Item 1.D

Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc. (hereinafter known as "LWA" or "Adviser") is an investment advisor registered with the State of California and a corporation formed under the laws of the State of California and domiciled in the State of California. Adviser offers investment advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals, as well as pension and profit sharing plans. Adviser's services and fee arrangements are described in the following pages.

This Schedule F narrative provides Clients with information regarding Adviser and the qualifications, business practices, and nature of advisory services that should be considered before becoming an advisory Client of Adviser.

Additional information about Adviser is available on the Internet at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. You can search this site by a unique identifying number, known as a CRD number. The CRD number for Adviser is 150945.

Item 1.D

Adviser's portfolio management service is designed to assist clients in meeting their financial goals through the use of financial investments. For each portfolio management client, Adviser will conduct one or more meetings (in person if possible, otherwise via telephone conference) with the client in order to understand the client's current financial situation, existing resources, financial goals, and tolerance for risk. Based on the foregoing, LWA will propose an investment approach to the client. LWA may propose an investment portfolio, consisting of exchange traded funds, mutual funds, individual stocks or bonds, or other securities. Upon the client's agreement to the proposed investment plan, Adviser will work with the client to establish or transfer investment accounts so that LWA is able to manage the client's portfolio. Once the relevant accounts are under Adviser's management, LWA will review such accounts on a regular basis and at least quarterly. Adviser may periodically rebalance or adjust client accounts under its management. If the client experiences any significant changes to his/her financial or personal circumstances, the client must notify LWA so that it can consider such information in managing the client's investments.

Item 1.D (Continued)	Fees will be based on the fee schedule above. Fees will be calculated quarterly in advanced, based on an average of assets under management during the quarter, at the end of a quarterly billing period. Exceptions may be made to the published fee schedule under certain circumstances pursuant to a negotiated agreement with the client. In the event that the client terminates LWA's services before the end of a billing period, the client shall be given a pro-rata refund based on the number of days the client's account was managed by LWA. Unless the Client requests direct billing, fees will be automatically deducted from the account. Clients will be provided with a quarterly statement reflecting deduction of the advisory fee. LWA's fee schedule does not include the following separately incurred expenses, of which Adviser does not receive any part: mutual fund expenses, exchange traded fund expenses, trading costs, and custodial costs. These fees will be separately charged by the relevant parties and borne by the client. Either party may terminate the investment advisory agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party. Full refunds will only be made in cases where cancellation occurs within five (5) business days of signing LWA's investment advisory agreement. After five (5) business days, clients will receive a pro-rata refund, which takes into account work completed by Adviser on behalf of the client. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination, and such fees will be due and payable by the client. LWA's advisory fee shall be negotiable in certain cases. No increase in the fee schedule shall be effective without prior written notification to the client. No portion of CSF's compensation shall be based on capital gains or capital appreciation of assets under management. The Adviser may recommend that clients establish brokerage accounts with Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. ("RJFS" or "Custodian"), a FINRA member. RJFS provides the Adviser with access to its institutional trading and operations services, which typically are not available to RJFS retail customers. These services are generally available, without cost, to financial advisory Advisers who maintain a minimum threshold of client assets with RJFS. The Adviser utilizes RJFS for custody of customer assets and execution of customer transactions. RJA, a corporate affiliate of RJFS and member of the New York Stock Exchange and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, acts as the clearing agent in the execution of securities transactions placed through RJFS. The Adviser, subject to its best execution obligations, may trade outside of RJFS. In the selection of broker-dealers, the Adviser may consider all relevant factors, including the commission rate, the value of research provided, execution capability, speed, efficiency, confidentiality, familiarity with potential purchasers and sellers, financial responsibility, responsiveness, and other relevant factors. The Adviser has retained and will compensate RJFS and or RJA to provide various administrative services which include determining the fair market value of assets held in the account at least quarterly and producing a brokerage statement and performance reporting for client detailing account assets, account transactions, receipt and disbursement of funds, interest and dividends received, and account gain or loss by security as well as for the total account.

