Item 4 – Advisory Services

A. Firm Information

Genesis Wealth Advisors, LLC (“Genesis” or the “Advisor”), previously known as Genesis Capital Advisors, Inc., is a registered investment advisor located in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which is organized as a Limited Liability Company (LLC) under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Genesis Capital Advisors, Inc. was formed in 1994 and operated until June 2011 when the transition was made to the current firm, Genesis Wealth Advisors, LLC. Genesis is owned and operated by its President, Paul Duval as well as Managing Director Nicholas de Peyster and Vice President Ronald Aines. This Disclosure Brochure provides information regarding the qualifications, business practices, and the advisory services provided by Genesis.

B. Advisory Services Offered

Genesis offers investment advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals, corporations and other business entities, pension and profit sharing plans, and charitable organizations in Massachusetts and other states (each referred to as a “Client”).

Investment Management Services

Genesis provides customized investment advisory solutions for its Clients. This is achieved through continuous personal Client contact and interaction while providing discretionary investment management and consulting services. Genesis works with each Client to identify their investment goals and objectives as well as risk tolerance and financial situation in order to create a portfolio allocation. Genesis will then construct a portfolio, consisting of low-cost, diversified mutual funds and/or exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”) to achieve the Client’s investment goals. The Advisor may also utilize individual stocks and bonds to meet the needs of its Clients.

Genesis’s investment strategy is primarily long-term focused, but the Advisor may buy, sell or re-allocate positions that have been held less than one year to meet the objectives of the Client or due to market conditions. Genesis will construct, implement and monitor the portfolio to ensure it meets the goals, objectives, circumstances, and risk tolerance agreed to by the Client. Each Client will have the opportunity to place reasonable restrictions on the types of investments to be held in their respective portfolio, subject to acceptance by the Advisor.

Genesis evaluates and selects investments for inclusion in Client portfolios only after applying its internal due diligence process. Genesis may recommend, on occasion, redistributing investment allocations to diversify the portfolio. Genesis may recommend specific positions to increase sector or asset class weightings. The Advisor may recommend employing cash positions as a possible hedge against market movement, which may adversely affect the portfolio. Genesis may recommend selling positions for reasons that include, but are not limited to, harvesting capital gains or losses, business or sector risk exposure to a specific security or class of securities, overvaluation or overweighting of the position[s] in the portfolio, change in risk tolerance of Client, generating cash to meet Client needs, or any risk deemed unacceptable for the Client’s risk tolerance.

Prior to rendering investment advisory services, Genesis will ascertain, in conjunction with the Client, the Client’s financial situation, risk tolerance, and investment objective[s].

Genesis will provide investment advisory services and portfolio management services and will not provide securities custodial or other administrative services. At no time will Genesis accept or maintain custody of a Client’s funds or securities, except for authorized deduction of the Advisor’s fees. All Client assets will be managed within their designated brokerage account or pension account, pursuant to the Client investment advisory agreement.

Depending on the engagement with the Client, Genesis may either provide a more comprehensive investment management service based on an analysis of the Client’s financial condition and plans through its Genesis Wealth Advisory Service (“GWAS”), or a more basic engagement of managed portfolio allocation models through its Genesis Dynamic Portfolio Management (“GDPM”) service. Clients who receive the GWAS service may additionally utilize the GDPM service for an additional fee, as described below in Item 5.

Genesis Wealth Advisory Services ("GWAS")

Genesis provides continuous advice to a Client regarding the investment of Client funds based on the individual needs of the Client in the context of both limited and comprehensive financial planning. This advice may also include review of areas of corporate finance for foundations, endowments and corporations.

As an inclusive service of Clients engaged with Genesis for the GWAS service, Genesis will typically include a financial plan as a starting point to gain an understanding of the Client's overall financial condition and goals. Financial planning is a comprehensive evaluation of a Client's current and future financial state by using currently known variables to predict future cash flows, asset values and withdrawal plans. Through the financial planning process, all questions, information and analysis are considered, as they impact and are impacted by, the entire financial life situation of the Client.

Through personal discussions, in which financial goals and objectives based on a Client's particular circumstances are established, we develop a Client's personal investment policy and create and manage a portfolio based on that policy. During our data-gathering process, Genesis will determine the Client's individual objectives, time horizons, risk tolerance, and liquidity needs. As appropriate, Genesis also review and discuss a Client's prior investment history, as well as family composition and background.

Genesis will manage these advisory accounts on a discretionary basis. Account supervision is guided by the Client's stated objectives (i.e., maximum capital appreciation, growth, income, or growth and income), as well as tax considerations.

Clients may impose reasonable restrictions on investing in certain securities, types of securities, or industry sectors.

