Item 2 – Educational Background and Business Experience

For each employee, this information is provided on the subsequent pages: name, year of birth, formal education after high school, and five years of business background, including titles. Designations are required to be accompanied by a description of the minimum qualifications required to obtain the designation. The following paragraph describes the minimum qualifications for the “CFA” designation of certain RLAM employees:

“To earn a CFA charter, you must have four years of qualified investment work experience, become a member of CFA Institute, pledge to adhere to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct on an annual basis, apply for membership to a local CFA member society, and complete the CFA Program. The CFA Program is organized into three levels, each culminating in a six-hour exam. Completing the Program takes most candidates between two and five years. The Program reflects a broad Candidate Body of Knowledge[™] (CBOK) developed and continuously updated by active practitioners to ensure that charter holders possess knowledge grounded in the real world of today’s global investment industry.”

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

RLAM has not had to take any disciplinary action as it relates to its employees, clients or regulatory agencies.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

The individuals identified herein have no outside business activities.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation
