable compensation arrangements.

We may enter into contractual arrangements with various employees under which the employee receives compensation from our firm for the establishment of new client relationships. Employees who refer clients to our firm must comply with the requirements of the jurisdictions where they operate. The compensation to an employee may be equal to a percentage of the advisory fee collected from you for as long as you are a client with our firm, or until such time as our agreement with our firm expires.

Alternatively, we may pay the employee a one-time, flat referral fee upon your signing an advisory agreement with our firm. You will not be charged additional fees based on this compensation arrangement. The receipt of referral based compensation creates a financial incentive for the employee to recommend our firm to you for advisory services. This in turn creates a conflict of interest; however, you are not obligated to retain our firm for advisory services. Comparable services and/or lower fees may be available through other firms.

Item 15 Custody

We directly debit your account(s) for the payment of our advisory fees. This ability to deduct our advisory fees from your accounts causes our firm to exercise limited custody over your funds or securities. We do not have physical custody of any of your funds and/or securities. Your funds and securities will be held with a bank, broker-dealer, or other independent, qualified custodian. You will receive account statements from the independent, qualified custodian(s) holding your funds and securities at least quarterly. The account statements from your custodian(s) will indicate the amount of our advisory fees deducted from your account(s) each billing period. You should carefully review account statements for accuracy.

If you have a question regarding your account statement or if you did not receive a statement from your custodian, please contact our firm at (630) 701-9080.

Item 16 Investment Discretion

Generally, clients retain our firm for discretionary account management services. Under these arrangements, we hold a limited power of attorney to act on your behalf without prior consultation (but we do not have custody of your funds or securities). Accordingly, we are authorized to perform various functions on your behalf, without seeking further approval or authorization before each transaction, including: (a) to make all investment decisions; and (b) to buy, sell, and otherwise trade in securities; on behalf of your account(s). Before we can buy or sell securities on your behalf, you must first sign our discretionary management agreement, a power of attorney, and/or trading authorization forms. You may specify investment objectives, guidelines, and/or impose certain conditions or investment parameters for your account(s). For example, you may specify that the investment in any particular stock or industry should not exceed specified percentages of the value of the portfolio and/or restrictions or prohibitions of transactions in the securities of a specific industry or security. Please refer to the "Advisory Business" section in this Brochure for more information on our discretionary management services.

If you enter into non-discretionary arrangements with our firm, we will obtain your approval prior to the execution of any transactions for your account(s). You have an unrestricted right to decline to implement any advice provided by our firm on a non-discretionary basis.

Item 17 Voting Client Securities

Without exception, we will not vote proxies on behalf of your advisory accounts. However, at your request, we may offer you advice regarding the exercise of your proxy voting rights.

Item 18 Financial Information

We are not required to provide financial information about American National to our clients because we do not:

- require the prepayment of more than $500 in fees and six or more months in advance, or
- take custody of client funds or securities, or
- have a financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet our commitments to you.

Item 19 Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Refer to the Part(s) 2B for background information about management personnel and those giving advice on behalf of our firm.

Our firm is not actively engaged in any business other than giving investment advice.

Neither our firm, nor any persons associated with our firm are compensated for advisory services with performance-based fees. Please refer to the "Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management" section above for additional information on this topic.

Neither our firm, nor any of our management persons have any reportable arbitration claims, civil, self-regulatory organization proceedings or administrative proceedings.

Neither our firm, nor any of our management persons have a material relationship or arrangement with any issuer of securities.

Item 20 Additional Information

Your Privacy

We view protecting your private information as a top priority. Pursuant to applicable privacy requirements, we have instituted policies and procedures to ensure that we keep your personal information private and secure.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you to any nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law. In the course of servicing your account, we may share some information with our service providers, such as transfer agents, custodians, broker-dealers, accountants, consultants, and attorneys.

We restrict internal access to nonpublic personal information about you to employees, who need that information in order to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical and procedural safeguards that comply with regulatory standards to guard your nonpublic personal information and to ensure our integrity and confidentiality. We will not sell information about you or your accounts to anyone. We do not share your information unless it is required to process a transaction, at your request, or required by law.

