Chris Cordova Part 2B Brochure Supplement

Chris Cordova is independently licensed to sell insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies. When acting in this capacity, Chris Cordova will receive commissions for selling insurance and annuity products.

Chris Cordova may also receive other incentive awards for the recommendation/sale of annuities and other insurance products. The receipt of compensation and other incentive benefits may affect the judgment of Chris Cordova when recommending products to its clients. While Chris Cordova endeavors at all times to put the interest of his clients first as a part of Elevated Capital Advisors' overall fiduciary duty to clients, clients should be aware that the receipt of commissions and additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect Chris Cordova's decision-making process when making recommendations.

Clients are never obligated or required to purchase insurance products from or through Chris Cordova and may choose any independent insurance agent and insurance company to purchase insurance products. Regardless of the insurance agent selected, the insurance agent or agency will receive normal commissions from the sale.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

In addition to the description of additional compensation provided in Item 4, Chris Cordova can receive additional benefits.

The economic benefits received by Chris Cordova from product sponsors can include but are not limited to, financial assistance or the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Chris Cordova in providing various services to clients.

Although Elevated Capital Advisors and Chris Cordova endeavor at all times to put the interest of its clients ahead of its own or those of its officers, directors, or representatives ("affiliated persons"), these arrangements could affect the judgment of Chris Cordova when recommending investment products. These situations present a conflict of interest that may affect the judgment of affiliated persons including Chris Cordova.
