This Brochure provides information about the qualifications and business practices of Vantage Investment Advisors, LLC (“VIA”). If you have any questions about the contents of this Brochure, please contact us at (913) 647-9700. The information in this Brochure has not been approved or verified by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or by any state securities authority. VIA is a registered investment adviser. Registration of an Investment Adviser does not imply any level of skill or training. The oral and written communications of an Adviser provide you with information through which you determine to hire or retain an Adviser.

Additional information about VIA is also available via the SEC’s website www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. The SEC’s web site also provides information about any persons affiliated with VIA who are registered, or are required to be registered, as investment adviser representatives of VIA.

Item 2 – Material Changes

The material changes made since our Brochure dated June 1, 2015 include updating advisory services and assets under management (Item 4) and affiliations (Item 10).

Pursuant to SEC Rules, we will ensure that you receive a summary of any material changes to this and subsequent Brochures within 120 days of the close of our business' fiscal year. We may provide other ongoing disclosure information about material changes, as necessary.

We will provide you with a new Brochure, if requested based on changes or new information, at any time, without charge. Currently, our Brochure may be requested by contacting us at (913) 647-9700 or compliance@mariner-holdings.com.

Item 4 – Advisory Business

Vantage Investment Advisors, LLC (“VIA,” “the Firm,” “we,” or “us”) is an investment adviser registered with the SEC since December 2014. We are a limited liability company owned by Mariner Wealth Advisors, LLC and ART Investment Partners, LLC (formerly Vantage Investment Advisors, LLC) and organized under the laws of Delaware since November 2014. The managing member is Mariner Wealth Advisors, LLC. Mariner Holdings, LLC, an independent financial services firm, is the managing member of Mariner Wealth Advisors. The Bicknell Family Holding Company, LLC is the manager of Mariner Holdings. Martin Bicknell is the elected manager of the Bicknell Family Holding Company. Robert R. Thomas is the managing member of ART Investment Partners, LLC.

We provide personal financial planning, consulting, and investment management services to individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations and business entities. Depending upon the engagement, we offer our services on a fee basis based upon assets under management. We may provide our clients with a broad range of comprehensive financial planning and consulting services (which may include non-investment related matters).

We provide retirement plan asset management services on an ongoing basis. Generally, such asset management services consist of selecting, monitoring, removing, and/or replacing the investment options under the Plan, consistent with the objectives, written guidelines and/or investment objectives set forth in the written investment policy statement (“IPS”) accepted and adopted by the client.

We emphasize continuous and regular account supervision. Once the appropriate plan investments have been determined, we review the plan investments at least annually and if necessary, replace investments based upon the plan sponsor’s objectives, written guidelines and/or investment objectives.

All retirement plan asset management services shall be in compliance with the applicable state law(s) regulating retirement plan consulting services. This applies to client accounts that are retirement plan or other employee benefit plans (“Plan”) governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”). If the client accounts are part of the Plan, and we accept appointments to provide our services to such accounts, we acknowledge that we are a fiduciary within the meaning of section 3(38) of ERISA (but only with respect to the provision of services described in the Agreement).

Prior to engaging us, the client will be required to enter into one or more written agreements setting forth the terms, conditions, and objectives under which we shall render our services (the “Agreement”). Additionally, we may only implement our investment recommendations after a client has arranged for and furnished all information and authorization regarding accounts with appropriate financial institutions. Our clients are advised to promptly notify us if there are ever any changes in their financial situation or investment objectives or if they wish to impose any reasonable restrictions upon our advisory services.

Our total assets under management as of December 31, 2015 were $1,146,355,552.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

Our fees are subject to negotiation and all fee arrangements will comply with Section 205 of the Advisers Act. The specific manner in which our fees are charged is established in the Agreement. The time and manner of payment for these fees is also set forth in the Agreement.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICES

The client can determine to engage the Firm to provide discretionary and/or non-discretionary investment advisory services on a negotiable fee basis. The Firm's annual investment advisory fee is generally based upon a percentage (%) of the market value of the assets placed under the Firm's management (between negotiable and 1.50%) in accordance with the fee schedule annexed to the Investment Advisory Agreement between the Firm and the client.