You will receive a copy of our privacy notice prior to or at the time you sign an advisory agreement with our firm. Thereafter, we will deliver a copy of the current privacy policy notice to you on an annual basis. Please contact us at (630) 701-9080 if you have any questions regarding our privacy policy.

Trade Errors

In the event a trading error occurs in your account, our policy is to restore your account to the position it should have been in had the trading error not occurred. Depending on the circumstances, corrective actions may include canceling the trade, adjusting an allocation, and/or reimbursing the account. If a trade error results in a profit, you will keep the profit.

Certifications:

Certified Investment Management AnalystSM [CIMA®] - 1992

The CIMA certification signifies that an individual has met initial and on-going experience, ethical, education, and examination requirements for investment management consulting, including advanced investment management theory and application. Prerequisites for the CIMA certification are three years of financial services experience and an acceptable regulatory history. To obtain the CIMA certification, candidates must pass an online Qualification Examination, successfully complete a one-week classroom education program provided by a Registered Education Provider at an AACSB accredited university business school, and pass an online Certification Examination. CIMA designees are required to adhere to IMCA's Code of Professional Responsibility, Standards of Practice, and Rules and Guidelines for Use of the Marks. CIMA designees must report 40 hours of continuing education credits, including two ethics hours, every two years to maintain the certification. The designation is administered through Investment Management Consultants Association (IMCA®).

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNERTM, CFP® - 1988 and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the "CFP® marks") are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board").

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 62,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education - Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;

- Examination - Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience - Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics - Agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education - Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics - Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

Mr. Claeys does not have any reportable disciplinary disclosure.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

Mr. Claeys is a registered representative with LPL Financial Corporation ("LPL"). LPL is a diversified financial services company engaged in the sale of specialized investment products. In this capacity, Mr. Claeys may recommend securities or insurance products offered by LPL as part of your investment portfolio. If clients purchase these products through Mr. Claeys, he will receive the customary commissions in his separate capacity as registered representatives of LPL. Additionally, Mr. Claeys could be eligible to receive incentive awards such as LPL may offer. He may also receive 12b-1 fees from mutual funds that pay such fees. The receipt of additional compensation may give Mr. Claeys an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your investment needs. Please refer to the Fees and Compensation section and the Client Referrals and Other Compensation section of American National Investment Advisors, LLC's firm brochure for additional disclosures on this topic.

Mr. Claeys is separately licensed as an independent insurance agent. In this capacity, he can effect transactions in insurance products for his clients and earn commissions for these activities. The fees you pay our firm for advisory services are separate and distinct from the commissions earned by Mr. Claeys for insurance related activities. This presents a conflict of interest because Mr. Claeys may have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. However, you are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase insurance products through any person affiliated with our firm.

Mr. Claeys is also the owner and Managing Member of Profitability Concepts & Consulting, LLC, the parent (holding) company of American National Investment Advisors, LLC and American National Financial Advisers, LLC. American National Financial Advisers, LLC will be used to provide commission based services.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

Please refer to the Other Business Activities section above for disclosures on Mr. Claeys' receipt of additional compensation as a result of his activities as a registered representative and licensed insurance agent.

Also, please refer to the Fees and Compensation section and the Client Referrals and Other Compensation section of American National Investment Advisors, LLC's firm brochure for additional disclosures on this topic.

Item 6 Supervision

As the Founder, President, Managing Member, and Chief Compliance Officer of American National Investment Advisors, LLC, Mr. Claeys is not supervised by other persons. You can contact Mr. Claeys at 630-701-9080.

In the supervision of our associated persons, advice provided is limited based on the restrictions set by LPL, the third party adviser and/or program selected, and by internal decisions as to the types of investments that may be included in client portfolios. We conduct periodic reviews of each investment adviser representatives' client holdings and documented suitability information to provide reasonable assurance that the advice provided remains aligned with each client's stated investment objectives and with our internal guidelines.

Item 7 Requirements for State Registered Advisers

Mr. Claeys does not have any reportable arbitration claims, has not been found liable in a reportable civil, self-regulatory organization or administrative proceeding, and has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
