Advisory Business

Northwest Administrators, Inc. (NWA) has been in business since 1958 providing administration services for employee benefit plans. As an additional service, NWA offers investment and cash management services to clients that have existing contracts with NWA for employee benefit plan administration services. NWA manages client assets strictly based on client adopted Investment Guidelines. NWA manages on a discretionary basis over $335 million in client assets (as of December 31, 2013).

Fees and Compensation

NWA charges fees based on a percentage of assets under management. The basic fee schedule is as follows:

- .20% of the first $50,000,000
- .10% on the balance above $50,000,000

NWA charges fixed fees for small clients. The fees are negotiable and are calculated and billed to the client monthly after services are provided. Clients may also be subject to custodian fees charged by the designated custodian.

Performance Based Fees

NWA does not charge performance based fees.

Types of Clients

NWA only provides investment and cash management services to clients that have existing contracts with NWA for employee benefit plan administration services.

Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

NWA's method of analysis includes fundamental and technical analysis of the US and world economies and financial markets using the following sources of information:

- Financial newspapers and magazines
- Research materials prepared by others
- Internet research

FORM ADV PART 2

NORTHWEST ADMINISTRATORS, INC.

MARCH 1, 2014

NWA manages client assets strictly based on client adopted Investment Guidelines which include both long-term and short-term purchases of the following types of investments:

- US Government and Agency Securities
- Corporate Debt Securities
- Money Market Funds
- Certificates of Deposit

Investing in securities involves risk which clients should be prepared to bear. NWA's investment management style emphasizes holding all securities until the date of maturity. Frequent trading of securities, which can adversely impact investment performance, is not a strategy used by NWA.

Disciplinary Information

NWA has not been subject to any legal or disciplinary actions in connection with providing investment management services.

Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

NWA's primary business is providing employee benefit plan administration services.

Code of Ethics

NWA's policy is intended to ensure ethical and honest behavior by all employees and must be signed by each employee. A copy is available upon request.

Brokerage Practices

NWA selects brokers based on strong financial health and best execution practices. Brokers are approved by NWA and reviewed regularly.

Review of Accounts

NWA provides reports to each client at least quarterly which are reviewed by the client's Board of Trustees. The report includes the following: economic viewpoint narrative; summary of the investment account activity; historical performance summary; summary of investment account; portfolio allocation; and a detailed listing of security holdings. The activities of NWA's Portfolio Manager are reviewed regularly by an NWA Senior Vice President experienced in investment management services.

Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Neither NWA nor any related person receives any economic benefit from a non-client in connection with providing investment or cash management services for a client. Neither NWA nor any related person, directly or indirectly, compensates any person for client referrals.

Custody

NWA does not have custody of client assets.

Investment Discretion

NWA has discretion over the type and amount of securities bought or sold as well as the broker or dealer to be used. All investment decisions are subject to the Investment Guidelines adopted by each client.

Voting Client Securities

NWA's investment and cash management services do not require proxy voting policies and procedures.

Financial Information

NWA's investment and cash management services are not subject to disclosure of financial information.
