	the nature and complexity of each client's circumstances. An estimate for total hours will be determined at the start of the advisory relationship. Up to 50% of the estimated fee may be due upon signing the advisory agreement, with the balance (based on actual hours) due upon presentation of the plan to the client. Typically the work will be presented to the client within 90 days of the contract date, provided that all information needed to prepare the work has been promptly provided by the client. ACCOUNT TERMINATION POLICY: Accounts may be terminated immediately upon receipt of a written request by the client. The client is entitled to a refund of any unused fees at the time of termination. 2. Beacon Investment Management, Inc. Mid-Atlantic Securities (MASEC) offers a strategic allocation approach with exchange traded funds through its relationship with Beacon Investment Management, Inc. (Beacon). Beacon offers advisory services and works with your Investment Advisory Representative (IAR) at MASEC to employ investment allocation, primarily in Exchange Traded Funds (ETF's). Clients are offered six strategically allocated model portfolios in the investment process, which include the following: Risk Adverse, Balanced Income, Balanced, Balanced Growth, Growth, and Aggressive Growth. The models are comprised primarily of ETF's representing major indexes, asset classes, economic sectors, industries, international geographic regions, and countries. In certain situations, client portfolios can be customized outside of the six defined model portfolios. Once invested, accounts are managed on an on-going basis and re-balanced as determined appropriate by your IAR and Beacon. Currently, the only program offered through Mid-Atlantic Securities is the fees plus commission program. Accordingly, all commissions are paid directly to the custodian, Charles Schwab, at their standard commission schedule, which is currently $8 and subject to change. Neither MASEC, Beacon, nor the IAR share in these proceeds. The advisory fee is debited in advance of service by Bacon from the client account at the beginning of each calendar quarter. ETF's have internal expenses that are paid directly to the respective fund companies. Client will maintain or deposit sufficient funds in the account to cover payment of all fees authorized by the contract, and client authorizes the firm, Beacon and/or qualified custodian to debit the account balances or redeem money market fund shares in the amount equal to the fee that is due. If there are not funds to cover the fees, then the firm may liquidate assets to cover fees. Please refer to the Beacon Part II, Schedule F for additional information related to reports provided, review process, proxy voting information, account termination procedures, disclosure of risks, and a more detailed description of the advisory program and investment process. FEE SCHEDULE AND DETIALS- Portfolio Value Annualized Rate First $ 250,000 1.250%

Raymond James Programs Mid-Atlantic Securities (MAS) has entered into an agreement with Raymond James Financial Services ("RJFS"), pursuant to which RJFS provides advisory and/or other services with respect to the Programs summarized in this brochure. Clients of investment advisory accounts described herein are Clients of MAS. RJFS provides advisory and/or other services to MAS with respect to all of the programs, but provides investment advice that is tailored to the needs of a particular Client. Unless otherwise specified, the Clearing Agent will maintain custody of Client assets. The Clearing Agent qualifies as a "qualified custodian" as described by Rule 206(4)-2 of the Investment Advisers Act. A full description of all services is provided in the account services agreement. For a description of the fees, please see the fee disclosures below. All fees are separate fees and paid directly to the program sponsor, who then remits a portion of the fee to MAS. The wrap fee programs sponsored by Raymond James & Associates, Inc. (Raymond James) through its Asset Management Services and Raymond James Consulting Services Divisions provide discretionary or non-discretionary investment advisory services to clients that choose one or more of the programs described below.

	FEE DETAILS Fees are not deemed to be separate fees for this service. All fees listed above are charged in advance of service. Fee schedules are all listed above for respective programs. Fees are based on the value of account is calculated as the total market value of the account as shown on the client custodial statement. Although the fees listed above are “default” fees, they may, in some circumstances, be negotiable. If the firm is assessed a transactions fee or custody and clearing fee, such fee may be passed on to the client at cost. The initial fee payment is due in full on the date the client’s account is accepted and opened (the “Opening Date”) and will be based on the asset value of the account on that date. The period for which such payment will be made under the MAS program will run from the Opening Date through the last day of the next full calendar quarter (the “Initial Fee Period”) and will be prorated as appropriate. Thereafter, the quarterly fee is based on the Program account asset value on the last day of the previous calendar quarter and is payable quarterly in advance of service. Client will maintain or deposit sufficient funds in the account to cover payment of all fees authorized by the contract, and client authorizes Raymond James to debit the account balances or redeem money market fund shares in the amount equal to the fee that is due. Raymond James will remit a portion of the fee to MAS. If there are not funds to cover the fees, then the firm may liquidate assets to cover fees. Although MAS believes its fees are reasonable in light of the services provided, clients should be aware that such fees may be more or less than the fees and commissions associated with brokerage services purchased separately. The comparison is dependent upon a number of factors, including the frequency of brokerage activity in the client’s account, the size of the account under management, and any negotiated fee arrangements with respect to the account. ACCOUNT TERMINATION LANGUAGE A full refund will be provided without penalty if the client terminates the contract within 5 business days of signing with the Company. Accounts may be terminated immediately upon receipt of a written request by the client. The client is entitled to a refund of any unused fees at the time of termination. Upon written receipt of notice to terminate its Client Agreement with any of MAS investment advisory Programs, and unless specific transfer instructions are received, MAS and its agent will, in an orderly and efficient manner, proceed with liquidation of the Client’s account. There will not be a charge by us for such redemption; however, the Client should be aware that certain mutual funds impose redemption fees as stated in each company’s fund prospectus in certain circumstances. Clients must keep in mind that the decision to liquidate security issues or mutual funds may result in tax consequences that should be discussed with the client’s tax advisor. Factors that may affect the orderly and efficient manner would be size and types of issues, liquidity of the markets, and market makers’ abilities. Should the necessary securities’ markets be unavailable and trading suspended, efforts to trade will be done as soon as

Our employees have limited access to your personal information based on their responsibilities to provide products or services to you. Be assured that we maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards in compliance with federal standards to protect your information. If our representative servicing your account leaves us to join another firm, he/she is permitted to retain copies of your information so that he or she can assist with the transfer of your account and continue to serve you at their new firm. "Opting-out" of Third Party Disclosures: If you do not want your account representative to retain copies of your client sensitive information when he or she leaves us to join another firm, you may contact our Compliance Department by calling 1 (919) 783-7787.