Investment recommendations provided by Genesis are not limited to any specific product or service offered by a broker-dealer or insurance company and will generally include advice regarding the following securities: exchange-listed securities, securities traded over-the-counter, exchange-traded funds (ETFs), real estate investment trusts (REITs), foreign issuers, warrants, corporate debt securities (other than commercial paper), commercial paper, certificates of deposit, municipal securities, variable life insurance, variable annuities, mutual fund shares, United States governmental securities, options contracts on securities, interests in partnerships investing in real estate, interests in partnerships investing in oil and gas interests, interests in partnerships investing in other sectors.

Because some types of investments involve certain additional degrees of risk, they will only be implemented or recommended when consistent with the Client's stated investment objectives, tolerance for risk, liquidity and suitability.

To ensure that the Advisor's initial determination of an appropriate portfolio remains suitable and that the account continues to be managed in a manner consistent with the Client's financial circumstances, Genesis will:

1. send quarterly written reminders to each Genesis Client requesting any updated information regarding changes in the Client's financial situation and investment objectives;
2. at least annually, contact each participating Client to determine whether there have been any changes in the Client's financial situation or investment objectives, and whether the Client wishes to impose investment restrictions or modify existing restrictions;
3. be reasonably available to consult with the Client; and
4. maintain Client suitability information in each Client's file.

The fee for GWAS is separate and distinct from any fee charged for GDPM (referenced below) or any financial planning fees, or any fee charged by a Client's unaffiliated advisor.

Genesis Dynamic Portfolio Management ("GDPM")

Genesis Dynamic Portfolio Management is the term that Genesis uses to describe the Advisor's entire investment management offering. GDPM is composed of several series of portfolios, each of which assumes a different approach to achieving a Client's investment goals. After discussion with the Client, Genesis will recommend a portfolio that Genesis believes best suits the Client's objectives, investment and risk tolerance. The Genesis management team trades primarily in global stocks, bonds, commodities and cash through the use of exchange traded funds (ETFs), indexed funds, active and passive mutual funds, as well as individual securities.

GDPM Absolute Momentum Series: The Absolute Momentum Series is based primarily on a variety of trend following approaches, which are intended to aid the management team in identifying and favoring asset classes that are in upwards trends and avoid assets that exhibit downward trends. Due to the nature of the management approach, high levels of a trend following component may create portfolios, which, at times, appear extremely unconventional and seem more aggressive in nature when compared to a traditional buy and hold approach. Clients should understand the unconventional nature and additional risks of these types of portfolios before adopting a "GDPM" series that incorporates a trend following component. Clients should understand that these types of investments are more aggressive and that performance and principal are not guaranteed and you may lose money on your investment.

GDPM Value Momentum Series: The Value Momentum series combines both trend following and value oriented strategic allocation in a single portfolio. The series is available across the entire risk spectrum ranging from more aggressive to more conservative. More aggressive portfolios will exhibit the most unconventional results when compared with traditional strategic allocation, however, even more conservative options will, at times, produce unconventional results.

GDPM Classic Series: The Classic Series is a traditional strategic asset allocation model that is available for a variety of investment objectives ranging from aggressive to conservative. The management team utilizes primarily index funds, low cost actively managed mutual funds, and ETF's to create strategic asset allocations across the risk spectrum. The GDPM Classic Series does not incorporate a trend following component.

GDPM Classic II Series: The Classic II Series is a traditional strategic asset allocation model that is available for a variety of investment objectives ranging from aggressive to conservative. The management team utilizes index funds, actively managed mutual funds, and ETF's to create strategic asset allocations across the risk spectrum. Classic II incorporates a significant allocation to both alternatives and tactical investments that does not exist in the basic Classic series.

GDPM Evolution Series: The Evolution Series is constructed based upon the "best ideas" of our investment team. It is only available for the more aggressive side of the risk spectrum. The Evolution Series is designed to complement a more traditional core portfolio. It is not well-suited to be a client's primary investment portfolio.

Quarterly performance reports are prepared and delivered to the GWAS (as described above) relationship manager, or the Client's primary investment advisor, as appropriate. Upon request of the relationship manager or investment adviser, a member of the GDPM team will be reasonably available to consult with the Client.

In order to participate in GDPM, Clients must also contract with Genesis for GWAS or be a contracted Client of a third party investment advisor (in which Clients will be charged separate and distinct fees by that advisor) which has contracted Genesis to provide "portfolio management only" to their Clients. The fee for GDPM is separate and distinct from any fee charged for GWAS, or any other financial planning fees. Please see Item 5 below for more information regarding fees for services provided by the Advisor.

Managed Account Programs

Genesis may recommend to Clients that all or a portion of their portfolio be implemented through its Manager of Managers Program by utilizing one or more unaffiliated money managers participating in a managed accounts program at the Client's selected custodian (the "Program Sponsor"). The Client will then enter into a program and investment advisory agreement with the Program Sponsor and the participating money manager[s]. The Advisor will assist and advise the Client in establishing investment objectives for the account, the selection of the money manager[s], and defining any restrictions on the account. Genesis will continue to provide oversight of the Client account and ongoing monitoring of the activities of the unaffiliated money managers.