PENSION CONSULTING

The Firm acts as a pension consultant for various pension plans. The Firm will receive a negotiable fee, generally based on a percentage (%) of the assets within the plan, from the client for pension consulting services. Prior to engaging the Firm for pension consulting services, the client will generally be required to enter into an Investment Advisory Agreement with the Firm setting forth the terms and conditions of the engagement, describing the scope of the services to be provided, the fee arrangement, and the portion of the fee that is due from the client prior to the Firm commencing services.

Clients may elect to have the Firm's advisory fees deducted from their custodial account. Both the Firm's Investment Advisory Agreement and the custodial/ clearing agreement may authorize the custodian to debit the account for the amount of the Firm's investment advisory fee and to directly remit that management fee to the Firm in compliance with regulatory procedures. In the limited event that the Firm bills the client directly, payment is due upon receipt of the Firm's invoice. The Firm shall deduct fees and/or bill clients quarterly in advance, based upon the market value of the assets on the last business day of the previous quarter.

As discussed below, unless the client directs otherwise or an individual client's circumstances require, the Firm shall generally recommend that Charles Schwab and Co., Inc. ("Schwab"), TD Ameritrade ("Ameritrade"), TIAA-CREF, ("TC") and/or Fidelity Investments ("Fidelity") serve as the broker-dealer/custodian for client investment management assets. Broker-dealers such as Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC charge brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees for effecting certain securities transactions (i.e. transaction fees are charged for certain no-load mutual funds, commissions are charged for individual equity and fixed income securities transactions). Clients will incur, in addition to the Firm's investment management fee, brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees, and, relative to all mutual fund and exchange traded fund purchases, charges imposed at the fund level (e.g. management fees and other fund expenses).

Tradeaway/Prime Broker Fees. Relative to its discretionary investment management services, when beneficial to the client, individual fixed income transactions may be effected through broker-dealers other than the account custodian, in which event, the client generally will incur both the fee (commission, mark-up/mark-down) charged by the executing broker-dealer and a separate “tradeaway” and/or prime broker fee charged by the account custodian (Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC).

The Firm's annual investment advisory fee shall be prorated and paid quarterly, in advance, based upon the market value of the assets on the last business day of the previous quarter. The Firm generally requires an annual account balance minimum of $25,000 for investment advisory services. The Firm, in its sole discretion, may charge a lesser investment management fee and/or reduce or waive its annual account minimum based upon certain criteria (i.e. anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, negotiations with client, etc.).

The Investment Advisory Agreement between the Firm and the client will continue in effect until terminated by either party by written notice in accordance with the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement. Upon termination, the Firm shall refund the pro-rated portion of the advanced advisory fee paid based upon the number of days remaining in the billing quarter.

Item 12 further describes the factors that we consider in selecting or recommending broker-dealers for client transactions and determining the reasonableness of their compensation (e.g., commissions).

Certain representatives, in their individual capacities, are licensed insurance agents and are compensated for the sale of insurance-related products.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

We do not charge any performance-based fees (fees based on a share of capital gains on or capital appreciation of the assets of a client).

Item 7 – Types of Clients

The Firm's clients shall generally include individuals, business entities, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates and charitable organizations. The Firm generally requires an annual account balance minimum of $25,000 for investment advisory services. The Firm, in its sole discretion, may charge a lesser investment management fee and/or reduce or waive its annual account minimum based upon certain criteria (i.e. anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, negotiations with client, etc.).

