Such alternative investments may also incur operating fees and expenses. These fees are disclosed in the prospectus or offering documents of the investments. Brinker Capital's fee is calculated quarterly based on the market value of a client's assets and is either paid through redemption of mutual fund shares or deducted from the client's separately managed accounts, based on the weighted average of the managed account market values.

Clients who participate in the Personal Portfolios program pay a program fee, which covers the investment advisory services provided by Brinker Capital and the portfolio manager(s), all custodial services and brokerage commissions, and the portfolio implementation and coordination services provided by the coordinating sub-adviser. Brinker Capital's program fee for the Personal Portfolios program is based upon the investment strategy selected by the client (which reflects the allocation between equities and fixed income assets) and the size of client's account. The program fees range from 0.45% to 1.05% for the conservative capital preservation model and from 0.85% to 1.15% for moderately aggressive to aggressive models. The program fee is not negotiable. However, in certain circumstances, accounts with assets in excess of $5 million, fees may be discounted. For accounts using the tax transition features, the fee ranges from 0.90% to 1.05% for the growth and income models and from 0.90% to 1.00% for an all equity growth model.

Clients who participate in the Crystal Strategies program pay a program fee and each component of Brinker's services is priced based upon the size of the account, investment vehicles and portfolio manager(s) (if any) selected. The resulting annual all inclusive fee calculated on account value consists of the following: Brinker's fee for managing the account, including the selection, purchase and sale of investment vehicles, selection of portfolio managers and implementation of investment strategies. Brinker receives an annual fee of equal to a percentage of account value: 0.60% for Crystal Strategy I and 0.50% for Crystal Diversified Income. The base brokerage, clearing and custody charges are a percentage of account value and tiered based upon account size. Fees for Crystal Strategy I start at 0.23% for the first $250,000 and decline to 0.05% for assets in excess of $5 million, with a minimum annual charge of $350. Fees for Crystal Diversified Income start at 0.15% for the first $250,000 and decline to 0.05% for assets in excess of $5 million, with a minimum annual charge of $200 for equity and balanced accounts, the average annual fee is 0.50% of the portion of the account allocated to a separate portfolio manager. Actual fees may range from 0.40% to 1.00% of account value, depending on the portfolio manager selected and the size of the account. For fixed income accounts, the average annual fee is 0.35% of account value. Actual fees may be higher or lower (depending on the portfolio manager selected and the size of the account) and are passed through to the client. This fee is only charged if, and to the extent, any portion of the client's account is allocated to a portfolio manager. There is no separate investment management fee component for the portion of the assets (if any) invested in mutual funds, ETFs and other pooled investment vehicles.

Clients who participate in the Personal Benchmark Program pay a program fee, which covers all investment advisory services provided by Brinker Capital, all custodial services and brokerage commissions, and the portfolio implementation and coordination services provided by the coordinating sub-adviser and style managers. Brinker Capital's fee is 0.70% for accounts under $500,000, 0.65% for accounts between $500,000 and $750,000, 0.60% for accounts between $750,000 and $1 million, and 0.55% for accounts $1 million or more.

Client fees for the Retirement Services Program are paid in arrears based on the plan's account value as of the last business day of the quarter. Brinker's maximum annual fee is 1.25% and does not include any fees charged by Administrator.

Brinker Capital may recommend the use of managed separate accounts, registered mutual funds or ETFs depending on their suitability and the overall benefits each may provide to the particular allocation. Mutual funds and ETFs incur management fees and other operating fees and expenses as disclosed in the prospectuses for such funds. These fees and expenses are in addition to Brinker Capital's program fee.

The fee schedule may be changed by Brinker Capital provided they inform the client of the changes 30 days prior to the change of the fee schedule. The above Brinker Capital program fees do not include the solicitor's fee, which is negotiable and is equal to a percentage of the net asset value of clients account. The solicitor's fee is determined by the soliciting SII IAR and fall generally within a range of 0.20% to 2.00%.