These money managers will develop an investment strategy to meet those objectives by identifying appropriate investments and monitoring such investments. In consideration for such services, the Program Sponsor will charge a program fee that includes the investment advisory fee of the money managers, the administration of the program and trading, clearance and settlement costs. The Program Sponsor will add Genesis's investment advisory fee (described below in Item 5) and will deduct the overall fee from the Client account, generally at the start of each calendar quarter. The asset-based program fee is tiered and varies depending on the size of the account, the asset class of the underlying securities and the sub-advisor selected. The overall fee (including the Advisor's investment advisory fee) will not exceed 3% annually.

Genesis does not receive any compensation from these unaffiliated money managers or the Program Sponsor, other than Genesis's investment advisory fee (described in Item 5).

The Client, prior to entering into an agreement with a Program Sponsor, will be provided with the Program Sponsor's Form ADV Part 2 (or a brochure that makes the appropriate disclosures). In addition, Genesis and its Client will agree in writing that that selected Program Sponsor will manage the Client's account on a discretionary basis.

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

For Clients not engaging with Genesis for the GWAS service as described above, Genesis also offers separate financial planning and consulting services. Genesis will typically provide a variety of financial planning services to individuals and families, pursuant to a written financial planning or consulting agreement. Services are offered in several areas of a Client's financial situation, depending on their goals, objectives and financial situation.

Generally, such financial planning services will involve preparing a financial plan or rendering a financial consultation based on the Client's financial goals and objectives. This planning or consulting may encompass one or more areas of need, including, but not limited to investment planning, retirement planning, personal savings, education savings and other areas of a Client's financial situation.

A financial plan developed for or financial consultation rendered to the Client will usually include general recommendations for a course of activity or specific actions to be taken by the Client. For example, recommendations may be made that the Client start or revise their investment programs, commence or alter retirement savings, establish education savings and/or charitable giving programs. Genesis may also refer Clients to an accountant, attorney or other specialist, as appropriate for their unique situation. For certain financial planning engagements, the Advisor will provide a written summary of Client's financial situation, observations, and recommendations. For consulting or ad-hoc engagements, the Advisor may not provide a written summary. Plans or consultations are typically completed within six months of contract date, assuming all information and documents requested are provided promptly.

Financial planning and consulting recommendations may pose a potential conflict between the interests of the Advisor and the interests of the Client. For example, a recommendation to engage the Advisor for investment management services or to increase the level of investment assets with the Advisor would pose a conflict, as it would increase the advisory fees paid to the Advisor. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendations made by the Advisor or maintain an ongoing relationship with the Advisor. If the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations made by the Advisor, the Client is under no obligation to effect the transaction through the Advisor.

C. Client Account Management

Prior to engaging Genesis to provide investment advisory services, each Client is required to enter into an investment advisory agreement with the Advisor that defines the terms, conditions, authority and responsibilities of the Advisor and the Client. These services may include:

- Establishing an Investment Policy Statement – Genesis, in connection with the Client, may develop a statement that summarizes the Client's investment goals and objectives along with the broad strategy[ies] to be employed to meet the objectives.
- Asset Allocation – Genesis will develop a strategic asset allocation that is targeted to meet the investment objectives, time horizon, financial situation and tolerance for risk for each Client.
- Portfolio Construction – Genesis will develop a portfolio for the Client that is intended to meet the stated goals and objectives of the Client.
- Investment Management and Supervision – Genesis will provide investment management and ongoing oversight of the Client's portfolio and overall account.

D. Wrap Fee Programs

Genesis has certain Clients that have accounts managed by an outside advisor where the advisory fee includes related custodian and transaction fees. Genesis does not manage the program or open new accounts with the program. Investment management services are typically provided directly by Genesis.

E. Assets Under Management

As of December 31, 2014, the most recent date for which such calculations are provided pursuant to securities regulations, Genesis manages the following assets:

Assets Under Management	Assets
Discretionary Assets	$204,086,678
Non-Discretionary Assets	$618,797
Total	$204,705,475

Clients may request more current information at any time by contacting the Advisor.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

The following paragraphs detail the fee structure and compensation methodology for services provided by the Advisor. Each Client shall sign an investment advisory agreement that details the responsibilities of Genesis and the Client.

A. Fees for Advisory Services

Genesis Wealth Advisory Services ("GWAS")

Investment advisory fees for the Genesis Wealth Advisory Service ("GWAS") are paid quarterly in advance pursuant to the terms of the investment advisory agreement.

