Item 4 Other Business Activities

- A. Registered Representative of LPL Financial Corporation. Mr. Frawley is a registered representative of LPL Financial Corporation (“LPL”), an SEC Registered and FINRA member broker-dealer. Clients may choose to engage Mr. Frawley in his individual capacity as a registered representative of LPL, to implement investment recommendations on a commission basis.

 Mr. Frawley is also a Registered Principal with and securities offered through LPL Financial, Member of FINRA/SIPC. Investment advice is offered through Westside Investment Management, Inc., a Registered Investment Advisor and separate entity from LPL Financial.

1. Conflict of Interest. The recommendation by Mr. Frawley that a client purchase a securities commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client’s need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from Mr. Frawley. Clients are reminded that they may purchase investment products recommended by Registrant through other, non-affiliated broker dealers. The Registrant's Chief Compliance Officer, James M. Frawley, and Registered Principal/Managing Partner, David Todd Clark, remain available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

2. Commissions. In the event the client chooses to purchase investment products through LPL, brokerage commissions will be charged by LPL to effect securities transactions, a portion of which commissions shall be paid by LPL to Mr. Frawley. The brokerage commissions charged by LPL may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. In addition, LPL, as well as Mr. Frawley, relative to commission mutual fund purchases, may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 trailing commission compensation directly from the mutual fund company during the period that the client maintains the mutual fund investment. The securities commission business conducted by Mr. Frawley is separate and apart from Registrant's investment management services discussed in the Registrant's Brochure.

- B. Licensed Insurance Agent. Mr. Frawley, in his individual capacity, is a licensed insurance agent, and may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. Clients can engage Mr. Frawley to purchase insurance products on a commission basis. Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Mr. Frawley that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend insurance products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any insurance commission products from Mr. Frawley. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by Mr. Frawley through other, non-affiliated insurance agents. The Registrant's Chief Compliance Officer, James M. Frawley, and Registered Principal/Managing Partner, David Todd Clark, remain available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

None.

Item 6 Supervision

The Registrant provides investment advisory and supervisory services in accordance with the Registrant's policies and procedures manual. The primary purpose of the Registrant's Rule 206(4)-7 policies and procedures is to comply with the requirements of supervision requirements of Section 203(e)(6) of the Investment Adviser's Act ("Act"). The Registrant's Chief Compliance Officer, James M. Frawley, is primarily responsible for the implementation of the Registrant's policies and procedures and overseeing the activities of the Registrant's supervised persons. * Mr. James Frawley is supervised by Registered Principals, Cecilia Sibley and David Todd Clark.

Should an employee, independent contractor, investment adviser representative, or solicitor of the Registrant have any questions regarding the applicability/relevance of the Act, the Rules thereunder, any section thereof, or any section of the policies and procedures, he/she should address those questions with the Chief Compliance Officer and Westside Investment Management Inc's Compliance Registered Principals, Cecilia Sibley and David Todd Clark. Item 3 Disciplinary Information

None.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

- A. Registered Representative of LPL Financial Corporation. Mr. Cornish is a registered representative of LPL Financial Corporation (“LPL”), an SEC Registered and FINRA member broker-dealer. Clients may choose to engage Mr. Cornish in their individual capacity as a registered representative of LPL, to implement investment recommendations on a commission basis.
1. Conflict of Interest. The recommendation by Mr. Cornish that a client purchase a securities commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client’s need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from Mr. Cornish. Clients are reminded that they may purchase investment products recommended by Registrant through other, non-affiliated broker dealers. The Registrant’s Chief Compliance Officer, James M. Frawley, and Registered Principal/Managing Partner, David Todd Clark remain available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.
 2. Commissions. In the event the client chooses to purchase investment products through LPL, brokerage commissions will be charged by LPL to effect securities transactions, a portion of which commissions shall be paid by LPL to Mr. Cornish. The brokerage commissions charged by LPL may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. In addition, LPL, as well as Mr. Cornish, relative to commission mutual fund purchases, may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 trailing commission compensation directly from the mutual fund company during the period that the client maintains the mutual fund investment. The securities commission business conducted by Mr. Cornish is separate and apart from Registrant’s investment management services discussed in the Registrant’s Brochure.

- B. Licensed Insurance Agent. Mr. Cornish, in his individual capacity, is a licensed insurance agent, and may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. Clients can engage Mr. Cornish to purchase insurance products on a commission basis. Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Mr. Cornish that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend insurance products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any insurance commission products from Mr. Cornish. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by Mr. Cornish through other, non-affiliated insurance agents. The Registrant's Chief Compliance Officer, James M. Frawley, and Registered Principal/Managing Partner, David Todd Clark remain available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

None.

Item 6 Supervision