Fees are payable on the opening of the account (with the exception of Retirement Plan Services), based on the market value of the client's account assets when the account is opened and prorated for the number of days remaining in the calendar quarter. From then on, the quarterly fee is paid in advance, based on the market value of the account as of the last business day of the previous calendar quarter, and is due the following business day. A pro-rata portion of any prepaid fees will be returned on termination of the client's Investment Advisory Agreement. The final fee amount will be based on the account value at the time the account is closed. The client will be entitled to a prorated refund of any pre-paid quarterly fee based upon the number of days remaining in the quarter after the termination date.

Curian Capital, LLC

Clients in the Curian Capital, LLC's ("Curian") Program will pay an all-inclusive fee ("total program fee") that consists of two parts, a program fee and the financial professional fee ("solicitor's fee"). The Curian fees are for certain program services, the Model Manager's services in managing their respective Model Manager Portfolios, and clearing costs associated with securities transaction execution, clearing and custody services on Program Account assets, except with respect to direct trades, and assets held in non-Program cash management account options. Please see Curian Capital's Wrap Fee Program Brochure for more specific information regarding the fees and expenses associated with Curian's programs.

The total program fee is assessed monthly in arrears and is based on the average daily market value of the assets in the client's account. This fee is due on the first day of the month following establishment of the Client's account and will be deducted from the Client's account after it becomes due. The day fees are deducted may vary to accommodate trading activity that may be occurring. If the client's account is closed during a month the total program fee will be adjusted on a pro rata basis to reflect only those days in which the Client's account was invested.

Item 8. Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Below please find descriptions of the methods of analysis for investment advice that is furnished by SFS investment advisor representatives (“IARs”). SFS IARs may rely on research services of various money managers, corporate press releases and annual reports, SEC filings, corporate rating services, prospectuses and financial industry periodicals when making recommendations.

For additional specific information regarding the methods of analysis or investment strategies used by the third-party asset management firms mentioned below, please see the Form ADV Part 2A of the respective third party asset management firms.

Managed Account Programs

Advisor Solutions

In the Guided Pathways, UMA, and SMA programs, the client provides the IAR with information regarding investment objectives, investment time horizon, risk tolerance and other relevant information. The IAR then inputs this information into Envestnet Asset Management’s proprietary investment allocation system, which in turn provides the client and the IAR with a number of investment options that have been determined to be appropriate choices for the client. To make this determination, Envestnet Asset Management, evaluates available investments based on their proprietary criteria.

In the Advisory Pathways program, the client provides the IAR with information regarding investment objectives, financial needs, investment time horizon, risk tolerance and other relevant information. The IAR inputs this information into the Envestnet platform to build a model portfolio for the client, recommend an appropriate asset allocation among the investment options in the Program and select appropriate investment vehicles for the Client’s account coinciding with the Client’s risk tolerance parameters.

Advisor Directed

In the Advisor Directed program, the client provides the IAR with information regarding investment objectives, investment time horizon, risk tolerance and other relevant information. The IAR then completes a risk tolerance questionnaire to determine the appropriate asset allocation to recommend to the client. The IAR then builds and/or uses an existing model for the client’s account coinciding with the Client’s risk tolerance parameters.

AssetMark

For AssetMark programs, the client provides SFS with information about investment objectives, financial needs, investment time horizon, risk tolerance and other relevant information. SFS then furnishes the information to AssetMark through AssetMark’s proprietary proposal system or by contacting AssetMark directly. AssetMark will then propose an overall strategy that includes asset allocation and investment style recommendations.

Please see AssetMark’s Form ADV Part 2A for more information about AssetMark’s specific methods of analysis and investment strategies.

SEI Asset Management Program

For the SEI Private Mutual Fund Models Program, the IAR will assist the client in selecting a specific asset allocation portfolio appropriate for the client by discussing the various levels of risk and by helping the client complete a questionnaire. The questionnaire helps the IAR learn specific information about the client including but not limited to the client's annual income, net worth, long-term goals and investment objectives. This information is furnished to SEI who constructs and maintains asset allocation portfolios comprised of SEI mutual funds.