Investment advisory fees are based on the market value of assets under management at the end of each calendar quarter. Investment advisory fees range from 1.00% to 0.70% based on the following schedule:

Assets Under Management	Annual Rate
First $1,000,000	1.00%
$1,000,001 to $4,000,000	0.90%
$4,000,001 to $7,000,000	0.80%
$7,000,001 to $10,000,000	0.75%
$10,000,001 and up	0.70%

Investment advisory fees in the first quarter of service are prorated from the inception date of the account to the end of the first quarter. Fees may be negotiable at the discretion of the Advisor. The Client's fees will take into consideration the aggregate assets under management with the Advisor. All securities held in accounts managed by Genesis will be independently valued by the designated Custodian. Genesis will not have the authority or responsibility to value portfolio securities.

Genesis Dynamic Portfolio Management ("GDPM")

Investment advisory fees for GDPM are based upon a percentage of assets under management. A maximum fee of 0.60% applies, however Client fees generally range from 0.50% to 0.60%. Fees are charged quarterly in advance of the quarter in which services are provided.

The annualized fee for GDPM will be charged as a percentage of assets under management as follows:

Assets Under Management	Annual Rate
First $10,000,000	0.60%
$10,000,001 to $20,000,000	0.55%
$20,000,001 to $30,000,000	0.45%
$30,000,001 and up	0.40%

A minimum of $100,000 of assets under management is required for the GDPM service. This account size may be negotiable under certain circumstances. Genesis may group certain related Client accounts for the purposes of achieving the minimum account size and determining the annualized fee.

The investment advisory fee for GDPM is separate and distinct from any fee charged by Genesis for GWAS or any financial planning or consulting fees. However, for Clients engaged with the Advisor for the GWAS service, the additional GDPM fee for the Classic Series will be waived. In order to participate in GDPM, Clients must also contract for GWAS or be a contracted Client of a third-party investment advisory which has contracted Genesis to provide "portfolio management only" to their Clients.

Managed Accounts Programs

Fees for Clients participating in managed accounts programs will include Genesis's investment advisory fee above plus the Program Sponsors fee.

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

Genesis offers financial planning and consulting services on an hourly basis ranging from $200 to $400 per hour, which may be negotiable depending on the nature and complexity of each Client's circumstances. An estimate for total hours will be determined prior to establishing the advisory relationship.

Genesis also offers financial planning services on a fixed fee basis ranging from $500 to $5,000, which may be negotiable depending on the nature and complexity of each Client's circumstances. An estimate for total hours will be determined prior to establishing the advisory relationship. Genesis generally requires a payment of the fixed financial planning fee 50% in advance, and 50% upon completion and delivery of the plan. Please note that advance payment will never exceed $1,200 for work that will not be completed within six months.

The Advisor's fee is exclusive of, and in addition to, brokerage fees, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses, which may be incurred by the Client. However, the Advisor shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs. The hourly fees are determined after considering many factors, such as the level and scope of the services.

B. Fee Billing

Investment Management Services

Investment management services are delivered through the GWAS and GDPM services described in Item 4 above. Investment advisory fees will be automatically deducted from the Client Account by the Custodian. The Advisor shall send an invoice to the Custodian indicating the amount of the fees to be deducted from the Client account at the respective quarter end date. The amount due is calculated by calculating the quarter (number of days in the calendar quarter applying the quarterly rate (number of days in the calendar quarter divided by the number of days in the calendar year) to the total assets under management with Genesis at the end of each quarter. Clients will be provided with a statement, at least quarterly, from the Custodian reflecting deduction of the investment advisory fee. Upon request, the Advisor will provide the Client a report itemizing the fee, including the calculation period covered by the fee, the account value and the methodology used to calculate the fee. It is the responsibility of the Client to verify the accuracy of these fees as listed on the custodian's brokerage statement as the Custodian does not assume this responsibility. Clients provide written authorization permitting Genesis to be paid directly from their accounts held by the Custodian as part of the investment advisory agreement and separate account forms provided by the Custodian.

Managed Accounts Programs

Clients participating in a managed accounts program or referred to unaffiliated money managers or investment advisors will be billed in accordance to the investment advisory agreement with the respective Program Sponsor or advisor. Program Sponsors will add Genesis's investment advisory fee and deduct the overall fee from the Client's account[s]. In situations where a Client is referred to an unaffiliated investment advisor, the investment advisor will collect its fee and compensate Genesis out of its fee. Details are described in Item 14 below.

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

Financial planning and consulting fees are invoiced 50% upon execution of the financial planning and consulting agreement and 50% upon receipt of the agreed upon deliverable. The balance is due upon completion of the plan and will be based upon actual hours accrued, minus the retainer payment.

C. Other Fees and Expenses

Clients may incur certain fees or charges imposed by third parties, other than Genesis, in connection with investments made on behalf of the Client's account[s]. The Client is responsible for all custodial and securities execution fees charged by the custodian and executing broker-dealer. The investment advisory fee charged by Genesis is separate and distinct from these custodian and execution fees.

