CFP® - CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™:

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP marks are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board").

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its high standard of professional education, stringent code of conduct and standards of practice and ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements: Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university, pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination, Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience and agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct.

Individuals who become certified must complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial industry and renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Mr. Manz.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Manz is a registered representative of Lion Street Financial, LLC and a licensed insurance agent. He may offer products and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of these transactions. A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation he may earn. In order to mitigate this conflict of interest, Mr. Manz will recommend products based solely on the client's best interests. Additionally, clients are free to purchase securities and/or insurance products from any broker-dealer or insurance company and are not obligated to purchase these products through Mr. Manz.

Mr. Manz is also an associate of Cavalier Associates, an entity that processes distributions from his fixed insurance business. It has been determined that this outside business activity does not present any additional conflicts of interest not already covered above.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Manz does not receive any other economic benefit for providing advisory services in addition to advisory fees.

Item 6: Supervision

Nicholas M. Brown, Chief Compliance Officer of Granite Harbor Advisors, Inc., supervises and monitors Mr. Manz's activities on a regular basis to ensure compliance with our firm's Code of Ethics. Please contact Mr. Brown if you have any questions about Mr. Manz's brochure supplement at (832) 461-0789.

Item 7: Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Mr. Manz has not been involved in any arbitration claim alleging damages in excess of $2,500. Furthermore, he has neither been involved in nor found liable in any civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding nor has been the subject of any bankruptcy petitions.