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

The Firm may utilize the following methods of security analysis:

- Charting - (analysis performed using patterns to identify current trends and trend reversals to forecast the direction of prices)
- Fundamental - (analysis performed on historical and present data, with the goal of making financial forecasts)
- Technical – (analysis performed on historical and present data, focusing on price and trade volume, to forecast the direction of prices)

The Firm may utilize the following investment strategies when implementing investment advice given to clients:

- Long Term Purchases (securities held at least a year)
- Short Term Purchases (securities sold within a year)
- Trading (securities sold within thirty (30) days)
- Margin Transactions (use of borrowed assets to purchase financial instruments)
- Options (contract for the purchase or sale of a security at a predetermined price during a specific period of time)

Please Note: Investment Risk. Investing in securities involves risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear. Different types of investments involve varying degrees of risk, and it should not be assumed that future performance of any specific investment or investment strategy (including the investments and/or investment strategies recommended or undertaken by the Firm) will be profitable or equal any specific performance level(s).

The Firm's methods of analysis and investment strategies do not present any significant or unusual risks. However, every method of analysis has its own inherent risks. To perform an accurate market analysis the Firm must have access to current/new market information. The Firm has no control over the dissemination rate of market information; therefore, unbeknownst to the Firm, certain analyses may be compiled with outdated market information, severely limiting the value of the Firm's analysis. Furthermore, an accurate market analysis can only produce a forecast of the direction of market values. There can be no assurances that a forecasted change in market value will materialize into actionable and/or profitable investment opportunities.

Purchases and Trading are fundamental investment strategies. However, every investment strategy has its own inherent risks and limitations. For example, longer term investment strategies require a longer investment time period to allow for the strategy to potentially develop. Shorter term investment strategies require a shorter investment time period to potentially develop but, as a result of more frequent trading, may incur higher transactional costs when compared to a longer term investment strategy. Trading, an investment strategy that requires the purchase and sale of securities within a thirty (30) day investment time period, involves a very short investment time period but will incur higher transaction costs when compared to a short term investment strategy and substantially higher transaction costs than a longer term investment strategy.

In addition to the fundamental investment strategies discussed above, the Firm may also implement and/or recommend the use of margin and/or options transactions. Each of these strategies has a high level of inherent risk. (See discussion below).

Margin is an investment strategy with a high level of inherent risk. A margin transaction occurs when an investor uses borrowed assets to purchase financial instruments. The investor generally obtains the borrowed assets by using other securities as collateral for the borrowed sum. The effect of purchasing a security using margin is to magnify any gains or losses sustained by the purchase of the financial instruments on margin. Please note: To the extent that a client authorizes the use of margin, and margin is thereafter employed by the Firm in the management of the client's investment portfolio, the market value of the client's account and corresponding fee payable by the client to the Firm may be increased. As a result, in addition to understanding and assuming the additional principal risks associated with the use of margin, clients authorizing margin are advised of the potential conflict of interest whereby the client's decision to employ margin may correspondingly increase the management fee payable to the Firm. Accordingly, the decision as to whether to employ margin is left totally to the discretion of client.

The use of options transactions as an investment strategy involves a high level of inherent risk. Option transactions establish a contract between two parties concerning the buying or selling of an asset at a predetermined price during a specific period of time. During the term of the option contract, the buyer of the option gains the right to demand fulfillment by the seller. Fulfillment may take the form of either selling or purchasing a security depending upon the nature of the option contract. Generally, the purchase or the recommendation to purchase an option contract by the Firm shall be with the intent of offsetting/"hedging" a potential market risk in a client's portfolio. Please Note: Although the intent of the options-related transactions that may be implemented by the Firm is to hedge against principal risk, certain of the options-related strategies (i.e. straddles, short positions, etc), may, in and of themselves, produce principal volatility and/or risk. Thus, a client must be willing to accept these enhanced volatility and principal risks associated with such strategies. In light of these enhanced risks, client may direct the Firm, in writing, not to employ any or all such strategies for his/her/their/its accounts.

Currently, the Firm primarily allocates client investment assets among various individual equity (stocks), debt (bonds) and fixed income securities, mutual funds and/or exchange traded funds ("ETFs"), and independent investment managers on a discretionary and non-discretionary basis in accordance with the client's designated investment objective(s).