In addition, all fees paid to Genesis for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the expenses charged by mutual funds and exchange-traded funds to their shareholders, if applicable. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees and expenses will generally be used to pay management fees for the funds, other fund expenses, account administration (e.g., custody, brokerage and account reporting), and a possible distribution fee. A Client could invest in these products directly, without the services of Genesis, but would not receive the services provided by Genesis which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which products or services are most appropriate for each Client's financial situation and objectives. Accordingly, the Client should review both the fees charged by the fund[s] and the fees charged by Genesis to fully understand the total fees to be paid.

D. Advance Payment of Fees and Termination

Investment Management Services

Genesis is compensated for its services in advance of the quarter in which investment advisory services are rendered. Clients may request to terminate their investment advisory agreement with Genesis, in whole or in part, by providing advance written notice. The Client shall be responsible for investment advisory fees up to and including the effective date of termination. Upon termination, the Advisor will refund any unearned, prepaid investment advisory fees from the effective date of termination to the end of the quarter. The Client's investment advisory agreement with the Advisor is transferable upon written notice to the Client requesting a response if the Client does not approve of the transfer, typically referred to as a "negative consent" letter.

Managed Accounts Programs

In the event that a Client should wish to terminate their relationship with a managed accounts program or unaffiliated investment advisor, the terms for termination will be set forth in the respective agreements between the Client and those third parties. Genesis will assist the Client with the termination and transition as appropriate.

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

In the event that a Client should wish to cancel the financial planning agreement under which any plan is being created, the Client shall be billed for actual hours logged on the planning project times the agreed upon hourly rate. Any surplus in the Advisor's possession as the result of collecting a deposit at the time of signing the financial planning agreement will be returned to the Client within five (5) business days of cancellation.

Either party may terminate a planning or consulting agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party. In addition, the Client may terminate the agreement within five (5) days of signing the Advisor's financial planning or consulting agreement at no cost to the Client. After the five-day period, the Client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the Client. Refunds will be given on a pro rata basis.

E. Compensation for Sales of Securities

Genesis does not buy or sell securities and does not receive any compensation for securities transactions in any Client account, other than the investment advisory fees noted above.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Genesis does not charge performance-based fees for its investment advisory services. The fees charged by Genesis are as described in "Item 5 – Fees and Compensation" above and are not based upon the capital appreciation of the funds or securities held by any Client.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

Genesis provides investment advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals, corporations and other business entities, pension and profit sharing plans, and charitable organizations in Massachusetts and other states. The relative percentage of each type of Client is available on Genesis's Form ADV Part 1. These percentages will change over time.

Genesis generally requires a minimum account size of $100,000 to effectively implement its investment process. For certain GDPM allocation selections, starting account minimums may be higher due to restrictions on investment fund selections. Clients that select the GDPM Classic II Series or are otherwise engaged for the managed account programs will generally require a minimum account size of $250,000.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

A. Methods of Analysis

Genesis primarily employs fundamental analysis methods in developing investment strategies for its Clients. Research and analysis from Genesis is derived from numerous sources, including financial media companies, third-party research materials, Internet sources, and review of company activities, including annual reports, prospectuses, press releases and research prepared by others.

As noted above, Genesis generally employs a long-term investment strategy for its Clients, as consistent with their financial goals. Genesis will typically hold all or a portion of a security for more than a year, but may hold for shorter periods for the purpose of rebalancing a portfolio or meeting the cash needs of Clients. At times, Genesis may also buy and sell positions that are more short-term in nature, depending on the goals of the Client and/or the fundamentals of the security, sector or asset class.

B. Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves certain investment risks. Securities may fluctuate in value or lose value. Clients should be prepared to bear the potential risk of loss. Genesis will assist Clients in determining an appropriate strategy based on their tolerance for risk and other factors noted above. However, there is no guarantee that a Client will meet their investment goals.

Fundamental analysis utilizes economic and business indicators as investment selection criteria. These criteria are generally ratios and trends that may indicate the overall strength and financial viability of the entity being analyzed. Assets are deemed suitable if they meet certain criteria to indicate that they are a strong investment with a value discounted by the market. While this type of analysis helps the Advisor in evaluating a potential investment, it does not guarantee that the investment will increase in value. Assets meeting the investment criteria utilized in the fundamental analysis may lose value and may have negative investment performance. The Advisor monitors these economic indicators to determine if adjustments to strategic allocations are appropriate. More details on the Advisor's review process are included below in "Item 13 – Review of Accounts".

Each Client engagement will entail a review of the Client's investment goals, financial situation, time horizon, tolerance for risk and other factors to develop an appropriate strategy for managing a Client's account. Client participation in this process, including full and accurate disclosure of requested information, is essential for the analysis of a Client's account. The Advisor shall rely on the financial and other information provided by the Client or their designees without the duty or obligation to validate the accuracy and completeness of the provided information. It is the responsibility of the Client to inform the Advisor of any changes in financial condition, goals or other factors that may affect this analysis.

The risks associated with a particular strategy are provided to each Client in advance of investing Client accounts. The Advisor will work with each Client to determine their tolerance for risk as part of the portfolio construction process.

