If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Brian Batson, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.¹

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

- A. If Mr. Batson is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Mr. Batson is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.
1. If a relationship between the advisory business and Mr. Batson's other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, the SEC requires us to describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

¹ Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving Brian Batson to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of Mr. Batson to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

2. If Mr. Batson receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service (“trail”) fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation Mr. Batson receives. We must explain that this practice gives Mr. Batson an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

- B. If Mr. Batson is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Mr. Batson’s income or involve a substantial amount of Mr. Batson’s time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Mr. Batson’s time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Mr. Batson is licensed to sell insurance and may be compensated for recommending insurance products to advisory clients. Clients are never obligated to purchase insurance products from Mr. Batson.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Mr. Batson for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Mr. Batson’s regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 6 Supervision

We are required to explain how we supervise Mr. Batson, including how we monitor the advice Mr. Batson provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Mr. Batson’s advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Mr. Batson is the Chief Compliance Officer and as such has no internal supervision placed over him. He is however bound by our firm’s Code of Ethics.
