Educational, Background and Business Experience

Year of birth: 1965

High School graduate: Yes

Level of post secondary education: BA in Business from the University of Richmond and an MBA from Johns Hopkins University. He has achieved the designation of Certified Financial Planner (CFP®).

Business Experience

- Financial Advisor of Chapin Davis Asset Management, and a registered representative of Chapin Davis, Inc., registered broker-dealer and Member FINRA/SIPC, since 2009
- Registered Representative of Merrill Lynch in Baltimore, MD from 2005 – 2009

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) professional certification is granted by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients.

To attain the right to use the CFP® mark, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill certain requirements, including a college education, passing a two-day examination, completing at least three years of financial planning-related experience, and agreeing to be bound by the CFP® Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® mark.