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of us or the integrity of our management. We have no information applicable to this Item.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Trust Company

We are under common control with Mariner Trust Company, LLC. Mariner Trust Company, LLC, is a state-chartered public trust company organized under the laws of South Dakota and serves to provide administrative trust services and other related services to customers of Mariner Trust Company, LLC.

Accounting Firm

We are under common control with Mariner Consulting, a Certified Public Accounting Firm, which offers accounting advice and tax preparation services. The Firm does not render accounting advice or tax preparation services to our clients; however Mariner Consulting does offer accounting advice and tax preparation services. To the extent that a client requires accounting advice and/or tax preparation services, we, if requested, will recommend the services of a Certified Public Accountant, including the services of Mariner Consulting, all of which services shall be rendered independent of the Firm pursuant to a separate agreement between the client and the Certified Public Accountant, referral or otherwise. We shall not receive any of the fees charged by any recommended Certified Public Accountant, referral or otherwise.

Insurance Company or Agency

We are under common control with Mariner Insurance Resources, LLC; ERS Insurance, Inc.; and ERS Securas LLC; duly licensed insurance agencies.

Licensed Insurance Agents

Certain of the Firm's representatives, in their individual capacities, are licensed insurance agents, and may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. As referenced in Item 4 above, clients can engage certain of Firm's representatives to effect insurance transactions on a commission basis. Conflict of Interest: The recommendation that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from the Firm's representatives. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by the Firm through other, non-affiliated insurance agents.

Real Estate Broker or Dealer

We are under common control with Mariner Real Estate Management, LLC. One of our affiliates, Ryan Anderson, is a licensed real estate broker and owner of Mariner Real Estate Management, LLC.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

We have adopted a code of ethics that sets forth the standards of conduct expected of our associated persons and requires compliance with applicable securities laws (“Code of Ethics”). In accordance with Section 204A of the Advisers Act, the Code of Ethics contains written policies reasonably designed to prevent the unlawful use of material non-public information by us or any of our associated persons. The Code of Ethics also requires that certain of our personnel (“access persons”) report their personal securities holdings and transactions and obtain pre-approval of certain investments, such as initial public offerings and limited offerings. No access person may themselves purchase or sell, directly or indirectly, any security in which the access person or an affiliate account has, or by reason of the transaction acquires, any direct or indirect beneficial ownership if the access person knows or reasonably should know that the security, at the time of the purchase or sale (i) is being considered for purchase or sale on behalf of any client account; or (ii) is being actively purchased or sold on behalf any client account.

If an access person is aware that the Firm is purchasing/selling or considering for purchase/sale any security on behalf of a client, the access person may not themselves effect a transaction in that security prior to the completion of the purchase/sale or until a decision has been made not to purchase/sell such security. This does not include transactions for accounts that are executed as part of a block trade within a managed strategy or for accounts over which the access person has no direct or indirect influence or control. Similarly, when we are selling or considering the sale of any security on behalf of a client, no access person may effect a transaction in that security prior to the completion of the sale or until a decision has been made not to sell such security. These requirements are not applicable to: (i) direct obligations of the Government of the United States; (ii) money market instruments, bankers’ acceptances, bank certificates of deposit, commercial paper, repurchase agreements and other high quality short-term debt instruments, including repurchase agreements; (iii) shares issued by money market funds; (iv) shares issued by other mutual funds that are not advised or sub-advised by the firm or its affiliates; and (v) shares issued by unit investment trusts that are invested exclusively in one or more mutual funds, none of which are funds advised or sub-advised by the firm or its affiliates.

We do not execute any principal or agency cross securities transactions for client accounts, nor do we execute cross trades between client accounts. Principal transactions are generally defined as transactions where an adviser, acting as principal for its own account or the account of an affiliated broker-dealer, buys from or sells any security to any advisory client. A principal transaction may also be deemed to have occurred if a security is crossed between an affiliated hedge fund and another client account. An agency cross transaction is generally defined as a transaction where a person acts as an investment adviser in relation to a transaction in which the investment adviser, or any person controlled by or under common control with the investment adviser, acts as broker for both the advisory client and for another person on the other side of the transaction. Agency cross transactions may arise where an adviser is dually registered as a broker-dealer or has an affiliated broker-dealer.

