Item 4 Other Business Activities

- A. If Mr. Carlini is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Mr. Carlini is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant (“FCM”), commodity pool operator (“CPO”), commodity trading advisor (“CTA”), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

- B. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Mr. Carlini's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Mr. Carlini, as an Accountant, is actively engaged in the business of accounting which he provides to his clients. As a result of his accounting practice, Mr. Carlini sells accounting and tax products or services which are non-investment advice/services to his clients. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that he recommends the purchase of these products or services in which he receives the resulting compensation.

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Mr. Carlini for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Mr. Carlini's regular salary. We have nothing to disclose in this regard.