Transaction-Based Fee Accounts

Fees for the account include all execution charges except (1) certain dealer mark-ups and odd-lot differentials, transfer taxes, exchange fees and any other charges imposed by law with regard to transactions in the account, (2) offering concessions and related fees for purchases of money market mutual funds and other public offerings of securities as more fully disclosed in the prospectus; and (3) certain legal transfer fees. Client may also incur charges for other account services provided by RJFS, through RJA, not directly related to the execution and clearing of transactions including, but not limited to, IRA custodial fees, safekeeping fees, interest charges on margin loans, and fees for transfers of securities. In no event will RJFS be obligated to execute any transaction that would violate state or federal law or regulation of any self-regulatory organization of which RJFS is a member. Further, RJFS may designate certain investments that cannot be held in a Client's account.

Except as otherwise provided, RJFS's responsibility is limited to executing transactions pursuant to the direction of the Adviser. RJFS has not assisted in the selection of the Adviser and the client has the sole and exclusive responsibility for the selection of the Adviser. The client agrees that the Adviser is solely responsible for the management of client's portfolio. Client has authorized the Adviser as its agent and attorney-in-fact to buy and sell securities or other investments for the account, or engage other investment advisers, including those affiliated with RJFS, and that any engagement is solely at the direction of Adviser as the Adviser deems appropriate. The Adviser has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless RJFS, RJA, and their officers, directors, associates, agents, employees, and affiliates from any losses, costs (including attorneys' fees), indebtedness, and liabilities arising from actions directed by client or the Adviser. This indemnification agreement is a continuing one and shall remain in full force and effect until terminated in writing.

Asset-Based Fee Accounts

Fees for a client's account include all execution charges, but may exclude as applicable the following fees: (1) certain dealer mark-ups and odd-lot differentials, transfer taxes, exchange fees and any other charges imposed by law with regard to transactions in the account, (2) offering concessions and related fees for purchases of money market mutual funds and other public offerings of securities as more fully disclosed in the prospectus; and (3) certain legal transfer fees.

Item 1.D

Adviser will emphasize continuous and regular account supervision on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis. Adviser may create a portfolio, consisting of individual stocks or bonds; exchange traded funds, mutual funds and other securities. Our investment strategy will be tailored to the individual needs of the Client. Each portfolio will be initially designed to meet a particular investment goal, which Adviser has determined to be suitable to the Client's circumstances. Once the appropriate portfolio has been determined, Adviser will review the portfolio at least quarterly and if necessary, rebalance the portfolio based upon the Client's individual needs, stated goals and objectives. However, each Client will have the opportunity to place reasonable restrictions on the types of investments to be held in the portfolio.

Wrap Account Annual Advisory Fee

Adviser's annual fee for investment management services provided under this Agreement shall be based on the market value of the assets under management and be calculated as follows:

Annual Advisory Fee

Assets Under Management	Annual Client Fee
$0 - $500,000	3.00 %
$500,001 - $1,000,000	2.20 %
$1,000,001 - $2,000,000	1.90 %
$2,000,001 - $9,999,999	1.70 %

These annual fees shall be negotiable in certain cases and be pro-rated and paid in advance on a quarterly basis. No increase in the annual fee shall be effective without prior written notification to the Client. In the event that the Client terminates Adviser's services before the end of a calendar quarter, Client shall be assessed a pro-rata fee based on the number of days the Client's account was managed by Adviser. It is the client's responsibility to verify the accuracy of the fee calculation. The custodian will not determine whether the fee is properly calculated.

Unless the Client requests direct billing, fees will be automatically deducted from the account. Clients will be provided with a quarterly statement reflecting deduction of the advisory fee.

Either party may terminate the agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party. Full refunds will only be made in cases where cancellation occurs within five (5) business days of signing the Adviser's investment advisory agreement. After five (5) business days, clients will receive pro-rata refunds, which take into account work completed by the Adviser on behalf of the client. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client. Refunds will be given on a pro-rata basis. If in any quarter client withdraws less than $5,000 at a time from client account, no prorated refund of advisory fee will be offered. Client withdraws of more than $5000 at a time will be offered a prorated refund.

Since this a wrap fee account, the Client will not incur transaction charges imposed by unaffiliated third parties. The Client may pay custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund, index fund, or exchange traded fund which shall be disclosed in the fund's prospectus (i.e., fund management fees and other fund expenses), wire transfer fees and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions.

Further details about the wrap fees charged by Adviser for the Program accounts may be found in Schedule H of this Form ADV.