No supervised person may trade, either personally or on behalf of others, while in the possession of material, nonpublic information, nor may any personnel of VIA communicate material, nonpublic information to others in violation of the law. Furthermore, all access persons are required to submit information to the Chief Compliance Officer detailing all outside business activities. The Chief Compliance Officer will review and approve these activities on a case by case basis.

Our clients or prospective clients may request a copy of our Code of Ethics by contacting us at (913) 647-9700 or compliance@mariner-holdings.com.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

In the event that the client requests that the Firm recommend a broker-dealer/custodian for execution and/or custodial services (exclusive of those clients that may direct the Firm to use a specific broker-dealer/custodian), we generally recommend that investment management accounts be maintained at Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC. Prior to engaging the Firm to provide investment management services, the client will be required to enter into a formal Investment Advisory Agreement with the Firm setting forth the terms and conditions under which Firm shall manage the client's assets, and a separate custodial/clearing agreement with each designated broker-dealer/custodian.

Factors that the Firm considers in recommending Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC (or any other broker-dealer/custodian to clients) include historical relationship, financial strength, reputation, execution capabilities, pricing, research, and service. Although the commissions and/or transaction fees paid by our clients shall comply with our duty to obtain best execution, a client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where the we determine, in good faith, that the commission/transaction fee is reasonable. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer's services, including the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Accordingly, although we will seek competitive rates, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client account transactions. The brokerage commissions or transaction fees charged by the designated broker-dealer/custodian are exclusive of, and in addition to, our investment management fee. The Firm's best execution responsibility is qualified if securities that it purchases for client accounts are mutual funds that trade at net asset value as determined at the daily market close.

A retirement or ERISA plan client may direct all or part of portfolio transactions for its account through a specific broker or dealer in order to obtain goods or services on behalf of the plan. Such direction is permitted provided that the goods and services provided are reasonable expenses of the plan incurred in the ordinary course of its business for which it otherwise would be obligated and empowered to pay. ERISA prohibits directed brokerage arrangements when the goods or services purchased are not for the exclusive benefit of the plan.

Research and Additional Benefits

Although not a material consideration when determining whether to recommend that a client utilize the services of a particular broker-dealer/custodian, the Firm receives from Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC (another broker-dealer/custodian, investment platform and/or mutual fund sponsor) without cost (and/or at a discount) support services and/or products, certain of which assist us to better monitor and service client accounts maintained at such institutions. Possible support services the firm may receive include: investment-related research, pricing information and market data, software and other technology that provide access to client account data, compliance and/or practice management-related publications, discounted or gratis consulting services, discounted and/or gratis attendance at conferences, meetings, and other educational and/or social events, marketing support, computer hardware and/or software and/or other products used by the Firm in furtherance of its investment advisory business operations.

As indicated above, certain of the support services and/or products that may be received may assist the Firm in managing and administering client accounts. Others do not directly provide such assistance, but rather assist the Firm to manage and further develop its business enterprise. The Firm's clients do not pay more for investment transactions effected and/or assets maintained at Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC as a result of this arrangement. There is no corresponding commitment made by the Firm to Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC or any other entity to invest any specific amount or percentage of client assets in any specific mutual funds, securities or other investment products as a result of the above arrangement.

The Firm does not generally accept directed brokerage arrangements (when a client requires that account transactions be effected through a specific broker-dealer). In such client directed arrangements, the client will negotiate terms and arrangements for their account with that broker-dealer, and the Firm will not seek better execution services or prices from other broker-dealers or be able to "batch" the client's transactions for execution through other broker-dealers with orders for other accounts managed by the Firm. As a result, client may pay higher commissions or other transaction costs or greater spreads, or receive less favorable net prices, on transactions for the account than would otherwise be the case.

Please Note: In the event that the client directs the Firm to effect securities transactions for the client's accounts through a specific broker-dealer, the client correspondingly acknowledges that such direction may cause the accounts to incur higher commissions or transaction costs than the accounts would otherwise incur had the client determined to effect account transactions through alternative clearing arrangements that may be available through the Firm.