Genesis may use margin in Client accounts to manage the timing of purchases and sales, as appropriate. Genesis may employ options strategies to hedge or gain additional exposure to a particular asset class or sector. Genesis's investment strategy encompasses active trading in concentrated portfolios. Following are some of the risks associated with Options, Margin and Short-Sale transactions:

Options Contracts

Investments in options contracts have the risk of losing value in a relatively short period of time. Option contracts are leveraged instruments that allow the holder of a single contract to control many shares of an underlying stock. This leverage can compound gains or losses.

Alternative Investments (Limited Partnerships)

The performance of alternative investments (limited partnerships) can be volatile and may have limited liquidity. An investor could lose all or a portion of their investment. Such investments often have concentrated positions and investments that may carry higher risks. Client should only have a portion of their assets in these investments.

Concentrated Portfolios

Concentrated portfolios are an aggressive and highly volatile approach to trading and investing and should be viewed as complementary to a stable, highly predictable investment approach. Concentrated portfolios hold fewer different stocks than a diversified portfolio and are much more likely to experience sudden dramatic price swings. In addition, the rise or drop in price of any given holding in the portfolio is likely to have a larger impact on portfolio performance, than a more broadly diversified portfolio.

Frequent Trading

Frequent trading in securities can result in higher transaction costs in the Client's account[s]. For taxable accounts, frequent trading can also result in taxable transactions each year that would not be present in a buy-and-hold strategy. There are no guarantees that a frequent trading strategy will correctly time purchases and sales of any particular security.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities and other investments involve a risk of loss that each Client should understand and be willing to bear. Clients are reminded to discuss these risks with the Advisor.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, regulatory or disciplinary events involving Genesis or any of its management persons. Genesis and its advisory personnel value the trust you place in us. As we advise all Clients, we encourage you to perform the requisite due diligence on any advisor or service provider in which you partner. Our backgrounds are on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

To review the firm information contained in Form ADV Part 1, select the option for “Investment Adviser Search”, then selecting “Firm” and enter 158388 in the field labeled “Firm Name or CRD# or SEC#”. This will provide access to Form ADV Parts 1 and 2. Item 11 of the Form ADV Part 1 lists legal and disciplinary disclosure questions.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Genesis is required to disclose any relationship or arrangement that is material to its advisory business or to its Clients. Genesis has the following relationships to disclose:

Broker-Dealer Affiliation

Certain advisory persons may also be a registered representative of Clary Investment and Insurance Planning Corporation of North Easton, MA. Clary Investment is a registered broker-dealer (CRD No. 38654), member FINRA, SIPC. In their separate capacity as a registered representative, certain advisory persons will typically receive commissions for the implementation of recommendations for commissionable transactions. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendation provided by the advisory person. Neither the Advisor nor the advisory person will earn investment advisory fees in connection with any services implemented in their separate capacity as a registered representative where commissions are earned.

Generally, recommendations made by Genesis to its Clients are implemented in the role as an investment advisor representative, not in their role as a registered representative. As such, Clients of Genesis will only pay advisory fees as described above. In no circumstances will Genesis earn an advisory fee and a commission on the same investment. In the event that an advisory person earns a commission on an investment, the advisory fee will be waived by Genesis.

Insurance Agency Affiliations

Certain advisory persons may also be a licensed insurance professional. Implementing insurance recommendations is separate and apart from an advisory person's role with Genesis. As an insurance professional, the advisory person may receive customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This may cause a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by the advisory person or the Advisor.

Managed Accounts Programs

As noted in Item 4, the Advisor may select unaffiliated money managers to assist with the implementation of a Client's investment strategy. In such arrangements, the Advisor will receive a portion of the investment advisory fees collected by the unaffiliated money managers from the Client. The Advisor will not charge its own separate investment advisory fee for assets referred to an unaffiliated money manager, as it will be included with the fees collected by the unaffiliated money manager(s).

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

A. Code of Ethics

Genesis has implemented a Code of Ethics that defines our fiduciary commitment to each Client. This Code of Ethics applies to all persons associated with Genesis. The Code of Ethics was developed to provide general ethical guidelines and specific instructions regarding our duties to you, our Client. Genesis and its personnel owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client. It is the obligation of Genesis associates to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code, but also to the general principles that guide the Code. The Code of Ethics covers a range of topics that address employee ethics and conflicts of interest. To request a copy of our Code of Ethics, please contact us at 781-344-1023 or via email at info@genesisadvisors.com.

B. Personal Trading with Material Interest

Genesis allows our employees to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Genesis does not act as principal in any transactions. In addition, the Advisor does not act as the general partner of a fund, or advise an investment company. Genesis does not have a material interest in any securities traded in Client accounts.