For the SEI Managed Account Program, the IAR will assist the client in completing a questionnaire that will identify specific information about the client's financial situation. The information including but not limited to the client's annual income net worth, long-term goals and investment objectives is provided to SEI. SEI then recommends one or more sub-advisers to manage individual portfolios of stocks and bonds based on a specific investment style. The SFS IAR with the client then chooses the sub-adviser(s) from the SEI recommendations.

Please see SEI's Form ADV Part 2A for more information about SEI's specific methods of analysis and investment strategies.

Solicitation Arrangements

Brinker Capital

For the programs offered by Brinker Capital, the client provides SFS with information about investment objectives, financial needs, investment time horizon, risk tolerance and other relevant information. SFS then furnishes the information to Brinker through Brinker's proprietary proposal system or by contacting Brinker directly. Brinker will then propose an overall strategy that includes asset allocation and investment style recommendations.

Please see Brinker Capital's Form ADV Part 2A for more information about Brinker Capital's specific methods of analysis and investment strategies.

Curian Capital, LLC

For the programs offered by Curian Capital, LLC ("Curian"), the client provides SFS with information about investment objectives, financial needs, investment time horizon, risk tolerance and other relevant information. SFS then furnishes the information to Curian through Curian's proprietary proposal system. Curian will then propose an overall strategy that includes asset allocation and investment style recommendations.

Please see Curian Capital, LLC's Wrap Fee Program Brochure for more information about Curian Capital's specific methods of analysis and investment strategies.

The Pacific Financial Group, INC

For the program offered by the Pacific Financial Group, INC, the client provides SFS with information about investment objectives, financial needs, investment time horizon, risk tolerance and other relevant information. SFS then furnishes the information to the Pacific Financial Group, INC who will then propose an overall strategy that includes asset allocation and investment style recommendations.

Please see the Pacific Financial Group, INC's Form ADV Part 2A for more information about the Pacific Financial Group, INC's specific methods of analysis and investment strategies.

Risk of Loss

Investments are subject to various market, political, currency, economic, business and other risks, and may not always be profitable. All investment programs carry the risk of loss and there is no guarantee that any investment strategy will meet its objective. Certain strategies, methods of analysis and underlying securities may carry more risk than others. SFS does not develop the investment strategies offered by the third-party asset management firms.

The material risks associated with the financial plans are (1) that the generic recommendations are derived from historical data and forward looking assumptions that may not continue in the future or may not completely or accurately capture all the possible scenarios of future financial markets, and (2) asset allocations may not be optimal as market environments continue to evolve.

The projections and simulations are based on a variety of assumptions that may prove, in the future, to be erroneous. The results that clients obtain may vary significantly from the projections. In addition, the results of the simulation may under-compensate or over-compensate for the impact, if any, of certain market factors and may underestimate the impact of market extremes and the related risk of loss.

For additional specific information regarding the risk of loss associated with investment strategies, methods of analysis and underlying securities used by the third-party asset management firms mentioned above please see the Form ADV Part 2A of the respective third party asset management firm.

Item 9.Disciplinary Information

There are currently no pending legal or disciplinary events that SFS deems to be material to a client's evaluation of its advisory services or the integrity of its management. More information about SFS can be found at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 10.Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Other Financial Activities

Signator Financial Services ("SFS") is a registered investment adviser with the SEC. SFS is also a broker/dealer registered with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and an insurance agency. SFS' principal business is that of a registered broker/dealer offering securities including mutual funds and variable insurance products. SFS is wholly owned by John Hancock Financial Network, Inc. John Hancock Financial Network is wholly owned by John Hancock Life Insurance Company (U.S. A.), which is ultimately owned by Manulife Financial Corporation.

