Item 3 Disciplinary Information

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Jill Herbert, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.¹

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

A. If Ms. Herbert is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Ms. Herbert is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant (“FCM”), commodity pool operator (“CPO”), commodity trading advisor (“CTA”), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If a relationship between the advisory business and Ms. Herbert’s other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, the SEC requires us to describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

2. If Ms. Herbert receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service (“trail”) fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation Ms. Herbert receives. We must explain that this practice gives Ms. Herbert an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

- B. If Ms. Herbert is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Ms. Herbert's income or involve a substantial amount of Ms. Herbert's time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Ms. Herbert's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Mr. Howard is Member of Howard Homes LLC through which real estate is purchased and managed. Mr. Howard does not solicit advisory clients to invest in his outside business activity.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Ms. Herbert for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Ms. Herbert's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 6 Supervision

We are required to explain how we supervise Ms. Herbert, including how we monitor the advice Ms. Herbert provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Ms. Herbert's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Mr. Batson, Chief Compliance Officer, supervises and monitors Ms. Herbert's activities on a regular basis to ensure compliance with our firm's Code of Ethics. Please contact Mr. Batson if you have any questions about Ms. Herbert's brochure supplement at 419-794-1088.