C. Personal Trading in Same Securities as Clients

Genesis allows our employees to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Owning the same securities we recommend (purchase or sell) to you presents a potential conflict of interest that, as fiduciaries, we must disclose to you and mitigate through policies and procedures. As noted above, we have adopted, consistent with Section 204A of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, a Code of Ethics, which addresses insider trading (material non-public information controls) and personal securities reporting procedures. When trading for personal accounts, employees of Genesis may have a conflict of interest if trading in the same securities. The fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its Clients can potentially be violated if personal trades are made with more advantageous terms than Client trades, or by trading based on material non-public information. This risk is mitigated by Genesis requiring reporting of personal securities trades by its employees for review by the employee's supervisor or the CCO. We have also adopted written policies and procedures to detect the misuse of material, non-public information.

In addition the Code of Ethics governs Gifts and Entertainment given by and provided to the Advisor, outside employment activities of employees, Employee reporting, sanctions for violations of the Code of Ethics, and records retention requirements for various aspects of the Code of Ethics.

D. Personal Trading at Same Time as Client

While Genesis allows our employees to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, such trades are typically aggregated with Client orders or traded afterwards.

At no time will Genesis, or any associated person of Genesis, transact in any security to the detriment of any Client.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

A. Recommendation of Custodian[s]

Genesis does not have discretionary authority to select the broker-dealer/custodian for custodial and execution services or the administrator for defined contribution accounts. The Client will select the broker-dealer or custodian (herein the "custodian") to safeguard Client assets and authorize Genesis to direct trades to this custodian as agreed in the investment advisory agreement. Further, Genesis does not have the discretionary authority to negotiate commissions on behalf of our Clients on a trade-by-trade basis.

Where Genesis does not exercise discretion over the selection of the custodian, it may recommend the custodian[s] to Clients for execution and/or custodial services. Clients are not obligated to use the recommended custodian and will not incur any extra fee or cost associated with using a broker not recommended by Genesis.

Genesis may recommend a custodian based on criteria such as, but not limited to, reasonableness of commissions charged to the Client, services made available to the Client, and location of the custodian's offices. Genesis does not receive research services, other products, or compensation as a result of recommending a particular broker that may result in the Client paying higher commissions than those obtainable through other brokers.

Genesis typically recommends to Clients that they established their brokerage account[s] at Fidelity Institutional Wealth Services ("Fidelity"). Fidelity is an independent and unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealer and FINRA member. Fidelity offers independent investment Advisors services, which include custody of securities, trade execution, clearance and settlement of transactions. Genesis receives some benefits from the Fidelity through its participation in the program. Genesis considers a number of factors in selecting and/or recommending brokers and custodians for its Clients' accounts, including, but not limited to, execution capability, experience and financial stability, reputation and the quality of services provided. Genesis is not affiliated with, or related to, Fidelity.

Following are additional details regarding the brokerage practices of the Advisor:

1. Soft Dollars - Soft dollars are revenue programs offered by broker-dealers whereby an advisor enters into an agreement to place security trades with the broker in exchange for research and other services. Genesis does not participate in soft dollar programs sponsored or offered by any broker-dealer.

2. Brokerage Referrals - Genesis does not receive any compensation from any third party in connection with the recommendation for establishing a brokerage account.

3. Directed Brokerage - All Clients are serviced on a "directed brokerage basis", where Genesis will place trades within the established account[s] at the custodian designated by the Client. Further, all Client accounts are traded within their respective brokerage account[s]. The Advisor will not engage in any principal transactions (i.e., trade of any security from or to the Advisor's own account) or cross transactions with other Client accounts (i.e., purchase of a security into one Client account from another Client's account[s]). In selecting the custodian, Genesis will not be obligated to select competitive bids on securities transactions and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available transaction costs. These costs are determined by the designated custodian.

B. Aggregating and Allocating Trades

The primary objective in placing orders for the purchase and sale of securities for Client accounts is to obtain the most favorable net results taking into account such factors as 1) price, 2) size of order, 3) difficulty of execution, 4) confidentiality and 5) skill required of the broker. Genesis will execute its transactions through an unaffiliated broker-dealer selected by the Client. Genesis may aggregate orders in a block trade or trades when securities are purchased or sold through the same broker-dealer for multiple (discretionary) accounts. If a block trade cannot be executed in full at the same price or time, the securities actually purchased or sold by the close of each business day must be allocated in a manner that is consistent with the initial pre-allocation or other written statement. This must be done in a way that does not consistently advantage or disadvantage particular Client accounts.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

A. Frequency of Reviews

Accounts are monitored on a regular and continuous basis by the account's primary advisor and the Advisor's investment committee. Formal reviews are generally conducted at least annually or more or less frequently depending on the needs of the Client.

For our financial planning and consulting Clients, reviews may occur at different stages of the Client relationship depending on the nature and terms of the specific engagement. Formal reviews are not typically conducted for financial planning and consulting Clients unless additional arrangements are contracted.