To the extent that the Firm provides investment management services to its clients, the transactions for each client account generally will be effected independently, unless the Firm decides to purchase or sell the same securities for several clients at approximately the same time. The Firm may (but is not obligated to) combine or "bunch" such orders to obtain best execution, to negotiate more favorable commission rates or to allocate equitably among the Firm's clients differences in prices and commissions or other transaction costs that might have been obtained had such orders been placed independently. Under this procedure, transactions will be averaged as to price and will be allocated among clients in proportion to the purchase and sale orders placed for each client account on any given day. The Firm shall not receive any additional compensation or remuneration as a result of such aggregation.

The Firm's majority owner, Mariner Wealth Advisors, LLC ("Mariner"), has entered into a custodial support services agreement with Fidelity Institutional Wealth Services ("Fidelity"), which, through Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC or National Financial Services LLC, provides execution, custodial and other services for some or all of the client accounts managed by certain Mariner affiliates, including us ("Client Accounts"). Under this agreement, Mariner, through us, provides Fidelity with certain back office, administrative, custodial support and clerical services with respect to Client Accounts ("Support Services"). Fidelity pays Mariner a fee for the provision of these Support Services. The fee is calculated based on the average daily balance of eligible client assets in Client Accounts. Eligible client assets consist primarily of client investments in non-transaction fee mutual funds other than Fidelity sponsored funds. Mariner's, and subsequently the Firm's, receipt of this compensation may create conflicts of interest in our recommending investments in eligible assets and in our choosing Fidelity to maintain Clients' Accounts.

To the extent the Firm is acting as a "Fiduciary" with respect to "Qualified Accounts" subject to "ERISA," The Firm will seek to avoid or remedy any situation where its receipt of compensation that was paid to Mariner by Fidelity for Support Services would be a prohibited transaction under "ERISA." This may entail the Firm disclaiming entitlement to such compensation or reducing its management fee by the amount of compensation received. For purposes of the foregoing, "ERISA" shall mean the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") and the applicable "ERISA-mirror provisions" of Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; "Fiduciary" shall be defined as that term is defined under ERISA; and "Qualified Accounts" shall mean accounts that constitute a retirement plan (including a 401(k) plan) or other employee benefit plan subject to ERISA, an account for a tax-qualified retirement plan (including a Keogh plan), or an individual retirement account under the Internal Revenue Code.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

We monitor portfolios as part of an ongoing process, while regular account reviews are conducted on at least a quarterly basis. For those clients to whom we provide financial planning and/or consulting services, reviews are conducted on an “as needed” basis. Such reviews are conducted by one of our wealth advisors. All investment advisory clients are encouraged to discuss their needs, goals, and objectives with us and to keep us informed of any changes thereto.

Retirement plan consulting clients and retirement plan investment advisory clients receive reviews of their pension plans for the duration of the pension consulting service. We also provide ongoing services to pension consulting clients where we meet with such clients upon their request to discuss updates to their plans, changes to their circumstances, etc.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

We have entered into certain referral agreements whereby we pay a referral fee to solicitors/introducers to another business or related party, in accordance with the requirements of Rule 206(4)-3 of the Advisers Act and any corresponding state securities law requirements. Any such referral fee shall be paid solely from our investment management fee and shall not result in any additional charge to the client. If the client is introduced to us by an unaffiliated solicitor, the client will be given, prior to or at the time of entering into any advisory contract, (1) a copy of our written disclosure statement which meets the requirements of Rule 204-3 of the Advisers Act, and (2) a copy of the solicitor's disclosure statement containing the terms and conditions of the solicitation arrangement, including compensation. Any affiliated solicitor of ours shall disclose the nature of his/her relationship to prospective clients at the time of the solicitation and will provide all prospective clients with a copy of our written disclosure statement at the time of the solicitation.