IARs may affect securities transactions for clients as Registered Representatives of SFS' broker/dealer and as such, receive commissions for those activities. Products sold may include variable insurance products offered by SFS's affiliates. Commissions for transactions through SFS' broker/dealer are separate from, and may be in addition to, fees charged by SFS for any investment advisory services provided to those clients. Clients have the option of purchasing the investment product recommended by their IAR through other brokers, not affiliated with SFS.

Affiliations

There are a group of SFS employees that are dual registered representatives and IARs with Signator Investors, Inc. ("SII") an affiliated registered broker dealer and investment adviser. These SFS employees provide services to SII. SII does not pay any direct compensation to the SFS employees so there is no explicit incentive for the SFS employees to provide services to SII over SFS.

Item 11.Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Code of Ethics

SFS is responsible for ensuring compliance with Rule 204A-1 of the Advisers Act, which requires a registered investment adviser to establish, maintain and enforce a written code of ethics. Consistent with this obligation, SFS has adopted a Code of Ethics that, at a minimum, seeks to promote compliance with fiduciary standards and the means to address conflicts of interest arising from the personal securities transactions of its employees and its IARs. The Code of Ethics describes the standards of conduct that is expected of its employees and IARs. A copy of SFS's Code of Ethics is available to clients upon request.

Item 12.Brokerage Practices

IARs may affect securities transactions for clients as Registered Representatives of SFS' broker/dealer and as such, receive commissions for those activities. Commissions for transactions through SFS' broker/dealer are separate from, and may be in addition to, fees charged by SFS for any investment advisory services provided to those clients. Clients have the option of purchasing the investment product recommended by their IAR through other brokers not affiliated with SFS.

SFS participates in the institutional adviser program (the Program) offered by TD Ameritrade Institutional. TD Ameritrade Institutional is a division of TD Ameritrade Inc., member FINRA/SIPC/NFA (TD Ameritrade), an unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealer and FINRA member. TD Ameritrade offers to independent investment advisors services which include custody of securities, trade execution, clearance and settlement of transactions. SFS receives some benefits from TD Ameritrade through its participation in the Program.

As disclosed above, SFS participates in TD Ameritrade's institutional customer program and SFS may recommend TD Ameritrade to clients for custody and brokerage services. There is no direct link between SFS' participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its clients, although SFS receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD Ameritrade retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving SFS participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to client accounts); the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to SFS by third party vendors. TD Ameritrade may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by SFS' related persons. Some of the products and services made available by TD Ameritrade through the program may benefit SFS but may not benefit its client accounts. These products or services may assist SFS in managing and administering client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD Ameritrade. Other services made available by TD Ameritrade are intended to help SFS manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by SFS or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD Ameritrade. As part of its fiduciary duties to clients, SFS endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by SFS or its related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence SFS' choice of TD Ameritrade for custody and brokerage services.

Advisor Solutions Program

Advisor Solutions program accounts are established with either Pershing, LLC. or TD Ameritrade Institutional. Certain trades for the Advisor Solutions Program accounts are entered by SFS' IARs and routed through SFS' trade desk for execution at either Pershing LLC. or TD Ameritrade. The trades executed through SFS' trade desk are not aggregated so each client account will receive an individual execution price that may be lower or higher than other clients trading the same security. SFS acknowledges that by directing brokerage, clients may not receive best execution on transactions for their accounts. SFS does not receive client referrals from any of its directed brokerage arrangements. Sub-Managers of the separately managed accounts will have the authority to effect transactions for SFS' accounts with or through another broker, dealer or bank if the Sub-Manager believes that "best execution" of transactions may be obtained through such other broker, dealer or bank, including any broker-dealer that is affiliated with the Advisor or Sub-Manager. Please see Envestnet Portfolio Solutions' Form ADV Part 2A for more information regarding Envestnet Portfolio Solutions' brokerage practices.

Item 13. Review of Accounts

Review of Managed Accounts

SFS reviews a sample of its managed client accounts on a quarterly basis. The managed client accounts are reviewed to proactively identify any potential account irregularities.