Adviser believes that its annual fee is reasonable in relation to the advisory services provided, and the fees charged by other investment advisers offering similar services. However, lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources.

Adviser will adhere to the SEC Staff No-Action Letter, SMC Capital, Inc. in the event that orders are aggregated.

Additional Information Concerning Fees

Adviser may distribute publications or newsletters to clients which will be provided at no charge.

In certain circumstances, advisory fees and account minimums may be negotiable based upon prior relationships as well as related account holdings. The fees charged are calculated as described above and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds of an advisory Client.

All fees paid to Adviser for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. Such fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses and a possible distribution fee. If the fund also imposes sales charges, a Client may pay an initial or deferred sales charge.

A Client could invest in a mutual fund directly, without the services of Adviser. In that case, the Client would not receive the services provided by Adviser which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which mutual fund or funds are most appropriate to the Client's financial condition and objectives. Accordingly, the Clients should review both the fees charged by the funds and the Item 11.A, B	Review of Accounts Mark Jachec, President and Chief Compliance Officer, reviews all accounts at least on a quarterly basis. More frequent reviews may be necessary due to the client's individual circumstances, economic conditions, general factors affecting the stock market, etc. Clients will receive transaction confirmations and quarterly statements from their account custodians. Collectively, these reports will list client's account holdings, transactions and fees paid to Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc.

Item 12.A,B	Investment or Brokerage Discretion LWA may execute or recommend the broker through which the clients execute their securities transactions. The choice of which firm to execute trades through will be determined on the financial strength of the broker or dealer, its reputation, pricing and ability to execute trades in a timely manner. In many cases, securities transactions will be executed through RJFS. It is important to note that RJFS does not maintain a supervisory relationship with respect to LWA or its representatives. RJFS and LWA are separately registered and independently controlled entities. LWA does not maintain custody of client assets. In all managed account cases, the custodian sends quarterly statements to LWA's clients showing all disbursements for the custodian account including the amount of the advisory fees. Clients provide written authorization permitting LWA to be paid directly for their accounts held by the custodian or trustee. Clients in need of brokerage and custodial services may have RJFS recommended to them. As part of the RJFS program, LWA receives benefits that it would not receive if it did not offer investment advice (see the disclosure under Item 13[A] of this Schedule F narrative).
Item 13.A,B	Additional Compensation LWA may receive research and execution related services from the parties mentioned in Item 12B of Schedule F to assist LWA in managing its accounts. These services and products would include financial publications, pricing information and other products or services. Such research and execution related services are offered to all investment advisers who utilize these firms. However, the commissions charged by these parties may be higher than those charged by a broker who does not provide the aforementioned research and execution related services.

Item 13.A,B

While these individuals endeavor at all times to put the interest of the clients first as part of LWA's fiduciary duty, clients should be aware that the receipt of additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest and may affect the judgment of these individuals when making recommendations.

While there is no direct linkage between the investment advice given and participation in the RJFS program, economic benefits are received by LWA which may include bundled duplicate statement, access to a trading desk service provided by RJFS; access to block trading which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions and then allocate the appropriate shares to client accounts; ability to have investment advisory fees deducted directly from client accounts; access, for a fee, to an electronic communication network for client order entry and account information; receipt of compliance publications; and access to mutual funds which generally require significantly high minimum initial investments or are generally available only to institutional investors.

LWA may recommend that clients establish accounts with RJFS or other previously described firms to maintain custody of clients' assets to effect trades for their accounts. RJFS provides LWA with access to their institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to RJFS retail investors. These services are generally available to independent investment advisors on an unsolicited basis, at no charge to them so long as the clients' assets are maintained in accounts at RJFS. RJFS's services include brokerage custody, research and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment.

For LWA's Client accounts maintained in their custody, RJFS may charge separately for custody on some accounts and may be compensated by account holders through commissions or other transaction-related fees or securities trades that are executed through RJFS or that settle into RJFS accounts.

RJFS also makes available to LWA other products and services that may benefit LWA but which may not benefit its clients. These types of services will help LWA in managing and administering client accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to client account data (i.e. trade confirmations and account statements); facilitate trade executions; provide research, pricing information, and other market data; facilitate in the payment of LWA's fees from its clients' accounts; and assist with back-office functions, record-keeping, and client reporting. Many of these services may be used to service all or a substantial number of LWA's accounts. LWA does not maintain custody of client assets.