B. Causes for Reviews

In addition to the investment monitoring noted in Item 13.A., each Client account shall be reviewed at least annually. Reviews may be conducted more or less frequently at the Client's request. Accounts may be reviewed as a result of major changes in economic conditions, known changes in the Client's financial situation, and/or large deposits or withdrawals in the Client's account. The Client is encouraged to notify Genesis if changes occur in the Client's personal financial situation that might adversely affect the Client's investment plan. Additional reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events.

C. Review Reports

The Client will receive brokerage statements no less than quarterly from the trustee or custodian. These brokerage statements are sent directly from the custodian to the Client. The Client may also establish electronic access to the custodian's website so that the Client may view these reports and their account activity. Client brokerage statements will include all positions, transactions and fees relating to the Client's account[s]. The Advisor may also provide Clients with periodic reports regarding their holdings, allocations, and performance. financial planning clients will receive a completed financial plan.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

A. Compensation Received by Genesis

Managed Accounts Programs

Genesis may refer Clients to unaffiliated money managers, as detailed in Item 4. In such arrangements, Genesis has a potential conflict of interest in that Genesis will receive their advisory fee from a portion of the unaffiliated money manager's fee collected from the Client, for the referral of the Client and the ongoing relationship management support provided by Genesis. To mitigate this conflict of interest under such arrangements, Genesis will not charge additional investment advisory fees on assets referred to an unaffiliated manager.

Participation in Institutional Advisor Platform

Genesis has established an institutional relationship with Fidelity Institutional Wealth Services ("Fidelity") to assist the Advisor in managing Client account[s]. Access to the Fidelity Institutional platform is provided at no charge to the Advisor. The Advisor receives access to software and related support without cost because the Advisor renders investment management services to Clients that maintain assets at Fidelity. The software and related systems support may benefit the Advisor, but not its Clients directly. In fulfilling its duties to its Clients, the Advisor endeavors at all times to put the interests of its Clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits from a custodian creates a potential conflict of interest since these benefits may influence the Advisor's recommendation of this custodian over one that does not furnish similar software, systems support, or services.

Additionally, the Advisor may receive the following benefits from Fidelity: receipt of duplicate Client confirmations and bundled duplicate statements; access to a trading desk that exclusively services its institutional participants; access to block trading which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts; and access to an electronic communication network for Client order entry and account information.

B. Client Referrals from Solicitors

Genesis does not engage paid solicitors for Client referrals.

Item 15 – Custody

Genesis does not accept or maintain custody of any Client accounts, except for the authorized deduction of the Advisor's fee. All Clients must place their assets with a qualified custodian. Clients are required to select their own custodian to retain their funds and securities and direct Genesis to utilize that custodian for the Client's security transactions. Genesis encourages Clients to review statements provided by the account custodian. For more information about custodians and brokerage practices, see "Item 12 - Brokerage Practices".

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

Genesis generally has discretion over the selection and amount of securities to be bought or sold in Client accounts without obtaining prior consent or approval from the Client. However, these purchases or sales may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines, or limitations previously set forth by the Client and agreed to by Genesis. Discretionary authority will only be authorized upon full disclosure to the Client. The granting of such authority will be evidenced by the Client's execution of an investment advisory agreement containing all applicable limitations to such authority. All discretionary trades made by Genesis will be in accordance with each Client's investment objectives and goals.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Genesis does not accept proxy-voting responsibility for any Client. Clients will receive proxy statements directly from the Custodian. The Advisor will assist in answering questions relating to proxies, however, the Client retains the sole responsibility for proxy decisions and voting.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Neither Genesis, nor its management persons, has any adverse financial situations that would reasonably impair the ability of Genesis to meet all obligations to its Clients. Neither Genesis, nor any of its management persons, has been subject to a bankruptcy or financial compromise. Genesis is not required to deliver a balance sheet along with this Disclosure Brochure, as the Advisor does not collect fees of $1,200 or more for services to be performed six months or more in advance.

Privacy Policy

Our Commitment to You

Genesis Wealth Advisors, LLC ("Genesis" or the "Advisor") is committed to safeguarding the use of personal information of our Clients (also referred to as "you" and "your") that we obtain as your Investment Advisor, as described here in our Privacy Policy ("Policy").

Our relationship with you is our most important asset. We understand that you have entrusted us with your private information, and we do everything that we can to maintain that trust. Genesis (also referred to as "we", "our" and "us") protects the security and confidentiality of the personal information we have and implements controls to ensure that such information is used for proper business purposes in connection with the management or servicing of our relationship with you.

Genesis does not sell your non-public personal information to anyone. Nor do we provide such information to others except for discrete and reasonable business purposes in connection with the servicing and management of our relationship with you, as discussed below.

Details of our approach to privacy and how your personal non-public information is collected and used are set forth in this Policy.

Why you need to know?

Registered Investment Advisors ("RIAs") must share some of your personal information in the course of servicing your account. Federal and State laws give you the right to limit some of this sharing and require RIAs to disclose how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.
