The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certification is obtained by completing an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services. Candidates must pass a comprehensive certification exam (administered in 10 hours over a 2 day period) and agreeing to be bound by the CFP board's standard of professional conduct. As a prerequisite the candidate must have a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or foreign university equivalent) and have at least 3 years of full time financial planning experience (or equivalent measured at 2,000 hours per year). This designation requires 30 hours of continuing education every 2 years and renewing an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct.

The CHARTERED RETIREMENT PLANNING COUNSELOR is offered by The College for Financial Planning®. The CRPC Program focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals. Enrollment in the program guides you through the retirement process, addressing issues such as estate planning and asset management. The College for Financial Planning® awards the Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM and CRPC® designation to students who: successfully complete the program; pass the final examination; and comply with the Code of Ethics, which includes agreeing to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct promulgated by The College for Financial Planning®.

Applicants must also disclose of any criminal, civil, self-regulatory organization, or governmental agency inquiry, investigation, or proceeding relating to their professional or business conduct. Conferment of the designation is contingent upon the College for Financial Planning's review of matters either self-disclosed or which are discovered by the College that are required to be disclosed.

Successful students receive a certificate and are granted the right to use the designation on correspondence and business cards for a two-year period.

Continued use of the CRPC® designation is subject to ongoing renewal requirements. Every two years individuals must renew their right to continue using the CRPC® designation by: completing 16 hours of continuing education and reaffirming to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct, Terms and Conditions, and self-disclose any criminal, civil, self-regulatory organization, or governmental agency inquiry, investigation, or proceeding relating to their professional or business conduct.

The REGISTERED FINANCIAL CONSULTANT designation is the undisputed professional credential for persons in the field of financial planning. The designation is awarded by the International Association of Registered Financial Consultants (IARFC) to those financial advisors who can meet the high standards of education, experience and integrity that are required of all its members.

Candidates are required to complete a self-study process to attain the RFC® designation. The preparation curriculum consists of ten volumes mirroring that of the CFP® preparation. At the completion of the self-study process, candidates are required to take an untimed, 150-question multiple choice exam.

Candidates must have either attained a professional designation (i.e. CLU®, ChFC®, and CFP®), or have earned a baccalaureate or graduate degree in financial planning; this granting institution must offer an IARFC-approved or CFP equivalent college curriculum and be an accredited college or university, met four years of experience, providing evidence of having met license requirements for securities plus life and health insurance, or submits RIA affiliation information, must have a sound record of business integrity with no suspensions or revocation of any professional license and subscribe to the IARFC Code of Ethics. Designees must also agree to devote a minimum of 40 hours per year to continuing professional education in the field of personal finance and professional practice management.