Adviser may pay referral fees (non-commission) to independent solicitors (non-registered representatives) for the referral of their Clients to the Adviser. Such referral fee represents a share of Adviser's asset-based investment Advisory fee.

To administer, manage, service, and provide related services for Client accounts, it is necessary for Adviser to provide access to customer information within the Adviser and to nonaffiliated companies with whom Adviser has entered into agreements with. To provide the utmost service, Adviser may disclose the information below regarding customers and former customers, as necessary, to companies to perform certain services on Adviser's behalf.

- Information Adviser receives from the Client on applications (name, social security number, address, assets, etc.);
- Information about the Client's transactions with Adviser or others (account information, payment history, parties to transactions, etc.);
- Information concerning investment advisory account transactions;
- Information about a Client's financial products and services with Adviser.

How We Protect Information

Adviser maintains the confidentiality of the information that its Clients provide. Adviser protects Client's information by meeting all laws setting forth procedures for providing physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information. All people who work for the Adviser are trained to handle Client's information properly in order to maintain its security. Adviser also restricts access to personal information about Clients to only those employees who need such information to provide service(s) to the Client. Adviser maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with industry standards to guard Clients' personal information. Adviser does not sell or market Clients' or prospective Clients' personal information to third parties. Adviser does not disclose any information about its Clients or former Clients to anyone, except as needed by our service providers (e.g., broker, accountants, attorneys and auditors) or as required by law.

Changes in Privacy Policy

Adviser may modify the policy at any time. Adviser will notify its current Clients of any modifications.

(for sponsors of wrap fee programs)

Name of wrap fee program or programs described in attached brochure:

Prestige Wrap Fee Program

1. Applicability of Schedule. This Schedule must be completed by applicants that are compensated under a wrap fee program for sponsoring, organizing, or administering the program, or for selecting, or providing advice to clients regarding the selection of, other investment advisers in the program ("sponsors"). A wrap fee program is any program under which a specified fee or fees not based directly upon transactions in a client's account is charged for investment advisory services (which may include portfolio management or advice concerning the selection of other investment advisers) and execution of client transactions.

2. Use of Schedule. This Schedule sets forth the information the sponsor must include in the wrap fee brochure it is required to deliver or offer to deliver to clients and prospective clients of its wrap fee programs under Rule 204-3 under the federal Advisers Act and similar rules of the jurisdictions. The wrap fee brochure prepared in response to this Schedule must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions as part of Form ADV by completing the identifying information on this Schedule and attaching the brochure. Brochures should be prepared separately, not on copies of this Schedule. Any wrap fee brochure filed with the Commission as part of an amendment to Form ADV shall contain in the upper right hand corner of the cover page the sponsor's registration number (801- ...).

3. General Contents of Brochure. Unlike Parts I and II of this form, this Schedule is not organized in "check-the-box" format. These instructions, including the requests for information in Item 7 below, should not be repeated in the brochure. Rather, this Schedule describes minimum disclosures that must be made in the brochure to satisfy the sponsor's duty to disclose all material facts about the sponsor and its wrap fee programs. Nothing in this Schedule relieves the sponsor from any obligation under any provision of the federal Advisers Act or rules thereunder, or other federal or state law to disclose information to its advisory clients or prospective advisory clients not specifically required by this Schedule.

4. Multiple Sponsors. If two or more persons fall within the definition of "sponsor" in Item 1 above for a single wrap fee program, only one such sponsor need complete the Schedule. The sponsors may choose among themselves the sponsor that will complete the Schedule.

5. Omission of Inapplicable Information. Any information not specifically required by this Schedule that is included in the brochure should be applicable to clients and prospective clients of the sponsor's wrap fee programs. If the sponsor is required to complete this Schedule with respect to more than one wrap fee program, the sponsor may omit from the brochure furnished to clients and prospective clients of any wrap fee program or programs information required by this Schedule that is not applicable to clients or prospective clients of that wrap fee program or programs. If a sponsor of more than one wrap fee program prepares separate wrap fee brochures for clients of different programs, each brochure prepared must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions attached to a separate copy of this Schedule. Each such brochure must state that the sponsor sponsors other wrap fee programs and state how brochures for those programs may be obtained.

6. Updating. Sponsors are required to file an amendment to the brochure promptly after any information in the brochure becomes materially inaccurate. Amendments may be made by use of a "sticker," i.e., a supplement affixed to the brochure that indicates what information is being added or updated and states the new or revised information, as long as the resulting brochure is readable. Stickers should be dated and should be incorporated into the text of the brochure when the brochure itself is revised.

7. Contents of Brochure. Include in the brochure prepared in response to this Schedule:

- (a) on the cover page, the sponsor's name, address, telephone number, and the following legend in bold type or some other prominent fashion:

This brochure provides clients with information about Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc., and the Prestige Wrap Fee Program, that should be considered before becoming a client of the Prestige Wrap Fee Program. This information has not been approved or verified by any governmental authority.

- (b) a table of contents reflecting the subject headings in the sponsor's brochure;
- (c) the amount of the wrap fee charged for each program or, if fees vary according to a schedule established by the sponsor, a table setting forth the fee schedule, whether such fees are negotiable, the portion of the total fee (or the range of such amounts) paid to persons providing advice to clients regarding the purchase or sale of specific securities under the program ("portfolio managers"), and the services provided under each program (including the types of portfolio management services);

- (d) a statement that the program may cost the client more or less than purchasing such services separately and a statement of the factors that bear upon the relative cost of the program (e.g., the cost of the services if provided separately and the trading activity in the client's account);
- (e) if applicable, a statement that the person recommending the program to the client receives compensation as a result of the client's participation in the program, that the amount of this compensation may be more than what the person would receive if the client participated in other programs of the sponsor or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage, and other services, and that the person may therefore have a financial incentive to recommend the wrap fee program over other programs or services;
- (f) a description of the nature of any fees that the client may pay in addition to the wrap fee and the circumstances under which these fees may be paid (including, if applicable, mutual fund expenses and mark-ups, mark-downs or spreads paid to market makers from whom securities were obtained by the wrap fee broker);
- (g) how the program's portfolio managers are selected and reviewed, the basis upon which portfolio managers are recommended or chosen for particular clients, and the circumstances under which the sponsor will replace or recommend the replacement of the portfolio manager;
- (h)
 - (1) if applicable, a statement to the effect that portfolio manager performance information is not reviewed by the sponsor or a third party and/or that performance information is not calculated on a uniform and consistent basis,
 - (2) if performance information is reviewed to determine its accuracy, the name of the party who review the information and a brief description of the nature of the review,
 - (3) a reference to any standards (i.e., industry standards or standards used solely by the sponsor) under which performance information may be calculated;
- (i) a description of the information about the client that is communicated by the sponsor to the client's portfolio manager, and how often or under what circumstances the sponsor provides updated information about the client to the portfolio manager.
- (j) any restrictions on the ability of clients to contact and consult with portfolio managers;
- (k) in narrative text, the information required by Items 7 and 8 of Part II of this form, and as applicable to clients of the wrap fee program, the information required by Items 2, 5, 6, 9A and C, 10, 11, 13 and 14 of Part II;
- (l) if any practice or relationship disclosed in response to Item 7, 8, 9A, 9C and 13 of Part II presents a conflict between the interests of the sponsor and those of its clients, explain the nature of any such conflict of interest; and
- (m) if the sponsor or its divisions or employees covered under the same investment adviser registration as the sponsor act as portfolio managers for a wrap fee program described in the brochure, a brief, general description of the investments and investment strategies utilized by those portfolio managers.

8. Organization and Cross References. Except for the cover page requirements in Item 7(a) above, information contained in the brochure need not follow the order of the items listed in Item 7. However, the brochure should not be organized in such a manner that important information called for by the form is obscured.

Set forth below the pages(s) of the brochure on which the various disclosures required by Item 7 are provided.

Prestige Wrap Fee Program Brochure

Sponsored by:
Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc.
5850 Canoga Ave., Suite 314
Woodland Hills, CA 91367
(805) 823-0990

This brochure provides clients with information about Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc., and the Prestige Wrap Fee Program that should be considered before becoming a client of the Prestige Wrap Fee Program. This information has not been approved or verified by any governmental authority.

Program Description

Prestige Wrap Fee Program (“Wrap Program”) has been designed to connect Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc.’s clients with professional in-house money managers and investment vehicles suitable for their financial circumstances and investment objectives. Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc. (“Adviser”) is the sponsor of the Wrap Program. Mark Jachec is currently the sole investment advisory representative of the Adviser and the Wrap Program’s sole portfolio manager.

Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc. Plan

Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc. is a registered investment adviser which offers investment management services to individuals, high net worth individuals, corporations and business entities. Adviser, depending upon the engagement, offers its services on a fee basis which primarily include percentage of assets based fees. Prior to engaging Adviser to provide any of the foregoing investment advisory services, the client will be required to enter into one or more written agreements with Adviser setting forth the terms and conditions under which Adviser shall render its services (collectively the “Agreement”).

Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc. Services

Prestige Wrap Fee Program Accounts. The Adviser’s Wrap Fee Program Accounts will be managed by the Adviser on a non-discretionary or discretionary basis. The Adviser will review the Wrap Assets on a regular and continuous basis and make recommendations as the Adviser deems appropriate. Adviser will work with its clients to identify their investment goals and objectives as well as risk tolerance in order to create an initial portfolio allocation designed to complement their clients’ educational, home ownership and retirement funding goals and objectives, etc. Adviser may create a portfolio, consisting of individual stocks, bonds or other securities.

In cases where the Client’s account is managed on a non-discretionary basis, the Adviser will not implement any recommendation without the client’s prior approval. The Adviser will act as the Client’s agent to implement such recommendation in accordance with Client’s instructions. The client agrees to review trade confirmations received from the client’s custodian and notify the Adviser immediately of any errors.

There will be no restrictions on the ability of clients to contact and consult with portfolio managers.

Mark Jachec will review all accounts at least on a quarterly basis. More frequent reviews may be necessary due to the client’s individual circumstances, economic conditions, general factors affecting the stock market, etc.

Clients will receive transaction confirmations and quarterly statements from their account custodians. Collectively, these reports will list client’s account holdings, transactions and fees paid to the Adviser.

Brokerage and Custody of Program Accounts

Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc. will direct transactions for Wrap Fee Accounts to such broker-dealers as they may select, unless the client gives specific directions otherwise. In directing or recommending brokerage, the Adviser seeks “best execution” for client accounts, which is a combination of a number of judgmental factors including price, execution quality and client needs. Recognizing the value of these judgmental factors, brokers selected or recommended may charge commissions that are higher than the lowest commissions that might otherwise be available.

As stated earlier, Adviser may execute or recommend that clients execute their securities transactions through various firms. The choice of which firm to execute trades through will be determined on the financial strength of the broker or dealer, its reputation, pricing and ability to execute trades in a timely manner. Securities transactions will be executed through various brokerage firms and their costs are exclusive of and in addition to the Registrant's fee.

Brokerage firms may be paid certain advisory fees, product management fees (on annuities and securities such as mutual funds), administrative fees and/or transaction charges for its role with respect to Adviser's accounts. Clients may not be charged these fees, instead Adviser may be assessed any costs for executing transactions. It is important to note that the aforementioned brokerage firms do not maintain a supervisory relationship with respect to Adviser or its representatives.

Adviser does not maintain custody of client assets. In all managed account cases, the custodian sends quarterly statements to Adviser's clients showing all disbursements for the custodian account including the amount of the advisory fees. Clients provide written authorization permitting Adviser to be paid directly for their accounts held by the custodian or trustee.

Program Fees

The annual Fee payable to Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc. for its Wrap Fee Program is as follows:

Annual Advisory Fee

Assets Under Management	Client Fee
$0 - $500,000	3.00 %
$500,001 - $1,000,000	2.20 %
$1,000,001 - $2,000,000	1.90 %
$2,000,001 - $9,999,999	1.70 %

What services are covered by the Program Fees? The Client will not incur transaction charges. The Client may pay custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund, index fund, or exchange traded fund which shall be disclosed in the fund's prospectus (i.e., fund management fees and other fund expenses), wire transfer fees and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions.

What services are not covered by the Program Fees? The Program Fees do not cover brokerage charges to the extent that trades are conducted through brokers or dealers other than what Adviser chooses for its client. The Program Fees do not cover custody charges if clients are custodied anywhere other than the custodian in charge of the client's account. Lastly, the Program Fees do not include expenses of mutual funds that may be included in the client's portfolio.

