1. Full name of applicant exactly as stated in Item 1A of Part I of Form ADV: Cullen Investment Group, Ltd		IRS Empl. Ident. No.: 72-1088646
Item of Form (identify)	Answer
Part II, Page 5, Item 10	and dedication to excellence, our employees must possess the requisite qualifications of experience, education, intelligence, and judgment necessary to effectively serve as investment adviser professionals. In addition, every employee is expected to demonstrate the highest standards of moral and ethical conduct for continued employment with CAM. CAM has the obligation to exercise its authority for the benefit of its clients, to place the interest of its clients first, and to refrain from having outside interests that conflict with the interests of its clients. The Firm and its employees must avoid any circumstances that might adversely affect or appear to affect its duty of complete loyalty to its clients. All supervisory personnel are to ensure that CAM conducts its business with the highest level of ethical standards and in keeping with its fiduciary duties to its clients. CAM will provide a copy of the Code of Ethics to any client or prospective client upon request. The applicant has a minimum account size of $100,000 or more of assets, but may from time to time accept smaller accounts at their discretion. Applicants may charge a minimum fee for smaller accounts. The minimum fee is $1,000, but fees are negotiable.
Part II, Page 6, Item 12 (A) and (B)	A. Some accounts of the applicant will be managed on a discretionary basis. As such, discretionary agreements will be signed and at all times full disclosure will be made. Discretion is limited to selection of securities, selection of broker-dealer and negotiation of commissions. Advisor offers its services on a discretionary and non discretionary basis. Although every effort is made to contact non discretionary accounts promptly when and investment recommendation is made, the very nature of such accounts may lead to investment action being taken for discretionary accounts prior to taking the same action for non discretionary accounts. Cullen Asset Management is not responsible for the voting of proxies on behalf of clients. B. The factor considered in selecting brokers and determining the reasonableness of their commission is primarily best execution at reasonable expense. Consistent with this standard, the applicant may place trades with Cullen Investment Group, Ltd. If a client authorizes Cullen Asset Management to place trades through its affiliate, Cullen Investment Group, all trades will be passed through at cost. Cullen Asset Management generally executes its trades through Raymond James and Associates. Commission rates will be the lowest rate available to Cullen Asset Management based on its volume of activity with Raymond James. However, commission rates paid may be higher or lower than commission rates at other broker-dealers. In addition, the applicant is authorized to pay commissions to the brokers which are higher than might be charged by another qualified broker to obtain brokerage and/or research services. Pursuant to Section 28(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Cullen Asset Management, Inc. may have soft dollar arrangements whereby Cullen has the limited discretionary authority to select certain broker dealers including Raymond James who may charge commissions in excess of the lowest available commissions in recognition of the value of research products or services provided by the broker/dealer to the firm. The products or services arranged or provided by the broker/dealer in return for directing brokerage commissions to the broker/dealer may be used in making investment decisions for the clients' accounts but may or may not be used in connection with accounts that have paid commissions to the broker providing the service. With Cullen Asset Management's fiduciary duty to obtain best execution of securities transactions, the firm will make a good faith determination that the amount of commissions allocated to the broker is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research service provided by the broker. In the event that a client directs Advisor to use a particular broker or dealer, Advisor may not be authorized under those circumstances to negotiate commissions and may not be able to obtain volume discounts or best execution. In addition, under these circumstances a disparity in commission charges may exist between the commissions charged to clients who direct Advisor to use a particular broker or dealer and other clients who do not direct an Advisor to use a particular broker or dealer. From time to time, applicant may execute block trades. If client directs Advisor to use particular broker or dealer, client may not be included in block trades; therefore, client may not receive the same execution price or commission.
Part II, Page 6, Item 13 A	From time to time, applicant may invest in Class A or "Load funds" at Net Asset Value (NAV). These funds may pay a trail or 12B-1 fees. In addition, the money market accounts used for client accounts may pay 12B-1 fees. These 12B-1 fees will be paid to Cullen Asset Management in addition to the management fees on the account.