If we determine that it is appropriate based on the client's investment objectives, we will recommend affiliate investment advisers' services to manage a portion of a client's assets. These affiliate investment advisers charge fees in addition to and separate from the fees charged by VIA. Clients are advised that a conflict of interest exists to the extent we recommend affiliate investment adviser services.

If we determine that it is appropriate based on the client's investment objectives and investor status, clients are solicited to invest in investment-related limited partnerships or limited liability companies for which one of our related persons serves as the general partner or manager. These limited partnerships or limited liability companies charge fees in addition to and separate from the fees charged by VIA. Clients are advised that a conflict of interest exists to the extent we recommend these investments.

As referenced in Item 12, the Firm may receive an indirect economic benefit from Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC. The Firm, without cost (and/or at a discount), may receive support services and/or products from Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC.

Our clients do not pay more for investment transactions effected and/or assets maintained at Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC as a result of this arrangement. There is no corresponding commitment made by us to Schwab, Fidelity, Ameritrade, and/or TC or any other entity to invest any specific amount or percentage of client assets in any specific mutual funds, securities or other investment products as a result of the above arrangement.

Item 15 – Custody

VIA is deemed to have custody of client funds and securities under Rule 206(4)-2 due to its ability to debit fees directly from client accounts. Clients should receive at least quarterly statements from the broker dealer, bank or other qualified custodian that holds and maintains client's investment assets. We urge clients to carefully review such statements and compare such official custodial records to the account statements that we may provide to clients. Our statements may vary from custodial statements based on accounting procedures, reporting dates, or valuation methodologies of certain securities.

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

The client can determine to engage the Firm to provide investment advisory services on a discretionary basis or non-discretionary basis. Prior to the Firm assuming discretionary authority over a client's account, the client shall be required to execute Investment Advisory Agreement, naming the Firm as the client's attorney and agent in fact, granting the Firm full authority to buy, sell, or otherwise effect investment transactions involving the assets in the client's name found in the discretionary account.

Clients who engage the Firm on a discretionary basis may, at any time, impose restrictions, in writing, on the Firm's discretionary authority. (i.e. limit the types/amounts of particular securities purchased for their account, exclude the ability to purchase securities with an inverse relationship to the market, limit or proscribe the Firm's use of margin, etc).

For retirement plan investment advisory services, the client can determine to engage the Firm to provide investment management services on a discretionary basis as provided for in Section 3(38) of the Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"). Prior to the Firm assuming discretionary authority over the management of a Plan's assets, the client shall be required to execute an Agreement setting forth the scope of the services to be provided.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Unless the client directs otherwise in writing, the Firm is responsible for voting client proxies. However, the client shall maintain exclusive responsibility for all legal proceedings or other type events pertaining to the account assets, including, but not limited to, class action lawsuits.

The Firm votes proxies in accordance with its Proxy Voting Policy, a copy of which is available upon request. The Firm shall monitor corporate actions of individual issuers and investment companies consistent with the Firm's fiduciary duty to vote proxies in the best interests of its clients. Although the factors which the Firm will consider when determining how it will vote differ on a case by case basis, they may, but are not be limited to, include the following a review of recommendations from issuer management, shareholder proposals, cost effects of such proposals, effect on employees and executive and director compensation. With respect to individual issuers, the Firm may be solicited to vote on matters including corporate governance, adoption or amendments to compensation plans (including stock options), and matters involving social issues and corporate responsibility. With respect to investment companies (e.g., mutual funds), the Firm may be solicited to vote on matters including the approval of advisory contracts, distribution plans, and mergers. The Firm shall maintain records pertaining to proxy voting as required pursuant to Rule 204-2 (c)(2) under the Advisers Act.

Copies of Rules 206(4)-6 and 204-2(c)(2) are available upon written request. In addition, information pertaining to how the Firm voted on any specific proxy issue is also available upon written request.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Registered investment advisers are required in this Item to provide you with certain financial information or disclosures about our financial condition. We have no financial commitment that impairs our ability to meet contractual and fiduciary commitments to clients, and have not been the subject of a bankruptcy proceeding.