To conduct its review of accounts, SFS selects a sample of accounts and acquires specific account information and documentation that is examined during the review. After the review is completed a report of findings are presented to various members of the SFS management team. Findings are reviewed and addressed to make certain that issues are addressed in a timely manner. These reports are not issued to the respective account owners. If SFS becomes aware of a matter that requires the client's attention in order to resolve, SFS will promptly notify the client.

SFS IARs meet at least annually with the clients to determine if there have been any changes to stated needs and objectives, or if there have been any significant changes in their financial situation that would warrant a change to the way their account is invested. Clients are encouraged to contact the IAR when these changes occur.

Clients invested under the SFS managed account programs receive monthly or quarterly written custodial statements. Quarterly performance reports are printed and sent from the respective programs.

Item 14. Client Referrals and Other Compensation

IARs may act as Solicitors under some programs. Solicitors are individuals who introduce clients to an investment adviser with which the solicitor is not affiliated. Solicitor's arrangements allow the individual to receive compensation for referring a client. The compensation paid to a solicitor is a portion of the advisory fee paid by the client. All solicitation arrangements must be pre-approved by SFS.

SFS IARs have the ability to refer, or "solicit," clients to other investment advisers. IARs can solicit advisory business for both affiliated investment advisers and unaffiliated investment advisers. Unaffiliated investment advisers must be approved by us before any IARs are permitted to refer clients to them. If IARs are soliciting advisory business for any investment adviser, this will be disclosed to you through a disclosure statement and a written acknowledgement. The investment advisers that we solicit for provide a variety of management services, as outlined in each investment adviser's disclosure brochure. In general, they provide management strategies and investment models to advisory clients. The investment adviser will pay a portion of the advisory fee, as disclosed in the written acknowledgement, to SFS for soliciting clients. SFS will share a portion of this fee with the client's IAR. In exchange for this fee, the IAR is providing services including investor profiling, selection of managers, and ongoing account monitoring.

Item 15. Custodial Arrangements

Advisor Solutions Program

Neither SFS nor Envestnet Asset Management will maintain custody of account holdings owned by each client. Clearing and custody services are performed by either TD Ameritrade (TDA) or Pershing, LLC (Pershing). Administrative fees and the investment choices offered by each Custodian may differ. Clients should discuss the various services offered by each Custodian as well as the potential fees associated with each with their IAR in order to select the Custodian that best fits their needs. Each client will be the registered owner of his or her shares held by TDA or Pershing. SFS and Envestnet Portfolio Solutions have a type of custody because they may instruct TDA or Pershing to directly charge quarterly and pro-rated quarterly fees, as needed, and may deduct funds to cover such fees without separate authorization from the client. Monthly custodial statements are prepared and delivered to the client by either TDA or Pershing. Quarterly Performance Reports are generated by Envestnet Asset Management and delivered to the client by Signator Financial Services, Inc. Clients are encouraged to carefully review the information contained in the statements and to promptly report any discrepancies.

Advisor Directed Program

Neither SFS nor Envestnet Asset Management will maintain custody of account holdings owned by each client. Clearing and custody services are performed by either TD Ameritrade (TDA) or Pershing, LLC (Pershing). Administrative fees and the investment choices offered by each Custodian may differ. Clients should discuss the various services offered by each Custodian as well as the potential fees associated with each with their IAR in order to select the Custodian that best fits their needs. Each client will be the registered owner of his or her shares held by TDA or Pershing. SFS and Envestnet Asset Management have a type of custody because they may instruct TDA or Pershing to directly charge quarterly and pro-rated quarterly fees, as needed, and may deduct funds to cover such fees without separate authorization from the client. Monthly custodial statements are prepared and delivered to the client by either TDA or Pershing. Quarterly Performance Reports are generated by Envestnet Asset Management and delivered to the client by Signator Financial Services, Inc. Clients are encouraged to carefully review the information contained in the statements and to promptly report any discrepancies.