How are fees charged? These annual fees shall be negotiable in certain cases and be pro-rated and paid in advance on a quarterly basis. No increase in the annual fee shall be effective without prior written notification to the Client. Clients are responsible for custodial fees and transaction costs. In the event that the Client terminates Adviser's services before the end of a calendar quarter, Client shall be assessed a pro-rata fee based on the number of days the Client's account was managed by Adviser.

Unless the Client requests direct billing, fees will be automatically deducted from the account. Clients will be provided with a quarterly statement reflecting deduction of the advisory fee.

Is there a minimum fee and are fees negotiable? There is no minimum fee and fees are negotiable in certain circumstances.

Additional Information about Program Fees. Either party may terminate the agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party. Full refunds will only be made in cases where cancellation occurs within five (5) business days of signing the Adviser's investment advisory agreement. After five (5) business days, clients will receive pro-rata refunds, which take into account work completed by the Adviser on behalf of the client. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client. Refunds will be given on a pro-rata basis.

No portion of Adviser's compensation shall be based on capital gains or capital appreciation of the Assets except as provided for under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

Adviser will adhere to the SEC Staff No-Action Letter, SMC Capital, Inc. in the event that orders are aggregated.

The wrap program may cost the client more or less than purchasing such services separately and will depend on the trading activity in the client's account. The cost of non-wrapped investment advisory services is generally 10% lower than investment advisory services provided under the wrap program.

In addition, all investment advisory representatives must have obtained all required licenses or a professional designation such as the CFP®.

Other Financial Industry Activities or Affiliations

Mr. Jachec, in his individual capacity, is licensed in insurance. Hence, he will be able to receive separate, yet customary commission compensation resulting from implementing product transactions on behalf of advisory clients.

Review of Accounts

Mr. Jachec, President and Chief Compliance Officer, reviews all accounts at least on a quarterly basis. More frequent reviews may be necessary due to the client's individual circumstances, economic conditions, general factors affecting the stock market, etc.

Mr. Jachec's performance information is not reviewed by the sponsor or a third party.

Clients will receive transaction confirmations and quarterly statements from their account custodians. Collectively, these reports will list client's account holdings, transactions and fees paid to the Adviser.

Additional Compensation

Adviser may receive research and execution related services from the parties mentioned in Item 12B of Schedule F to assist Lifeline Wealth Advisors, Inc. in managing its accounts. These services and products would include financial publications, pricing information and other products or services. Such research and execution related services are offered to all investment advisers who utilize these firms. However, the commissions charged by these parties may be higher than those charged by a broker who does not provide the aforementioned research and execution related services.

While these individuals endeavor at all times to put the interest of the clients first as part of Adviser's fiduciary duty, clients should be aware that the receipt of additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest and may affect the judgment of these individuals when making recommendations.

While there is no direct linkage between the investment advice given and participation in the RJFS program, economic benefits are received by Adviser which may include bundled duplicate statement, access to a trading desk service provided by RJFS; access to block trading which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions and then allocate the appropriate shares to client accounts; ability to have investment advisory fees deducted directly from client accounts; access, for a fee, to an electronic communication network for client order entry and account information; receipt of compliance publications; and access to mutual funds which generally require significantly high minimum initial investments or are generally available only to institutional investors.

Adviser may recommend that clients establish accounts with RJFS or other previously described firms to maintain custody of clients' assets to effect trades for their accounts. RJFS provides Adviser with access to their institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to RJFS retail investors. These services are generally available to independent investment advisors on an unsolicited basis, at no charge to them so long as the clients' assets are maintained in accounts at RJFS. RJFS's services include brokerage custody, research and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment.

For Adviser's Client accounts maintained in their custody, RJFS may charge separately for custody and may be compensated by account holders through commissions or other transaction-related fees or securities trades that are executed through RJFS or that settle into RJFS accounts.

RJFS also makes available to Adviser other products and services that may benefit Adviser but which may not benefit its clients. These types of services will help Adviser in managing and administering client accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to client account data (i.e. trade confirmations and account statements); facilitate trade executions; provide research, pricing information, and other market data; facilitate in the payment of Adviser's fees from its clients' accounts; and assist with back-office functions, record-keeping, and client reporting. Many of these services may be used to service all or a substantial number of Adviser's accounts. Adviser does not maintain custody of client assets.
