Item 2 Educational Background & Business Experience

Ian Goldey filed his first patent at age 11. He has owned many start-ups before joining the securities industry in 1996. He has been a passionate investor since grade school investing competitions and his father was a banker. Although Mr. Goldey has no post-high school education, he worked for Smith Barney from 1996 to 2003, where he achieved and held their highest internal designation for managed money and discretionary management. He was head trader on $165 million in discretionary assets and the Portfolio Manager. He was then employed from 2003 to 2010 with UBS Financial Services Inc. where he obtained their highest internal designation for managed money and discretionary management, Senior Portfolio Manager. He has also been Lead Trader and Lead Manager on $79 million in discretionary accounts with supervision and committee input on a pool of $800 million.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information¹

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Mr. Goldey, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

- A. If Mr. Goldey is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Mr. Goldey is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant (“FCM”), commodity pool operator (“CPO”), commodity trading advisor (“CTA”), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

- B. If Mr. Goldey is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Mr. Goldey’s income or involve a substantial amount of Mr. Goldey’s time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Mr. Goldey's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Mr. Goldey, Managing Member of our firm, is a licensed insurance agent where he may recommend to his advisory clients a variety of insurance products for which he may offer commissionable insurance products to our clients where he may receive compensation. Clients are never required to engage with Mr. Goldey in this capacity.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Mr. Goldey for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Mr. Goldey's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 6 Supervision

We are required to explain how we supervise Mr. Goldey, including how we monitor the advice Mr. Goldey provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Mr. Goldey's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Brian Charles, Chief Compliance Officer of Goldey Capital, LLC, supervises and monitors Mr. Goldey's activities on a regular basis. Brian Charles reviews all outgoing correspondence for written financial advice that Mr. Goldey provides to his clients. Please contact Brian Charles if you have any questions about Mr. Goldey's brochure supplement at 818-835-9053.
