Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

This section includes any legal or disciplinary events and material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of the supervised person.

Your financial advisor has additional legal or disciplinary events required to be disclosed in response to this item. There may be items that are contained on www.brokercheck.finra.org or www.adviserinfo.sec.gov that you may wish to review and consider in your evaluation of your Advisor's background.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

This section includes any relationship between the advisory business and the supervised person's other financial industry activities that creates a material conflict of interest with clients and describes the nature of the conflict and generally how it is addressed. If the supervised person is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if the supervised person is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business is disclosed below.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

This section includes details regarding if someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to the supervised person for providing advisory services. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but not the supervised person's regular salary, if any.

Item 6 - Supervision

This section explains how The Main Street Group supervises the supervised person, including how the advice the supervised person provided to clients is monitored.

The Main Street Group maintains a supervisory structure and system reasonably designed to prevent violations of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and state specific securities laws. Your Advisor's securities-related activities are supervised by an individual registered as a principal in accordance with FINRA regulations. In addition, compliance staff uses tools that monitor the advisory services provided by your financial advisor, for example, with respect to asset allocation, concentration, and account activity. Steven G. Crawford, Chief Compliance Officer – Advisory, is responsible for administering The Main Street Group policies and procedures for investment advisory activities and for regularly evaluating their effectiveness. Steven G. Crawford can be reached at (804) 270-4470.

Item 7 - Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

In addition to the events listed in Item 3 of Part 2B, if the supervised person has been involved in one of the events listed below, disclose all material facts regarding the event.
